

THE DAILY BEE

COUNCIL BLUFFS. OFFICE: NO. 12 PEARL STREET.

Delivered by carrier to any part of the city.

H. W. TILTON, - MANAGER. TELEPHONE: Business Office, No. 43. Night Editor, No. 23.

MINOR MENTION. N. Y. Plumbing Co. Council Bluffs Lumber Co. Coal

A marriage license was issued yesterday to William Powell and Mary Hurd, both of this city.

Monday evening, January 30, special meeting of Garfield lodge No. 136, I. O. G. T., for work. It is earnestly desired that all members be present.

The insane commissioners ordered M. Goodwin taken to the state hospital at Clarinda yesterday for treatment. Goodwin is a resident of the parish and was brought to the asylum by the sheriff.

The regular meeting of the Parochial Aid society of St. Paul's church will be held at the rectory on Thursday afternoon, Jan. 29. All ladies of the parish are requested to be present and bring their pledges.

A meeting of the coal dealers of the city was held yesterday at which resolutions were adopted over the death of J. H. E. Clark. The committee which drew up the resolutions was W. Jennings, L. M. Shubert and W. Vickroy.

"Myles-na-Bo-dare," Ogley's new play, is cast to the full strength of the musical club. Several new pieces of scenery are being prepared for the production at Donahy's Tuesday and Wednesday. Seats are going fast at Brackett's.

The attachment proceedings which were commenced by the receiver of the estate of J. S. Flague, the contractor, were dismissed in the district court yesterday, an adjustment of difficulties having been effected. It is stated that Flague will resume business.

A number of the implement men of Omaha were in the city yesterday and took dinner at the Grand hotel. They are expected to remain in the city until the next day. Among the visitors were: Eudell Martin, A. L. Larson, Theodore Staris and F. O. Eichenger.

John Murphy, a stranger in the city, stole a pair of arctic from a store store on upper Broadway in the city on Friday night. He was caught in the act, as he had intended, and slated with livery.

A telegram has been received announcing the death of James H. Dwyer, a well known brother of the city and well known here. The funeral will take place under the auspices of the Independent Order of Odd Fellows, of which the deceased was a member.

Willie Grote, a grandchild of Charles Youngman, found a bundle wrapped up in cloth clothes, a pair of arctic, a pair of Indian crock near Oak street. He took it home, and upon the covering being removed it was found to be the body of a dead infant.

Where is your child? The body was buried during the day.

The veteran soldiers of Iowa will have a reunion at Keokuk for three days commencing April 25. Invitations have been extended to the Grand Army posts of Illinois and Missouri. Arrangements are already being made by Abe Lincoln post and the Women's Relief corps of this city to send a large delegation in a special car.

L. G. Knotts, the coal merchant, made an assignment yesterday afternoon, turning over all of his property to a trustee for the benefit of his creditors. His entire indebtedness is thought to be about $5,000. Where is your child? The body was buried during the day.

G. W. Johnson was tried in United States district court some time ago for selling whisky at Missouri Valley without a government license, but his sentence was suspended upon his promising to conduct himself in the future according to the laws of the land. He broke his word, however, and yesterday Marshall Smith, U. S. marshal, arrived in the city with him in charge. He will be taken to the Polk county jail to serve out his sentence.

Tonight will be the concluding appearance of Dr. Herbert Flint, when he will give a special entertainment that is promised to be the best of the series. The program is such that it will interest the entire audience. During his engagement here Dr. Flint has demonstrated that he is a hypnotist of the highest order, and his exhibitions have awakened a deep interest in the subject.

The snow and cold weather does not diminish the demand for acreage in the Klein tract, and the sales of the post-office 300 acres yet for sale in from one to ten acre tracts, suitable for fruit and garden. Day & Hess, agents, 39 Pearl street.

PERSONAL PARAGRAPHS.

Miss Hattie Ferrier of Atlantic is visiting her sister, Mrs. Dr. Thomas.

W. C. Spooner has been appointed first lieutenant of the Dodge Light Cavalry.

Mr. and Mrs. C. V. Russell of Olympia, Wash., are the guests of the family of E. B. Bowman.

Mrs. A. Truesdell and son will leave today for a visit of two weeks with friends in Chicago.

C. A. Atkins, manager of the Nebraska Telephone company, left last evening for Des Moines.

Mrs. A. M. Switzer and Mrs. Baumgardner have returned from an eastern trip. Mrs. Baumgardner will leave soon for her home in Portland, Ore.

Rev. B. Fay, W. H. Providence, Dr. and Mrs. Carrel of Hastings, and A. W. Clark and Colonel Bird of Omaha made a dinner party at the Grand hotel yesterday.

Mr. and Mrs. C. W. Woodruff returned yesterday from a visit to Oregon, Ill., where they attended the golden wedding of Mrs. Wadsworth's parents. S. L. Ely, who accompanied them on their journey, is expected home this morning.

Wanted—Cash offer for ten shares Citizen's State bank stock. Must be sold. Address E. A. Sheafe.

Finest Aristocrat cabinet phones, $2 per doz. Ashton's studio, 18 N. Main street.

Scottish concert. The following is the program to be given at Donahy's next Thursday evening:

Part Song—"The Standard on the Braes" or "The Maid of Argyll." Company Song—"Home Sweet Home." Miss A. M. Thomas. Violin solo—"Kielty Kielty." Miss C. Heade. Song—"A Man's Man for a That."

Dance—Highland Fling. Miss James Black. Song—"Can Ye Be Achill?" Miss Edith Ross. Humorous Song—"The Old Folks at Home." Matt. Messrs. Messrs. Luntz. Quartet—"O. Hush Thee, My Baby." Company Song—"Macgregor's Gathering." R. P. Shearer. Solo—Solo. Song—"The Old Folks at Home." Song—"Bangs of Loch Lomond." Miss Edith Ross. Dances—Sally and the Soldiers. Miss Mary McCall. Song—"Off to Philadelphia."

Duet—"The Crook and the Boy." Mr. Shearer. Humorous impersonation—Uncle Wall. Mr. and Mrs. W. H. Burns. Musical comedy—"Auld Lang Syne." Company.

"Myles-na-Bo-dare" at Donahy's Tuesday and Wednesday, January 31 and February 1.

Tackled a City Official. Jasper Adams, alias "Sandpoint," a hack driver, is not acquainted with all the city officials, but he is getting that way very rapidly. A day or two ago the city physician had occasion to go on one of the local depots in a hurry and took Adams' hack. When they reached the depot the hack driver demanded $1 for the trip, which is 75 cents more than is allowed by the city ordinance which governs the business of common carriers. Yesterday Dr. Jennings filed an information in police court and Adams was arrested. He will have a hearing tomorrow on the charge of violating the common carrier ordinance.

Do you smoke? Have you tried T. D. King & Co's Partagas? It's a charm. Just light one.

NEWS FROM COUNCIL BLUFFS

Railroad Men Have Judgments Rendered Against Them.

LITIGATION IS SOMETIMES EXPENSIVE. Sued for Small Amounts in the First Instance the Costs of the Case Make Laying a Very Expensive Luxury Indeed.

Justice Fox handed down his decision yesterday in the eighteen suits in which the Plattesmouth railway men were punished by Mr. E. Frazer. In every case judgment was entered up against the railway man, the amounts ranging all the way from $25 to $75. The following are the names of the defendants against whom the judgments were rendered: C. E. Duke, Charles M. Foster, James Pine, W. H. Malack, Jacob Houck, L. A. Newsum, J. Dawson, L. E. Karnes, G. W. Thomas, C. L. Mitchell, P. D. Barry, E. E. Weinkle, Frank Vernilla, Charles Kinneman, E. Thid, George L. Tressler, F. Kanish, M. Cross. All are in the employ of the B. & M. The repeated continuances, witness fees and other expenses connected with the trial had run up a large bill of costs which will have to be paid by the defendants, together with the amount of their respective debts. How much this increase will amount to may be judged from one particular case which was settled a few days ago. The defendant, proceeding through the usual legal channels, trial and all, had had all the litigation he wanted and was ready to compromise. The amount sued for originally was $25, but he had to pay $82 for settling in the other cases will amount to the same.

It was in connection with the trial of these cases that Justice Fox rendered a decision in the case of E. H. Woolley and D. O. Dwyer of Plattsmouth, for contempt of court, they having filed an affidavit in which they alleged that the court was non compos mentis. The contest case also came up for a decision. Woolley was present, and put in a motion to set aside the verdict, and to make the records read in his objectionable affidavit had never been filed, but his request was denied. The court allowed $500 to be added to the costs of the case, and Woolley paid his $85 and costs without another murmur, rather than to go to jail. Dwyer on the contrary did not show up at all, and the judgment of the court could not be visited upon him. The court announces, however, that if he ever comes of Dwyer will be held responsible for the costs of the case, and will be liable to go to jail. Dwyer is safe so long as he stays upon Nebraska soil, his offense not being one for which a requisition can be issued.

SOCIETY FOR A WEEK.

Pleasant Events Which Have Helped to Make Life Enjoyable.

During the years 1886 to 1890 there existed in Council Bluffs a club of the kind which is now known as the "Married Ladies Progressive Educator club." This game was later changed to high five, though the club remained the same. This organization was a delightful one, and when, in 1890, it was allowed to become a thing of the past, it was with the regret of all. Until the present year it has been revived, and is now a source of pleasure and interest to all who take part in it. The club has been revived to about one-half its original size, four being claimed by the original members, and the rest by those who joined in other places. About forty people received the cunningly written invitations, which read as follows:

Revival of good old times. Married Ladies Progressive Educator and High Five club of 1886 to 1890. All members of that old club are invited to meet at the Grand hotel at 8 o'clock p. m. sharp. Tuesday January 30, to engage in a good, old-fashioned high five. Invitations will be sent to all to come and be on time. Refreshments will be served free and no collection taken will be made.

By order of "A Committee." From that time to this evening every one of the 4000 were on the quiver. All were curious to know who were the witty originators who seemed to conceal their identity so well. However, it was not so, decided they would be on hand, and possibly that night the riddle would be solved. But no, the fairies were still at work.

On entering the room each greeted the other in the hope of saluting their hosts, or their guests, or both. "Did you do it?" "To which all replied, "No; did you?" "All had hung their friends on circumspectly.

At the entrance of the parlor was a notice reading:

Cards with red ribbons for gentlemen, green for ladies, and blue for those who were not present. Mrs. J. L. Stewart is requested by "A Committee" to act as hostess for the evening.

Mrs. Stewart made a charming hostess, and through her able management all passed smoothly.

On each of the eight tables was another notice as follows: Games begin promptly at 8:30. Regular high five, and rob the decks. When you have won your money, pick it up on the table and winners move all change to the table and will entertain the next one at their residence.

To this had been brightly added in pencil: Mrs. John N. Baldwin, Friday evening, February 3, 8 o'clock.

The game went right merrily, and all seemed to throw care to the winds and to enjoy themselves as never before, even in the days gone by. The merriment and fun seemed complete when Mr. W. H. Burns, an old member who has made his home in Montana for the last ten years, joined the game players. He was an expected by half the party at least, though his presence in the city having extended to him in the winter of 1890, his friends. His visit seemed most opportunely planned and his welcome was a very cordial one.

About 11 o'clock the game ended and prizes were found on the table in the ladies' dressing room marked "Gentlemen's first prize," "Ladies' first prize," "The Champion." Mr. J. L. Stewart secured the gentlemen's prize, a pipe and pouch of tobacco, to which was attached a tag labeled "Put this in your pipe and smoke it, and you will be invited to think of, and follow up on the club so mysteriously renewed. Miss Mollie Rice secured the ladies' prize, a match safe in the shape of a tiny sardal. This was also tagged and labeled "Can you match this?" A play on words and also a suggestion to carry the old new club to Mr. Burns filed the "Consolation," a most gorgeous affair of sheet iron about eighteen inches square, ornamented with bright-hued ribbons and tassels. This too had its message. "You can't see through anything. Suppose you try on this souvenir." But none could resist the luring hand of the match and the donors of this "Feast of reason and flow of soul." It was placed about the neck of the wife of the victor, and she went away with and served with abandon and jollity, and a laughing good night to all, for fear of overdoing the hosts, ended one of the most enjoyable evenings the old club ever had. Still the mystery deepens and the bright ornaments remain incoherent, much to the regret of those who were invited.

Those invited were: Messrs. and Mesdames John N. Baldwin, Joel L. Stewart, Henry C. Cory, W. L. Loomis, J. E. Myers, David J. Rockwell, William C. James, Samuel P. MacConnell, C. R. Tyler, Frank M. Paul, A. T. Ewell, George A. Krelline, D. W. Russell, Henry Van Brunt, A. T. Rice, J. J. Brown, Mrs. Horace Everett, Mrs. McDowell, Mrs. Virginia McCConnell, Mrs. Carrie Brooks, Miss Mollie Rice, Captain O. M. Brown, Mr. Leonard Everett.

Card Party. Mr. and Mrs. W. M. Shepard entertained a party of friends last Friday evening at their residence in Madison street. Cards were the amusement of the evening, and with their assistance a pleasant time was passed, and a large number of refreshments were served to the invited guests. Messrs. and Mesdames T. J. Evans, Finley Barker, Lucius Wells, H. H. Leach, J. C. Luntz, J. E. Easton, N. Shepard, Runyan, Barstow, Perry, Kinler, F. Shepard, Woodward, James H. Wilson, M. C. Graves, J. C. Luntz, C. R. Campbell, C. R. Hannan, J. Shugart, J. J. Lutz, Louisa, J. M. Campbell, Haworth, Sherman, Grahsm, Mrs. Hawthorn, Mrs. Hamilton, Mrs. Alton, Mrs. Lutz, Mrs. C. A. Reed, Mr. George Hawthorn.

The following prizes were awarded: First gentlemen's prize, C. R. Hannan; second gentlemen's prize, Mr. Perry; first ladies' prize, Mrs. James Patterson; second ladies' prize, Mrs. D. N. Graves.

Schneider-Heeber. Mr. Paul Schneider and Miss Allie Heeber were married last Wednesday at the residence of the bride's mother on South Seventh street. It was a very quiet affair, none of the relatives of the parties witnessing the ceremony, which was performed by the Father Honian of St. Francis Xavier's church. Both the bride and groom are well known to the friends of both sets of friends, who will extend congratulations. They are at home to their friends at 740 First avenue.

Other Social Gossip. Mrs. Lucien Wells entertained a party of friends at her home on Friday afternoon. A large number of guests were present, and the evening was spent in a very enjoyable manner. A "Kensington tea" was the style of the gathering, and all enjoyed it very much.

Mrs. W. A. Munger entertained her lady friends Friday afternoon at her residence on Second avenue in honor of Mrs. Jessie L. Gaylor of St. Paul. The party was well known in Council Bluffs as a delightful pianist, and those who were fortunate enough to receive invitations knew well that they were in for a very enjoyable evening. And they were not disappointed, for Mrs. Gaylor won for herself new laurels, not only through her playing, but also through her willingness to be imposed upon by her music-loving friends.

Miss Jennie Wallace entertained a few friends in her home on Friday evening at her home on Bluff street.

Mrs. Jacob Sims gave a lunch Friday afternoon at her home on Platte street. A dozen young ladies of the city were present, and the party was very enjoyable. The ladies who have handed themselves into a social organization and styled themselves the "Merry Thinkers," were present.

WHERE TO WORSHIP.

Churches Where the Stranger Will Receive a Hearty Welcome.

Trinity Methodist Episcopal—Fourth street and Glen avenue. Rev. H. H. Barton, pastor. Class meeting, 9:30 a. m.; preaching, 10:30 a. m.; 7:30 p. m.; Sunday school, 12 m. and 7:30 p. m.

Epworth league, 9:45 p. m. Revival services each evening during the week.

Later Day Saints—Pierce street, below and above 11th. Meetings at 6:30 a. m. and 7:30 p. m. Subject, "How God Comforts the Sinner." Sunday school at 12 m. C. Scott, minister.

Presbyterian—Corner of Willow avenue and Seventh street. Rev. Stephen Phelps, pastor. Preaching by the pastor at 10:30 a. m. and 7:30 p. m.

Second Presbyterian. Harmony and Logan streets. S. Alexander, pastor; residence, 701 East Broadway—preaching and installing of officers at 10:30 a. m. and 7:30 p. m. every night through the week, beginning with a song service at 7:30 tonight.

Temple Baptist—Regular services in Young Men's Christian association building, Merriam block, at 10:30 a. m. and 7:30 p. m. Sunday school at 12 m.

Congregationalist—Church and Congregationalists will worship together today at the Congregational church. Preaching morning and evening by Rev. E. W. Allen of the Chicago conference.

First Baptist—Corner Sixth street and First avenue. Revival services still continue nightly. Preaching Sunday at 10:45 a. m. and 7:30 p. m. Baptism by the ordinance of baptism will be administered. Sunday school at 12 m.; young people's meeting at 6:30 p. m. James H. Davis, pastor, 1015 Fifth avenue.

Young Men's Christian Association—Gospel meeting at 4 o'clock led by Will Heeber, of the Grand Central conference. All are cordially invited to attend. Rooms open all day.

11th Avenue Methodist Episcopal—Corner Eighteenth street and Fifth avenue. Class meeting, 9:30 a. m.; preaching, 10:30 a. m. and 7:30 p. m.; Sunday school, 12 m. and 7:30 p. m.

Subject of the evening, "The Baptism of the Holy Spirit." Subject of evening discourse, "The Speaking Blood." Special jubilee service in the evening.

Brethren Baptist—preaching morning and evening by the pastor, Sunday school at 11:45 a. m.

MONDAY, JANUARY 30, THE LAST DAY OF THE BOSTON STORE MIDWINTER CLEARING SALE.

Don't fail to avail yourself of the greatest bargains in dry goods ever offered in Council Bluffs. There is only a few days left in the underwear department, but every department is full of bargains. All have shared the knife equally strong in order to make room for spring goods.

UNDERWEAR. Gents' $1.25 scarlet underwear, during sale 75c. Ladies' 50c white merino underwear, during sale 33c. Gents' 50c gray underwear, during sale 35c. Gents' $1.00 natural wool underwear, during sale 75c. Gents' $2 natural wool underwear, during sale, $1.37 1/2. Ladies' 33c eoru vests and pants, to go at 25c. Ladies' 50c eoru vests and pants, to go at 33c. Ladies' $1 natural wool underwear, during sale 75c. Ladies' $1.25 natural wool underwear, 95c. Ladies' $1.50 natural wool ribbed underwear, $1.25.

See other bargains in fashions, union suits, children's and infants' underwear.

Supreme Court Decision.

The supreme court has affirmed the decision of the district court of this county in the case of A. T. Flickinger against William Siedentopf. The case was tried originally in February 15, 1890. Flickinger had purchased property valued at $4,300 from Siedentopf, the latter claiming to have been the owner of the same. Flickinger afterward found that the title was not perfect, and commenced a suit to recover the purchase money. Upon trial the jury returned a verdict in favor of Siedentopf, and the case was appealed by the defendant to the supreme court. The affirming of the decision of the district court was the result of a judgment for about $5,000, including the interest that has accrued. The property, which was the subject of litigation was located in Brown's subdivision.

The Amphon quartet will render appropriate Irish melodies in "Myles-na-Bo-dare" at Donahy's Tuesday and Wednesday, January 31 and February 1.

Bourgeois finds out that Stutzman Street is all right for the piano business, just look at his new signs.

Public Library Report. The eleventh annual report of the trustees of the district court of this county in the form of a book, has just been published and is now being circulated in neat pamphlet form. The total receipts for the year have been $5,114, and the total expenses $5,383, of which $1,503 was for books, $151 for papers and magazines, $1,350 for salaries and $984 for rent. The library now contains 11,643 volumes, an increase of 1,470 during the year. There are 4,000 volumes in the library, an increase of 400 over the number in 1891.

A new scheme has just been inaugurated with reference to the magazines, which were heretofore not allowed to be taken away. Three additional copies of Harper's Monthly, three of the Century, three of the Atlantic and one of the North American Review, Forum, Outlook, St. Nicholas, Cosmopolitan, Current Literature, Fortnightly Review, and Advertiser, are now being distributed to the American, Catholic, World and the Arena have been secured, and may be taken from the reading rooms upon the same conditions as books from the library. If the new departure proves satisfactory it is appreciated by the citizens, additional copies of the above mentioned papers, as well as others, will be added to the list.

MONDAY, JANUARY 30, THE LAST DAY OF THE BOSTON STORE MIDWINTER CLEARING SALE.

Now is the time to secure some of the finest dress goods bargains ever offered in Council Bluffs, Ia. Below is only a few of the specialties.

DRESS GOODS. 36-inch plaid suitings, regular 25c goods, to go at 16c a yard. Don't miss seeing them. 36-inch heavy suitings, dark colors, actual price 12 1/2 a yard. All wool yard wide chevots, sold for 33c, 39c, 50c, in one lot for sale at 25c.

Fancy woves in Bedford crease couple, solid, sold for 88c and $1, choice for 60c a yard. Black goods, endless variety of bargains in all grades. Don't miss seeing them. BOSTON STORE, Council Bluffs, Ia.

Gilt edged county better just received. W. C. Homer, 525 Broadway.

The twenty-third annual state convention of the Young Men's Christian association of Iowa will be held in Council Bluffs for four days, commencing February 23, 1893. This is the first time the city has been honored by being selected as the meeting place and elaborate arrangements are being provided for the entertainment of the guests, who will number at least 350. All delegates whose names are sent to Secretary J. C. Rose of the local association will be provided with free transportation, and it is hoped that a large number of delegates besides those regularly appointed as delegates by their home associations will be present.

Trinity Methodist Episcopal—Fourth street and Glen avenue. Rev. H. H. Barton, pastor. Class meeting, 9:30 a. m.; preaching, 10:30 a. m. and 7:30 p. m.; Sunday school, 12 m. and 7:30 p. m. Revival services each evening during the week.

Later Day Saints—Pierce street, below and above 11th. Meetings at 6:30 a. m. and 7:30 p. m. Subject, "How God Comforts the Sinner." Sunday school at 12 m. C. Scott, minister.

Presbyterian—Corner of Willow avenue and Seventh street. Rev. Stephen Phelps, pastor. Preaching by the pastor at 10:30 a. m. and 7:30 p. m.

Second Presbyterian. Harmony and Logan streets. S. Alexander, pastor; residence, 701 East Broadway—preaching and installing of officers at 10:30 a. m. and 7:30 p. m. every night through the week, beginning with a song service at 7:30 tonight.

Temple Baptist—Regular services in Young Men's Christian association building, Merriam block, at 10:30 a. m. and 7:30 p. m. Sunday school at 12 m.

Congregationalist—Church and Congregationalists will worship together today at the Congregational church. Preaching morning and evening by Rev. E. W. Allen of the Chicago conference.

First Baptist—Corner Sixth street and First avenue. Revival services still continue nightly. Preaching Sunday at 10:45 a. m. and 7:30 p. m. Baptism by the ordinance of baptism will be administered. Sunday school at 12 m.; young people's meeting at 6:30 p. m. James H. Davis, pastor, 1015 Fifth avenue.

Young Men's Christian Association—Gospel meeting at 4 o'clock led by Will Heeber, of the Grand Central conference. All are cordially invited to attend. Rooms open all day.

11th Avenue Methodist Episcopal—Corner Eighteenth street and Fifth avenue. Class meeting, 9:30 a. m.; preaching, 10:30 a. m. and 7:30 p. m.; Sunday school, 12 m. and 7:30 p. m.

Subject of the evening, "The Baptism of the Holy Spirit." Subject of evening discourse, "The Speaking Blood." Special jubilee service in the evening.

Brethren Baptist—preaching morning and evening by the pastor, Sunday school at 11:45 a. m.

MONDAY, JANUARY 30, THE LAST DAY OF THE BOSTON STORE MIDWINTER CLEARING SALE.

Don't fail to avail yourself of the greatest bargains in dry goods ever offered in Council Bluffs. There is only a few days left in the underwear department, but every department is full of bargains. All have shared the knife equally strong in order to make room for spring goods.

UNDERWEAR. Gents' $1.25 scarlet underwear, during sale 75c. Ladies' 50c white merino underwear, during sale 33c. Gents' 50c gray underwear, during sale 35c. Gents' $1.00 natural wool underwear, during sale 75c. Gents' $2 natural wool underwear, during sale, $1.37 1/2. Ladies' 33c eoru vests and pants, to go at 25c. Ladies' 50c eoru vests and pants, to go at 33c. Ladies' $1 natural wool underwear, during sale 75c. Ladies' $1.25 natural wool underwear, 95c. Ladies' $1.50 natural wool ribbed underwear, $1.25.

See other bargains in fashions, union suits, children's and infants' underwear.

Supreme Court Decision.

The supreme court has affirmed the decision of the district court of this county in the case of A. T. Flickinger against William Siedentopf. The case was tried originally in February 15, 1890. Flickinger had purchased property valued at $4,300 from Siedentopf, the latter claiming to have been the owner of the same. Flickinger afterward found that the title was not perfect, and commenced a suit to recover the purchase money. Upon trial the jury returned a verdict in favor of Siedentopf, and the case was appealed by the defendant to the supreme court. The affirming of the decision of the district court was the result of a judgment for about $5,000, including the interest that has accrued. The property, which was the subject of litigation was located in Brown's subdivision.

The Amphon quartet will render appropriate Irish melodies in "Myles-na-Bo-dare" at Donahy's Tuesday and Wednesday, January 31 and February 1.

Bourgeois finds out that Stutzman Street is all right for the piano business, just look at his new signs.

Public Library Report. The eleventh annual report of the trustees of the district court of this county in the form of a book, has just been published and is now being circulated in neat pamphlet form. The total receipts for the year have been $5,114, and the total expenses $5,383, of which $1,503 was for books, $151 for papers and magazines, $1,350 for salaries and $984 for rent. The library now contains 11,643 volumes, an in-

BATTLING FOR HER BABIES

Interesting Legal Contest for the Possession of the Russell Children.

CIRCUMSTANCES FAVOR THE MOTHER

Preliminary skirmish ends in the father's defeat—Amusing scene in the County Court Room—Sensational Divorce Suit Filed as a Side Issue.

The legal battle that is now being waged in the courts of Douglas county by Mrs. Mary C. Russell to secure and retain the possession of her babies, gives promise of being one of the most interesting cases that has ever been tried. New phases and complications are being developed at every turn, and the turns are as numerous as the phases.

At this time the mother is ahead, having secured temporary custody of the little ones, but how long this custody will continue no one will venture an opinion, as George F. Russell, the father, and the woman, Cora Emeluth, are turning the heavens and earth to defeat the mother and get the two children again under their control.

Yesterday was the time set for hearing the arguments on the application of Mrs. Russell to be appointed guardian of her own children. The case was called before Judge Eiler of the county court, both sides being represented by their attorneys. When the time for making the arguments arrived the English woman and Russell stroled in the court room, taking their seats on the farthest side of the room from the court. A little later Mr. and Mrs. C. B. Coon, Mrs. Russell's children and a score or more of friends filed into the room. Mrs. Coon and the children were given seats near Russell and the Emeluth woman, Mr. Coon occupying a seat close by, while Mrs. Russell and her many friends found places in the lobby.

Disposed of a Motion. Russell's attorney immediately filed a motion to dismiss the case, alleging that so long as the parents of the children were alive the court had no authority to step in and decide which parent was entitled to their custody. In his argument he urged that the father was the natural guardian and was entitled to their care and custody until it was shown by conclusive evidence that he was unfit to have charge of them in his parental duties. In addition to this he argued that the court had no jurisdiction of the case and that it erred when it issued the writ of habeas corpus, which the children were taken from the house of the Emeluth woman last Friday night. In closing he painted the woman as a vile and snarling animal, and asked for her removal from the house, and that she had provided for the little boy and girl, intimating that when the case was tried upon its merits he would show that Mrs. Russell was anything but a reputable woman. He said that he would prove that she associated with low characters and that her own means means to educate and support the children.

Judge Eiler watched the proceedings, moving uneasily in his chair, until the charge against the woman was read. He then inquired his visis of wrath and in plain terms informed the attorney that he would not allow a woman's character to be assailed in his court. If there was any part of the charge it would have to be made under oath, as a mere statement would not be received in evidence.

Attorney McClanahan, in behalf of Mrs. Russell, argued that the court had jurisdiction of the case and that it had a perfect right to issue a writ of habeas corpus. The statutes, he said, provided for just such cases.

Right at this point the attorney for Russell switched and made the statement that while it was a fact that the children were in the custody of Mr. Coon, as a deputy sheriff, it was in the custody of Mrs. Russell, Russell's mother. "Why," said the attorney, "I am informed that they slept with their mother last night and that she had provided for them." The statement amused the judge, and in answering he remarked that if the father had been charged with the custody of the children they had been greatly injured by being with their mother during one night.

Too Handy with a Revolver. Again the attorney for Russell jumped into the arena by declaring that the Emeluth woman was eminent and respectable and was particularly fitted to look after children of a tender age.

Judge Eiler cut this story short by interrupting with the statement that he did not think that children should be under the control of a woman who would draw a revolver on the sheriff and threaten to shoot if he did