Esmovals to Be Made Will Not Be Delayed, but Are Not Numerous Some of the Postmasters Appointed Yesterday.

> WASHINGTON BUREAU OF THE BEE.) Mashington, D. C., April 21.

Another small lot of fourth-class postmasters were today turned out for Nebraska. No changes were made by removals, all being to fill places made available by resignations. They were as follows: Long Pine, Brown county, W. G. Mason vice G. A. Smith.

Shelby, Polk county, T. E. Smith vice W. E. Kinney.

Shickley, Fillmore county, J. P. Thomas vice J. H. Springer. South Sioux City, Dakota county, Harry

A. McCormick vice J. P. Meredith. It is stated that there will be few changes made in Nebraska offices from this time forward as each incumbent, unless changes are to be made, is to be permitted to serve his four years.

Iowa's Share.

Iowa got a large gist of new postmasters oday. All were, like those for Nebraska, appointed to fill vacancies created by resignations, and were as follows: Alexan Franklin county, James Shaver, vice J. Franklin county, James Shaver, vice J. W.

Foster; Woodburn, Clark county, J. R. Folger vice J. R. Benn. Voss' Appointment Assured.

There was but one application for office from Nebraska booked at the Treasury de partment today. It was that of Joseph Irwin of Omaha to be superintendent of construction of the public building at that city. It was stated upon high official authority today that the appointment of Henry Voss to that position would be made as soon as it could be reached by Secretary Carlisle.

Bonds of Federal Employes.

It is not improbable that the principle established by the postmaster at Brooklyn, N. Y., the other day, of having letter carriers make good their bonds by the security of a regular trust company, will be extended to higher officials. It transmiss that the to higher officials. It transpires that the Brooklyn postmaster did not require as se curity a regular security company; that the act of tendering such security was voluntary upon the part of the letter carriers, but it was suggested by the postmaster.

It is expensive to make good an official bond by the signature of a regular guaranty corporation, as the fee for such risk is usually about 4 per cent per annum for the face of the liability, but there are many reasons why that character of bond is the best. In the case of a letter carrier, whose bond is to the postmaster, who is held responsible by the government, the cost is but internal revenue in a large district or any of thousands of officers were to be compelled to pay 4 per cent for a bond their salaries would often be insufficient to pay the insurance company. A $25,000 bond, for instance, would cost the officer $1,000 a year. It would cost the treasurer of the United States or a sub-treasurer more than the salary of his office; but if guaranty companies were given as bondsmen the face of the bond could be re-duced 75 per cent and the security to the government would be fully as great as at present, taking it upon the average.

As a rule the government loses all when an officer defaults. Usually the bondsmen get out of paying. This they do by making it impossible to collect from them on account of inability to pay, or by exerting political influence. In haif the instances where a bond of individuals is found good, a compromise is affected, by which about one-third or half the defalcation is paid. In case of default when a guaranty company is security, the corporation is always good, and the government deals with it upon a and the government deals with it upon a cold-blooded basis; they have to pay.

The curse of personal bonds has been that the efficer is placed under obligations, political, financial, social and otherwise, to the individuals who become his bondsmen. This was what suggested to the postmaster at Brooklyn the advisability of seeking a security company as bondsman. This sub-ject has been mentioned frequently by men in congress in speeches and reports upon various subjects, and it is believed that it will take the form of law. If all federal officers were required to give guatanty company security there would be more of such corporations, and they would be more stable and their rates would doubtless be lower.

Condition of Crops and Cattle. From the Agricultural department a builetin has just been issued on the condition of growing wheat and live stock. Of wheat nothing in general is said for Nebraska, but the following appears upon lowa and Utah. the following appears upon lowa and Utah. Iowa—Owing to the dry and immpy condition of the soil at seeding time wheat germinated late and unevenly, and was generally in poor condition at the beginning of winter. As a consequence the present condition is not highly promising, although the winter was unliastly favorable for winter grain.

Utai—As far as may be judged at this early date the year promises well for grain, as we depend entirely upon irrigation, and the very thing that has so far caused the most damage, namely, the long winter and heavy storms, will hereafter insure prosperity in the plentitude of irrigation water, insured by the heavy deposit of snow in the mountains.

As to Live Stock.

The following is given upon the condition of live stock in the states named:

Iowa-Farm stock of all kinds is generally healthy. The usual prevalence of distemper in coits, black log in calves, cornstalk disease in cattle, soeb in sheep and cholera in hogs are the only diseases known. Hog cholera alone causes much loss, and even that has not been very generally prevalent. Improved care and shelter has practically eliminated loss from winter exposure. The loss in the spring pig crop of 1892 was very heavy on account of extensive rain. There is an apparent shortage in brood sows.

South Dakota-The winter has been an unusually good one in nearly all parts of the state for wintering stock. Horses, sheep and hogs are very healthy. Hog cholera is a comparatively new disease in South Dakota, but prevails in the extreme southeast counties. of live stock in the states named :

For this reason and on account of high price of park the number of breeding sows in these counties is materially reduced, while in the newer central counties of the state there is a very marked increase of breeding sows on leads.

Black leg is reported from some localities in the middle, southern and western states, including in the latter Kansas, Nebraska, the two Dakotas, Montana, Idabo, Nevada, Utah and Colorado, as well as more central states. This disease prevairs mainly among young cattle.

INTERSTATE COMMERCE COMMITTEE. Important Matters Which it Will Investi-

washington, D. C., April 21.—Senator Butler, chairman of the committee on interstate commerce, has not yet arranged for the investmention authorized by the senate and will take no steps in that direction until in May some time, when he will call the committee together for that purpose. It is not likely. Mr. Butler thinks, that the committee will go to Totedo to investigate the disturbances among the railroad men, out of which came the decision of Judge Taft in the United States court sitting in that city. Such investigation of that particular matter as may be desired will be conducted in this

An important question that the committee has been instructed to examine is the transit of merchandise in bond through United States territory, and for this purpose it will go to Buffalo and one or two other boundary points to ascertain, if possible, the cause for plaints that have been leveled at the existing law.

The scope of the inquiry was broadened during the closing hours of the session by an amendment which directed it to investigate the alleged violations of the long and short han clause of the interstate commerce act and other violations commonly known as "pooling." This will probably be looked into by the committee at length, but up to this time no definite program has been ar-

Admission of Territories.

WASHINGTON, D. C., April 21.-The committee on territories will begin the investigation of the condition of the four territories now knocking for admission to the sisterhood of states, early in June. Chairman Faulkner has not make his selection of the subcommittee, but he has decided that the start will be made from Chicago June 10, and he expects to complete the work within one mouth from that date. The committee will go direct to Utah, where it will look into the condition of affairs and then pass through New Mexico and Arizona. From these territories it will return by the way of Oklahoma. Short stops will be made at the principal cuties in each of the territories and the committee will address itself to the considera-tion of the material development of the country and the condition of the people who comprise its inhabitants.

Mormon Church Property.

Washington, D. C., April 21.—The case in volving the manner of disposing of the fund now in the hands of the receiver, arising from the sale of the Mormon church property in Utah, will not be decided by the supreme court this term. At the request of the attorneys, who assert that the fund is disappearing at the rate of $30,000 or $40,000 a year, in costs and fees, the supreme court of the United States granted a motion to advance the case upon the docket, with the stipulation that it might be submitted on briefs, if they were flied this week, or set down for oral argument on Monday of the second week of next term. The attorneys have found it impossible to get their briefs prepared within the time specified and the case, therefore, goes over until the October Request from Distillers.

Washington, D. C., April 21.—Secretary Carlisle has referred to the commissioner of internal revenue, for consideration and report, the request of certain distillers which asks that none but round bottom lanterns be allowed to be used in the distillery bonded warehouses. This request was made because of the number of fires that have occurred in such warehouses from the use of flat bottom lauterns, which the workmen and others are in the habit of placing on the floors and over which spirits have been accidentally spilled and ignited, thereby causing dangerous conflagrations. Round bottom lanterns, it is said, would have to be carried in the hand or be hung up, thus avoiding such accidents as have repeatedly resulted in fires.

That Russian Treaty. WASHINGTON, D. C., April 21.-The exchange of ratifications leaves now only one more step to be taken to put the Russian extradition treaty into effect. This is the official proclamation by President Cleveland. This proclamation will be issued in a short time, probably upon the receipt of formal notice by the State department from Min-ister White of the fact of the exchange. Until the date of publication of the proclam-ation, whenever that may be, the exact text of the treaty is expected to remain a secret of the executive department.

Signed by the Emperor. Washington, D. C., April 21.—A cable message received at the State department says that the emperor of Russia has signed the extradition treaty between the United States and Russia.

Postmasters Appointed. Washington, D. C., April 21.—Ninety-five fourth-class postmasters were appointed today. Of these eighty-four were to fill vacancies occasioned by resignations.

Mr. Roberts was found by his son, Guy, and a companion history in a hole which he had burrowed on the south side of a hay stack. He did not recognize his son and was evidently laboring under an aberration of mind. One of the boys immediately returned to the city and notified the family and several neighbors. She said that she had married Jordan in Omaha, although her family op-posed the match. They came from Omaha to Lincoln on March 17, and have been living

Jordan has succeeded in proving to the satisfaction of the police that he was not one of the men who held Howlett up, as he showed that he had been released from the penitentiary on March 15, while the robbery was committed on the 12th of that month. Jor-dan and Gilbert were both sent to the penitentiary from Omaha at the same time, but Gilbert secured his release last December. The cloud wore a very strange appearance. It was funuel-shaped, the smaller end touching the ground and twisting and whirling about in a terrible manner. Above the funnel was a fearfully black cloud and over it hung for a second a fiery red cloud, which darted north. then west, then northeast. How Many Defendants in Minor Cases Escape Punishment. "None of the appealed misdemeanor cases upon which I have imposed a sentence have been taken up at this term of the district court," said Judge Berka to a reporter vesterday. Regarding these cases the judge said further that no matter how many convictions took place in the police court, if the parties to it were able to give bonds they would appeal to the higher court, when the cases, being of minor import, would be allowed to go by the board. Only the poorer classes, those who could not furnish bondsmen, would in this way be made to feel the force of the law. Even in felony cases, the judge stated, the process of appeal was very slow. State's witnesses who, on account of their being unacquainted here or because their financial condition was such that nobody cared to vouch for their appearance, had to be sent to the jail, where

What Is It?

In point of fact it is the freedom from poisonous and spurious ingredients, the excellence in flavor which gives to Dr. Price's Delicious Flavoring Extracts of Vanilla, Orange, Lemon, etc., their wide popularity and increasing sale.

The retail grecers are learning that quality rather than price is necessary to retain the confidence of customers and make a successful business!

Selection of an Architect. At the regular meeting of the Board of Equeation Monday night the selection of an architect for the coming year will probably be considered. The term of the present architect, Mr. John Latenser, was out last month, but it is claimed that it would not be wise to make a change now when so nany school buildings are in course of con-

On the other hand, there are a good many architects who would like the job at a much less figure than the $4,500 which the present incumbent draws, and there is a chance for a lively skirmish.

Its first appositance was near the anklos. It rapidly extended over the lower extremities until my legs were nearly one raw sore; from legs the trouble extended across the hips, shoulders and the entire length of the arms, the legs and arms greatly swollen with an itching, burning pain, without cessation. Although the best medical advice attainable was employed, no less than five physicians of the place being consulted and the prescriptions being the result of their combined wisdom, the disease though appaiently enecked, would recur in a few days as bad as ever; during its progress my weight fell away about twenty-five pounds. As an experiment I began the use of Curretura, following the simple and plain instructions given with the Remedies, and in bour weeks found myself well, with skin soft and natural in coldr, the liching and pain entirely relieved.
