Soldiers Don't Like the New Rules Governing Enlistments.

GOOD FOR THE COUNTRY, BAD FOR THE ARMY

Under the New Rule a Soldier Can Only Serve Ten Years and Has No Pension to Fall Back Upon—An Officer's Opinion.

A recent order sent out from the headquarters of the United States army to all the departments in the country, changing the conditions under which recruits will hereafter be received, has created quite a deal of unfavorable comment and dissatisfaction in the ranks of the army.

SOME OLD VETERANS RECEIVED.

The order has created a good deal of dissatisfaction among private soldiers who had intended to continue in the service for the full thirty years—providing they lived that long—and be retired on pay in accordance with the old regulations.

CLAIMED BY GEORGE GOULD

S. H. H. Clark Elected President of the Missouri Pacific Railway.

ONE MONTH YET WITH THE UNION PACIFIC

Influences that Have Brought About the Change—Clark's Popularity—His Democratic Treatment of the Men Under Him.

ONE MONTH YET WITH THE UNION PACIFIC

Mr. S. H. H. Clark, president of the Union Pacific, was yesterday elected president of the Missouri Pacific, at the directors meeting in New York.

ONE MONTH YET WITH THE UNION PACIFIC

The other officers elected were: First vice president, George J. Gould; second vice president, C. G. Warner; secretary and treasurer, C. H. Calef.

ONE MONTH YET WITH THE UNION PACIFIC

The election of Mr. S. H. H. Clark to the presidency of the Missouri Pacific railway was by no means unexpected.

ONE MONTH YET WITH THE UNION PACIFIC

It was the great admiration which Mr. Clark has for Jay Gould that today sees the former elevated to the position made vacant by the death of the greatest financier of modern times.

ONE MONTH YET WITH THE UNION PACIFIC

When Mr. Clark needed friends Mr. Gould was his friend, and now after the storm and stress is over, so far as one of the persons is concerned, Mr. Clark lays down the cares of the Union Pacific very gratefully to take up the active direction of the Gould system.

ONE MONTH YET WITH THE UNION PACIFIC

Mr. George Gould's recent talk upon the probabilities of Mr. Clark being made president of the Missouri Pacific, supplemented by Mr. Russell Sage's remarks upon the probable action of the board of directors, prepared the country for what has occurred since.

ONE MONTH YET WITH THE UNION PACIFIC

Yet, strange as it may seem, there have been many people about Union Pacific headquarters who have expressed the opinion that the "Overland Route." Of course the "wish was father to the thought," but it is not surprising well if Mr. Clark regarded by his employees that his leaving the presidency of the Union Pacific will cause many regrets.

ONE MONTH YET WITH THE UNION PACIFIC

While the employees about headquarters have looked upon Mr. Clark as a president of a friend rather than the head of a soulless corporation, his leaving the Union Pacific will be most felt by the men of the rank and file, who have known him in other days, when he was the general manager of the road, and still earlier, when he was its first general freight agent.

ONE MONTH YET WITH THE UNION PACIFIC

It was no unusual thing to see Mr. Clark leave the party of friends by whom he was surrounded on these occasional trips, go over to a switchman working across the tracks and chat with him for a few minutes—not about the work in hand, but about the man's family, of his good friend John Robinson who used to run on the road almost a quarter of a century ago.

ONE MONTH YET WITH THE UNION PACIFIC

And it is this "wonderful recollection for names and faces that makes Mr. Clark one of the strongest railroad men in the country, and which has made his name a household word in the department of a railroad from division superintendent through the labyrinth to general manager.

ONE MONTH YET WITH THE UNION PACIFIC

When Mr. Clark returned to Omaha from his trip to New York the matter of his capture by the Missouri Pacific had not been settled, although talked about. It was held in abeyance until other concerns were gotten out of the way, and the action of the board of directors at yesterday's meeting was only made possible within the last two weeks, a telegram from Mr. George J. Gould stating what the action of the directors would be being the first intimation to Mr. Clark that the original program was to be carried out.

ONE MONTH YET WITH THE UNION PACIFIC

Long in Doubt. So largely were Mr. Clark's interests with the Union Pacific, and he had so great a pride in bringing the road to a high place in the financial world, that, if all things were known, his first impression was to remain here, Mr. F. L. Ames and the general manager of the Missouri Pacific, to know exactly what to do has caused Mr. Clark much worry and many sleepless nights probably; but all this is ended now and Mr. Clark is to leave the road, to know exactly what to do has caused Mr. Clark much worry and many sleepless nights probably; but all this is ended now and Mr. Clark is to leave the road, to know exactly what to do has caused Mr. Clark much worry and many sleepless nights probably; but all this is ended now and Mr. Clark is to leave the road.

Three days is a very short time in which to cure rheumatism, but it can be done, if the proper treatment is adopted, as will be seen from the following by James Lambert of New Brunswick, Ill.: "I was badly afflicted with rheumatism in the hips and legs, when I bought a bottle of Chamberlain's Pain Balm. It cured me in three days and has since remained in my possession on every one who is afflicted with that terrible disease to use Chamberlain's Pain Balm and get well at once." 50 cent bottles for sale by druggists.

Woodberry, secretary; Edmund Clarence Steadman, Charles Eliot, Norton Charles Dudley, Warner William Dean Howells, Thomas Wentworth Higginson, Horace Howard Furness, Richard Henry Stoddard, Thomas Bailey Aldrich, George W. ONE MAN WAS INJURED.

Conflicting Stories Told of a Row in the Switch Yards. William Silk and John Maroney were arrested yesterday for assaulting John Quinlan, a Union Pacific switchman, in the Omaha yards late Sunday night.

CONSUMPTION CAN BE CURED.

Dr. Schenck's treatment of a cure of Consumption was something new and unheard of, people might doubt that what has proved itself through a record as our grand father's remedy is still as good as ever. It is a specific for Consumption. No treatment in the world can cure so many permanent cures of Consumption as its cure as Dr. Schenck's. Nothing in Nature acts so directly and effectively on the lung membrane and tissues, and so quickly dispenses of tubercle, congestion, inflammation, colds, coughs and all the seeds of Consumption as Dr. Schenck's Pulmonic Syrup.
