

BY THE STRYCHNINE ROUTE
Jack Williams, an Old Resident of Nebraska City, Commits Suicide.
HE WAS DESPONDENT AND TIRED OF LIFE
His Act Was Premeditated—All Arrangements for the Rash Act Made with Great Deliberation—Made Goodby to His Friends.

NEBRASKA CITY, Neb., May 14.—[Special Telegram to The Bee.]—Jack Williams, a shoemaker and an old resident of Otoe county, committed suicide this afternoon by taking a dose of strychnine. Deceased was city marshal about fourteen years ago and was well known throughout the county. He had been despondent for several days, and yesterday he had his friends goodby, saying he was going away today. A wife and two children survive him at Mount City, Mo. He was a prominent Knight of Pythias.

BEATRICE NEWS NOTES.
Meeting of the Gage County Press Association and Other Items.
BEATRICE, Neb., May 14.—[Special to THE BEE.]—The Gage County Press Association held its regular monthly meeting yesterday. Although the meeting was of a secret nature it is known that decisive action was taken in regard to the fall election and other matters of county interest.

WALK YE IN IT.
Dean Gardner Points Out the Way and Shows Some Dangers that Encompass It.
Dean Gardner talked to the men at the Christian meeting at the Young Men's Club last evening. He had a very interesting and instructive address. One of the interesting features of the address was the singing by the Trinity cathedral quartet. The attendance was very good, the large hall being more than half filled.

ONE MAN FINISHED.
Outcome of the Great Walking Match from Omaha to Fremont.
That walking match was walked, all right, but none of the walkers are saying much about it. However, three or four of the fastest men of the pedestrian club are keeping up a thinking that would paralyze the brain of the average individual in less than one round. Only one man finished.

ON AN ERRAND OF MERCY.
Mrs. Morrison Left a Theater to Visit a Sick Friend and Died Here.
Mrs. Maggie Morrison, a colored widow about 40 years of age, living at 312 North Eleventh street, left the Bijou theater about 8:30 o'clock to attend a sick friend who had sent for her. In front of the house of Moses Street, she was struck by a car and died.

CONCERT AT THE PARK.
The second of the Sunday open air concerts of the season of 1911 was given at Hanscom park yesterday afternoon and enjoyed by several thousand people. It was marred by the presence of a score or more of small boys in the band stand, whose antics and noise did not make the best setting in the world.

THEY COULDN'T GET ALONG.
John Lynch got into an altercation with a Bohemian at the corner of Thirteenth and Douglas streets last evening and became so interested in the argument that he used his fists, which caused him to be gathered in by the city's guardians.

NEW FIREMEN SELECTED.
At the meeting of the Board of Fire and Police Commissioners Saturday afternoon thirty-four candidates for firemen were examined. The following were selected: Thomas Ruane, John E. Hastings, J. H. Scott, Herman Gieske, John Simpson, Zina L. Johnson, Fred A. Johnson, John Fitzpatrick, Robert Hicks, Charles J. Johnson, John Downes, Joseph Rockford, Frank McClure, Joseph S. Vasko, George Bendick, L. von Buker, N. S. Emer.

SMALL DISASTERS AT GRAND ISLAND.
A large batch of sporting queries has accumulated during the sporting editor's absence which will be duly attended to in next Sunday's issue.

TALKED TO BY MR. HARRISON.
Address of the Ex-President to the Members of the Y. M. C. A. Convention.
PROCEEDINGS OF SATURDAY'S MEETING
Strong Resolutions Adopted Against Opening the World's Fair Grounds on Sunday—John Wamaker Makes a Speech to the Convention.

INDIANAPOLIS, Ind., May 14.—After the usual devotional exercises yesterday, the committee on permanent organization recommended that the next convention of the Y. M. C. A. be held in Indianapolis. The international committee and that it be located east of Chicago.

ON SUNDAY OPENING OF THE WORLD'S FAIR.
Among other resolutions, the resolution constituting the most important contribution of the convention was unanimously adopted by a rising vote.

MGR. SATOLLI IN JERSEY CITY.
He Receives a Very Cordial Reception from Bishop Wigger.
JERSEY CITY, N. J., May 14.—The ceremonies in honor of Delegate Satolli were very impressive at the Hoboken monastery today. The delegate celebrated a private mass at 8 o'clock. At 10:30 solemn pontifical mass was celebrated at the Passionist hall church by Bishop Wigger.

ARCHBISHOP HENNESSY.
DUBUQUE, Ia., May 14.—John Hennessey, who has just been raised to the dignity of archbishop, has been bishop of Dubuque for twenty-five years. Suffragan sees of the new archdiocese were created in Iowa, with Sioux City or Des Moines as the see city.

ONE ONLY A SNELL OF SMOKE.
Some one sent in an alarm and got out the fire department to attend to a supposed fire in the Fifth street building last night. The fire was extinguished, but when the firemen arrived there was no indication of a fire save a slight smell of smoke.

THE NONPAREILS WIN THE FIRST.
Uncle Sam's Soldier Boys Handily Defeated by the South Side Champions.
JELLEN'S GREAT PITCHING SAVED THE DAY.
His Support Was Much Better than that of His Opponent—McAuliffe's Excellent Second Base Play—General McElvain's Head Work Good.

HE Nonpareils and the Second Infantry team from Fort Omaha played the first of a series of three games for the championship of the city at Nonpareil park, on Vinton street, yesterday afternoon.

THE soldiers were the first to take the plate, and Jellen opened up by allowing Colonel Trapper the old Texas leaguer to walk down on four wide ones. This cut no figure, however, for Jellen struck out four men and moment later as he attempted to nip second.

THE Nonpareils quickly tied the score. Croft was sidetracked at first by a quick throw from Lieutenant Wright, then General McGinnis nudged him in the ribs and successfully bludgeoned him by Major Barry and Adjutant E. Cody behind his home.

THEY saw General Frederick sitting in a private box with a smile wreathing his handsome face as broad as the Big Bear building, and they determined that he should be their hero.

THEY saw General Frederick sitting in a private box with a smile wreathing his handsome face as broad as the Big Bear building, and they determined that he should be their hero.

THEY saw General Frederick sitting in a private box with a smile wreathing his handsome face as broad as the Big Bear building, and they determined that he should be their hero.

THEY saw General Frederick sitting in a private box with a smile wreathing his handsome face as broad as the Big Bear building, and they determined that he should be their hero.

THEY saw General Frederick sitting in a private box with a smile wreathing his handsome face as broad as the Big Bear building, and they determined that he should be their hero.

THEY saw General Frederick sitting in a private box with a smile wreathing his handsome face as broad as the Big Bear building, and they determined that he should be their hero.

THEY saw General Frederick sitting in a private box with a smile wreathing his handsome face as broad as the Big Bear building, and they determined that he should be their hero.

THEY saw General Frederick sitting in a private box with a smile wreathing his handsome face as broad as the Big Bear building, and they determined that he should be their hero.

THEY saw General Frederick sitting in a private box with a smile wreathing his handsome face as broad as the Big Bear building, and they determined that he should be their hero.

THEY saw General Frederick sitting in a private box with a smile wreathing his handsome face as broad as the Big Bear building, and they determined that he should be their hero.

ADVERTISEMENTS.
Opera House at the Boyd.
Richard Stahl's "Said Pasha" opened the seven days season of light opera at Boyd's New theater last evening and the work was well received by the large audience that attended.

THE Nonpareils and the Second Infantry team from Fort Omaha played the first of a series of three games for the championship of the city at Nonpareil park, on Vinton street, yesterday afternoon.

THE soldiers were the first to take the plate, and Jellen opened up by allowing Colonel Trapper the old Texas leaguer to walk down on four wide ones. This cut no figure, however, for Jellen struck out four men and moment later as he attempted to nip second.

THE Nonpareils quickly tied the score. Croft was sidetracked at first by a quick throw from Lieutenant Wright, then General McGinnis nudged him in the ribs and successfully bludgeoned him by Major Barry and Adjutant E. Cody behind his home.

THEY saw General Frederick sitting in a private box with a smile wreathing his handsome face as broad as the Big Bear building, and they determined that he should be their hero.

THEY saw General Frederick sitting in a private box with a smile wreathing his handsome face as broad as the Big Bear building, and they determined that he should be their hero.

THEY saw General Frederick sitting in a private box with a smile wreathing his handsome face as broad as the Big Bear building, and they determined that he should be their hero.

THEY saw General Frederick sitting in a private box with a smile wreathing his handsome face as broad as the Big Bear building, and they determined that he should be their hero.

THEY saw General Frederick sitting in a private box with a smile wreathing his handsome face as broad as the Big Bear building, and they determined that he should be their hero.

THEY saw General Frederick sitting in a private box with a smile wreathing his handsome face as broad as the Big Bear building, and they determined that he should be their hero.

THEY saw General Frederick sitting in a private box with a smile wreathing his handsome face as broad as the Big Bear building, and they determined that he should be their hero.

THEY saw General Frederick sitting in a private box with a smile wreathing his handsome face as broad as the Big Bear building, and they determined that he should be their hero.

THEY saw General Frederick sitting in a private box with a smile wreathing his handsome face as broad as the Big Bear building, and they determined that he should be their hero.

THEY saw General Frederick sitting in a private box with a smile wreathing his handsome face as broad as the Big Bear building, and they determined that he should be their hero.

ADVERTISEMENTS.
Nebraska Needs Sunshine.
In eastern Nebraska the general condition is not so good as in the west.

THE Nonpareils and the Second Infantry team from Fort Omaha played the first of a series of three games for the championship of the city at Nonpareil park, on Vinton street, yesterday afternoon.

THE soldiers were the first to take the plate, and Jellen opened up by allowing Colonel Trapper the old Texas leaguer to walk down on four wide ones. This cut no figure, however, for Jellen struck out four men and moment later as he attempted to nip second.

THE Nonpareils quickly tied the score. Croft was sidetracked at first by a quick throw from Lieutenant Wright, then General McGinnis nudged him in the ribs and successfully bludgeoned him by Major Barry and Adjutant E. Cody behind his home.

THEY saw General Frederick sitting in a private box with a smile wreathing his handsome face as broad as the Big Bear building, and they determined that he should be their hero.

THEY saw General Frederick sitting in a private box with a smile wreathing his handsome face as broad as the Big Bear building, and they determined that he should be their hero.

THEY saw General Frederick sitting in a private box with a smile wreathing his handsome face as broad as the Big Bear building, and they determined that he should be their hero.

THEY saw General Frederick sitting in a private box with a smile wreathing his handsome face as broad as the Big Bear building, and they determined that he should be their hero.

THEY saw General Frederick sitting in a private box with a smile wreathing his handsome face as broad as the Big Bear building, and they determined that he should be their hero.

THEY saw General Frederick sitting in a private box with a smile wreathing his handsome face as broad as the Big Bear building, and they determined that he should be their hero.

THEY saw General Frederick sitting in a private box with a smile wreathing his handsome face as broad as the Big Bear building, and they determined that he should be their hero.

THEY saw General Frederick sitting in a private box with a smile wreathing his handsome face as broad as the Big Bear building, and they determined that he should be their hero.

THEY saw General Frederick sitting in a private box with a smile wreathing his handsome face as broad as the Big Bear building, and they determined that he should be their hero.

THEY saw General Frederick sitting in a private box with a smile wreathing his handsome face as broad as the Big Bear building, and they determined that he should be their hero.

ADVERTISEMENTS.
Nebraska Needs Sunshine.
In eastern Nebraska the general condition is not so good as in the west.

THE Nonpareils and the Second Infantry team from Fort Omaha played the first of a series of three games for the championship of the city at Nonpareil park, on Vinton street, yesterday afternoon.

THE soldiers were the first to take the plate, and Jellen opened up by allowing Colonel Trapper the old Texas leaguer to walk down on four wide ones. This cut no figure, however, for Jellen struck out four men and moment later as he attempted to nip second.

THE Nonpareils quickly tied the score. Croft was sidetracked at first by a quick throw from Lieutenant Wright, then General McGinnis nudged him in the ribs and successfully bludgeoned him by Major Barry and Adjutant E. Cody behind his home.

THEY saw General Frederick sitting in a private box with a smile wreathing his handsome face as broad as the Big Bear building, and they determined that he should be their hero.

THEY saw General Frederick sitting in a private box with a smile wreathing his handsome face as broad as the Big Bear building, and they determined that he should be their hero.

THEY saw General Frederick sitting in a private box with a smile wreathing his handsome face as broad as the Big Bear building, and they determined that he should be their hero.

THEY saw General Frederick sitting in a private box with a smile wreathing his handsome face as broad as the Big Bear building, and they determined that he should be their hero.

THEY saw General Frederick sitting in a private box with a smile wreathing his handsome face as broad as the Big Bear building, and they determined that he should be their hero.

THEY saw General Frederick sitting in a private box with a smile wreathing his handsome face as broad as the Big Bear building, and they determined that he should be their hero.

THEY saw General Frederick sitting in a private box with a smile wreathing his handsome face as broad as the Big Bear building, and they determined that he should be their hero.

THEY saw General Frederick sitting in a private box with a smile wreathing his handsome face as broad as the Big Bear building, and they determined that he should be their hero.

THEY saw General Frederick sitting in a private box with a smile wreathing his handsome face as broad as the Big Bear building, and they determined that he should be their hero.

THEY saw General Frederick sitting in a private box with a smile wreathing his handsome face as broad as the Big Bear building, and they determined that he should be their hero.

ADVERTISEMENTS.
Nebraska Needs Sunshine.
In eastern Nebraska the general condition is not so good as in the west.

THE Nonpareils and the Second Infantry team from Fort Omaha played the first of a series of three games for the championship of the city at Nonpareil park, on Vinton street, yesterday afternoon.

THE soldiers were the first to take the plate, and Jellen opened up by allowing Colonel Trapper the old Texas leaguer to walk down on four wide ones. This cut no figure, however, for Jellen struck out four men and moment later as he attempted to nip second.

THE Nonpareils quickly tied the score. Croft was sidetracked at first by a quick throw from Lieutenant Wright, then General McGinnis nudged him in the ribs and successfully bludgeoned him by Major Barry and Adjutant E. Cody behind his home.

THEY saw General Frederick sitting in a private box with a smile wreathing his handsome face as broad as the Big Bear building, and they determined that he should be their hero.

THEY saw General Frederick sitting in a private box with a smile wreathing his handsome face as broad as the Big Bear building, and they determined that he should be their hero.

THEY saw General Frederick sitting in a private box with a smile wreathing his handsome face as broad as the Big Bear building, and they determined that he should be their hero.

THEY saw General Frederick sitting in a private box with a smile wreathing his handsome face as broad as the Big Bear building, and they determined that he should be their hero.

THEY saw General Frederick sitting in a private box with a smile wreathing his handsome face as broad as the Big Bear building, and they determined that he should be their hero.

THEY saw General Frederick sitting in a private box with a smile wreathing his handsome face as broad as the Big Bear building, and they determined that he should be their hero.

THEY saw General Frederick sitting in a private box with a smile wreathing his handsome face as broad as the Big Bear building, and they determined that he should be their hero.

THEY saw General Frederick sitting in a private box with a smile wreathing his handsome face as broad as the Big Bear building, and they determined that he should be their hero.

THEY saw General Frederick sitting in a private box with a smile wreathing his handsome face as broad as the Big Bear building, and they determined that he should be their hero.

THEY saw General Frederick sitting in a private box with a smile wreathing his handsome face as broad as the Big Bear building, and they determined that he should be their hero.