

THE DAILY BEE.

E. ROEWATER, Editor. PUBLISHED EVERY MORNING. TERMS OF SUBSCRIPTION...

THURSTON'S WITHDRAWAL.

The following letter has been handed to THE BEE for publication: OMAHA, Jan. 22.—To My Republican Friends...

PROHIBITION IN SOUTH DAKOTA.

The problem of regulating and licensing the sale of liquor is running a close race with the divorce question...

RAISING RICE IN NEBRASKA.

Ed Perkins tells how it could be done with Great Profit. "All last summer," said Ed Perkins...

Muzzling the Watchdog.

Economist Holman is trying to abolish the Washington zoological garden. Mr. Holman doesn't want any more curious animals than himself at the capital.

Cures for Republican Ills.

Turn the bosses out. Let the people in. If this is done here and elsewhere the party will march to victory in 1896.

Where Reform is Needed.

The new governor of Kansas is particularly severe in his denunciation of "the rich who ride in their golden carriages. And we who are poor, we must get out of them who persist in riding in a circus-parade chariot that should be treated for paresis."

THE FUTURE OF SILVER.

President Andrews of Brown university is one of the American delegates to the international monetary conference.

OPPOSING NATIONAL QUARANTINE.

A formidable opposition to national quarantine has developed in the house of representatives, and the advocates of that system are said to be apprehensive of defeat in the lower branch of congress.

the response to popular clamor, accorded by popular superstition and popular fear. They are unavailing, because all experience foreign and domestic, proves the futility of quarantines of exclusion and sanitary cordons between states and communities on the same continent.

The effect upon the public mind of establishing national quarantine would be salutary, and this is by no means an unimportant consideration. Popular confidence in the protection provided against the introduction of disease is very essential from a practical point of view, for people will not travel if they apprehend danger of being exposed to contagion or infection.

MEKELGIAN'S RHEUMATISM.

Congressman McKelgihan has a grievance against THE BEE for making the statement that he has lately been under the influence of liquor.

Muzzling the Watchdog.

Economist Holman is trying to abolish the Washington zoological garden. Mr. Holman doesn't want any more curious animals than himself at the capital.

Cures for Republican Ills.

Turn the bosses out. Let the people in. If this is done here and elsewhere the party will march to victory in 1896.

Where Reform is Needed.

The new governor of Kansas is particularly severe in his denunciation of "the rich who ride in their golden carriages. And we who are poor, we must get out of them who persist in riding in a circus-parade chariot that should be treated for paresis."

THE FUTURE OF SILVER.

President Andrews of Brown university is one of the American delegates to the international monetary conference.

OPPOSING NATIONAL QUARANTINE.

A formidable opposition to national quarantine has developed in the house of representatives, and the advocates of that system are said to be apprehensive of defeat in the lower branch of congress.

will reach a vote in congress. There is a difference of opinion as to what would be the fate of the bill if it should come up in the senate, but there is no doubt that the opposition is strong enough to keep the subject in discussion until the session ends, and this it has determined to do.

The full name of the new populist governor of Kansas is Loraine Demosthenes Lewelling.

PROHIBITION IN SOUTH DAKOTA.

The problem of regulating and licensing the sale of liquor is running a close race with the divorce question in the legislature of South Dakota.

RAISING RICE IN NEBRASKA.

Ed Perkins tells how it could be done with Great Profit. "All last summer," said Ed Perkins...

Muzzling the Watchdog.

Economist Holman is trying to abolish the Washington zoological garden. Mr. Holman doesn't want any more curious animals than himself at the capital.

Cures for Republican Ills.

Turn the bosses out. Let the people in. If this is done here and elsewhere the party will march to victory in 1896.

Where Reform is Needed.

The new governor of Kansas is particularly severe in his denunciation of "the rich who ride in their golden carriages. And we who are poor, we must get out of them who persist in riding in a circus-parade chariot that should be treated for paresis."

THE FUTURE OF SILVER.

President Andrews of Brown university is one of the American delegates to the international monetary conference.

OPPOSING NATIONAL QUARANTINE.

A formidable opposition to national quarantine has developed in the house of representatives, and the advocates of that system are said to be apprehensive of defeat in the lower branch of congress.

come to stay and let us make it as perfect as possible. Friend Telegraph: Three bills for the regulation of the telephone monopoly have been passed before the legislature.

The full name of the new populist governor of Kansas is Loraine Demosthenes Lewelling.

PROHIBITION IN SOUTH DAKOTA.

The problem of regulating and licensing the sale of liquor is running a close race with the divorce question in the legislature of South Dakota.

RAISING RICE IN NEBRASKA.

Ed Perkins tells how it could be done with Great Profit. "All last summer," said Ed Perkins...

Muzzling the Watchdog.

Economist Holman is trying to abolish the Washington zoological garden. Mr. Holman doesn't want any more curious animals than himself at the capital.

Cures for Republican Ills.

Turn the bosses out. Let the people in. If this is done here and elsewhere the party will march to victory in 1896.

Where Reform is Needed.

The new governor of Kansas is particularly severe in his denunciation of "the rich who ride in their golden carriages. And we who are poor, we must get out of them who persist in riding in a circus-parade chariot that should be treated for paresis."

THE FUTURE OF SILVER.

President Andrews of Brown university is one of the American delegates to the international monetary conference.

OPPOSING NATIONAL QUARANTINE.

A formidable opposition to national quarantine has developed in the house of representatives, and the advocates of that system are said to be apprehensive of defeat in the lower branch of congress.

NEW BOOKS AND PERIODICALS.

Messrs. Morell, Higgins & Co., the Chicago publishers, are bringing some wide awake novels into circulation in rapid succession.

The full name of the new populist governor of Kansas is Loraine Demosthenes Lewelling.

PROHIBITION IN SOUTH DAKOTA.

The problem of regulating and licensing the sale of liquor is running a close race with the divorce question in the legislature of South Dakota.

RAISING RICE IN NEBRASKA.

Ed Perkins tells how it could be done with Great Profit. "All last summer," said Ed Perkins...

Muzzling the Watchdog.

Economist Holman is trying to abolish the Washington zoological garden. Mr. Holman doesn't want any more curious animals than himself at the capital.

Cures for Republican Ills.

Turn the bosses out. Let the people in. If this is done here and elsewhere the party will march to victory in 1896.

Where Reform is Needed.

The new governor of Kansas is particularly severe in his denunciation of "the rich who ride in their golden carriages. And we who are poor, we must get out of them who persist in riding in a circus-parade chariot that should be treated for paresis."

THE FUTURE OF SILVER.

President Andrews of Brown university is one of the American delegates to the international monetary conference.

OPPOSING NATIONAL QUARANTINE.

A formidable opposition to national quarantine has developed in the house of representatives, and the advocates of that system are said to be apprehensive of defeat in the lower branch of congress.

was ours. In half an hour more the end of the bridge had been blasted away by some invisible agency from the south side and in less than an hour the several portions of the roadbed collected at the farther side of the roadbed.

The full name of the new populist governor of Kansas is Loraine Demosthenes Lewelling.

PROHIBITION IN SOUTH DAKOTA.

The problem of regulating and licensing the sale of liquor is running a close race with the divorce question in the legislature of South Dakota.

RAISING RICE IN NEBRASKA.

Ed Perkins tells how it could be done with Great Profit. "All last summer," said Ed Perkins...

Muzzling the Watchdog.

Economist Holman is trying to abolish the Washington zoological garden. Mr. Holman doesn't want any more curious animals than himself at the capital.

Cures for Republican Ills.

Turn the bosses out. Let the people in. If this is done here and elsewhere the party will march to victory in 1896.

Where Reform is Needed.

The new governor of Kansas is particularly severe in his denunciation of "the rich who ride in their golden carriages. And we who are poor, we must get out of them who persist in riding in a circus-parade chariot that should be treated for paresis."

THE FUTURE OF SILVER.

President Andrews of Brown university is one of the American delegates to the international monetary conference.

OPPOSING NATIONAL QUARANTINE.

A formidable opposition to national quarantine has developed in the house of representatives, and the advocates of that system are said to be apprehensive of defeat in the lower branch of congress.

BROWNING, KING & CO. Immovably tight. Up against the rear of our store is the room now occupied by Mrs. Benson, who is to vacate within a few weeks...