

SIXTY THOUSAND OFFERED

Conroy Island Jumps the Pot Out of Sight the First Time. FORTUNE HUNG UP FOR THE BIG FIGHT

Cochett Signs and Mitchell Advised to Accept—Jack McAniff Hammers a Mark—Crickets Waking Up in Omaha—Eating News

New York, April 1.—The Conroy Island Athletic club made a bold bid tonight for the great fight between the world champion and James J. Corbett, which is to take place next December for the championship of the world. Judge Newton, representing the Conroy Island club, met Mr. Corbett at the St. James hotel and succeeded in getting the Californian to attach his signature to an agreement to fight Mitchell in the Conroy Island arena for a purse of $50,000.

WEEKEND ON PAPER. Latest Table of an Energetic Iowa News-Week Correspondent. BOVINE, Ia., April 1.—[Special Telegram to THE BEE.]—A good deal of indignation is expressed in this section over the account of a wreck of the Javanese World's fair train near this place.

IN THE LEGISLATURE. Attempt to Stop the Looting of the Capital. LEXINGTON, Neb., April 1.—[Special Telegram to THE BEE.]—As soon as roll call was completed in the house this morning, Beal introduced a resolution instructing the officers of the house to see that the members of the legislature do not loot the capital during the session.

DOWN AN AMATEUR. Jack McAniff Strikes an Easy Mark in Philadelphia. PHILADELPHIA, Pa., April 1.—Horace M. Leeds of Atlantic City, N. J., the amateur champion heavyweight of America, received a setback tonight at the hands of Jack McAniff, the champion professional heavyweight, in a four-round bout at the Academy of Music.

Iowa Sunday School Workers. CEDAR RAPIDS, Ia., April 1.—[Special Telegram to THE BEE.]—O. B. Stevenson, assistant superintendent of the northwest district of the American Sunday School union, has returned from a tour of the state.

Resignation of a Railroad Official. BOVINE, Ia., April 1.—[Special Telegram to THE BEE.]—A surprise was created in railroad circles today by the knowledge that M. Hopkins, superintendent of the Iowa division of the Chicago & Northwestern, had resigned his position.

Iowa Minister's Death. FORT DOUGLASS, Ia., April 1.—[Special Telegram to THE BEE.]—Reverend J. W. Paige of the First Dodge Episcopal church died last night at Spirit Lake after a three weeks illness.

Reviving Cricket. Fair Grounds Engaged—Uniforms Selected—Membership Increasing. The annual meeting of the Omaha Cricket club was held at the Barker hotel last night, and arrangements were nearly completed for the summer's sport.

O'Rourke's Latest Offer. NEW YORK, April 1.—Thomas O'Rourke today posted $700 and left the following reply to the challenge of Eddie Pierce.

U.S. MORE PACIFIC ASPECT. War is Almost Over in the Choctaw Indian. PAINE, Tex., April 1.—The fiery blood that has been running riot in the veins of the Choctaws for the past week went down several degrees today and it now looks as if the lowering war clouds would soon break away.

Going to Guttenberg. NEW YORK, April 1.—Results at Guttenberg today: First race, four and a half furlongs: Charlie Brown (3 to 1), Bud (2 to 1), Captain Wagner (3 to 1), Time: 1:02.5.

Opened at San Francisco. SAN FRANCISCO, Cal., April 1.—The spring running meeting of the Blood-Horse association opened today at Bay District track.

For the Great Boat Race. NEW HAVEN, Conn., April 1.—It is believed the fondled and favored of the city to the Yale relative to the international college boat race, has been received from the other side, but those in a position to know will not be made public until definite action is decided.

Started a Long Exhibition. LONDON, April 1.—At Egyptian hall, Piccadilly, this evening, John Roberts, the champion player of billiards, began a game of 24,000 points with Charles Dawson, Dawson having 4,000 points to start with.

Anything to Adjust. The railroads are all crowding hard for adjustment. The talk of the nation tonight is in favor of an adjustment Wednesday, to be followed by an extra session later on.

Members of the Union Confident of Winning in the Struggle. NEW YORK, April 1.—There are no signs of a settlement of the clothing cutters' lockout. Injunction has issued against the American Federation of Labor and the officers of the garment workers from issuing circulars or inciting a boycott of firms which have locked out the cutters.

They Have Been Temporarily Restrained from Declaring a Boycott—Help Kept from the Brotherhood of Tailors—Present Outlook of Affairs. A mass meeting of the United Brotherhood of Tailors was held this afternoon to consider the desirability of declaring a sympathy strike.

Wanted the Manufacturers Informed. Secretary White said this afternoon that the board of the United Garment Cutters was preparing a plan to present to the district attorney asking the grand jury to have the manufacturers indicted for criminal conspiracy in locking out the cutters and that the individual names would be brought to recover damages.

Strikes in Prospect. NEW YORK, April 1.—The walking delegates representing the four carpenters organizations of this city joined to fight the system of letting contracts by which large jobs are taken by one contractor, sublet piecemeal to smaller ones, and these, in turn, sometimes resublet, they claim the system keeps wages down and makes work from getting work. They will inaugurate a series of strikes against it.

Broken Up. NEW YORK, April 1.—The journeyman painters here today started a strike in advance in wages and a reduction in hours from nine to eight per day. About 1,000 men are involved. The bosses are determined to hold a series of lockouts.

Broken Up. NEW YORK, April 1.—Governor Stone today approved the net of the legislature to prevent bribery and corruption in elections. It limits expenses of the candidates and requires them to file sworn statements of their campaign expenses.

Broken Up. CHICAGO, Ill., April 1.—Miss Edith Clark of Spokane, Wash., a member of the Freshman class at the Northwestern university at Evanston, twelve miles north of this city, was tonight shot and instantly killed by E. Ross Smith, who was until lately also a resident of Spokane.

Broken Up. CHICAGO, Ill., April 1.—The bridegroom and bride of the wedding which took place here today entered into a contract for five years to furnish the Ohio Valley Pearl company with 100 tons of pearls. The price of the labor a day is 60 cents for men and 50 cents for women.

Broken Up. NEW YORK, April 1.—The National Lead company has declared a dividend of 1 per cent on its common stock payable May 15, 1933, to stockholders of record April 8, 1933.

CATTLE RUSTLERS CAPTURED

Shots Exchanged Between Dakota Officers and Black Hills Toughs. SPOKANE AUGHEY SLIGHTLY WOUNDED

He Fires on Sheriff Blakey of Fall River County and Was Quickly Winded by the Latter—Two Bad Men Jailed. HOT SPRINGS, S. D., April 1.—[Special Telegram to THE BEE.]—Lentzinger and Clark, two tough characters broke into a house near Edgemont, ransacked the contents, stole what they wanted and skipped.

WYOMING OFFICIALS MAKE A SUCCESSFUL RAID. BUFFALO, Wyo., April 1.—[Special Telegram to THE BEE.]—Great satisfaction was caused in Buffalo by the capture of four cattle thieves Monday morning.

Wanted the Manufacturers Informed. Secretary White said this afternoon that the board of the United Garment Cutters was preparing a plan to present to the district attorney asking the grand jury to have the manufacturers indicted for criminal conspiracy in locking out the cutters and that the individual names would be brought to recover damages.

Strikes in Prospect. NEW YORK, April 1.—The walking delegates representing the four carpenters organizations of this city joined to fight the system of letting contracts by which large jobs are taken by one contractor, sublet piecemeal to smaller ones, and these, in turn, sometimes resublet, they claim the system keeps wages down and makes work from getting work. They will inaugurate a series of strikes against it.

Broken Up. NEW YORK, April 1.—The journeyman painters here today started a strike in advance in wages and a reduction in hours from nine to eight per day. About 1,000 men are involved. The bosses are determined to hold a series of lockouts.

Broken Up. NEW YORK, April 1.—Governor Stone today approved the net of the legislature to prevent bribery and corruption in elections. It limits expenses of the candidates and requires them to file sworn statements of their campaign expenses.

Broken Up. CHICAGO, Ill., April 1.—Miss Edith Clark of Spokane, Wash., a member of the Freshman class at the Northwestern university at Evanston, twelve miles north of this city, was tonight shot and instantly killed by E. Ross Smith, who was until lately also a resident of Spokane.

Broken Up. CHICAGO, Ill., April 1.—The bridegroom and bride of the wedding which took place here today entered into a contract for five years to furnish the Ohio Valley Pearl company with 100 tons of pearls. The price of the labor a day is 60 cents for men and 50 cents for women.

Broken Up. NEW YORK, April 1.—The National Lead company has declared a dividend of 1 per cent on its common stock payable May 15, 1933, to stockholders of record April 8, 1933.

Highest of all in Leavening Power.—Latest U. S. Gov't Report.

Advertisement for baking powder.

CLOTHING CUTTERS STRIKE

Members of the Union Confident of Winning in the Struggle. NEW YORK, April 1.—There are no signs of a settlement of the clothing cutters' lockout. Injunction has issued against the American Federation of Labor and the officers of the garment workers from issuing circulars or inciting a boycott of firms which have locked out the cutters.

They Have Been Temporarily Restrained from Declaring a Boycott—Help Kept from the Brotherhood of Tailors—Present Outlook of Affairs. A mass meeting of the United Brotherhood of Tailors was held this afternoon to consider the desirability of declaring a sympathy strike.

Wanted the Manufacturers Informed. Secretary White said this afternoon that the board of the United Garment Cutters was preparing a plan to present to the district attorney asking the grand jury to have the manufacturers indicted for criminal conspiracy in locking out the cutters and that the individual names would be brought to recover damages.

Strikes in Prospect. NEW YORK, April 1.—The walking delegates representing the four carpenters organizations of this city joined to fight the system of letting contracts by which large jobs are taken by one contractor, sublet piecemeal to smaller ones, and these, in turn, sometimes resublet, they claim the system keeps wages down and makes work from getting work. They will inaugurate a series of strikes against it.

Broken Up. NEW YORK, April 1.—The journeyman painters here today started a strike in advance in wages and a reduction in hours from nine to eight per day. About 1,000 men are involved. The bosses are determined to hold a series of lockouts.

Broken Up. NEW YORK, April 1.—Governor Stone today approved the net of the legislature to prevent bribery and corruption in elections. It limits expenses of the candidates and requires them to file sworn statements of their campaign expenses.

Broken Up. CHICAGO, Ill., April 1.—Miss Edith Clark of Spokane, Wash., a member of the Freshman class at the Northwestern university at Evanston, twelve miles north of this city, was tonight shot and instantly killed by E. Ross Smith, who was until lately also a resident of Spokane.

Broken Up. CHICAGO, Ill., April 1.—The bridegroom and bride of the wedding which took place here today entered into a contract for five years to furnish the Ohio Valley Pearl company with 100 tons of pearls. The price of the labor a day is 60 cents for men and 50 cents for women.

Broken Up. NEW YORK, April 1.—The National Lead company has declared a dividend of 1 per cent on its common stock payable May 15, 1933, to stockholders of record April 8, 1933.

Highest of all in Leavening Power.—Latest U. S. Gov't Report.

Advertisement for baking powder.

CATTLE RUSTLERS CAPTURED

Shots Exchanged Between Dakota Officers and Black Hills Toughs. SPOKANE AUGHEY SLIGHTLY WOUNDED

He Fires on Sheriff Blakey of Fall River County and Was Quickly Winded by the Latter—Two Bad Men Jailed. HOT SPRINGS, S. D., April 1.—[Special Telegram to THE BEE.]—Lentzinger and Clark, two tough characters broke into a house near Edgemont, ransacked the contents, stole what they wanted and skipped.

WYOMING OFFICIALS MAKE A SUCCESSFUL RAID. BUFFALO, Wyo., April 1.—[Special Telegram to THE BEE.]—Great satisfaction was caused in Buffalo by the capture of four cattle thieves Monday morning.

Wanted the Manufacturers Informed. Secretary White said this afternoon that the board of the United Garment Cutters was preparing a plan to present to the district attorney asking the grand jury to have the manufacturers indicted for criminal conspiracy in locking out the cutters and that the individual names would be brought to recover damages.

Strikes in Prospect. NEW YORK, April 1.—The walking delegates representing the four carpenters organizations of this city joined to fight the system of letting contracts by which large jobs are taken by one contractor, sublet piecemeal to smaller ones, and these, in turn, sometimes resublet, they claim the system keeps wages down and makes work from getting work. They will inaugurate a series of strikes against it.

Broken Up. NEW YORK, April 1.—The journeyman painters here today started a strike in advance in wages and a reduction in hours from nine to eight per day. About 1,000 men are involved. The bosses are determined to hold a series of lockouts.

Broken Up. NEW YORK, April 1.—Governor Stone today approved the net of the legislature to prevent bribery and corruption in elections. It limits expenses of the candidates and requires them to file sworn statements of their campaign expenses.

Broken Up. CHICAGO, Ill., April 1.—Miss Edith Clark of Spokane, Wash., a member of the Freshman class at the Northwestern university at Evanston, twelve miles north of this city, was tonight shot and instantly killed by E. Ross Smith, who was until lately also a resident of Spokane.

Broken Up. CHICAGO, Ill., April 1.—The bridegroom and bride of the wedding which took place here today entered into a contract for five years to furnish the Ohio Valley Pearl company with 100 tons of pearls. The price of the labor a day is 60 cents for men and 50 cents for women.

Broken Up. NEW YORK, April 1.—The National Lead company has declared a dividend of 1 per cent on its common stock payable May 15, 1933, to stockholders of record April 8, 1933.

Highest of all in Leavening Power.—Latest U. S. Gov't Report.

Advertisement for baking powder.

CLOTHING CUTTERS STRIKE

Members of the Union Confident of Winning in the Struggle. NEW YORK, April 1.—There are no signs of a settlement of the clothing cutters' lockout. Injunction has issued against the American Federation of Labor and the officers of the garment workers from issuing circulars or inciting a boycott of firms which have locked out the cutters.

They Have Been Temporarily Restrained from Declaring a Boycott—Help Kept from the Brotherhood of Tailors—Present Outlook of Affairs. A mass meeting of the United Brotherhood of Tailors was held this afternoon to consider the desirability of declaring a sympathy strike.

Wanted the Manufacturers Informed. Secretary White said this afternoon that the board of the United Garment Cutters was preparing a plan to present to the district attorney asking the grand jury to have the manufacturers indicted for criminal conspiracy in locking out the cutters and that the individual names would be brought to recover damages.

Strikes in Prospect. NEW YORK, April 1.—The walking delegates representing the four carpenters organizations of this city joined to fight the system of letting contracts by which large jobs are taken by one contractor, sublet piecemeal to smaller ones, and these, in turn, sometimes resublet, they claim the system keeps wages down and makes work from getting work. They will inaugurate a series of strikes against it.

Broken Up. NEW YORK, April 1.—The journeyman painters here today started a strike in advance in wages and a reduction in hours from nine to eight per day. About 1,000 men are involved. The bosses are determined to hold a series of lockouts.

Broken Up. NEW YORK, April 1.—Governor Stone today approved the net of the legislature to prevent bribery and corruption in elections. It limits expenses of the candidates and requires them to file sworn statements of their campaign expenses.

Broken Up. CHICAGO, Ill., April 1.—Miss Edith Clark of Spokane, Wash., a member of the Freshman class at the Northwestern university at Evanston, twelve miles north of this city, was tonight shot and instantly killed by E. Ross Smith, who was until lately also a resident of Spokane.

Broken Up. CHICAGO, Ill., April 1.—The bridegroom and bride of the wedding which took place here today entered into a contract for five years to furnish the Ohio Valley Pearl company with 100 tons of pearls. The price of the labor a day is 60 cents for men and 50 cents for women.

Broken Up. NEW YORK, April 1.—The National Lead company has declared a dividend of 1 per cent on its common stock payable May 15, 1933, to stockholders of record April 8, 1933.

Highest of all in Leavening Power.—Latest U. S. Gov't Report.

Advertisement for baking powder.

CATTLE RUSTLERS CAPTURED

Shots Exchanged Between Dakota Officers and Black Hills Toughs. SPOKANE AUGHEY SLIGHTLY WOUNDED

He Fires on Sheriff Blakey of Fall River County and Was Quickly Winded by the Latter—Two Bad Men Jailed. HOT SPRINGS, S. D., April 1.—[Special Telegram to THE BEE.]—Lentzinger and Clark, two tough characters broke into a house near Edgemont, ransacked the contents, stole what they wanted and skipped.

WYOMING OFFICIALS MAKE A SUCCESSFUL RAID. BUFFALO, Wyo., April 1.—[Special Telegram to THE BEE.]—Great satisfaction was caused in Buffalo by the capture of four cattle thieves Monday morning.

Wanted the Manufacturers Informed. Secretary White said this afternoon that the board of the United Garment Cutters was preparing a plan to present to the district attorney asking the grand jury to have the manufacturers indicted for criminal conspiracy in locking out the cutters and that the individual names would be brought to recover damages.

Strikes in Prospect. NEW YORK, April 1.—The walking delegates representing the four carpenters organizations of this city joined to fight the system of letting contracts by which large jobs are taken by one contractor, sublet piecemeal to smaller ones, and these, in turn, sometimes resublet, they claim the system keeps wages down and makes work from getting work. They will inaugurate a series of strikes against it.

Broken Up. NEW YORK, April 1.—The journeyman painters here today started a strike in advance in wages and a reduction in hours from nine to eight per day. About 1,000 men are involved. The bosses are determined to hold a series of lockouts.

Broken Up. NEW YORK, April 1.—Governor Stone today approved the net of the legislature to prevent bribery and corruption in elections. It limits expenses of the candidates and requires them to file sworn statements of their campaign expenses.

Broken Up. CHICAGO, Ill., April 1.—Miss Edith Clark of Spokane, Wash., a member of the Freshman class at the Northwestern university at Evanston, twelve miles north of this city, was tonight shot and instantly killed by E. Ross Smith, who was until lately also a resident of Spokane.

Broken Up. CHICAGO, Ill., April 1.—The bridegroom and bride of the wedding which took place here today entered into a contract for five years to furnish the Ohio Valley Pearl company with 100 tons of pearls. The price of the labor a day is 60 cents for men and 50 cents for women.

Broken Up. NEW YORK, April 1.—The National Lead company has declared a dividend of 1 per cent on its common stock payable May 15, 1933, to stockholders of record April 8, 1933.

Highest of all in Leavening Power.—Latest U. S. Gov't Report.

Advertisement for baking powder.

CLOTHING CUTTERS STRIKE

Members of the Union Confident of Winning in the Struggle. NEW YORK, April 1.—There are no signs of a settlement of the clothing cutters' lockout. Injunction has issued against the American Federation of Labor and the officers of the garment workers from issuing circulars or inciting a boycott of firms which have locked out the cutters.

They Have Been Temporarily Restrained from Declaring a Boycott—Help Kept from the Brotherhood of Tailors—Present Outlook of Affairs. A mass meeting of the United Brotherhood of Tailors was held this afternoon to consider the desirability of declaring a sympathy strike.

Wanted the Manufacturers Informed. Secretary White said this afternoon that the board of the United Garment Cutters was preparing a plan to present to the district attorney asking the grand jury to have the manufacturers indicted for criminal conspiracy in locking out the cutters and that the individual names would be brought to recover damages.

Strikes in Prospect. NEW YORK, April 1.—The walking delegates representing the four carpenters organizations of this city joined to fight the system of letting contracts by which large jobs are taken by one contractor, sublet piecemeal to smaller ones, and these, in turn, sometimes resublet, they claim the system keeps wages down and makes work from getting work. They will inaugurate a series of strikes against it.

Broken Up. NEW YORK, April 1.—The journeyman painters here today started a strike in advance in wages and a reduction in hours from nine to eight per day. About 1,000 men are involved. The bosses are determined to hold a series of lockouts.

Broken Up. NEW YORK, April 1.—Governor Stone today approved the net of the legislature to prevent bribery and corruption in elections. It limits expenses of the candidates and requires them to file sworn statements of their campaign expenses.

Broken Up. CHICAGO, Ill., April 1.—Miss Edith Clark of Spokane, Wash., a member of the Freshman class at the Northwestern university at Evanston, twelve miles north of this city, was tonight shot and instantly killed by E. Ross Smith, who was until lately also a resident of Spokane.

Broken Up. CHICAGO, Ill., April 1.—The bridegroom and bride of the wedding which took place here today entered into a contract for five years to furnish the Ohio Valley Pearl company with 100 tons of pearls. The price of the labor a day is 60 cents for men and 50 cents for women.

Broken Up. NEW YORK, April 1.—The National Lead company has declared a dividend of 1 per cent on its common stock payable May 15, 1933, to stockholders of record April 8, 1933.

Highest of all in Leavening Power.—Latest U. S. Gov't Report.

Advertisement for baking powder.

Advertisement