MINOR MENTION.

N. Y. Plumbing Co.

Council Bluffs Lumber Co. Coal.

Mrs. H. W. Tilton and Mrs. A. P. Hanchett have issued invitations for a musicale to be given at the home of the latter next Wednesday.

Four freight cars were broken into in the Northwestern yards last Thursday night and a lot of shoes, fancy wines and other merchandise was stolen. There is no clue to the thieves.

Mrs. Elizabeth Holder died last evening at 7:45 o'clock of pneumonia, at her residence, 859 Lincoln avenue, aged 80 years. She was ill three years. The funeral notice will be given later.

Mrs. Fred Miller, who lives at 2637 Hamilton street in Omaha, was driving in the eastern part of the city yesterday afternoon and lost a purse containing $67 in cash and a number of valuable papers.

Spencer Smith commenced a suit in the superior court a short time ago to restrain the county treasurer from levying on a piece of property lying east of the city for taxes. It was tried before Judge McGee Saturday and a decision has been rendered in favor of the plaintiff.

The remains of George A. Hickox, the aged traveling man who died at the Grand hotel last November, were taken out of the vault at Fairview yesterday afternoon and interred in the Commercial Pilgrim's lot in Walnut Hill cemetery, under the auspices of the local council.

The county supervisors will commence their regular April session today. R. H. Hendricks, the janitor of the court house has devoted the best part of the past week cleaning up the room in which they are to hold their meetings, which now looks like the interior of a conservatory with its windows decked with plants and flowers.

Beatrice C., eldest daughter of Mr. and Mrs. James Buchanan, died of dropsy yesterday morning at 7:15 o'clock, after an illness of five weeks, at her residence, 1116 Avenue C., aged 15 years. The funeral will take place this afternoon at 4 o'clock from the First Presbyterian church, Rev. Dr. Phelps officiating.

Officer Weir tried to send in a call for the patrol wagon Saturday night from box 51, at the corner of Fifth avenue and Eighth street, when he found that some miscreant who had a reason for not wanting the patrol wagon to come to that particular part of town had plugged up the hole nicely with solder. Until it is repaired all calls will have to be turned in from 52, three blocks north.

The father of Blanche Mulvany is circulating a petition asking that his daughter be taken out of the state reform school, where she has been for about six months, so that he can take her with him to Kansas and help her reform. At the time of the trial it was learned that the old man had been guilty of the most shocking depravity toward his daughter, and it is not likely that the court will allow her to be put back into his power for the purpose of allowing him to reform her.

Delay in Opening.

There has been an unavoidable delay in arranging for the opening of Clinton S. Byers' new shoe store at the stand formerly occupied by F. H. Evans on Broadway. It was simply impossible for the manufacturers to make the quantity and character of goods that Mr. Byers required in the short time demanded, and rather than open with an incomplete line it was deemed best to postpone the opening until about April 10. Then look out for a stock of bright new goods from the best makers in the world, a stock that will give every class of trade everything demanded in footwear, and at prices—well, just wait and see what it means to buy a big stock at one clip from the factories. You will find that it means a great deal to the public and the customer.

Ladies, don't forget that the Louis are at 25 Main street now. Come all.

PERSONAL PARAGRAPHS.

W. A. McAneny has returned from a trip to Kansas City.

Mrs. C. G. Saunders returned Saturday evening from a visit with friends in Delta, Ia.

J. F. Potter has returned from St. Louis, where he has just completed a course in medicine.

E. W. Hillwig and wife of Corning, visited the Rebekah degree lodge, Independent Order of Odd Fellows, Saturday evening.

Having sold our old icebox, meat blocks, etc., at No. 537 Broadway to the Meschendorf Meat company, we wish to announce to all of our friends and patrons that we are still handling the best meats in Council Bluffs, and invite an inspection of our new market at No. 523 Broadway, the neatest, cleanest and most complete market in this or any other city. METZGAR & RANDLETT.

You Will Need Them Soon.

Evans has the largest assortment of Oxfords ever shown in Council Bluffs or Omaha. Prices from the cheapest to the highest, and all new and stylish. Don't fail to examine them before you buy.

Dohany's Tonight.

The dramatic son of genius, Frank Lindon, and his charming daughter, Edna Earlie Lindon, with a superb company of dramatic celebrities, will inaugurate a week's engagement at Dohany's next Monday night at the popular prices of 10, 20 and 30 cents, with the predecessor of romance from the celebrated novel, "The Count of Monte Cristo," by Alexander Dumas. As an exponent of Dumas' hero and dual characters, Mr. Lindon has but few rivals; in fact only one, and that in the person of James O'Neill. Miss Lindon in the leading feminine roles is endowed with the inheritance of her father's remarkable talent, and besides being one of the most beautiful women upon the American stage, is conceded to be a coming shining light, artistically speaking.

As customary, ladies will be admitted free Monday night if accompanied with an escort, and seats reserved at Sellers' pharmacy.

Metzgar & Randlett wish to announce that on and after April 1 they will have at their restaurant, 525 and 527 Broadway, a full and complete line of all cakes, plain and fancy, for receptions, parties, etc., and invite the ladies of Council Bluffs and Omaha to call and examine.

Williamson & Co., 106 Main street, largest and best bicycle stock in city.

Kissed and Made Up.

Henry Gittins, a well-to-do farmer of Boomer township, commenced a suit in the district court about two weeks ago for a divorce from his wife, who, he alleged, had induced him to sign a deed of all his property by holding an axe over his head, and doing other things which he did not think quite regular. He and his wife were in the city last Saturday, calling on their friends and conducting themselves in the most affectionate manner possible, and it is learned that the divorce suit has gone as far as it will ever go, unless Gittins changes his mind again. The case is to be dismissed at the term of court which opens tomorrow, Mrs. Gittins has allowed him to come back home, and everything is quiet on the Potomac.

NEWS FROM COUNCIL BLUFFS

John Hood Sherwood's Quest for Bail is So Far Without Reward.

HIS SENTENCE A BLESSING IN DISGUISE

During His Wandering He Had Ensnared the Affections of Two Young Women and Had Engaged to Marry Both of Them.

John Hood Sherwood, the convicted forger, has been making heroic efforts to get a bond, but so far has met with the coldest kind of cold repulses from the men he took for his friends, and the probability is constantly growing that before the ten days are up which were given by consent of County Attorney Organ in which to get an appeal bond he will be packed off to Fort Madison to spend twenty months learning a trade.

There is a girl named Mabel Athern living in Omaha and employed in the Western Union telegraph office, to whom Sherwood was engaged to be married. She has displayed the most sacrificing loyalty to him. She has visited him half a dozen times, and has even gone so far as to offer to marry him before he leaves for Fort Madison, if he wishes.

At the time of his arrest Sherwood was engaged to a young lady living in an eastern state and well known here. A ring which he had sent her was returned shortly after he was arrested. They were to have been married a month from that time. Since the later developments transpired it looks to a man up a tree very much as though Sherwood's forgery and the conviction that resulted was a godsend to him, for with two girls holding a first mortgage on his hand and heart he would certainly have been considerably the worse for wear after he came out of the conflict. Both of the young ladies, it is said, were completely infatuated with him.

EASTER AT THE CHURCHES.

Beautiful Resurrection Day Appropriately and Generally Observed.

Yesterday was observed in the various churches in the usual manner. In nearly every church special preparations had been made to render the service unusually attractive. Elaborate musical programs, piles of lilies and violets, sermons on the "resurrection," and last, but by no means least, myriads of Easter bonnets which had braved the danger of being blown to pieces by the belated March gale that did business all day long, showed beyond question that the festival Sunday of the year had arrived in all its glory.

The Congregational church was beautifully adorned, the pulpit platform being decorated by two large mounds of Easter lilies and blooming plants, while in front was a circle of potted plants. Above the pulpit was a beautiful hanging basket of smilax and roses. The new pastor, Rev. Dr. Askin, preached an appropriate sermon, in which he eloquently pictured the true relationship of such a vision as Saul had of the risen Christ to the practical activity which afterwards characterized his life. Some very practical and forceful lessons were drawn to the effect that every one should recognize the dual duties of knowing and loving. At the close of the morning service the Sunday school held a special Easter service entitled "The Prince of Light." It consisted of responsive readings, music, recitations and some unique exercises centered about the pleasing decorating of a rude cross, which by the close was wholly hidden beneath a combination of mottoes, words and letters forming appropriate acrostics. In the evening the choir gave an Easter concert. The music throughout the services of the day was very fine, having been prepared with evident care and executed most charmingly.

The Presbyterian church was also handsomely decorated by the hands of the ladies of the congregation. A row of Easter lilies surrounded the edge of the platform, filling the large audience room with a delightful fragrance. On the table in front stood a white cross adorned with violets and trailing vines. The audience filled the room, and about two hundred chairs in the parlors were occupied. Dr. Phelps preached an eloquent sermon on the subject of the resurrection. The music was especially fine, the solo, "I Know that My Redeemer Liveth," from Handel's Messiah, sung by Mrs. Wadsworth, being one of the finest and most admirably rendered selections which she has ever sung before a Council Bluffs audience.

At the Episcopalian church the main feature was the singing of the surpliced choir. For several weeks rehearsals have been going on under the direction of the choir master, J. H. Simms, and in yesterday's performances the results of their unremitting study were seen. The program rendered was the same as that published in THE SUNDAY BEE.

The services at the First Baptist, Berean Baptist, Fifth Avenue Methodist and St. John's English Lutheran were participated in by the children of the Sunday schools, the programs being very interesting.

The Count of Monte Cristo.

This wonderful melodrama is to be presented at Dohany's theater Monday evening. The company is one which is popular, not only in price but on account of its merit. Frank Linden, as an exponent of the dual characters of Dumas' fascinating composition, has gained no little reputation and is fully capable of satisfying the expectation of all. He is supported by his charming daughter and a well-balanced company.

As usual with popular priced companies, ladies, when accompanied by an escort, will be admitted free Monday night, if seats are reserved at the usual place.

Slugged a Boy.

Joe Welch, proprietor of a hack line, is to be before Judge McGee this morning to answer to the charge of assault and battery, all because he was a little too anxious to protect his dignity from the attacks made upon it by a small boy 13 years old, who works for him at his stable at the corner of Fifth avenue and Tenth street. According to the story told by a man named Hickman, who claims to be an eye witness, Welch went into the stable at 2 o'clock yesterday morning and found the boy there. The boy made some remarks to him in a jocular way, but Welch was not inclined to be jocular. Stretching out his hand he laid it against the side of the boy's head with such force as to lay him out cold and stiff on the floor. Hickman was somewhat wrathy, and looked around for a club with which to administer a lesson to the muscular hackman. Not finding a club of the kind he wanted he concluded that the next best thing was to look for a policeman. When Officer Martin arrived at the stable half an hour after the affair had taken place he found the boy just recovering from a fit of unconsciousness that had struck him about the same time as Welch's fist. He was very weak, however, and appeared to have but little knowledge of what was going on about him. Welch was locked up on a charge of assault and battery, the information being filed by Hickman. He gave bonds for his appearance in police court this morning, when his victim will appear against him if he has sufficiently recovered from the effects of his collision with Welch's fist.

Burglarized a Grocery.

The grocery store kept by Johnson & Olson on Broadway, near the corner of Eighth street, was entered by burglars Saturday night. When one of the proprietors visited the place yesterday morning he found that some one had effected entrance by the rear cellar window, and had made a partial inventory of the stock, taking whatever came handiest. The loss is estimated at about $75, although it may prove larger than that when the proprietors have had an opportunity to make a more thorough examination.

Death of Harvey Donahey.

J. Harvey Donahey died at 8:35 o'clock last evening, aged 27 years and 11 months, at his residence, 1029 Third avenue. He has been a sufferer from the dread disease, consumption, for the past sixteen months. He went west for several months in the hope of benefiting his health. It was useless, however, for about a week ago he returned home, his health no better than when he went away, and with the consciousness that he had come home to die. The case is rendered all the sadder by the fact that two other members of the family have been taken off by the same disease within the last two years and a half. The funeral will take place tomorrow from the residence, Rev. Dr. Phelps officiating. The hour will be announced later.

TELEGRAPHIC BRIEFS.

Easter Sunday in New York was an almost ideal spring day.

In the investigation into the methods of the Chinese at Portland and on Puget sound commenced by Special Treasury Agent Noyes it is said some sensational revelations will be made.

At Cleveland, O., the jury in the case of Patrick Moran, charged with the murder of Theodore Blakeslee and James Fox, returned a verdict of murder in the second degree. The crime was committed last Christmas night in the house of Blakeslee on Clute's street.

A remarkable journey was recently brought to a successful close by C. H. Hamilton of Chicago, 32 years of age, who arrived at Seattle last night from Alaska. He traversed 1,500 miles on snow shoes up Yukon river in Ojaka and over the divide to Chilkoote in the dead of winter, being the first white man who has ever crossed these mountains at this season and lived.

The coming wedding of Miss Cornelia Martin of New York to the earl of Craven is announced. The wedding will take place in Grace church Tuesday, April 11 at noon. Rev. Dr. William R. Huntington will perform the ceremony and Bishop Potter will pronounce the benediction. The earl and his bride will sail for England by the month of May, when his mother will introduce the new countess of Craven to London society.

The steamship Segurança of the United States and Brazilian Mail Steamship line has been seized at her New York dock by United States Marshal Jacobus on judgments recovered against the company by several firms that furnished them with provisions. The steamer, together with her sister ships of the same line, the Alliance, Advance and Vigilancia, will be sold at public auction to satisfy the various creditors.

The municipal court of the Irish National league and the representatives of several other Irish societies met at New York yesterday and took preliminary steps to arrange for a big meeting to be held in that city in the near future. The purpose of the meeting will be to urge this government to demand of England the freedom of Irishmen now confined in English prisons charged with being concerned in the dynamite conspiracy in London several years ago.

C. L. U. Meeting.

There will be a meeting of Omaha Central Labor union this evening at the southeast corner of Twelfth and Farnam, at 6:30. Business of importance. All members are requested to be present.

OMAHA CHRISTIAN CHINAMEN

They Have a Sunday School Class of Nineteen Members.

TESTIFYING TO THEIR FAITH IN CHRIST

Celestial Brethren Sing and Speak at the Y. M. C. A. Sunday Afternoon Meeting—Though Converted They Cling to Their Cues.

It is a fact not generally known that there is in this city a Sunday school class composed entirely of Chinese young men who have embraced Christianity. This class was organized in 1885, and until 1890 the task of conversion seemed hopeless. At that time two of its members broke the ice, as it were, and became Christians. Since then the class has steadily grown until at the present time it numbers nineteen. Owing to the fact that they had first to learn the English language, the work was difficult, each pupil requiring a teacher. This obstacle overcome, their progress was rapid. They receive instruction every Sunday afternoon at 3 o'clock in the basement of the First Presbyterian church, and the public is at all times welcome to the recitations.

It was this class, reinforced by Yung Chee, a student in Bellevue college who is studying to become a missionary in China, that held forth at the hall of the Young Men's Christian association yesterday afternoon. Secretary F. W. Ober, assisted by Howard Kennedy and J. A. Patterson, conducted the services and the usual orchestra furnished the instrumental music, John Brown varying it with a violincello solo.

The special features were the singing and the speaking of the Chinese. Twelve members of the class sat upon the rostrum, dressed like Americans but wearing the inevitable cue. They sang several songs in chorus, and a quartet consisting of Soon Quie, Charlie Wong, Lee Goon and Gim Lee sang a religious song with Chinese words which was quite a novelty to the listeners and well rendered. Tahm Kwaie declaimed in good English a missionary ode and Yung Chee, the chief speaker of the afternoon, addressed the gathering in English for about ten minutes.

He was somewhat confused by the many faces he saw before him but pluckily stood up and talked until he had said all he had intended to say. He told of the beginning of missionary work among his countrymen in Omaha, what it had accomplished, and pointed out the great need of missionary work in his native land.

THE SALOON.

Rev. Cramblet Discusses Its Influence on Home, Society and Politics.

The subject of Rev. T. E. Cramblet's sermon last night at the First Christian church was "The Saloon, Its Influence in the Home, in Society, in Politics." The house was filled, and the sermon received close attention. The text was Proverb xx, 1: "Wine is a mocker, and strong drink is raging, and whosoever is deceived thereby is not wise." In substance Rev. Cramblet spoke as follows:

A tendency is manifest in certain quarters to generalize in denouncing sin. Many call attention to evils in a general way, but are careful not to particularize. The demand is for specific attacks on specific sins. This alone will bring the desired results. John the Baptist attacked the special sins of the ruling respectable classes of his day, and when Herod was ready to give up all but one particular sin the great reformer attacked him on that single point and went to the dungeon and the block for it.

The one great, fronting sin of our time is intemperance, destroying more lives and souls and homes than all others combined. Gambling and the social evil are its allies. It paves the way for them both and nourishes them from first to last.

The great fronting sin ought to be met by the church and the ministry with a special attack equal to its own tremendousness. The saloon, notwithstanding the revenue its brings to our public treasuries, is a prodigious waste of money. The liquor business considered from an economic standpoint is an enormous failure. One billion dollars annually is its cost. All the measures that have thus far been tried have been powerless to curtail the traffic. In 1890 the amount of intoxicants consumed was six and two-fifths gallons per individual. In 1890 it had increased to fourteen and one-half gallons.

There is more drinking now than when liquor was kept in every home and accessible to all. There is much more of excess now than then. The increased activity of modern civilization is attended by increased nervous disorders, and nervous people are exposed to double danger from intoxicating drinks. They are more likely to desire stimulants and they are the more easily injured by such. The use of intoxicants is more dangerous for this generation than for any preceding generation.

The saloon is responsible for four-fifths of the crimes committed in our country. Judge Allison is authority for the statement that there is not one man in twenty tried for murder but that can show drink to be either directly or indirectly the cause.

The brewers and distillers have $1,000,000,000 invested in their business. The various leagues of liquor manufacturers and venders expend annually vast sums at our state capitals in the dictation and control of legislation. They direct the primaries in legislative and municipal elections. Their representatives are in all city councils and public offices.

The saloon as an institution in all of its influences is contrary to the law and the spirit of national prosperity and individual happiness. It must be destroyed. The battle is on, and either this land or the saloon must go down. We need agitation and education; education of conscience in the light of the truth of universal brotherhood. No man who loves his country, his home and his God should by word or act do aught to strengthen the iron hand which the liquor power is using in the social and political affairs of our country.

Chance for a Texas Democrat.

SAN ANTONIO, Tex., April 2.—The United States marshalship of the western district is now vacant, the commission of Paul Fricke having expired March 27. He still occupies the office, but cannot under the law issue any new processes. The necessity of an immediate appointment is very urgent, as the active service of a large number of deputy marshals on the lower Rio Grande border in pursuit of Mexican outlaws is needed just at this time. There are several applicants for the office.

Agreed to Arbitrate.

CHICAGO, Ill., April 2.—Three hundred painters employed at the World's fair grounds struck yesterday for 40 cents an hour, an increase of 5 cents. The men belong to the union and the strike was not authorized by that body. President Higginbotham declares that the matter will probably be settled tomorrow. There will be no strike, as has been reported, of carpenters at the World's fair grounds tomorrow. Both sides have agreed to arbitrate.

Adopted Insurance for Ladies.

The Iowa Legion of Honor at its biennial session at Cedar Falls last week made some important changes, one being the admission of ladies into the order and they are allowed to take out insurance to the amount of $1,000 or $2,000. This privilege is open not only to the sisters and wives of members but to any and all.

CRIME IN HIGH PLACES. It is not strange that some people do wrong through ignorance, others from a failure to investigate as to the right or wrong of a matter.

But it is strange, that individuals and firms, who are fully aware of the rights of others, will persist in perpetrating frauds upon them.

High-toned, wealthy manufacturing firms will offer and sell to retail merchants, articles which they know to be infringements on the rights of proprietors, and imitations of well known goods.

We want to sound a note of warning to the retailers to beware of such imitations and simulations of "CARTER'S LITTLE LIVER PILLS."

When they are offered to you, refuse them; you do not want to do wrong, and you don't want to lay yourself liable to a law suit.

Ben Franklin said "Honesty is the best policy." It is just as true that "Honesty is the best principle."
