

MR. MANDERSON STEPS DOWN

In a Next Speech He Resigns as President Pro Tem of the Senate.

MR. HARRIS OF TENNESSEE SUCCEEDS HIM

Reorganization of the Senate Elective Officers Again Discussed by the Democrats, but No Conclusion Reached—Business Transacted Yesterday.

WASHINGTON, D. C., March 22.—A provision in the last legislative appropriation bill required the appointment by the speaker of the house and the presiding officer of the senate of the fifty-second congress of a commission to inquire into the workings of the several executive departments of the government.

Mr. Mander son resigned his position as president pro tem of the senate and Mr. Harris was elected in his stead. Mr. Mander son said there had come to him two years ago the distinguished honor of being elected president pro tempore of the senate.

Mr. Mander son reported back from the committee on finance the resolution offered by him last Monday, directing the commissioner of labor to make a report at the opening of the fifty-third congress as to the cost of the production of iron and steel manufactures and of textile fabrics.

Mr. Harris offered a resolution declaring Senator Harris of Tennessee president pro tem, to hold office during the pleasure of the senate.

The resolution was agreed to and Mr. Harris, escorted by Mr. Mander son, took the oath of office at the clerk's office.

The vice president, having left the chair temporarily, Mr. Harris expressed his thanks for the honor conferred upon him by the senators.

Mr. Dubois offered a resolution, which was referred to the committee on printing and expenses, for the appointment of a select committee of seven senators to investigate the facts as to the recent difficulties between the employing silver miners and the working miners of Idaho.

They Interview the Postmaster General in regard to Appointments.

WASHINGTON, D. C., March 22.—Five members of the Missouri delegation in congress, headed by Representative Bland, called at the Postoffice department today and held a conference with Postmaster General Bissell.

Mr. Bissell listened attentively to all that was said, but declined to decide questions of this character until an actual case, involving the points under discussion, was presented.

the statement had been published that no women were to be appointed to postmaster-ships, and that newspaper men were also to be discriminated against.

PUBLIC PRINTERS

Nonunion Men Present a Petition to the President on the Subject.

WASHINGTON, D. C., March 22.—A committee of nonunion employing printers of this city, headed by T. Edward Clark, called on Mr. Cleveland and presented a petition, signed by nonunion printers of Washington, asking him to recognize nonunion men in his selection for public printer and protesting against the effort made by a delegation of union printers, headed by Congressman Amos J. Cummings, to induce Mr. Cleveland to employ union printers.

WILL ENFORCE THE LAW

Secretary Carlisle Replies to Inquiries Concerning the Chinese Exclusion Act.

WASHINGTON, D. C., March 22.—Secretary Carlisle has replied to certain inquiries as to whether he will enforce the provisions of the Chinese exclusion act, as follows:

One—As the act of May 5, 1892, entitled "An Act to Prohibit the Coming of Chinese Persons into the United States," has not been repealed, it will be enforced so far as lies within the power of this department.

Two—Section 1 of the act approved May 6, 1892, entitled "An Act to Evolve Certain Treaty Obligations Relating to Chinese," provides that hereafter no state, court or court of the United States shall enforce any law in conflict with this act.

Three—Chinese merchants established in business in the United States who may depart therefrom with the intention of returning to their native country, will be permitted to do so.

Four—Chinese who are in the United States at the time of the passage of this act are hereby permitted to remain in the United States, but they are not to be admitted to citizenship.

Representative Holman of Indiana, who called at the white house today, is authority for the statement that there will not be an extra session of congress unless some condition not now existing and unforeseen arises.
