

MARTINISM MEANS TROUBLE

Local Democrats Apprehensive Concerning the State Chairman's Peculiar Course.

EFFECT OF HIS FIGHT ON HENRY VOSS

Outcomes of Personal Antipathy and Not the Desire of the Party to Represent Democracy in the State to Endorse the Move.

Speculation is rife as to the probable outcome of the latest political venture of Chairman Euclid Martin of the democratic central committee in securing the recall of the commission of Henry Voss as superintendent of construction of the new federal building in this city.

Samsonites and acknowledged alike express regret that the move was made and do not hesitate to voice the belief that it will result disastrously to the party in Nebraska.

Martin's Personal Antipathy. Prominent democrats who were intimately associated with Martin a year ago in the memorable attack upon the commission of the Martin delegation from this country was re-nominated for the office.

Members of the younger democratic club state that an erroneous impression prevails regarding the attitude of that organization with reference to the chairman of the state central committee, in that it is believed in some quarters that the democratic sentiment of the Jacksontons.

Colonel Frank P. Brand of Nebraska City was one of a group of democrats at the Paxton last evening which the subject was under discussion, and after expressing himself in a general way regarding the action of Martin, said he was sorry to see the appointment recalled because he had known Voss for a number of years.

It is stated that there will be a meeting of the state central committee before many days, and that the chairman will be given to understand the sentiments of the members touching his latest break.

Mr. Voss at once began to get ready for a trip to Washington. He will take along several of his staunch friends, and the indications are that the fur will fly before the third round in the scrap is over.
