

WORKING ON IOWA'S DISPLAY

Building of the State at the Fair Almost Completed.

FEATURES OF THE FINAL ARRANGEMENTS

Hundreds of Visitors Already Being Entertained Daily—Convenient to the Elevated Line—How to Reach the Building.

CHICAGO, Ill., April 29.—[Special to THE BEE.]—A sunny day brought out a crowd of visitors through the Iowa state building...

Within the last twenty-four hours the assembly hall has been completely transformed. Mr. Clude's corn and oats have been sprigged...

The clock which the ladies of Iowa City made and presented to the Iowa building arrived a few days ago and has been placed upon the mantel in the ladies' parlor.

The assembly hall, on the second floor, reminds one of an old-fashioned flaring room, so thickly is the straw and grain piled up over the floor.

The people who will look upon the beautiful exhibition hall and the dairy agricultural exhibit will be struck by the thought of the lovely little details and the long hours that have gone into the work.

On the whole a stirring movement was being made toward the opening on May 1, and if no other building on the grounds is completed by that date...

CLEVELAND IN CHARGE

Citizens of the City Give the Chief Magistrate a Hearty Welcome.

CHICAGO, Ill., April 29.—The martial music of a military band welcomed President Cleveland to the city shortly after noon today.

When at last the train did arrive the police became excited and exerted their authority in roughly handling, not only the eager spectators, but the uninvited members of the reception committee.

As the president stepped off the rear of the car a loud cheer went up from the crowd and was recognized by bow from the chief magistrate.

The procession moved from the depot in the following order: Detachment of police; military escort; four carriages, containing committees on ceremonies; fifth carriage, president of the United States, governor of Illinois, and on the other Mayor Harrison of Chicago.

WAR, COMMISSIONER WILSON; TENTH CARriage, secretary of the navy, Commissioner Allen; eleventh carriage, postmaster general, Commissioner Clegg; twelfth carriage, attorney general of the United States, Commissioner Harbour; thirteenth carriage, secretary of the interior, Director Wacker; fourteenth carriage, secretary of agriculture, Director Kerfoot.

The line of march was east on Adams street, thence south to the Lexington boulevard, through the city to the stock through which the procession moved and greeted the president and his secretary of state with many enthusiastic demonstrations.

The president's apartments at the Lexington hotel had been elaborately decorated in honor of his coming, his entire suite of rooms being furnished with the brightest linens and richest foliage that the exposition greenhouses afford.

HONORED BY A MULTITUDE

Thousands Reverently Greet the Old World Leader at Chicago.

CHICAGO, Ill., April 29.—Beneath leaden skies, Pennsylvania's choicest weather, her old Liberty bell was today deposited within the walls of her state building at Jackson park.

It was not until the afternoon when the bell was removed from the car and deposited on the handsome float, drawn by six horses, and preceded by a platoon of police, followed by military bands, that the thousands of the multitude started on its journey to Jackson park.
