

AHLWARDT'S VENOMOUS TALK

It Was the Cause of an Exciting Scene in the German Reichstag.

MIGUEL AGAIN VICIOUSLY ATTACKED

Ahlwardt Accused of Making a Living by Bringing Forward His Charges of Corruption—He is a Scoundrel.

BERLIN, April 25.—At the session of the Reichstag today Herr Ahlwardt made a motion for the appointment of a committee to inquire into the charges which he had made of gross maladministration and enormous embezzlement against Dr. Miguel, minister of finance and other prominent persons. He admitted that he had no documents to prove his accusations relating to the invaded soldiers fund, but said that he nevertheless was prepared to show that the late well known Hebrew financier, Baron von Biechroeder, with the assistance of Dr. Miguel, wrangled the German people out of several hundred millions of marks.

Dr. Miguel arose to answer the charges. He said that if Ahlwardt had not a private person he would not have noticed the charges, but that as Ahlwardt was the representative of a man, he would not be bound to notice them as far as to simply deny the whole accusations which Ahlwardt had made.

Frederic von Maltzahn, a conservative, remarked that the committee asked for ought to be appointed, although he was convinced that the committee would report the accusations to be baseless.

Unparliamentary Language Used. The sitting throughout was remarkable for the use of more unparliamentary language than has been heard before in the whole history of the Reichstag. Dr. Ahlwardt's speech Dr. Rickert, one of the radical leaders, called out that Ahlwardt was carrying on his anti-Semitic agitation as a controversial business, and that he would forever prosecute his documents for the money which such a course brought into his pocket. Ahlwardt turned pale with anger and related his own story. "That is false, you are a liar and a scoundrel."

An uproar broke out, a dozen members shouting simultaneously at Ahlwardt and others appealing to the president to discipline Ahlwardt.

As the tumult subsided, Ahlwardt opened a scathing attack upon the liberal members of the Reichstag, accusing him of sharp practices and conviction at Jewish dishonesty, and finally charging him indirectly with having used his influence to enhance the value of his Hanover estate by having a railway built near it.

The words were hardly out of his mouth when he was interrupted by a chorus of "Slanderer!" "Liar!" "Down with him!" "Turn him out!" The president rang repeatedly for order before the ill-tempered speaker was interrupted by angry exclamations and continued his speech from the house. The house finally agreed to the appointment of a committee as requested by Ahlwardt.

WATCHING THE LEGATION.

Chilian Detectives Think Minister Egan is Still Sheltered Refugees.

VALPARAISO, Chile (via Galveston, Tex.), April 25.—(By Mexican Cable to the New York Herald.)—Special to the Herald.—The streets near the United States legation house are being closely watched by Chilean police and detectives. The authorities believe that Blandiet Holly and other criminals are still being sheltered by United States Minister Egan. Holly is one of the men to whom Mr. Egan offered an asylum.

It was supposed that he had escaped after Secretary Egan's refusal to grant him protection. Egan to cease affording him the protection of the United States, but reports obtained by detectives from the servants in adjoining houses have led to the belief that Holly, as well as others whose capture is desired by the Chilean government, are still in the legation house.

A curious incident connected with the recent outbreak in Santiago has come to light. All those who conspired to destroy the government were requested to take an oath similar in form, although with slight modifications, to that subscribed to by the members of the Irish Clan-na-Gael. It was an oath requiring Egan's connection with the Clan-na-Gael and the fact that another similar to the one presented by the irregularly elected government, have caused many persons to believe that he was connected with the plot against the government.

The removal of Corvis M. Barre as United States consul at Valparaiso is generally regretted by Chileans and Americans. A telegram from the minister's correspondent in Rio de Janeiro says that war supplies and ammunition and also the Thirty-fifth Infantry were sent today to Rio Grande do Sul.

Minister Serzedillo has retired from the cabinet. He will be succeeded as foreign minister by Victorino de la Plaza.

Another Battle Expected. The Herald's correspondent in Artigas says that the railroad agents have protested against the robberies committed by the federalists. It is now expected that a fight between the federalists and the government troops is inevitable. The battle will probably take place near Itibeny. The minister has the interior in Argentine under the railroads to discontinue transporting arms and stores for the Castillistas.

A telegram from Santiago says that Dado Errazuriz, the new minister of war, has been authorized by Chili to settle the boundary dispute with Argentina. Buenos Ayres papers comment on the nomination, saying that the nomination indicates Chili's desire to have the questions honorably settled.

Peru and Bolivia May Fight. PANAMA, Colombia (via Galveston, Tex.), April 25.—(By Mexican Cable to the New York Herald.)—Special to the Herald.—A gentleman who is an authority in regard to South American politics says that the settlement of the questions growing out of the treaty made ten years ago at the close of the war between Peru and Chile and Peru will probably involve Peru and Bolivia in war, the latter country having made an arrangement with Chili which will be disadvantageous to Peru. Armies of Bolivia have been sent through Panama and the agent for that country will sail for the south next Thursday.

Rojas Paul ex-president of Venezuela has arrived at Cartagena. He is on his way to Cuba.

The Colombian government has begun the exchange of practical paper currency for silver. Liquidator Mance of the Pan-American bank is expected to arrive here on Wednesday.

News has been received here from La Guayana, Venezuela, of an accident to the cable between the island and the mainland. General Crespo recently arrived in La Guayana with his family. A gunboat in the harbor gave them the national salute.

After one of the boats was wrecked, the train, smashing the windows and injuring Senora Crespo and Mr. Hartmann, who was in the train, was arrested. It is believed he pointed the gun toward the train with the intention of injuring General Crespo.

Dangerous Hull Strikers. LONDON, April 25.—Near Hull has been guarded all day by pickets and pilot locomotives are run out of the yards ahead of the train.

The strikers threaten to tear up the railroads, to place dynamite under the bridges and blow up the trains carrying the Hull nonunion laborers or officials. The police were called to the railway station today to protect the workmen and officials brought

TURNED ON THE STEAM

Satisfactory Trial of the Great Engine in the World's Fair Grounds.

CHICAGO, Ill., April 25.—Steam was today, for the first time, turned into the receivers of the Levittah engine at the World's fair grounds. The engine, which was built by the Westinghouse company, was put to a test of power, which President Cleveland will next Monday press into activity at the touch of a button. The wheels of the great engine revolved today in a cycle that was declared satisfactory.

Except for a few details the plans for the opening of the exposition are now settled. The date is to be the first of September. A state of guns will be fired when the president reaches the grounds and probably another salute will be fired when the mayor of Chicago reaches the grounds.

Governor Altgeld will issue a proclamation setting forth that in consideration of the foreign nations, the state of Illinois is commencing the exposition the great event of which it is commemorative, and the further fact that it is within the state of Illinois the opening day of the exposition.

Mayor Harrison will emphasize the occasion and it is expected that the Niagara applicable, particularly to the city of Chicago.

This afternoon the world's fair national commission assembled for the initial session of its final meeting. The Stanley question was the burning question before them, but no discussion or action was indulged in, today's gathering being merely formal, and an adjournment was taken until tomorrow. It is not the intention of the commissioners to originate a discussion of the Stanley question, but it is expected that the matter will come up in the form of a fresh resolution from the local directory, and will be the subject of a heated debate.

The matter of opening the fair evenings will also be called up.

The program of ceremonies to be given at the opening of the woman's building at the World's fair has been decided. The exercises will take place in Central Music hall next Monday afternoon. The opening prayer will be said by Miss Julia Hartin, who will also give a dramatic overture. The address of the day will be made by Mrs. Potter Palmer, president of the fair, and by Mrs. H. A. Beach of Boston, Duchess de Veragua of Spain, Countess de Brazza of Italy, Mrs. Beletoff of Russia, and Princess Schachoffsky of Russia.

Business Troubles. Failure of a Chicago Jewelry Firm—Other Encouraging News.

CHICAGO, Ill., April 25.—Giles Bros., one of the oldest retail jewelry houses in the city, is financially embarrassed. Confessions of judgment were entered against them this afternoon for over $85,000.

E. B. Rorer was made custodian and put in charge of the estate of the late J. W. Harvey. The First National bank is unable to pay the depositors of the late J. W. Harvey.

At the afternoon session Stubbis announced that everything was lovely in the Kansas delegation. Lovell would be the vice president from Kansas and Ady the secretary. The matter of the Kansas delegation was discussed and it was decided that the name of Governor Lovell should be substituted.

A. W. Stubbs was proud of the fact that he was not a delegate appointed by the governor. The Stanley question was discussed and it was decided that the matter will come up in the form of a fresh resolution from the local directory, and will be the subject of a heated debate.
