home in Shannon City, Ringgeld county, and was found sleeping in a Wabash freight car yesterday morning. He was taken in charge by the police and a telegram was sent to his father notifying him of his capture. He claimed that his father continually growled at him and he left home in order to get some ace where he would receive better treat-ent. He spent the day making the rounds of the city with the police, seeing the sights. and manifesting the greatest wonder at features of city life that he had never heard

At the First Baptist church Evangelist Thompson took for a text at the afternoon meeting, "The Parable of the Leaven and the Meal." He said there is nothing in the natural heart like the leaven, "Ye must be born again." The talk was a very practical one to Christian work-ers and the truth was emphasized that the leaven must be implanted in the heart by the Holy Spirit. In the evening he spoke of Christ weeping over Jeruselem, as found in Matthew 23:37, and dwelt especially on the calls of God as general, personal and alarming, and showed how many times these various calls were given and in different ways. His sermons are interesting, pointed and full of scripture. Services every day at 2:30 and 7:30 p. m.

BEE NEWS FROM COUNCIL BLUFFS

Approach of the Caucuses Brings on the Discussion of Candidates.

WHO WILL RUN FOR THE CITY COUNCIL

Three Ward Members and One at Large to Be Chosen-Aspirants Aiready Announced Compared - Candidates for the School Board are Scarce.

The spring election is only a little more than two weeks distant and the primaries of the republican and democratic parties occur two weeks from today, and yet, so far as appearances indicate, there is so little interest being manifested that people who are not on the inside might suppose that such a thing as an election has never been thought of. But considerable work is being done on the quiet, especially among the democrats, and if there is any councilmanic lightning temporarily out of a job it will do well to keep its eye peeled for openings, for they are bound to come to light. Councilmen are to be elected in the Third. Fourth and Sixth wards to take the places of H. H. VanBrunt,

E. E. Mayne and George Graves. A councilman-at-large is also to be elected to take the place of J. H. Pace. Mr. Pace was formerly a candidate for renomination by the republicans, but he now announces that he has retired from the political arena. He requests The Ber to state for him that he has not made enough out of the office to retire upon, but will return to his old business Republicans are mentioning C. Straub as a possible cambidate, while S. S. Kelier seems to have the inside track at present among the democrats.

Will Have a Repeater.

In the Fourth ward E. E. Mayne is anxionsly looking for a renomination, but whether or not it will be given him is yet to be determined by the republican leaders, if he receives a renomination it looks very much as though the fight of a few months are will be repeated in the Third ward, for J. B. Atkins is being mentioned prominently by the democrats. The tioned prominently by the democrats. The election where these two men were pitted against each other was one of the most holly fought contests over seen in Council Bluffs, and it resulted in Mayne's election by a majority of two votes. This was entirely too close for comfort, some of the republicans think, and they want to put up some man who will stand a chance of carrying off the prize by a larger majority. No more satisactory candidates have come to the front.

owever, so far. In the Third ward two republicans have been mentioned, E. E. Hart and F. O. Glea-son, either of whom would meet with the entire approval of the public. W. H. Thomas, formerly county recorder, and J. H. Piumer, formerly county treasurer, are caudidates for the democratic nanination, the latter relying largely on his resemblance to Alderman van Brunt, the present incumbent, and having shaved off his moustache in the endeavor to increase that resemblance

Where Democracy Only Counts. In the Sixth, Graves wants a renomination In the Sixth, Graves wants a renomination, but two other democrats have come to the front to contest the place with him, J. D. Nicholson and J. W. Mikesell. In this ward a republican never even gets a smell of an office, so that if there is a republican candidate in the field he doesn't count.

Some trouble is anticipated in getting anymatic way for the office of school directory.

one trouble is anticipated in getting anyone to run for the office of school director, as the present board has resembled an athletic club too much to suit most men of peaceable tendencies. Members Wells and Waite were elected together three years ago, they have been thrown together with more or less force at almost every meeting for the past year, and now they keep up their record by going out together, and it is said that neither of them aspires to a re-election. So far the only canaspires to a re-election. So far the only candidate mentioned at all prominently is Rev. E. J. Babcock, and whether he would take it if it were tendered him nobody knows.

DRAWING TO A CLOSE.

The Biggs Will Case Goes Into the Hands

The taking of evidence in the Biggs will case was completed in the district court vesterday, and most of the arguments to the jury were made. At the hour of adjournment in the evening John Linut was making the closing speech for the plaintiff, and he will resume this morning at 9:30 o'clock. The case will undoubtedly go to the jury by

No more chosts walked, but other interest. ing testimony was introduced in the shape of a letter which the deceased had written his daughter about five weeks before his mar-riage with his second wife, in which he referred to an invitation he had ne referred to an invitation he had received from a woman whom he referred to as "Miss Annie," that he come and live with her. This bit of writing, coming as it aid upon the heels of testimony of other witnesses to the effect that the deceased had always boasted of his popularity among the ladies, created a ripple of amusement over the audience. In his letter, however, he stated that he saw at once what "Miss Annie" was up to, and accused her of want-ing to get hold of his property, whereupon, after some hemming and hawing she admitted that it was the almighty dollar that she was after. He further went on to say that he had determined to leave his property to "Danny," his grandson.

An ante-nuptial contract between Mr. Biggs and his second wife was also introduced in evidence. It had been drawn up and signed about two weeks before the marriage, and in it each party agreed that neither should acquire any title or interest in the property of the other through the marriage, but that each one should continue to hold his or her property, inc. as though to "Danny," his grandson. to hold his or her property just as though the marriage ceremony had never taken

The proprietor of the Tremont house has received a rather queer inquiry from A. S. Judkins of the Soldiers' home of South Dakota, asking for the particulars concerning the reported haunting of a house in the vicinity of the hotel. This recalls the fact known to many citizens that an old brick house stood for years at the corner of Sev-enth street and Washington avenue, which had so widespread a reputation of being ten-anted by ghosts that it was difficult to get any other tenants to occupy it. The anxious inquirer is now informed that the house referred to has been torn down, leaving the lot vacant. The ghosts probably were compelled to look for new quarters, as this winter has not been very comfortable for an out-toor residence, especially to those she in door residence, especially to those clad in ghostly garments.

City's Expenses,

In the eagerness with which the citizens are discussing the motor question, some partisans have indulged in a wholesale defunciation of all the acts of the present administration. In view of this fact it is simple justice that the taxpayers should bear in mind that Mayor Lawrence and the council, who were elected on the understanding that they would reduce the city's current ex-penses, have met this feature of the public expectancy. They point with pride to the figures showing the city's running expenses

WILL FIGHT MITCHELL AND JACKSON

Prefers the Englishman First, with Next December as the Date-He Will Take the Australian in Seven Months After.

NEW YORK, Feb. 15 - William A. Brady, the manager of James J. Corbett, champion heavyweight pugilist of the world, called at the World office today in company with William Delaney and deposited one check of $10,000 to bind a match with Charley Mitchell of England and another of $2,000 to bind a match with Peter Jackson of Australia, under the terms of the following statement:

"In accordance with the plans laid out for myself on September 7 last I take this opportunity of announcing that I am now prepared to defend the title I have. In evidence of my good faith I hereby deposit $10,000, and have authorized William A. Brady and William Delaney to meet Charley Mitchell of England or his representative and arrange a match to box to a finish for the championship of the world, $10,000 a side and the largest purse offered by the Coney Island Athletic club, the Olympic Athletic club of New Orleans or the Crescent City Athletic club of the same city, the contest to be ac cording to Marquis of Queensberry rules, the club to have no power to stop the same or declare it a draw. It must be to a finish. On account of prevailing contracts and the necessary three months I will require to train, the battle will have to take place next December. If Mitchell accepts this proposition I insist on his depositing the whole amount of the side bet $10,000 at once, and also that he agrees to the final stakeholder when the articles are signed. I make this unusual demand because I don't think that Mitchell is in carnest, and can only ladge him by his previous netions. He only judge him by his previous actions. He signed a contract to box six rounds with me last February and deliberately broke the contract after I had started to train.

Will Also Meet Jackson. "I hereby accept Peter Jackson's challenge of recent date and today deposit the sum of $2,500 as a forfeit to bind a match under the following conditions: If Charles Mitch-ell does not accept my terms for a contest with him, I am prepared to box. Peter Jackson to a finish next. December, for $10,000 a side and the largest purse offered by the Coney Island Athletic club, the Olympic Athletic club of New Orleans or the Crescent lity Athletic club of the same city. Mitchell does not accept the above proposition I will make a match immediately with Peter Jackson to fight seven months after I meet Mitchell for the amount offered in his challenge. If Mr. Jackson so desires will increase my deposit to $10,000 at once f he will do the same, said amount to be forfeited in case either of us shall not set in accordance with the agreements. I am precoordance with the agreements. I am pre-ared to sign this week or further if Mr. Mitchell shall design to meet me and then flunk. Twelve Brutal Rounds Needed to Finish the Borly Australian SAN FRANCISCO, Cal., Feb. 15 .- Billy Smith, the Australian heavyweight, and Frank Childs (colored) of Los Angeles met in a finish fight at the California Athletic club tonight for a purse of $1,250. It was 9:30 before the fight commenced. Childs landed a straight lefthander on Smith's jaw in the first round and there were several exchanges which did little damage. Childs countered heavily on Smith's chin in the second, and the latter went down in the end. There several hot rallies in which the most vicious blows on the jaw were exchanged. Smith landed one or two terrible punches, but the colored man stood up under them. There were two knockdowns in the fourth round. Smith went down from a counter on the chin and Childs from a slight blow on the side. Childs was in better shape.

Childs drove a half dozen right and left swings into Smith's jaw, which made him groggy. Smith also received a rap in the mouth which made his nose bleed freely. Smith looked like a loser. In the sixth round the colored man did all the forcing. Childs was wild in his swings.
In the seventh Childs tried hard for a knockout, but the Australian took his pur ishment well. Smith's eyes were nov ishment well. Smith's eyes were now bleeding. Smith went down in the eighth, and when he rose Childs pounded him unmercifully and finally sent him down. When he rose to time Childs went after him again and pounded him all over the ring. Smith was barely able to stand up, but he fought Childs of until the end of the round. In the ninth and tenth rounds both were too weak to fight hard. Smith went down again in the eleventh from a short arm blow on the jaw. He arose weak and Childs soon sent him down twice more. He took nine seconds on the floor each time and rose bloody and weak. Call of time saved The twelfth round settled the Smith was scarcely able to stand, and Childs soon landed a right hand blow on Smith's iaw and sent him down and out. Smith had to be carried to his corner, and it was several minutes before he could be taken from the ring. CY SUTCLIFFE DEAD. Grim Death Gets the Great Slugger on a Foul Tip. Old Cy Sutcliffe has been called out for all time by the Almighty umpire. He died early Monday morning at his home in Wheaton, Iil., of Bright's disease of the kidneys. Sutcliffe was well known in Omaha. He was the premier entcher in Dan Shannon's champion base ball team, lest year caught for the Baltimores. Sutcliffe was formerly connected with the champion Detroits, also the Chi-cagos and Clevelands. He was quite a char-acter in his way, and were it not for his intemperate habits would undoubtedly have been the best professional backstop in the country. As it was, his irregular habits im-paired his efficiency and it was only at times e was seen at his best. He was seen at his best.

He was quite a wit and was celebrated for the way in which he could roast an umpire, at the same time keeping his eyes in an entirely different direction from that individual. On one occasion, during a game vidual. On one occasion, during a game here, Sut jumped onto King Gaff's neck after this style. But Gaffney was onto his little game and stepping up to Cyruis he tapped him on the shoulder and quietly remarked: Old man, that will just cost you $25."

Su cliffe looked at him in well feigned amazement, but discovering that Gaff could not be worked. Sate replied: "Well, I meant just what I said, that the rottenest umpire in the business coulan't do a bit better than you; you can't help it."

Sutcliffe had many friends in this city in the days of his residence here, and the news of his death will be heard with much sorrow and regret. He was a young man yet, in his and regret. He was a young man yet, in his 32d year, and looked good for fifty more up to within ten days of his sudden demise. His funeral takes place at 11 this morning.

Don't Be One of Them.

An explanation of the origin and mean ing of the expression "pig-headed" is given thus: "You get a pig in a potato patch, open a gap in the fence and try to drive him out. He will see that gap as well as you, but he'll run past it a hundred times and set your soul on fire. Finally he'll walk quietly out. That is the meaning of peg-headed. Lots of folks are pig-headed."

Getting Thin

is often equivalent to getting ill. If loss of flesh can be arrested and disease baffled the "weak spots" in the system are eradicated.

Scott's Emulsion

is an absolute corrective of "weak spots." It is a builder of worn out failing tissue—nature's food that stops waste and creates healthy flesh. Prepared by Noott & Bewne, Chemists, New York. Sold by druggists everywhere.

FOR MEDICINAL'USE

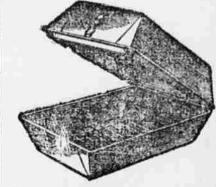

For checking a cold, preventing the grip, avoiding pheumonia and warding off the first stages of consumption, this whiskey, which is the only strictly pure medicinal whiskey in the markst, has never been equalled. For aiding debilitated men, for strengthening weak women and rendering them more attractive, it stands alone. It should be taken on the first indication of the coming of a cold. Do not allow your drugglist or grover to sell you anything else, claiming that it is "just as good." Insist upon having the purest and best.
