

MOSHER CHANGES HIS MIND

He Has Concluded He Will Not Go to the Penitentiary This Time.

PROMISES TO PAY OFF HIS DEBTS

Let Off with a Fine He Will Make Good His Promises—Railroaders Feel Satisfied That They Have Won a Point.

Lincoln, Neb., March 22.—[Special Telegram to The Bee.]—It is now known for a definite certainty that Bank Wrecker Mosher has given up all idea of going to the penitentiary for his crimes against the state and the people who have trusted him with the use of their funds, and is now just as anxious to escape with a fine as he was to suffer imprisonment two months ago.

S. H. Burnham, cashier of the American Exchange National bank of this city, returned today from Chicago, where he was for the purpose of holding a conference with the indicted bank president. He states that he found Mosher enjoying the best of health and in fine spirits. Mosher stated to Burnham that he had just returned from a visit to his father and father-in-law in the interior part of the state, and that he had made arrangements with them for assistance in relieving the fortunes of the bank. He said that he was now anxious to compromise with the authorities on the basis of a fine instead of imprisonment, and that he was in a position to pledge that if such an arrangement was made the depositors in the broken bank would lose a cent.

His Made His Bluff Work.

Mr. Burnham says that he believed that Mosher is for the first time in a position where he can pledge the assistance of his relatives in case he is offered a fine from punishment in the shape of imprisonment. Burnham's interview with Mosher confirms the views of a large majority of the people of Lincoln, who have all along refused to believe that he was anxious to pay the penalty for his crimes. It is safe to say that not one man in a hundred has believed Mosher's intense desire to go to the penitentiary, but that on the other hand he has simply worked the grand bluff of his friends in the sole purpose of compelling his people to come to his assistance and keep him out of a felon's cell.

Railroaders Feel Confident.

The railroad lobby is now feeling so certain that the senate will restore the salaries of the three secretaries of the State Board of Transportation to the appropriation bill, and that the house will be compelled to agree to the restoration in the confusion of the closing days of the session, that there is a renewal of the discussion of the probable make-up of the new board of secretaries after the 1st of May. Ex-Senator Vandenberg of Indiana, who is in Lincoln today and he quietly but positively asserted that new secretaries had been agreed on and that the new board would be composed of Vandenberg, W. A. Dillworth of Hastings, Charlie Magnus of Lincoln and himself. Of these three illustrious worthies it must be said that Dillworth and Magnus have been working for the places ever since the success of the republican ticket was assured last fall. Vandenberg, a demagogue, has been equally as persistent in his activity in working for the place which he thought asserts with so much positiveness that he will secure. This program contemplates the removal of W. Johnson and ex-Senator Keown, who now fill the places. Dillworth being allowed to hold over because of his seniority in the work in behalf of the railroad in the past.

Hitchcock's Hand Exposed.

It is beginning to dawn on several of the members of the legislature that there is a lot of slip work behind house bill No. 332, and that it is sought to use the legislature to gratify the spleen of one man in Omaha. It is charged that the bill is a piece of legislation and it is claimed that if the bill passes the World-Herald will get a portion of the advertising that it is now unable to get, and will publish it at greatly reduced rates. Now that some of the members are taking the trouble to examine into the situation they find that there is no extortion, that the rate is the rate, and that the rate is the same as charged everywhere in the state, and that the same rates are being paid to Omaha, and has been since the liquor dealers and druggists over whom so many tears have been shed under false pretenses. Any one who examines the bills of the city hall will find that the same extortion charged by Hitchcock is the same as practiced by him every day in the year. The very same question was settled in this city only yesterday in the fight between the State Journal and the News over the publication of liquor applications, the matter being settled by the fact that the rate which paper should publish them, and the rate being fixed by law. The bill in the condition in which it is now ordered amended, would apply only to Omaha, and would be a violation in the interest of the World-Herald. This is one of the reasons why the opposition to the bill is increasing.

Welcomed Their Pastor.

Yonkers, Neb., March 22.—[Special Telegram to The Bee.]—Rev. R. T. Cross, pastor of the First Congregational church of this city, was warmly welcomed last night by his congregation and the members of the other churches of the city. An interesting program was rendered. Rev. Mr. Cross was welcomed by the pastors of the different churches of the city, to which he resided in a pleasant way. The Epworth league of the Methodist Episcopal church held its regular monthly meeting last night at the residence of Dr. J. B. Conway.

Oscola, Neb., March 22.—[Special Telegram to The Bee.]—The first Episcopal church services were held in this city last night by the Rev. Mr. Cross, who was welcomed by the members of the church and the members of the other churches of the city. There was a large number of persons present and they were warmly welcomed by the members of the church and the members of the other churches of the city.

Kearney News Notes.

Kearney, Neb., March 22.—[Special Telegram to The Bee.]—The members of the Industrial school, who were called home from Omaha last night on account of the serious illness of his wife.

A meeting was held at the city hall last night under the title of "The Caucus." There were only about forty out of the twenty-three who were democrats. Mrs. Phil Brady, wife of Mayor Brady, and Mrs. Charles Collier, wife of the mayor, were the only two who were republicans. Mrs. W. H. Hunt, wife of the mayor, was the only one who was a democrat. The meeting was held at the city hall last night under the title of "The Caucus." There were only about forty out of the twenty-three who were democrats. Mrs. Phil Brady, wife of Mayor Brady, and Mrs. Charles Collier, wife of the mayor, were the only two who were republicans. Mrs. W. H. Hunt, wife of the mayor, was the only one who was a democrat. The meeting was held at the city hall last night under the title of "The Caucus." There were only about forty out of the twenty-three who were democrats. Mrs. Phil Brady, wife of Mayor Brady, and Mrs. Charles Collier, wife of the mayor, were the only two who were republicans. Mrs. W. H. Hunt, wife of the mayor, was the only one who was a democrat.

Preferred Death to Sickness.

Ponca, Neb., March 22.—[Special Telegram to The Bee.]—This morning about 3 a. m. Miss Rosa Dewey committed suicide by taking a dose of strychnine. Her home is near Waterbury, Neb., but since March 1 she had resided with Mrs. Lida Clark in Ponca for the purpose of receiving medical treatment.

Fatal Result of a Fight.

Point Neblum, Neb., March 22.—[Special Telegram to The Bee.]—Private Eli P. Wagoner, troop E, Sixth cavalry, who was killed by Private Baxter of the same troop Monday, died here this afternoon.

Arrested an Alleged Forger.

Beatrice, Neb., March 22.—[Special Telegram to The Bee.]—William A. Wagoner, who was recently indicted for forgery by

BURIAL OF JULES FERRY

Solemn and Imposable Ceremonies Over the Remains of the Great Statesman.

SINCERELY MOURNED BY THE PEOPLE

All France Pays a Tribute of Love and Sorrow at His Burial—Thousands Attend His Funeral—Addresses by Prominent People.

PARIS, March 22.—Thousands of strangers came to the city today to attend the funeral of Jules Ferry. An immense mortuary chapel with nave and transepts had been erected in the courtyard of Luxembourg. It was draped with black cloth, edged with silver lace and emblazoned with the monogram of the dead statesman. The coffin, covered with a crimson and white pall, remained until 1 o'clock in the Salle des Glades, where the body has lain in state, and was then removed to the catafalque. Shortly before the body was borne up the aisle the nave was illuminated by the lighting of the enormous silver candelabra and hundreds of tapers were placed in single lines on each side of the row of flaming cressets, which extended to the right and left before the platform. Already, at 11 o'clock, the persons having invitations had begun to arrive. There were judges, cabinet ministers, generals, diplomats, senators, deputies, authors, naval officers, many of them with wreaths, sashes and floral crosses, which they laid around the coffin.

Killed While Hunting Ducks.

ALMA, Neb., March 22.—[Special Telegram to The Bee.]—A distressing accident happened here this afternoon, in which Oscar Liberty, son of R. M. Liberty, a lad of 14, lost his life. He, with a companion about his own age, were duck shooting, when Oscar, who had been seen by his companion Oscar was standing on a log leaning on his gun, which by some means was discharged, the entire load of duck shot entering his throat, coming out at the back of his head. Death was instantaneous. His parents are prostrated with grief. An inquest was held and the jury returned a verdict in accordance with the above facts.

TARIFF REFORM AT WORK.

E. Ellery Anderson of El Paso, a Substitute for the McKinley Bill.

New York, March 22.—The special committee of the reform club of this city has completed a draft of a bill, which, when perfected, will be urged upon congress as a substitute for the present tariff laws, and in fulfillment of the pledges under which democracy has obtained control of the national government. The general principles upon which the proposed tariff is formed in the main are as follows:

Crude materials in general are made free of duty. In taking other articles the general object has been to fix such rates as would produce the largest amount of revenue in a series of years consistent with large importations, for the purpose of obtaining the largest revenue possible under the tariff. The duties on the various articles of the tariff are as follows: Crude materials in general are made free of duty. In taking other articles the general object has been to fix such rates as would produce the largest amount of revenue in a series of years consistent with large importations, for the purpose of obtaining the largest revenue possible under the tariff.

As to liquors and tobacco, the duties upon them should be made with a view to obtaining the largest revenue possible under the tariff. The duties on the various articles of the tariff are as follows: Crude materials in general are made free of duty. In taking other articles the general object has been to fix such rates as would produce the largest amount of revenue in a series of years consistent with large importations, for the purpose of obtaining the largest revenue possible under the tariff.

Yielding in part to popular opinion, that silk is a luxury, we placed silk manufactures generally at 30 per cent. Silk yarns, thread and hosiery, at 20 per cent. Cotton goods, at 15 per cent. Woolen goods, at 10 per cent. The duties on the various articles of the tariff are as follows: Crude materials in general are made free of duty. In taking other articles the general object has been to fix such rates as would produce the largest amount of revenue in a series of years consistent with large importations, for the purpose of obtaining the largest revenue possible under the tariff.

Yielding in part to popular opinion, that silk is a luxury, we placed silk manufactures generally at 30 per cent. Silk yarns, thread and hosiery, at 20 per cent. Cotton goods, at 15 per cent. Woolen goods, at 10 per cent. The duties on the various articles of the tariff are as follows: Crude materials in general are made free of duty. In taking other articles the general object has been to fix such rates as would produce the largest amount of revenue in a series of years consistent with large importations, for the purpose of obtaining the largest revenue possible under the tariff.

Yielding in part to popular opinion, that silk is a luxury, we placed silk manufactures generally at 30 per cent. Silk yarns, thread and hosiery, at 20 per cent. Cotton goods, at 15 per cent. Woolen goods, at 10 per cent. The duties on the various articles of the tariff are as follows: Crude materials in general are made free of duty. In taking other articles the general object has been to fix such rates as would produce the largest amount of revenue in a series of years consistent with large importations, for the purpose of obtaining the largest revenue possible under the tariff.

Yielding in part to popular opinion, that silk is a luxury, we placed silk manufactures generally at 30 per cent. Silk yarns, thread and hosiery, at 20 per cent. Cotton goods, at 15 per cent. Woolen goods, at 10 per cent. The duties on the various articles of the tariff are as follows: Crude materials in general are made free of duty. In taking other articles the general object has been to fix such rates as would produce the largest amount of revenue in a series of years consistent with large importations, for the purpose of obtaining the largest revenue possible under the tariff.

Yielding in part to popular opinion, that silk is a luxury, we placed silk manufactures generally at 30 per cent. Silk yarns, thread and hosiery, at 20 per cent. Cotton goods, at 15 per cent. Woolen goods, at 10 per cent. The duties on the various articles of the tariff are as follows: Crude materials in general are made free of duty. In taking other articles the general object has been to fix such rates as would produce the largest amount of revenue in a series of years consistent with large importations, for the purpose of obtaining the largest revenue possible under the tariff.

Yielding in part to popular opinion, that silk is a luxury, we placed silk manufactures generally at 30 per cent. Silk yarns, thread and hosiery, at 20 per cent. Cotton goods, at 15 per cent. Woolen goods, at 10 per cent. The duties on the various articles of the tariff are as follows: Crude materials in general are made free of duty. In taking other articles the general object has been to fix such rates as would produce the largest amount of revenue in a series of years consistent with large importations, for the purpose of obtaining the largest revenue possible under the tariff.

Yielding in part to popular opinion, that silk is a luxury, we placed silk manufactures generally at 30 per cent. Silk yarns, thread and hosiery, at 20 per cent. Cotton goods, at 15 per cent. Woolen goods, at 10 per cent. The duties on the various articles of the tariff are as follows: Crude materials in general are made free of duty. In taking other articles the general object has been to fix such rates as would produce the largest amount of revenue in a series of years consistent with large importations, for the purpose of obtaining the largest revenue possible under the tariff.

Yielding in part to popular opinion, that silk is a luxury, we placed silk manufactures generally at 30 per cent. Silk yarns, thread and hosiery, at 20 per cent. Cotton goods, at 15 per cent. Woolen goods, at 10 per cent. The duties on the various articles of the tariff are as follows: Crude materials in general are made free of duty. In taking other articles the general object has been to fix such rates as would produce the largest amount of revenue in a series of years consistent with large importations, for the purpose of obtaining the largest revenue possible under the tariff.

Yielding in part to popular opinion, that silk is a luxury, we placed silk manufactures generally at 30 per cent. Silk yarns, thread and hosiery, at 20 per cent. Cotton goods, at 15 per cent. Woolen goods, at 10 per cent. The duties on the various articles of the tariff are as follows: Crude materials in general are made free of duty. In taking other articles the general object has been to fix such rates as would produce the largest amount of revenue in a series of years consistent with large importations, for the purpose of obtaining the largest revenue possible under the tariff.

Yielding in part to popular opinion, that silk is a luxury, we placed silk manufactures generally at 30 per cent. Silk yarns, thread and hosiery, at 20 per cent. Cotton goods, at 15 per cent. Woolen goods, at 10 per cent. The duties on the various articles of the tariff are as follows: Crude materials in general are made free of duty. In taking other articles the general object has been to fix such rates as would produce the largest amount of revenue in a series of years consistent with large importations, for the purpose of obtaining the largest revenue possible under the tariff.

Yielding in part to popular opinion, that silk is a luxury, we placed silk manufactures generally at 30 per cent. Silk yarns, thread and hosiery, at 20 per cent. Cotton goods, at 15 per cent. Woolen goods, at 10 per cent. The duties on the various articles of the tariff are as follows: Crude materials in general are made free of duty. In taking other articles the general object has been to fix such rates as would produce the largest amount of revenue in a series of years consistent with large importations, for the purpose of obtaining the largest revenue possible under the tariff.

Yielding in part to popular opinion, that silk is a luxury, we placed silk manufactures generally at 30 per cent. Silk yarns, thread and hosiery, at 20 per cent. Cotton goods, at 15 per cent. Woolen goods, at 10 per cent. The duties on the various articles of the tariff are as follows: Crude materials in general are made free of duty. In taking other articles the general object has been to fix such rates as would produce the largest amount of revenue in a series of years consistent with large importations, for the purpose of obtaining the largest revenue possible under the tariff.

Yielding in part to popular opinion, that silk is a luxury, we placed silk manufactures generally at 30 per cent. Silk yarns, thread and hosiery, at 20 per cent. Cotton goods, at 15 per cent. Woolen goods, at 10 per cent. The duties on the various articles of the tariff are as follows: Crude materials in general are made free of duty. In taking other articles the general object has been to fix such rates as would produce the largest amount of revenue in a series of years consistent with large importations, for the purpose of obtaining the largest revenue possible under the tariff.

Yielding in part to popular opinion, that silk is a luxury, we placed silk manufactures generally at 30 per cent. Silk yarns, thread and hosiery, at 20 per cent. Cotton goods, at 15 per cent. Woolen goods, at 10 per cent. The duties on the various articles of the tariff are as follows: Crude materials in general are made free of duty. In taking other articles the general object has been to fix such rates as would produce the largest amount of revenue in a series of years consistent with large importations, for the purpose of obtaining the largest revenue possible under the tariff.

Yielding in part to popular opinion, that silk is a luxury, we placed silk manufactures generally at 30 per cent. Silk yarns, thread and hosiery, at 20 per cent. Cotton goods, at 15 per cent. Woolen goods, at 10 per cent. The duties on the various articles of the tariff are as follows: Crude materials in general are made free of duty. In taking other articles the general object has been to fix such rates as would produce the largest amount of revenue in a series of years consistent with large importations, for the purpose of obtaining the largest revenue possible under the tariff.

Yielding in part to popular opinion, that silk is a luxury, we placed silk manufactures generally at 30 per cent. Silk yarns, thread and hosiery, at 20 per cent. Cotton goods, at 15 per cent. Woolen goods, at 10 per cent. The duties on the various articles of the tariff are as follows: Crude materials in general are made free of duty. In taking other articles the general object has been to fix such rates as would produce the largest amount of revenue in a series of years consistent with large importations, for the purpose of obtaining the largest revenue possible under the tariff.

Yielding in part to popular opinion, that silk is a luxury, we placed silk manufactures generally at 30 per cent. Silk yarns, thread and hosiery, at 20 per cent. Cotton goods, at 15 per cent. Woolen goods, at 10 per cent. The duties on the various articles of the tariff are as follows: Crude materials in general are made free of duty. In taking other articles the general object has been to fix such rates as would produce the largest amount of revenue in a series of years consistent with large importations, for the purpose of obtaining the largest revenue possible under the tariff.

Yielding in part to popular opinion, that silk is a luxury, we placed silk manufactures generally at 30 per cent. Silk yarns, thread and hosiery, at 20 per cent. Cotton goods, at 15 per cent. Woolen goods, at 10 per cent. The duties on the various articles of the tariff are as follows: Crude materials in general are made free of duty. In taking other articles the general object has been to fix such rates as would produce the largest amount of revenue in a series of years consistent with large importations, for the purpose of obtaining the largest revenue possible under the tariff.

Yielding in part to popular opinion, that silk is a luxury, we placed silk manufactures generally at 30 per cent. Silk yarns, thread and hosiery, at 20 per cent. Cotton goods, at 15 per cent. Woolen goods, at 10 per cent. The duties on the various articles of the tariff are as follows: Crude materials in general are made free of duty. In taking other articles the general object has been to fix such rates as would produce the largest amount of revenue in a series of years consistent with large importations, for the purpose of obtaining the largest revenue possible under the tariff.

Yielding in part to popular opinion, that silk is a luxury, we placed silk manufactures generally at 30 per cent. Silk yarns, thread and hosiery, at 20 per cent. Cotton goods, at 15 per cent. Woolen goods, at 10 per cent. The duties on the various articles of the tariff are as follows: Crude materials in general are made free of duty. In taking other articles the general object has been to fix such rates as would produce the largest amount of revenue in a series of years consistent with large importations, for the purpose of obtaining the largest revenue possible under the tariff.

Yielding in part to popular opinion, that silk is a luxury, we placed silk manufactures generally at 30 per cent. Silk yarns, thread and hosiery, at 20 per cent. Cotton goods, at 15 per cent. Woolen goods, at 10 per cent. The duties on the various articles of the tariff are as follows: Crude materials in general are made free of duty. In taking other articles the general object has been to fix such rates as would produce the largest amount of revenue in a series of years consistent with large importations, for the purpose of obtaining the largest revenue possible under the tariff.

Yielding in part to popular opinion, that silk is a luxury, we placed silk manufactures generally at 30 per cent. Silk yarns, thread and hosiery, at 20 per cent. Cotton goods, at 15 per cent. Woolen goods, at 10 per cent. The duties on the various articles of the tariff are as follows: Crude materials in general are made free of duty. In taking other articles the general object has been to fix such rates as would produce the largest amount of revenue in a series of years consistent with large importations, for the purpose of obtaining the largest revenue possible under the tariff.

Yielding in part to popular opinion, that silk is a luxury, we placed silk manufactures generally at 30 per cent. Silk yarns, thread and hosiery, at 20 per cent. Cotton goods, at 15 per cent. Woolen goods, at 10 per cent. The duties on the various articles of the tariff are as follows: Crude materials in general are made free of duty. In taking other articles the general object has been to fix such rates as would produce the largest amount of revenue in a series of years consistent with large importations, for the purpose of obtaining the largest revenue possible under the tariff.

Yielding in part to popular opinion, that silk is a luxury, we placed silk manufactures generally at 30 per cent. Silk yarns, thread and hosiery, at 20 per cent. Cotton goods, at 15 per cent. Woolen goods, at 10 per cent. The duties on the various articles of the tariff are as follows: Crude materials in general are made free of duty. In taking other articles the general object has been to fix such rates as would produce the largest amount of revenue in a series of years consistent with large importations, for the purpose of obtaining the largest revenue possible under the tariff.

Yielding in part to popular opinion, that silk is a luxury, we placed silk manufactures generally at 30 per cent. Silk yarns, thread and hosiery, at 20 per cent. Cotton goods, at 15 per cent. Woolen goods, at 10 per cent. The duties on the various articles of the tariff are as follows: Crude materials in general are made free of duty. In taking other articles the general object has been to fix such rates as would produce the largest amount of revenue in a series of years consistent with large importations, for the purpose of obtaining the largest revenue possible under the tariff.

Yielding in part to popular opinion, that silk is a luxury, we placed silk manufactures generally at 30 per cent. Silk yarns, thread and hosiery, at 20 per cent. Cotton goods, at 15 per cent. Woolen goods, at 10 per cent. The duties on the various articles of the tariff are as follows: Crude materials in general are made free of duty. In taking other articles the general object has been to fix such rates as would produce the largest amount of revenue in a series of years consistent with large importations, for the purpose of obtaining the largest revenue possible under the tariff.

Yielding in part to popular opinion, that silk is a luxury, we placed silk manufactures generally at 30 per cent. Silk yarns, thread and hosiery, at 20 per cent. Cotton goods, at 15 per cent. Woolen goods, at 10 per cent. The duties on the various articles of the tariff are as follows: Crude materials in general are made free of duty. In taking other articles the general object has been to fix such rates as would produce the largest amount of revenue in a series of years consistent with large importations, for the purpose of obtaining the largest revenue possible under the tariff.

Yielding in part to popular opinion, that silk is a luxury, we placed silk manufactures generally at 30 per cent. Silk yarns, thread and hosiery, at 20 per cent. Cotton goods, at 15 per cent. Woolen goods, at 10 per cent. The duties on the various articles of the tariff are as follows: Crude materials in general are made free of duty. In taking other articles the general object has been to fix such rates as would produce the largest amount of revenue in a series of years consistent with large importations, for the purpose of obtaining the largest revenue possible under the tariff.

Yielding in part to popular opinion, that silk is a luxury, we placed silk manufactures generally at 30 per cent. Silk yarns, thread and hosiery, at 20 per cent. Cotton goods, at 15 per cent. Woolen goods, at 10 per cent. The duties on the various articles of the tariff are as follows: Crude materials in general are made free of duty. In taking other articles the general object has been to fix such rates as would produce the largest amount of revenue in a series of years consistent with large importations, for the purpose of obtaining the largest revenue possible under the tariff.

Yielding in part to popular opinion, that silk is a luxury, we placed silk manufactures generally at 30 per cent. Silk yarns, thread and hosiery, at 20 per cent. Cotton goods, at 15 per cent. Woolen goods, at 10 per cent. The duties on the various articles of the tariff are as follows: Crude materials in general are made free of duty. In taking other articles the general object has been to fix such rates as would produce the largest amount of revenue in a series of years consistent with large importations, for the purpose of obtaining the largest revenue possible under the tariff.

Yielding in part to popular opinion, that silk is a luxury, we placed silk manufactures generally at 30 per cent. Silk yarns, thread and hosiery, at 20 per cent. Cotton goods, at 15 per cent. Woolen goods, at 10 per cent. The duties on the various articles of the tariff are as follows: Crude materials in general are made free of duty. In taking other articles the general object has been to fix such rates as would produce the largest amount of revenue in a series of years consistent with large importations, for the purpose of obtaining the largest revenue possible under the tariff.

Yielding in part to popular opinion, that silk is a luxury, we placed silk manufactures generally at 30 per cent. Silk yarns, thread and hosiery, at 20 per cent. Cotton goods, at 15 per cent. Woolen goods, at 10 per cent. The duties on the various articles of the tariff are as follows: Crude materials in general are made free of duty. In taking other articles the general object has been to fix such rates as would produce the largest amount of revenue in a series of years consistent with large importations, for the purpose of obtaining the largest revenue possible under the tariff.

Yielding in part to popular opinion, that silk is a luxury, we placed silk manufactures generally at 30 per cent. Silk yarns, thread and hosiery, at 20 per cent. Cotton goods, at 15 per cent. Woolen goods, at 10 per cent. The duties on the various articles of the tariff are as follows: Crude materials in general are made free of duty. In taking other articles the general object has been to fix such rates as would produce the largest amount of revenue in a series of years consistent with large importations, for the purpose of obtaining the largest revenue possible under the tariff.

Yielding in part to popular opinion, that silk is a luxury, we placed silk manufactures generally at 30 per cent. Silk yarns, thread and hosiery, at 20 per cent. Cotton goods, at 15 per cent. Woolen goods, at 10 per cent. The duties on the various articles of the tariff are as follows: Crude materials in general are made free of duty. In taking other articles the general object has been to fix such rates as would produce the largest amount of revenue in a series of years consistent with large importations, for the purpose of obtaining the largest revenue possible under the tariff.

Yielding in part to popular opinion, that silk is a luxury, we placed silk manufactures generally at 30 per cent. Silk yarns, thread and hosiery, at 20 per cent. Cotton goods, at 15 per cent. Woolen goods, at 10 per cent. The duties on the various articles of the tariff are as follows: Crude materials in general are made free of duty. In taking other articles the general object has been to fix such rates as would produce the largest amount of revenue in a series of years consistent with large importations, for the purpose of obtaining the largest revenue possible under the tariff.

Yielding in part to popular opinion, that silk is a luxury, we placed silk manufactures generally at 30 per cent. Silk yarns, thread and hosiery, at 20 per cent. Cotton goods, at 15 per cent. Woolen goods, at 10 per cent. The duties on the various articles of the tariff are as follows: Crude materials in general are made free of duty. In taking other articles the general object has been to fix such rates as would produce the largest amount of revenue in a series of years consistent with large importations, for the purpose of obtaining the largest revenue possible under the tariff.

Yielding in part to popular opinion, that silk is a luxury, we placed silk manufactures generally at 30 per cent. Silk yarns, thread and hosiery, at 20 per cent. Cotton goods, at 15 per cent. Woolen goods, at 10 per cent. The duties on the various articles of the tariff are as follows: Crude materials in general are made free of duty. In taking other articles the general object has been to fix such rates as would produce the largest amount of revenue in a series of years consistent with large importations, for the purpose of obtaining the largest revenue possible under the tariff.

Yielding in part to popular opinion, that silk is a luxury, we placed silk manufactures generally at 30 per cent. Silk yarns, thread and hosiery, at 20 per cent. Cotton goods, at 15 per cent. Woolen goods, at 10 per cent. The duties on the various articles of the tariff are as follows: Crude materials in general are made free of duty. In taking other articles the general object has been to fix such rates as would produce the largest amount of revenue in a series of years consistent with large importations, for the purpose of obtaining the largest revenue possible under the tariff.

Yielding in part to popular opinion, that silk is a luxury, we placed silk manufactures generally at 30 per cent. Silk yarns, thread and hosiery, at 20 per cent. Cotton goods, at 15 per cent. Woolen goods, at 10 per cent. The duties on the various articles of the tariff are as follows: Crude materials in general are made free of duty. In taking other articles the general object has been to fix such rates as would produce the largest amount of revenue in a series of years consistent with large importations, for the purpose of obtaining the largest revenue possible under the tariff.

Yielding in part to popular opinion, that silk is a luxury, we placed silk manufactures generally at 30 per cent. Silk yarns, thread and hosiery, at 20 per cent. Cotton goods, at 15 per cent. Woolen goods, at 10 per cent. The duties on the various articles of the tariff are as follows: Crude materials in general are made free of duty. In taking other articles the general object has been to fix such rates as would produce the largest amount of revenue in a series of years consistent with large importations, for the purpose of obtaining the largest revenue possible under the tariff.

Yielding in part to popular opinion, that silk is a luxury, we placed silk manufactures generally at 30 per cent. Silk yarns, thread and hosiery, at 20 per cent. Cotton goods, at 15 per cent. Woolen goods, at 10 per cent. The duties on the various articles of the tariff are as follows: Crude materials in general are made free of duty. In taking other articles the general object has been to fix such rates as would produce the largest amount of revenue in a series of years consistent with large importations, for the purpose of obtaining the largest revenue possible under the tariff.

Yielding in part to popular opinion, that silk is a luxury, we placed silk manufactures generally at 30 per cent. Silk yarns, thread and hosiery, at 20 per cent. Cotton goods, at 15 per cent. Woolen goods, at 10 per cent. The duties on the various articles of the tariff are as follows: Crude materials in general are made free of duty. In taking other articles the general object has been to fix such rates as would produce the largest amount of revenue in a series of years consistent with large importations, for the purpose of obtaining the largest revenue possible under the tariff.

Yielding in part to popular opinion, that silk is a luxury, we placed silk manufactures generally at 30 per cent. Silk yarns, thread and hosiery, at 20 per cent. Cotton goods, at 15 per cent. Woolen goods, at 10 per cent. The duties on the various articles of the tariff are as follows: Crude materials in general are made free of duty. In taking other articles the general object has been to fix such rates as would produce the largest amount of revenue in a series of years consistent with large importations, for the purpose of obtaining the largest revenue possible under the tariff.

Yielding in part to popular opinion, that silk is a luxury, we placed silk manufactures generally at 30 per cent. Silk yarns, thread and hosiery, at 20 per cent. Cotton goods, at 15 per cent. Woolen goods, at 10 per cent. The duties on the various articles of the tariff are as follows: Crude materials in general are made free of duty. In taking other articles the general object has been to fix such rates as would produce the largest amount of revenue in a series of years consistent with large importations, for the purpose of obtaining the largest revenue possible under the tariff.

Yielding in part to popular opinion, that silk is a luxury, we placed silk manufactures generally at 30 per cent. Silk yarns, thread and hosiery, at 20 per cent. Cotton goods, at 15 per cent. Woolen goods, at 10 per cent. The duties on the various articles of the tariff are as follows: Crude materials in general are made free of duty. In taking other articles the general object has been to fix such rates as would produce the largest amount of revenue in a series of years consistent with large importations, for the purpose of obtaining the largest revenue possible under the tariff.

Yielding in part to popular opinion, that silk is a luxury, we placed silk manufactures generally at 30 per cent. Silk yarns, thread and hosiery, at 20 per cent. Cotton goods, at 15 per cent. Woolen goods, at 10 per cent. The duties on the various articles of the tariff are as follows: Crude materials in general are made free of duty. In taking other articles the general object has been to fix such rates as would produce the largest amount of revenue in a series of years consistent with large importations, for the purpose of obtaining the largest revenue possible under the tariff.

BURIAL OF JULES FERRY

Solemn and Imposable Ceremonies Over the Remains of the Great Statesman.

SINCERELY MOURNED BY THE PEOPLE

All France Pays a Tribute of Love and Sorrow at His Burial—Thousands Attend His Funeral—Addresses by Prominent People.

PARIS, March 22.—Thousands of strangers came to the city today to attend the funeral of Jules Ferry. An immense mortuary chapel with nave and transepts had been erected in the courtyard of Luxembourg. It was draped with black cloth, edged with silver lace and emblazoned with the monogram of the dead statesman. The coffin, covered with a crimson and white pall, remained until 1 o'clock in the Salle des Glades, where the body has lain in state, and was then removed to the catafalque. Shortly before the body was borne up the aisle the nave was illuminated by the lighting of the enormous silver candelabra and hundreds of tapers were placed in single lines on each side of the row of flaming cressets, which extended to the right and left before the platform. Already, at 11 o'clock, the persons having invitations had begun to arrive. There were judges, cabinet ministers, generals, diplomats, senators, deputies, authors, naval officers, many of them with wreaths, sashes and floral crosses, which they laid around the coffin.

Killed While Hunting Ducks.

ALMA, Neb., March 22.—[Special Telegram to The Bee.]—A distressing accident happened here this afternoon, in which Oscar Liberty, son of R. M. Liberty, a lad of 14, lost his life. He, with a companion about his own age, were duck shooting, when Oscar, who had been seen by his companion Oscar was standing on a log leaning on his gun, which by some means was discharged, the entire load of duck shot entering his throat, coming out at the back of his head. Death was instantaneous. His parents are prostrated with grief. An inquest was held and the jury returned a verdict in accordance with the above facts.

TARIFF REFORM AT WORK.

E. Ellery Anderson of El Paso, a Substitute for the McKinley Bill.

New York, March 22.—The special committee of the reform club of this city has completed a draft of a bill, which, when perfected, will be urged upon congress as a substitute for the present tariff laws, and in fulfillment of the pledges under which democracy has obtained control of the national government. The general principles upon which the proposed tariff is formed in the main are as follows:

Crude materials in general are made free of duty. In taking other articles the general object has been to fix such rates as would produce the largest amount of revenue in a series of years consistent with large importations, for the purpose of obtaining the largest revenue possible under the tariff. The duties on the various articles of the tariff are as follows: Crude materials in general are made free of duty. In taking other articles the general object has been to fix such rates as would produce the largest amount of revenue in a series of years consistent with large importations, for the purpose of obtaining the largest revenue possible under the tariff.

As to liquors and tobacco, the duties upon them should be made with a view to obtaining the largest revenue possible under the tariff. The duties on the various articles of the tariff are as follows: Crude materials in general are made free of duty.