MINOR MENTIONS

N. V. Plumbing Co.

Boston Store. Natchaug silks.

Miltonberger is the latter 397 Broadway.

The butchers of Council Bluffs have entered into an agreement by which they will all close at 7:30 p. m. every day, excepting Saturday.

The trial of Adolph Baumeister on the charge of murder in the first degree will commence this morning before Judge Smith in the district court at Avesca.

The city clerk is making preparations to make war on the various nuisances commencing May 1. The tags have arrived and everything is now in readiness except the date.

The April meeting of the Parochial Aid society of St. Paul's church will be held at Mrs. W. J. Jamison's, first avenue, this Thursday afternoon. All the ladies are requested to come or send their pledges.

There will be a special session of Harmony chapter, No. 25, Order Eastern Star, at Masonic temple this evening for the purpose of initiation. All members are requested to be present promptly at 7:30. By order of worthy matron.

Some complaint is being indulged in by the business men of Council Bluffs against the discrimination against

Council Bluffs by the Western Union Telegraph company in the matter of tariffs. It is contended that the same message sent to Chicago from Council Bluffs than from Omaha, and rates to other points are on the same unequal basis.

A CHILD KNOWS

The pleasant flavor, gentle action and soothing effect of Syrup of Figs, when in need of a laxative, and if the father or mother be costive or bilious, the most gratifying results follow its use, so that it is the best family remedy known and every family should have it on hand.

The opening of Clint S. Byers' new show store yesterday attracted a great deal of interest, and notwithstanding the stormy weather hundreds of ladies visited the store. The west show window was the center of continued interest all day long, and is the most novel and original feature of the show trade in the city. The success attracting the first day assures Mr. Byers that he will have a liberal share of the cream of the fine trade of the city, and will be able to meet the demands of all other classes of trade.

Saturday, April 29, I permanently close my jewelry business. People who have left watches and jewelry for repairs must call and get them, and all bills must be settled before that date. Carl Burlison.

PERSONAL PARAGRAPHS

Ogden will give a musical this evening at the Mueller Music hall.

E. E. Harver and son of Denver are in the city for a few days visiting the former's parents, Mr. and Mrs. Tostevin, on Park avenue.

State Superintendent Kneppeler, Superintends Meyer, Hodges and Dunlavy paid a visit to the High school yesterday and spent the afternoon with the teachers and students.

O. C. Spruitt was called away yesterday to attend the funeral of his wife's mother.

Mrs. S. R. Babt, at Osceola, Ia. Mrs.

Spruitt was at the bedside of her mother at the time of her death.

Rheumatism Quickly Cured.

Three days is very short time in which to cure a bad case of rheumatism; but it can be done, if the proper treatment is adopted.

As will be seen by the following from James Lambert of New Brunswick, Ill., who was badly afflicted with rheumatism in the hips and legs, when I bought a bottle of Chamberlain's Pain Balm, it cured me in three days. I am all right and would insist on every one who is afflicted with that terrible disease to use Chamberlain's Pain Balm and get well at once."

Of Interest to Builders.

W. J. Wallace has removed from the opera house block to his father's office at South Main street, No. 72. Wallace is the only dealer in mummies and tiling in Council Bluffs, and builders will do well to get his figures before making contracts elsewhere. He also represents the St. Louis and St. Joseph pressed brick companies, and the Sibley and Wall Plaster company. In all he is handling thirteen distinct lines of building material.

Tea Days at the World's Fair.

It will cost you less than $50.00, everything necessary, including, of course, the means of transportation, clean, safe, close to grounds and on the beach or

Lake Michigan. Write to J. T. Chyno with Windsor Park, Ill. Refers to H.

W. Tilton of THE BEE, or Jacob Sims of Sims & Bainbridge, Council Bluffs.

Coal and wood; best and cheapest Missouri hard wood in the city; prompt delivery. H. A. Cox, No. 4 Main street.

Fun at Dohany's.

Tonight the merry-makers, Fitz and Webster and their merry-making associates will appear in "The Breezy Time" at Dohany's theater. An evening of fun is promised, the entertainment being crisp and catchy. The Philadelphia Star pronounces it "one of the best fare comedies now on the stage, and it never fails to attract large audiences." Its success this week in Omaha is assurance sufficient to cause Council Bluffs people to seek Dohany's tonight.

Saturday evening Dohany's Dramatic club will present at Dohany's, "Cast Out in the Street." It is the same popular play recently given at Masonic temple, and the repetition next Saturday evening will be a response to the desire of those who were enthusiastic over its first presentation.

Death of Mrs. Spooner.

Mrs. Nancy Wilson Spooner, wife of D. G.

Spooner, died at about midnight Tuesday night, aged 55 years, after an illness of about a week. The deceased was born March 17, 1838, at Heath, Mass., and was married February 11, 1860. Mr. and Mrs. Spooner moved to this city in 1861, and have made it their residence ever since. They had lived together for sixty-three years, celebrating their golden wedding in 1903. The deceased was a member of the Congregational church.

She leaves behind her husband, four chilren, Mrs. Emma Reed of Denver, W. E.

and E. A. Spooner of Boston and L. L.

Spooner of this city.

Christian Church Banquet.

Elegantly written invitations were issued on Monday inviting several hundred people to be present at Masonic temple hall last evening for the purpose of attending a reception given by the Christian church to its new and young members. About all who received invitations responded, and a very pleasant surprise greeted them. On the south side of the big hall were spread two long tables reaching the full length of the room covered with every variety of china and a hearty but temperate feast. Nearly 300 covers were laid, and after an hour had been passed in a general social good time, the chairs at the tables were occupied and a royal banquet was enjoyed. Among those present was a number of prominent church people from Omaha, including Rev. Mr. Traubel, pastor of the First Christian church, and Rev. Mr. Reed of the same denomination.

A dozen or more toasts were proposed and responded to. Dr. J. E. Fremont, president of the "Our Neighbors." His speech was in a very happy vein, sparkling with good will and neighborly love. He incidentally referred to an indication of growth of the church in this vicinity, that three and a half years ago there were less than 300 members in the three churches, and at the present time there were over 1,100. Toasts were also responded to by Rev. Mr. Reed,

Mr. Reed, Mr. Shubert and Miss Hood.

The banquet and reception lasted until nearly 11 o'clock, and all those present went away with their hearts full of impressions, realizing that profitable and pleasant innovations are possible in church work.

"It's—It's—Harvest"

A great many once said in speaking of a remarkably fertile spot, "if you tickle it with a hoe, it lugs with a harvest."

This saying is indeed true of North Gal-vestonia, the fruit growing region of the region lying, in response to cultivation which is mere play compared with the arduous toil of farmers in north Ohio, immense crops of peas, plums, cherries, strawberries, etc.

These "ripples of excitement" on the part of the rich soil are perennial crops—were never known to fail.

The fortunate fruit growers laugh, too, at their good fortunes; manufacturers who are profiting by the splendid resources and shipping facilities of this region, who are making many and investors who have found health in this mild and wholesome climate in the merry making; and it is with a laughingly happy, prosperous countenance that they greet the visitor who asks them why they are interested in North Galvestonia as an investment or a home, or both, apply 17 Barker block.

A Policeman that Fiddles.

One of the members of the police force has lately acquired a large lot of notoriety through his musical ability and his willingness to display that ability when the right kind of an occasion offers itself. At the Colorado house, kept by Mrs. Jacob Smith, on West Broadway, dances are almost nightly occurrences, and while the crowds that go there cannot quite be said to compose the elite circles of the city, there is considerable doubt as to whether there is any place in Council Bluffs where gaiety runs any higher or the conventionalities of good society are much further below par than at these little dances. Among those who were attracted to the place was the policeman who is reported to be "fiddling the night. At first he went merely to keep order, but of late he has been obliging as an orchestra, and reels off the tunes upon his fiddle in a way that has won the admiral approval of the orchestra of and conducts a band. He has also served notice that if they can't have a policeman to
