

IS HOPELESSLY BANKRUPT

Comptroller of the Currency Thinks the Capital National a Complete Wreck.

CANDIDATES FOR THE RECEIVERSHIP

Strong Arguments in Favor of the Appointment of a Lincoln Man—Local Information Believed to Be Quite Necessary.

WASHINGTON BUREAU OF THE BEE, 513 FOURTEENTH STREET, WASHINGTON, D.C., Jan. 28.

Recent developments in the affairs of the Capital National bank in Lincoln have changed official opinion at the office of the comptroller of the currency very materially. The appointment of a receiver for the bank is regarded now as inevitable. It was not supposed until quite recently that the bank was bankrupt or that there had been default.

It is thought that the comptroller's office that the shortage on account of the bank will run between $300,000 and $500,000.

The peculations of President Mosher are a great surprise here. Comptroller Hepburn guards the preliminary statements which have been made by the examiner in charge with care.

Some Would-Be Receivers. Already a number of names have been sent from which to select a receiver.

Western Factions. The following positions granted are reported: Nebraska: Original—H. Wellington, Thomas Spolan, Addition—M. Pondexter, J. McGinty, Increase—George W. Todd, S. Aikman, T. Catt, R. Pringle, A. Kaley, Original widows—Maria Canfield, Amanda J. Lewis.

South Dakota—James S. Rowell, Oscar F. Miller, George S. Foster, etc.

Chairman Holman of the house committee on appropriations has been heard to be heartily ashamed of himself. He has been advocating with considerable earnestness a proposition he recently submitted.

Miscellaneous. In the timber culture contest of S. P. Moore against C. C. Tasker, from Iowa, S. D. Assistant Secretary Chandler today affirmed the decision of the commissioners against the entrant.

Investigation to be Made. Work laid out for house committees in the near future.

AT THE COLUMBIA.

Pantaloons—That means straight ordinary pants or trousers—some of them bought to sell as pants—while others were bought with suits, the coat and vest gone—now the trousers go for $1.25

Trousers—That is pantaloons, commonly called pants, but as they are a little bit better than ordinary pants we call them trousers and put a whole lot of them in one pile to sell at $2.25 a pair.

Pants—These we call pants, because they are trousers whose quality will compare favorably with any pantaloons on the market, for which a great deal more is asked. We ask but $3.00 a pair, because they are left over from suits.
