Among the Councilmen.

REGARDING THE PAVING OF STREETS

Recommendations Made by the Committee Having Such Matters in Charge-Little Incidents Which Make the Council Meetings Very Interesting.

A communication from City Attorney Connell opened the ball at last night's session of the council and discussion flew thick and fast for a few minutes. The attorney stated that he had prepared a contract for the city printing, awarded one week ago to Klopp, Bartlett & Co., and it was ready for signature if approved by the council.

Mr. Munro said that the charge had been made that the contract had not been awarded to the lowest bidder. He thought that an investigation would be the proper caper. Once upon a time a certain lumber contract was the subject of much talk and a great error had been made. The talk in regard to the present printing contract is very similar in char-acter, and the matter should be looked into. at the last meeting, whereby the printing centract was awarded to the firm that secured it.

Where the City Saved Money.

Mr. Saunders of the printing committee defended the action of the committee and said the contract had been awarded to the lowest bidder. A complete tabulation was made of the bids of the five competitors and in that manner it was determined which was in that manner it was determined which was the lowest bidder. Some of the bids were very high upon articles used most and very low upon these seldom used by the city. The city had been saved $450 by the contract being awarded to Klopp, Bartlett & Co. Mr. Elsasser, another member of the printing committee, said that the criticism came from the losing bidders. This is the first time that the city has had any show in the printing bids. The other fellows had the contract for a long time and their ex-perience had taught them how to bid to make money. Mr. Elsasser believed that the city had been beaten out of thousands of dollars by the existence of former contracts. The contract hid been awarded to the low-est bidder, and the gentleman from the Secest bidder, and the gentleman from the Sec-ond thought that the committee should be ond thought that the committee should be stood by in its action. Mr. Steel had investigated, and found that the contract had been properly awarded. Roll call upon the vote for reconsideration was ordered, and each member voting took occasion to explain his vote. Mr. Bruner wanted no scandal and voted for reconsidera-tion. Mr. Edwards believed in standing by the committee, and voted no. Mr. Howell thought that an investigation would do no harm, and was in favor of it. So did Mr. Munro. The motion to reconsider was lost by a vote of 6 to 9. The recommendation of the Board of Pub-

The bill for gas furnished the city during January was presented. It looked as if the gas company was a little provious, and was rushing its bill in altogether too soon. On motion of Mr. Howell the comptroller was instructed to return the bill to the gas com-pany with a notification not to present it until the month's supply had been furnished and the bill was done and the bill was due. The superintendent of the city hall asked that the salary of the janitor be increased from $45 to $50 per month. Referred. A resolution was adopted calling for the
