Colonel North's Eltyham Queen Will Start -Immense Book Already Made at Handsome Odds E. W. Johnson a Strong Payorite-Other Sports.

CHICAGO, Ill., April 18.—The coming race meeting at Washington park, which opens June 24, promises to eclipse anything of the kind ever held in the west. It is probable that not less than 1,000 horses will be on the ground when the flag fails for the first race. Interest naturally centers in the American Derby, which will be worth $50,000 to the winner this year. With all the declarations in, over 100 coits and fillies remain eligible to This includes the cream of the eastern and western 3-year-olds. The race will possess international importance, as Colonel John T. North's filly, Eltyham Queen, is entered for the event, and will be started. One of Beaufort's three, in cluding Son of a Gun a stake winner last year, will also take part. No less than thirty starters will be entered for the big stake. The local American Derby book of Ullman & Eckert has already taken in over $10,000. It is a $30,000 book. G.W. Johnson has been backed for the limit of the book, and is now doubtful. O'DONOGHUE'S SENSATIONAL SUICIDE. Business Troubles Cause a Popular Publisher to Take His Life. CHICAGO, Ill., April 18.—The remarkable suicide of wealthy Horace O'Donoghue, supposed to be due solely to a sudden insane impulse on hearing his wife read an account of the death of Elliot F. Shepard, was revealed today as probably the result of large financial embarrassments involving a number of Chicago publishing houses. O'Donoghue was standing before a mirror and while his wife was intently reading, picked up a razor and practically beheaded himself. The general impression at the time of O'Donoghue's death was that he was in easy reumstances. The failure last week of H. J. Smith & Co., subscription book publishers; of the Melbourne Publishing company, whose specialty was in reprints, and the Nile C. Smith Publishing company, who were giving their attention to getting out translations from the French, have, it is said, put a different face upon O'Donoghue's affairs. The Chicago and Philadelphia houses of H. J. Smith & Co. confessed judgment. The firms of Charles H. Siegel & Co., F. Schulte & Co. and the Nile C. Smith Publishing company are involved, but are making arrangements for financial assistance, which will enable them to continue.

The relations of these firms to O'Donoghue is explained as follows: O Donoghue printed and bound their books. He did first-class work, was a very amiable man to do busi-ness with, and when it came to settlements was found to be most accommodating. Cash was no object to kim his customers notes were just as acceptable and, in fact, just as useful, and the banks were willing to carry a large amount of paper with his endorse-ment. This fact was the cause of the complications, for a time came when O'Donoghue needed quite a sum of money, and how easy it was to ask these customers of his whom he had repeatedly assisted for "accommoda-tion notes." He got them, as a matter of course, and in amounts twice and thrice the size of their indebtedness to him. One of them is reported to have said that he would have trusted O Dono thue for more "would have trusted O'Donoghue for more than he would the First National bank." There was friendship between him and his customers and there was confidence in his financial responsibility, which nothing could shake; nothing except what did happen. The total amount of these accommodation notes is said to be from $75,000 to $100,000 but ways, with this $75,000 to $100,000, but even with this heav amount, it is said he might have pulled through and might have done so, but for the worry incident to this large indebtedness, secured on personal relationship and temporary arrangement. These notes were soon to come due. He could not pay them. Neither could he face those friends of his and tell them of his failure.

It is believed that O'Donoghue's estate will be found sufficient to take care of all the indebtedness in time, but the demands of the banks upon these endorsers of "accommoda-tion notes," which he floated, is making the best of them squirm.

TWO TOUGH CHILDREN.

They Are Young in Years but Very Old in Vice.

Minnie Brown, a 15-year-old girl, whose standard of morality is away below par, was arrested yesterday afternoon in a house of ill fame, where her mother occupies the position as cook of the establishment. Though young in years the girl is able to give her older companions lessons in degradation. She has been in police court before, but succeeded in regaining her liberty by telling falsehoods and by endeavoring to drag several innocent people down to her own level. Police Matron Cummings will endeavor to have her sent to the Milford home along with June Broneff, another young girl of her ilk, as the best solution of the question what to do with such cases.

Robbed by a Sneak Thief. The room of S. H. May, a traveling man, at the Paxton hotel was entered by a sneak thief, who escaped with a quantity of clothing and valuables and a mileage book.

The detectives have found a place where the thief offered to sell the mileage. The party to whom this offer was made furnished a good description of the man, but so far no clew to his present whereabouts has been discovered. discovered. Wants Looking After.

Detective J. C. Vizzard reported yesterday to Chief Seavey that at his request he had investigated the sanitary condition of the basement of the building now occupied as the city jail, finding it in a very unhealthy condition. He also found that the water in the closets had not been turned on for a month. His recommendation is that these things be looked after and remedied at once.

He Wanted Trouble. Harry Meichs, a colored man, is under arrest for shooting with intent to kill. About midnight Monday night he fired five shots from a revolver into George Dwyer's saloon at 828 Dodge street. One of the bullets passed through the arm of A. B. Paxton, a railroad man, who will appea against him as a witness:

Picked Up by the Police. Chief Detective Haze arrested a man yesterday at the Union depot who was once assistant postmaster at Laramie, Wyo., and who is wanted by the postal authorities for embezziement. He will be taken back to Wyoming for trial.

Mrs. Dora Knowles was arrested yesterday on a charge of larcony preferred by a neighbor. Mrs. Kuowies lives at 613 South Sixteenth street, and is accused of taking a gold watch, a breastpin and other valuables. The grievance is the discharge of two men who were let out because they had retaliated when a certain foreman over them had abused them while he was drunk. The engineers and firemen held a meeting today, but took no decided action, and there will be no strike among them tomorrow at least. Some of the strikers claim that the Santa Fe company has a carload of scabs en route here and that they will arrive in the norning. In Utah and Idaho SALT LAKE CITY, Utah, April 18 -There was no change in the Union Pacific strike situation today. Advices from Pocatello, Idaho, say that everything is quiet. Three of the men who remained in the machine shors resterday joined the strikers this morning. The boller makers are out to the man. The company today put six men to work in the machine shops.

Master Mechanic Dunn said this evening that sixteen out of the twenty-five machinists at Shoshone remained at work and all the bollermakers and blacksmiths. The machinists at Montpelier and Lima-also refused to strike. Forty machinists at Glenns Ferry went out this morning, but Mr. Dunn was confident they would go to work again to-Labor Leaders to Consultation. Toledo, O., April 18.—Twenty-seven mem bers of the advisory board of the Brother hood of Locomotive Engineers are in the city today and have held one secret session. The committee refuses absolutely to throw any light upon the significance of their presence It is admitted on all sides, however, that the meeting is only the beginning of a general campaign of defense or attack upon railroads and it is more than likely that if the Lake Shore refuses to reinstate the strikers, they will have any amount of trouble with the brotherhood.

Santa Fe Men Determined. LA JUNTA, Colo., April 18 .- It is reported that a boiler maker imported from Denver this morning has gone to work, who, with a blacksmith named Murphy who also went to work this morning, constitutes the entire force in the Santa Fe shops here.

Eighteen engines are reported "dead" at this point. Freight traffic is dwindling away and hardly any freight trains are running. La Junta business interests are suffering. The strikers are determined and firm, but the Santa Fe officials declare no compromise will be made. Cheyenne Strikers Determined.

Cheyenne, Wyo., April 18.—[Special Telegram to The Bre.]—The strike here is an unusually quiet affair. The men held meetings today and discussed at length the details of the strike and expressed a determination to remain firm in their demands. The boiler makers' and machinists' apprentices joined the strikers today. Assistant Superintend ent Mertzheimer was called to Denver today to confer with officials there concerning the strike. Trouble in Guthrie.

GUTHRIE, Okl., April 18 .- The strike of the Santa Fe mechanics is causing much trouble here, no freight being received. There seems to be a disposition on the part of business men to hold the railroad company responsible for delay.

SCOTCH-IRISH ORGANIZE.

Beginning of an Organization Which May Extend Throughout Nebraska. In response to an announcement that citizens of Omaha of Scotch-Irish descent would meet at the office of Collector Alexander in the postoffice building last night about twenty gentlemen gathered at the appointed place and proceeded to organize a branch of the Scotch-Irish society of America. The following were present at the meeting: W. H. Alexander, S. M. Wiley, V. G. Lantry, Judge Joseph H. Blair, Con Gallagher, Mr. Pickering, Edward Smith, Robert Smith, J. W. Fyfe, L. McCarthney, G. W. Douglas, J. M. Gillan and E. W. McGilton

A constitution was adopted and the following officers were elected: Judge J. H. Blair, president: L. McCarthney and S. L. Wiley, vice presidents: E. G. McGilton, secretary; G. W. Douglas, treasurer; J. M. Gillan, historian. An executive committee consisting of the above named officers and Mr. Con. Gallagher. Thomas Carine. Mr. Con Gallagher, Thomas Creigh, Mr. J. Nevin and W. H. Alexander, who is also vice president for Nebraska for the Na-tional association tional association, was elected.

The gentlemen present were all enthusiastic in their desire to see a strong and influential society organized, and the following delegates were elected to attend the national congress which meets in Springfield, O., in May: Mr. Charlton, Mr. Gallagher, Mr. Douglas and Mr. Gillan. In case these find it impossible to attend the congress they have authority to appoint proxies.

The society adjourned to meet again on Thursday, April 27, at the same place. It is Thursday, April 27, at the same place. It is expected that the organization will increase rapidly in membership, as the effort is not to be confined to Omaha, but will include all parts of the state. The objects of the organization are for the purpose of inculcating a closer bond of sympathy between American citizens of Scotch-Irish descent and to inculcate lessons of patriotism while studying the history of this sturdy race of people. history of this sturdy race of people.

WEATHER CROP BULLETIN.

Reports from Various States to the Agricultural Department. WASHINGTON, D. C., April 18.-Weather rop builetin: The week ending April 17 has been cooler than usual, except in the south Atlantic states and in the vicinity of the lower lakes. The greater portion of the wheat belt, which was deficient in moisture at last reports, received during the week from one to two inches more than the usual amount of rainfall. The spring wheat region also received about one inch more than the normal rainfall, but in this section the oisture was already in excess. Texas - Drouth severe; corn came up well, but it is not growing; cotton planting delayed in north and west portions; wheat and oats ginning to suffer.

Iowa-In southwest districts dry, winds have injured winter wheat; seeding practically completed; plowing in progress; orn planting begun in southeast district South Dakota-Seeding and other farm work retarded by wet, stormy and freezing eather; bottom land wet.

Nebraska-Small grain mostly sown, but germinating slowly and unevenly when at all; much seed blown out of ground by high winds; fall sown grain killed in southeast portion and below average elsewhere. Colorado—Snows and cold rains badly dis tributed proved injurious to growing crops; round fairly moistened for plowing, except very dry in eastern counties.

New Mexico-Cool weather unfavorable or all vegetation. Utah—Spring work backward; some plow ng grass has made little growth, but slow California—Slight frost during the week wer entire state injured young muscats: all crops three weeks late and fruit prospects generally good, with increased acreages; ops promise well. ning-Growing crops slightly back-

Washington, D. C., April 18.—The tele gram sent by Secretary Morton to the president of the Chicago Board of Trade in reference to crop reports has been the subject of much misinterpretation. The secretary authorizes the statement that there will be no radical change from the former basis and mode of compilation of the reports of the di-vision of statistics; that the report relative to the conditions of the growing crops for April, 1893, was based on unusually full and detailed estimates from a dual corps of cor-respondents, and from other sources. Cor-respondents, viewers and appraisers report to the department conditions by percentages, using 100 as the standard, 100 representing complete formation and condition.

CHURCHILL ON HOME RULE

He Makes a Vigorous Speech in Opposition to that Measure.

OBJECTIONS URGED AGAINST THE BILL

His Bitter Arguments Are Answered in an Able Speech by Mr. Mortey-Suppositions Fears Held by the Bill's Enemies.

LONDON, April 18 .- In the House of Com

ons today the debate on the second read ing of the home rule bill was resumed. Lord Randolph Churchill started the debate by declaring that the crucial test of the bil was the provision of the unimpaired suprem acy of the imperial Parliament. Ostensibly such supremacy was preserved, as every subject that would come before the Irish Parliament remained within the cognizance of the imperial Parliament, but really the supremacy of the Imperial Parliament was rendered impotent by its being deprived of all control of the Irish executive control of the vote of supply for raising taxes. The creation of separate fiscal systems would reduce the British govern ment to a position of great instability Hear, hear.] Then the Irish members. when present in the Imperial Parliament night decide in favor of one policy, and the House of Commons, in their absence, might decide in favor of an entirely different policy It was a philosophic impossibility to create me body with two centers of gravitation.

Lord Randolph, proceeding to consider the functions of the Irish legislature, to be created by the home rule bill, said that the restrictions upon the legislation of the pro posed Irish Parliament were so extraordinary that 90 per cent of the Irish laws might be declared invalid. There might be an appeal to the privy council, but it was mestionable whether its decision would bind the parties. The existing ordinary aw, so far as concerned treason, felony. alienage, naturalization and trade out of Ireland, was supplanted by the reference of such cases to the exchequer tribunal, with an appeal to the privy council, so that any-body might be tried for treason before an xchequer judge without the ghost of a jury

Hear, hear. | Irish Chief Secretary Morley—The clause eant that the cases of that kind should go efore an exchequer judge instead of an ordinary judge. Otherwise the procedure to be the same. Lord Randolph Churchill—Then why did not the bill say so? As it stands it means nothing of the sort. A jury is not mentioned Lord Randolph then went on to discuss the exercise of the veto power of the Morley replied to Lord Randolph Churchill tonight. "The opposition in its arguments against the home rule bill," he said, "dealt almost exclusively with prophe cies. To all these predictions of evil there was one adequate reply: 1 do not believe you.' No safeguards will encompass them nor suffice to remove the evils the opposition had predicted. Much had been said about the sanguine liberal press. He could not per-ceive why liberal hopes were not at least as substantial as unionist fears. [Cheers.] Only those who hoped, not those who feared, saw into the future of civilized communitles." [Cheers.] Christian Church Convention.

A convention of the northeastern Nebraska district of the Christian church was opened at the First Christian church in this city last evening and will continue for several days. At the opening session Dr. R R. Dungan of Cotner university of Lincoln. delivered an able discourse on "Why Christ Died."

The principal thing to be considered at this conference, which will be attended by from seventy-five to 100 delegates, representing about thirty churches, will be mission work. Pastor T. E. Cramblet of the

"It is with much gratitude that I tell of the wonderful help received from Hood's Sarsapa-rilla. For several years I have been a very great sufferer with rhomatism. In the winter of '99 and '91, when I had been obliged to use crutches for a long while, in my unfortunate condition I had a savere attack of the grip, which put me down bedfast, for nearly a year. As I had a severe cough, the dortor thought my lungs affected, and that there was little or

I do all my work and walk around without crutches. all my work and walk around without crutches. The pain and swelling, caused by the rhoumatism, are gone. I have no pain in my hands and wrists, and they are not swellen or drawn any more. The cough and lung trouble and soreness in the chest, which followed the grip, have all gone, and I can sleep comfortably. I am greatly improved in flesh, strength and color. My bowels, hitherto inactive without physic, are, since taking

Hood's Sarsaparilla quite regular, and other bodily functions healthful. My relatives and friends are delighted at the highest praise to Hood's Sarsaparille Mrs. Mary Andress, Crawfordsville, Ind.
