COMMERCIAL AND FINANCIAL

Compared with Wednesday's Closing Wheat is One-Half Cent Higher.

CORN AND OATS WERE RATHER WEAK

There Was Good Seiling by Longs in the Oats Crowd and Also Offerings by the Short Sellers-Stocks and Bonds.

CHICAGO, IIL, Feb. 23 .- The approaching funeral of the anti-options bill was the main reason assigned by the speculators for an advance in the price of wheat. Compared with last night May wheat is the dearer. July gained only isc. Corn and oats were weak, the former losing he and the latter He. Provisions had a moderate decline, amounting to 15c in May pork, 5c in May lard and 10c in May

A good many commission houses had liberal orders to buy wheat, and St. Louis sent in a generous batch of crop damage reports. These features, with the cables, gave a rather firm tone to the market. On the advance there was liberal realizing and short selling. The opening was 'se higher and prices advanced from 'se to 'se more, followed by a decline of fac, but again showed strength and prices were advanced 'ac, then ruled easy, receded from the to 'ac and closed steady. The fear of manipulation also acted as a check on the market for May delivery, but there was no disposition to sell July and that future rul at one time from 1%c to 1%c under May. In corn the feature of the day was free as 34011 at one time from 1 ic to 1 Ac other May. In corn the feature of the day was free sell-ing by commission bouses on country orders against property held at outside points. Re-ceipts for two days were posted at 280 cars, thus exceeding the estimate and 420 cars more expected for tomorrow. Some of the sell-ing was for eastern account and believed to be further liquidation on the part of the longs. The market opened unchanged, declined 5c and closed at a rally of 24c. There was good selling by longs in the oats crowd and also offerings by the short sellers, and as corn was weak and lower outs sympa-thized and prices receded 5c, but afterward recovered about half the loss. May be about the situation to raid the market. They were added by the fact that bog receipts were fairly liberal and that the packing for the week showed a slight increase. At inside prices there was a little more in-ulty and the market ralled to about medium fours at the close. The theorem is for tomorrow: Wheat figures at the close. Estimated receipts for tomorrow: Wheat, cars; corn. 420 cars; oats, 215 cars; hogs,

Work of the Minneapolis Mills for the Past

Weak-The Market. MINSEAPOLIS, Minn., Veb. 23 -The Northwestern Miller says: Between a shortage of cars and an ability to get barrels, the mills were prevented from running as heavily last week as they otherwise would have done and the output showed a decrease of over 11,000 barrels. The production was 163,735 barrels. averaging 27,289 barrels a day, against 175,-165 barrels the week before, 171,260 barrels 165 barrels the week before, 171.200 barrels for the corresponding time in 1892 and 112,000 barrels in 1891. The difficulty in obtaining cars and barrels still exists, though perhaps not to as great an extent as was the case in the latter half of last week. While about the same capacity is in operation this week, the chances are that the output will be increased somewhat. newhat Although the flour market is still described Although the flour market is still described by millers as very dull, some of them manared last week to sell about as much flour as they ground. A few made foreign sales, accepting pretty low figures in doing so, that branch of the market being greatly depressed by the large stocks of breadstuffs in sight in the United Kingdom. Im porters show the most interest in patents and bakers drag badly. Millers are still able to get more for their low grades in this country as feed than they can get abroad, and they are handling trades and stocks, as the weakness in wheat makes them apprehensive of lower values. Prices of flour have sagged a little more and can be quoted about 5 cents lower.

NEW YORK, Feb. 23.-The dry goods market as without much animation on the spot as rewas without much animation on the spot as re-gards business with commission houses, but two day's mail brought a good volume of orders for replenishment, which embraced all selections of goods. There was no special feature. The more active call was for dress goods, fine ginghams, white goods, printed dress fabrics and tickings. The demand for staple cottons indicates steadiness of wants for most all descriptions.

STOCKS AND BONDS Result of the Reading Failure Still Disturbing the Exchange. NEW YORK, Feb. 23.—Although the full ef-fect of the liquidations in Reading has prob-ably been seen in that stock itself, the after effects are now being felt by the general marsot. The Reading episode has had a chilling effect upon foreign investors, who were begin ning again to turn their attention to American railroads as the most desirable field for the placing of their surplus funds, and speculators at home who have been crippled by the extraordinary drop, not only in Reading but in other stocks of late, find themselves unable to hold on and their holdings are dropping into stronger hands. In the stock market the bears are aggressive and meet with little opposition their efforts to take away the markets from the sellers by necessity. Their operations today expended to the entire active list, although the market, especially during the earlier part of the day, showed considerable narrowness and some resistance. The event of the day was the resignation of President Parsons and the directors in sympathy with his management, and its effect was amediately to intensify the weakness prevailing in the general list. The final culmination of the control of Reading in the New England acted, however, as a sustaining power. in that stock, and after the opening decline it was well held within comparatively narrow limits. Friends of the Parsons management, limits. Friends of the Parsons management, nowever, were liberal selfers of New England, that stock became one of the weakest on the list. Reading opened with a decline of 1% per-cent, but at the close of the day had recov-ered % percent, but New England closed at its lowest figure, with a loss of 3% per cent. The other coal stocks were affected by the impression that a fall in coal prices was inev-itable, and Lackawanna closed with a loss of 4 percent and belaware & Hudson, notwith-standing the dividend of 5%, closed 25% per cent lo zer.

Among the railroad stocks the only feature

Among the railroad stocks the only feature of importance was the drop in Norther: Pa-clife preferred under bear pressure in the last hour. It closed at a shade above its lowest point with a net loss of 4% per cent. The switchmen's strike in Chicago became an established fact today and was one of the most powerful influences in encouraging the bears in their drives at the general list. Naturally the roads centering in Chicago were the most vulnerable, and Burlington. St. Paul and Rock Island all suffered declines of over 2 per cent.

per cent. The most striking feature of the day, how-ever, was the renewal of heavy selling in Sugar, the transactions in which were at-tended with quite as much excitement as those in Reading and New England, and its those in Reading and New England. per cent. those in Reading and New England, and its price was steadily depressed until at 11:52 it showed a loss of 7% per cent. The shorts covered and a raily of 3 per cent fol-lowed which was reflected in higher prices all over the list, but there was a marked lack of support in the stock and the last price was only % per cent better than its lowest, its net lossfor the day reaching 7% percent. The other industrials followed at a distance, but were quiet and moved in sympathy with rail-road shares.

All the leading stocks showed material de-clines, Western Union being the only marked exception, but after an advance of nearly 1 per cent in the early trading the general weak-ness was felt and the entire improvement was lost, its closing price showing a decline of % per cent. Manimatian yielded up all of its late improvements and closed 3 nor cent lower at improvements and closed 3 per cent lower at 157, after selling at 1544. The greater part of the losses sustained were suffered in the last hour, when the market became nervous throughout and closed weak and active at throughout and closed weak and active at about the lowest points. The Peest says: The collapse of Reading still exerts a disturbing influence, but it has left an object lesson as well. For many months bill cliques and pools have been powerful factors in the market, and especially in steadily advancing certain stocks, mostly the industrials of the international manage-ment. It may be safely assorted that some of these pools are held in much less dread since recent developments. In the present condi-tion of the money market, collateral will be scrutinized very closely, and distrust will cer-tainly be rated against all stock that does not bear such an examination or that invites as-ear such an examination or that invites as-aults with the object of bringing about forced liquidation. The following are the closing quotations of the leading stocks on the New York Stock ex-

Cattle Trade Recovers Somewhat Under Light Receipts—Hogs Scarce and Higher.

THURSDAY, Feb. 23. Receipts of all kinds were light today. The four days supply foots up 12,492 cattle, 11,614 hogs and 11,431 sheep, against 8,568 cattle, 12,695 hogs and 5,884 sheep the same four days last week.

The general cattle market was active and stronger. The decline of the three preceding days had the effect of shutting off supplies somewhat, and there were less than 100 fresh cars of cattle of all kinds received. As far as the beef steers were concerned, the quality of the offerings was indifferent. There were none here that could be called choice, and but few that graded less than fair. As is usually the case on Thursday, the inquiry from speculative shippers was decidedly limited, but the demand from the dressed beef men was good and in the absence of positively discouraging news from Chicago buyers were generally willing to part on a nickel or two where the cattle hap-

A few fat cows and heifers and the best grades of bulls were closed out at former quotations, and some apoor stuff sold a liftle lower. Not a few cattle remained in sellers hands at the close of trading and the prospect for the remainder of this week is not hopeful. Quotations range from $1.50 to $4 for poor to choice cows: from $2.50 to $4.25 for stockers and feeders: from $3.50 to $6 for dressed beef and shipping steers. Hogs were 10c lower. Closing quotations were from $7.50 to $7.20 for common to prime light, $7.70 to $8.15 for mixed and medium and from $7.90 to $8.25 for heavy weights—averages of over $200 lbs. Not many sales were effected at over $8.15.

STRONG NERVES REQUIRED IN THE TERRIBLE STRUGGLE. Thousands Break Down Completely

Colonels Hain and Potter Tell of the Efects of Excitement-How They Are Able to Withstand the Strains

"I have just come up from Wall street and

The speaker looked it. He was a broker who had just passed through an exciting day with an excited market, says the New York drawn corners of his mouth showed the strain that he had been through. What did he do!

I was determimed in my capacity as a reporter for the press to investigate Wall street,-not with reference to its monetary wealth, but its physical health. I noted a very general tendency on the street to do away with stimulants, which only have a temporary effect, and employ instead something which builds up and acts as a real food for the nerves. Here is what some prominent men

Colonel G. P. Potter, vice-president of the National Mutual Insurance Company, on bearing the object of my visit, spoke of the terrible strain he had undergone in the management of a highly important business. "My trouble," he said, "has been chronic constipation and insomnia. One is bad enough ; both horrible. Hearing of Paine's celery compound I thought that it might fit my case; so I went to a drug store and bought two bottles,

I'm on the second bottle now, and deriving

I next called on Mr. William P. Green, who remarkable statement: "Having done a great deal of railway traveling I felt com-curiosity was aroused by what I heard of Paine's colery compound and I resolved to test it. It acted far beyond my expectations and gave me a rest at night, a good appetite during the day, and a cheerful good feeling all the time. The idea occurred to me to mention its good effects to some friends. I did so but almost all of them knew about it.

This is true, particularly of President Van

Allen of the National Bank of Albany, and
