Germany Inclined to Take a Serious View of the Brandes Incident. The German government is seriously considering the advisability of taking some retaliatory measures against France for the expulsion of Baron Wigel and Otto Brandes. The political police have been ordered to furnish a list of all French journalists in Berlin, so that a watch may be kept on their dispatches, in order to expect them at their first offense. This will not be very difficult, as the French journal here are very numerous. Count von Munster, the German ambassador to Paris, has also been instructed not to tolerate any more attacks in the French press on the emperor or imperial family.

Backed by Religious Parties. I understand that the words of the pope to Graf von Ballestern, representative of the center, "Unité Sagasse surtout Sagasse," have not been interpreted as satisfactory, for the reason that they are considered a warning to the party to hold together in its refusal to pass the military bill, but there are more practical reasons than those conveyed in the pope's words which sway the center. These are the well known wishes of their constituents. Nevertheless there is a party at court which is doing much towards fostering the anti papal tendencies which recently have given rise to. There is, for instance, the ultra Protestant party, headed by Count Procher Fommel and Military Chaplain Richter, who are making the utmost of the opportunities the occasion offers to excite the emperor against Rome.

There has been a great deal of ferment in the royal stables of late, owing to the preparations for the Roman visit, to the emperor and his carriage, which will form a part of the royal impedimenta. The horses number twenty-eight and will be forwarded to Rome by a special train.

It is strongly denied that any matters of etiquette have been called into question by the Vatican. On the contrary, it is asserted that the Vatican has accepted all the details proposed by Baron Bulow without the least remark. Additional details which it is understood are still to be arranged, include the presence of von Marshall, minister of foreign affairs, in an interview at the Vatican. It is estimated the visit to the pope will last half an hour, and it is agreed that political questions are to be rigidly excluded, and nothing is to take place except a general exchange of the usual courtesies. The Catholic press here loudly insists the emperor is dying to talk politics, which is certainly not the case, at least not within the walls of the Vatican.

Anti-Semites Again to the Fore. Dr. Mizel, that now most interesting figure in the German cabinet, who seems to eclipse all his colleagues, and even overshadows the chancellor, has caused a stir by demanding the prosecution of two anti-Semitic articles appearing at a public meeting that he was the agent of the Universal Israelitish alliance. This is likely to furnish us another trial, for the anti-Semites nick to the gambler willingly, as they have nothing to lose and much to gain. Had it been any of the other ministers who was bringing up such a case he would be accused of rashly pandering to the desires of the anti-Semitic press. Dr. Mizel, however, has some strong cards to play.

Abwardism now says he will produce his proof as soon as the Reichstag meets. I doubt that he now has proving any more serious than the last batch, but it means another of those stormy sittings of the Reichstag which so annoys the dignity of the older members, and in which Abwardist delights. He does not himself seem at all confident of victory, although in Berlin and Dresden he still has adherents. Desertions elsewhere are serious. One of the most notable is that of Dr. Otto Boeckel, an anti-Semite member of Cassel, who, in his organ, the Reichshof, attacks Abwardism furiously. I need scarcely add that the Semites are delighted with this incident.

On the Russian frontier a vast gang of smugglers has been discovered, running a highly profitable contraband business. It is said that at its head are a number of wealthy Jews, who have managed to corrupt Russian officials. The case, when it comes before the courts, promises to be exciting.

He's a Coming Man. Miguel de Lata has had a number of conferences with the emperor, who regards his counsel as having great weight. Miguel is gaining more and more in influence at the palace, where he is considered as a man of original ideas and a statesman of the modern type, and who, although belonging to the cabinet, remains perfectly independent of it and its members. He wishes to be considered as an independent politician and has thus asserted himself, a clever enough position to hold as it will render him free of any fiasco into which the cabinet may fall. At the palace he is gradually becoming the principal adviser of the emperor.

sum. No public statement has been made. It is believed that the assets are more than $1,000,000. The failure has caused a profound sensation throughout this state and the creditors are clamoring for their money. McManus & Son have speculated heavily in mines in this state, and have been very unfortunate in their investments. The government has ordered that a strict investigation be conducted into the cause of the failure and the present condition of the institution.

OPPOSED TO MR. JUDD. The date of the Austrian election is directed against the New American Consul. Vienna, April 1.—The anti-Semites and the clerical party are exceedingly excited over the appointment by President Cleveland of Max Judd of Missouri as consular general of the United States at Vienna, the opposition to Judd being based upon the ground that he is a Hebrew, and therefore an undesirable person for the office. Petitions are being prepared addressed to the president, Francis Joseph and the Austrian officials asking that the imperial officials shall refuse to accept Mr. Judd as consular general.

FRANCE WILL REMAIN CALM. At first the article produced a certain sensation, but it was soon calmed when people reflected that it was written for the purpose of facilitating the passage of the military bill. France desires peace, and nothing will induce her to depart from her calm attitude. The French papers will not even reply to the attacks of the German press.

FORMED A NEW MINISTRY. M. Meline has selected the members of the new cabinet. Paris, April 1.—President Carnot today summoned Meline to form a cabinet. Meline is a lawyer and an opportunist in politics. He was elected a member of the Chamber of Deputies in 1872, and secretary of state for the Department of Justice in 1876, minister of agriculture in 1882 and president of the Chamber of Deputies in 1888.

CONGRATULATED BY THE NICHOLAI. Hamburg, April 1.—The Hamburg Nachrichten has an editorial on Bismarck, and publishes a long letter sent him by the Kaiser in 1883, which speaks of him as a true and faithful emperor and king, William. After stating that it would be beneath Bismarck's dignity to re-enter the sphere of politics, the editorial says: "Bismarck's position on the world's stage is assured. Why should he appear again in the evening of his life, without reason? But he would do this if certain eventualities, which so many foresee, come to pass."

ORGANIZING AGAINST THE CHOLERA. St. Petersburg, April 1.—The streets, or district and provincial assemblies throughout Russia, are organizing special corps of doctors, of hospital attendants and of women known as "nursing sisters" in the various districts and provinces, to care for the victims of cholera in the event of the pestilence becoming prevalent. Orders have also been issued for the medical men of the different provinces to hold meetings at regular intervals and keep watch against the spread of cholera.

ACCIDENT TO A GERMAN CRUISER. Kiel, April 1.—The German cruiser, Kaiser, in August, while starting to the United States to take part in the great Columbian naval review, ran aground while passing through the great belt strait, which forms the central communication between the Baltic and the North Sea, and where navigation is made difficult by the many shoals. The Kaiserin Augusta was floated after some effort, without damage.

SPECULATED IN BONDS. Cause of the Failure of McManus & Son of Cloutham, Missis. Chicago, Ill., April 1.—It is impossible to learn the particulars of the failure of McManus & Son, the bankers of this city. The firm has been established here for many years and is widely known throughout Mexico and Texas. Liabilities are placed at $1,300,000, but they amount to considerably more than that.
