MINOR MENTIONS

N. Y. Plumbing Co. Boston Store. Natchez silk.

Miltonberger is the latter, 502 Broadway.

The Congregational missionary society will be held on Monday evening at the residence of Dr. Montgomery.

Antonio Dagen's of Canada and Carmilla Leal of Brownsville, Ind., were married by Justice Fox yesterday.

The cigar makers union will meet next Monday for an election of officers.

Miss Ella Phelps of this city are to be married today at the residence of the bride's parents, Rev. and Mrs. Stephen Phelps, on Willow avenue.

A paper is being circulated among the citizens for the purpose of having the water of Mystery springs delivered to the citizens, who want to see the water from the company not being considered fit to drink.

William Foster was arrested last evening on an information filed by a man named Stull in Justice Vile's court charging him with making threats to kill Stull.

Stull was put under bonds to keep the peace. All the parties concerned live on East Broadway.

It has been discovered that J. H. Stultz, who was given thirty days for impersonating an officer, is wanted for breaking into an express office in Omaha and stealing a value.

As soon as his sentence is out on this side of the river he will be taken to Omaha for a trial on the new charge.

An unusually hard rain storm, which the city last evening, accompanied by a brilliant display of electricity, lasted for about two hours, and half of that time the water was laid up, not a trim running in the street.

No damage was reported as a large washout at the corner of Washington avenue and Henton street.

One of Welch's horses was killed in the hot water, but was finally pulled out unharmed.

A telegram was received yesterday stating that Leon Lohr was released from jail at Sioux City on the charge of obtaining money under false pretenses.

In his decision Judge Gaynor stated that there was not sufficient evidence to convict Lohr of that charge, but directed that another information be filed against him with conspiracy.

He is now in the city jail at Omaha awaiting his hearing on the new charge.

The park commissioners made a formal decision on the case of the park fund, which has been the cause of considerable controversy in the city, and the commission, claiming that they have the right to the custody of the funds, while the treasurer claims that the money can only leave his hands on the production of the proper vouchers.

The commission has decided that it has until today to consult the city attorney, and the commissioners threaten a mandamus proceeding if he refuses their request.

PERSONAL PARAGRAPHS

City Clerk Zuerchellen is confined to his home by illness.

R. E. Johnston and wife of the Musin Concert company are registered at the Grand Hotel.

Mrs. Minnie Conway of Brooklyn, Ind., is the guest of her mother, Mrs. Cole, on Bluff street.

Misses Lulu and Viola Otto returned last evening from Chicago, where they have been attending the World's Fair for the past week.

Chief Scanlan, who has been laid up for several days, was able to be police headquarters yesterday with the aid of crutches.

Rev. T. F. Thickston leaves today for River Sioux to conduct the funeral services of the child of Mr. and Mrs. M. O. Caley, formerly of this city.

Mrs. Ella Kyle of Pittsburg, Pa., and Mrs. Annie Hayes, wife of Prof. Hayes of Greeley, Colo., are visiting their aunt, Mrs. J. W. Crossland, at Washington, and attending the meeting of the Woman's General Missionary society in Omaha.

Charles A. Atkins and Miss Ella Luster were married last evening at the residence of the groom, 708 Myrtle street, Rev. John Askin, D.D. officiating.

A number of the intimate friends of the parties were present, and the ceremony was followed by an evening of social enjoyment.

Charles A. Fox received a lot of pictures yesterday from C. Gerald O'Neill, who formerly attended St. Joseph's academy in this city, but left for Hamilton, Bermuda, West Indies, twelve years ago, where he has been connected with the supply department of the United States Army ever since.

Among the pictures are a number showing scenes of interest about the island, but the one which is viewed with the most interest by Mrs. O'Neill's many friends is that of his five children. When he left he was a beardless and wishful youth, and the change will be quite a shock to a number of Council Bluffs young people of both sexes.

NEWS FROM COUNCIL BLUFFS

Pistol Practice That Did Not Result in a Fatality.

WILLIAM LIBBEKKE'S POOR SHOOTING

He Takes a Shot at an Inquisitive Rival and No Damage is Done - Another Man Who Was Afraid to Shoot.

A couple of pistol shots aroused the inhabitants of North Main street yesterday morning about 10 o'clock and the report was soon circulated that William Libbekke, who works at the Manhattan restaurant, had shot at what he supposed was a thief who had been peering through the windows. The supposed thief got away in safety, although the shot was subsequently found in a fence in close proximity to the place where he had been standing. Yesterday it was developed that the thief was not a thief at all, but merely Joseph Jenson, the proprietor of a rival establishment, who felt a curiosity to know how Libbekke was getting along as a customer and undertook to satisfy himself, with the usual success, by a shot.

Another exciting episode took place at the same establishment yesterday afternoon, but different parties were implicated in the same time. Fred Harling, who drives a carriage wagon, undertook to take away some refuse from the alley and was ordered off the premises by Peter Hartung, the proprietor. He claimed, coupled his order with an epithet which was not to be borne by a self-respecting dandy. Stone immediately got down from his wagon and chased Harling until he had been driven out of the city clerk's office and filed an information, charging Hartung with disturbing the peace.

William Robinson Disappears.

William Robinson, who has been working at Clay Platter's farm, east of the city, for some time past, has disappeared, and there is no clew as to his present whereabouts.

He left the farm last Friday, taking with him one of Mr. Platter's horses and about $12 in cash, which his employer had given him. His absence occasioned no alarm until a day or two ago, when an investigation was made which led to the discovery that the horse had been left at Jennings' livery stable in the eastern part of the city, but Robinson had not been seen since his arrival. Mr. Platter states that Robinson is one of the steadiest and most reliable men he has ever had in his employ, and he is at a loss to account for the disappearance. He is of the opinion, however, that the missing man has been foully dealt with. The young man is a son of the Robinson who kept a bakery in Council Bluffs several years ago.

Funeral of Philip Armour.

The funeral of Philip Armour took place yesterday afternoon at the residence of M. E. Rohrer, the brother-in-law of the deceased, on Vine street. Rev. Stephen Phelps officiated in the place of Rev. T. J. Mackay of Omaha, the pastor of the church to which the family of the dead man belonged. Mr. Mackay was unavoidably detained at home. Music was furnished by Mrs. Sherman and Mrs. Mullis. At the close of the exercises the remains were taken to Fairview cemetery for burial. The following gentlemen acted as pall-bearers: M. Treynor, Samuel Haas, Finley Burke, J. N. Casady, J. L. Stewart and Thomas Bowman.

Piles of people have pines, but De Witt's Witch Hazel Salve will cure them.

Dorsey's Ranch Attached.

Deputy Sheriff Lewis went to Valley yesterday to levy on the 1,100 acre comprising the old C. E. Mays ranch and fine stock farm, now owned by ex-Congressman G. W. E. Dorsey, to satisfy the claims of attaching creditors. It was Dorsey's intention that the place was in the hands of the sheriff, when Mays's spectacular career in Omaha was drawing to a close, and now, in the absence of Dorsey, the ranch, in history again repeating itself.

Caught a Sure-Thing Man.

A bright-looking young man calling himself Charles G. Taylor is staying at the city jail because the authorities decided that he was a suspicious character. The fact that Charles carried a sure-thing dice layout and a number of skeleton keys, merely tend to confirm the suspicions of the city, who will interrogate him very closely in court today.

Somebody Will be Disappointed.

Saturday afternoon the Board of Fire and Police Commissioners will meet for the purpose of examining the applicants for appointment to positions on the fire department. There are an file with the board about 300 applications. It is the intention to select about ten men, who will be assigned to duty as soon as there are places for them.

INVADED BY REPUBLICANS

Two Well Known Clergymen Indulge in a Serious Filing Out.

A year or so ago there was a change in pastors of one of the most prominent churches of Council Bluffs, the former pastor taking a change in a neighboring city and his successor being a clergyman from another state.

While here the old pastor was very popular, and after he left there were a great many members of his flock who felt so friendly toward him as to send for him whenever any of the members of their families wanted to be buried or married. This was very embarrassing for the new pastor, and not long ago he took an opportunity of remonstrating with his predecessor in vigorous terms.

Just what conversation took place between the two reverend gentlemen is not known, but it is a certainty, but the substance of it was that the former pastor should stick to his knitting and when there was any marrying or burying to be done in the neighborhood, he should be notified in time to come to the place where the services were to be held, and if he failed to do so, he would be held responsible for the consequences.

The republican party should undertake with earnestness to devote the majority of its efforts to the benefit of the poor at the expense of the rich. It should proclaim eternal warfare against all speculation in the staples of the country. The wheat pit of Chicago should not have the power to increase the price of every farmer's loaf of bread in order to fill the pocket of the successful speculator.

I venture another prediction: I know it is not in line with the declared policy of the republican party as expressed during the last election. The republican party was born of the sentiment of the nation demanding freedom and equality of rights to all, and the republican party should not be content with the mere maintenance of the status quo, but should be ever ready to stand up for the protection of every American citizen in the exercise of his rights as a citizen.

The commercial interests of the north have elected a man who is not a native citizen from the platform of the republican party; this citizen within the last few weeks, but he did not ratify the surrender; and in my judgment, the abandonment of the colored citizen in the country, is such an act of political cowardice as deserves the rebuke of national defeat. If the trade and commerce of the United States are to be placed in the hands of a man who has been made a success, without submission to and acquiescence in the wrongs of the colored citizen, the constitution of the United States is a mockery, and the flag of our country, that is pictured face of Lincoln, to the wall and cast the sword of Grant into the sea.

Announcements.

The Schubert Symphony club and ladies' quartet gave a first-class musical entertainment at the Temple theater last evening.

Said the Alton (Ill.) Daily Telegraph last January, "Prof. E. H. Purcell is an artist, and his compositions are of the highest order rendered on the organ. Miss Lavinia Zentz, the contralto soloist, deserves special mention. Master Tommy is a wonderful little artist. He sang, played the organ and the violin with a grace and skill seldom equaled by one so young. The company is evenly balanced throughout, and a return date will fill the house."

This company will give a performance at Dohay's next Saturday afternoon, and will also appear in the evening. A crowded house should greet them on each occasion.

The First Baptist church social will be given at Mrs. Theadore Gullitar's, 119 North Eighth street, this evening. All cordially invited.

TURKEY SUCCEEDS LININGER.

Plans of the Park Commissioners for Coming Improvements.

At a meeting of the judges of the district court held yesterday afternoon, Mr. A. D. Turkey was elected as a member of the Board of Park Commissioners. He succeeds Hon. G. W. Lininger, whose term expired yesterday.

Thursday, May 25, the board will receive bids and award the contract for the reconstruction of the Hanson park pavilion, which was nearly destroyed by fire two months ago.

Superintendent Adams has his force of men at work at Hanson park laying out new parkways, and getting everything in readiness for setting out the flower plants as soon as the weather becomes sufficiently settled to warrant.

Tom Murray has made dire threats against the surveying corps of the board and gives it out that Engineer Hosen and his men are not to be permitted upon the Murray tract in the southeastern part of the city. The board wants a line to be run through Murray's land, and as soon as this is done, and if it is thought best, the proceedings to acquire the land under the right of eminent domain will be instituted. The opinion is that the boulevard, commencing at Eighth and Bancroft streets, should be through the Murray land, as it would then be the entire distance from a bridge, and be more desirable and sightly than any other proposed. The engineer is now at work locating the boundaries of the proposed park, and will in a few days be ready to commence work upon the strip Murray owns, and upon which he says not a surveyor's foot shall be planted for any purpose. In case he persists in his refusal, the board will have to resort to the courts in quelling the obstreperous owner.

Deputy Sheriff Lewis went to Valley yesterday to levy on the 1,100 acre comprising the old C. E. Mays ranch and fine stock farm, now owned by ex-Congressman G. W. E. Dorsey, to satisfy the claims of attaching creditors. It was Dorsey's intention that the place was in the hands of the sheriff, when Mays's spectacular career in Omaha was drawing to a close, and now, in the absence of Dorsey, the ranch, in history again repeating itself.
