

THE OMAHA DAILY BEE: SATURDAY, JANUARY 14, 1893.

Mr. Vilas spoke in explanation and sup-port of his amendment, and denied that it would defeat the object of the bill-which to suppress iniquitous contracts, not legitimate contracts.

Mr. Fugh, democrat, from Alabama, remarked that the testimony taken by the committee established beyond question that at least 90 per cent of the "future" contracts nade in New York and New Orleans during the last twenty years were fictitious sales; and yet they would be protected by the pending amendment. Mr Hill, democrat, from New York, asked

Mr. Fugh why the question of intention should not be passed upon by a court and jury in these cases, as in all other cases.

Mr. Pugh replied that in every case where that issue had been made the testimony showed that the intent to deliver existed ad enter ' into the contract. Mr. Voornees replied to Mr. Hill and said that it was triffing with the English language to suggest that, while 30,000,000 bales of cotton were sold when only 7,000,000 bales were in existence, the question of in-tention in such cases be submitted to a court and jury.

Weakness of Voorhees' Argument.

Mr. Gray, democrat, from Delaware, pointed out, as an illustration of the weakness of Mr, Voorhees' argument, that a day's transactions in the money centers of the country aggregated a hundred times more silver and gold dollars than were in circula-tion. The same reasons that would apply to cotton and wheat would apply just as well

After further discussion the amendment went over without action.

Mr. Wilson, republican, from Iowa, offered a resolution, which was agreed to, calling on the secretary of the treasury for a copy of the opinion of the law officer of his depart-ment, under which he is disbursing the -5,000,000 souvenir coins in aid of the Columeian exposition, conditioned on Sunday clos

Republican Members Resort to Filibustering Tactics for a While.

WASHINGTON, D. C., Jan. 13 .- In the house today Mr. Richardson, democrat, from Tennessee, from the committee on printing, reported a concurrent resolution for the printing of 60,000,000 copies of the report of the Agricultural department on the sheep industry and on the diseases of cattle for distrisenators and representatives.

Mr. Richardson had read by the clerk the following slip, which, he said, was inserted in some of the books sent out by the Agri-cultural department: "This book is mailed to you by J. M. Rusk, secretary of agriculture
