the same, but they are unwilling to pay such exorbitant prices as demanded by the asphalt companies. The board does not propose to lend its assistance in perpetuating high prices in that line and has done everything possible to scoure competition that competes. We secure reasonable prices upon brick and stone, and it seems strange that brick and stone, and it seems strange that we cannot secure figures proportionately fair from the asphalt men. There is no reason in the world why asphalt should not be as cheap as brick. There is no paving material upon which such large profits are reaped as on that. Instead of prices lovering around $2.60 upon class B for the five-year guaranty it should be down to $2, and on class A in-stead of $2.85 a fair figure would be $2.25. Such prices are secured in other cities where the materials to be used are no cheaper than here. Competition in Chicago at one time here. Competition in Chicago at one time brought prices on asphalt down to $1.50. It brought prices on asphalt down to $1.30. It didn't last long, however, as a pool was soon formed and prices were again boosted. It looks as if a pool had been formed here, and the board hopes to be able to break it. The situation may change and more paving done than I now anticipate will be, and I hopes such will be the ense? hope such will be the case,"

Thinks Projected Paving Will Be Laid.

City Engineer Rosewater takes a different view of the matter. He says: "I antici-pate that there will be an equal amount of paving done as originally mapped out. The property owners are always a little slow in filing petitions, and I think the council will be with them in case they do not get their netitions in by the expiration of the thirty be with them in case they do not get their petitions in by the expiration of the thirty days. Undoubtedly there are many districts created where the owners of the property do not desire paving, but there are many other streets where paving is wanted that will easily take their places. Pitfalls in the Pastor's Path as Well as in the Way of the Flook.

OMAHA CLERGYMEN TELL OF TROUBLES

One Found it Difficult to Distribute His Pastorat Visits Impartially, and Another was Listening to Too Much Gossip-Remedies Suggested.

Omaha Ministerial union discussed "Ministers' Temptations" at its regular monthly meeting yesterday at the Kountze Memorial church. The subject was presented by Rev. John Williamson of the Central United Preshyterian church. He thought there was danger of a tendency among ministers to neglect their own spiritual growth while showing others the way to walk in the paths of rectitude and right.

Rev. Mr. Powell of the Hillside Presbyterian church held that ministers were inclined to become too professional in all that they did. They should make a special effort to get out of themselves and get nearer to the people. They ought to be men among men and be heartily in sympathy with all the world. Rev. Dr. Thain of the Plymouth Congre-gational church told of the first place he preached. The minister who pre-ceded him had been tried for murder and the preached. the people were very much down on the clergy in general. He toiled for three years before his work began to have an effect, but the results were glorious when they came. It required a good deal of faith and perse-verance for a minister to keep from having the blues sometimes, but it was the duty of the ministry, he held, to fight against despondency.

Too Much Work to Do.

Rev. W. K. Beans presented a number of difficulties which he looked upon as min-isterial temptations. One was the tendency to neglect pastoral work by putting too much there is the structure work by putting too much time in the study. Another was to get into a habit of spending too much time at the homes of certain favorites in the flock. This provoked unpleasant and un-complimentary remarks. The minister should as far as possible avoid even the appearance of having favorites among his parishioners.

Rev. Beans held also that there was a temptation sometimes to refrain from speaking the truth for fear it might hurt somebody's feelings. When a minister once got into the habit of trimming his sermons to get around the sore spots of his hearers he would soon be of very little use in the pulpit. Rev. Alfred Hodgetts said his greatest temptation was to preach long sermons. He thought that a sermon should not be over thirty minutes in length, but of late he had found it difficult to confine himself to half an hour.

Listening to the gossip of his congregation had become something of a temptation to Rev. T. E. Cramblet of the First Christian church. He thought it a minister's duty, however, to shut off the flow of gossip and refuse to listen to it, but it took a good deal of fortitude and watchfulness to do this upon all occasions.

Fearful of Hurting Feelings.

Rev. Mr. Turkle of the Kountze Memorial church was of the opinion that one of the most troublesome temptations was the fact that there were too many Things pressing upon the average minister and demanding a share of his time. "This thing of going to all the con-ventions and board meetings and anni-versary celebrations has reached such a point where it will be necessary for me to cither refuse to attend some of them or give up preaching. I cannot attend to all these organizations and continue to prepare two sermons every week, that is certain," said Rev. Turkle. Rev. J. M. Wilson, Rev. S. Wright Butler, Rev. J. M. Wilson, Rev. J. M. Ross and sev-eral others offered pertinent remarks upon the subhert product decomption

A committee consisting of Rev. Alfred Hodgetts, Rev. Frank W. Foster and Rev. T. C. Cramblet was appointed to look into the matter of providing a minister every Sunday to go out to the poor farm and hold

BOARD OF PUBLIC WORKS.

Prices of Asphalt Pavement Discussed-Nervy Bill of a Railroad Company.

At their meeting yesterday afternoon the members of the Board of Public Works discussed prices on asphalt pavement that have been submitted in response to calls for bids. The discussion was precipitated by a request from John A. Creighton and J. H. McShane that the board rescind its former action in rejecting the bids upon asphalt and make the award for repaying Cuming street from award for repaying Cuming street from Thirtleth to Thirty-second, as they owned the majority of the feet frontage and were desirous of repaying with asphalt. The low-est bid was that of the Standard company upon class C at $2.51. The board made the award to that company of that district, as requested Before they did so, however, a running discussion took place upon the asphalt ques-tion in general, and the prices submitted in particular. Major Birkhauser insisted that there was a combine, and that it was the duty of the board to reject all bids until a reasonable price was secured. It was the duty of the board to determine whether

Major Balcombe said that the people of Omaha had been paying the same prices for twelve years, to which Major Birkhauser re-plied that while that was true it was the de-sire to break up the monopoly and in the future be saved from paying such exorbitant prices prices

Major Balcombe remarked that he might call railroads monopolies charging exorbitant prices, but neverthe-less people did not cease patronizing them for that reason. He did not care what was done, and would only participate in case the other two majors got in a wrangle over the asphalt question, and he would cast the deciding vote. deciding vote.

The chairman was instructed to readvertise for bids upon constructing the Twenty first street main sower. The members failed to agree as to whether the lowest bid should be accepted or rejected, owing to the firm's failure to bid upon the extension of man-

A bill from the Fremont, Elkhorn & Missouri Valley Railway company was pre-sented, and Major Furay remarked that the sented, and Major Furay remarked that the rendering of some of the items was a dis-play of nerve seldom equaled. The bill was for the construction of a bridge by the com-pany over the big North Omaha ditch, the city being compelled to go under the tracks with the ditch. The company insisted on constructing the bridge, and the privilege was granted, the city to meet the expense. The amount of the claim is $508.88. Among the items included is one of $42 for hauling the pile driver from Fre-mont, and another for running two passen-ger trains over the Minneapolis & Omaha company's line from Omaha to Briggs, the for train service crews. Action upon the bill was postponed.

Along the Hadson River.

The charming scenery, the rare fresh-ness of the country air, and the bound-less attractions of the Hudson river towns will doubtless attract the usual multitude of summer comfort seekers during the coming season. The New during the coming season. The New York Central runs through the heart of this choice section, and its facilities for the summer traffic will be unsurpassed. -Brooklyn Eagle.

Colorado, Midland & Rio Graude have adusted their differences regarding rates in Colorado, the consensus of opinion is that the Atchison means to make good its threat of putting in a round trip rate of $13.85 for the Missouri river next Saturday, which will necessarily involve all the Chicago lines in a reneral cut rate war. So far as the Union Pacific-Rio Grande Western fight is concerned the situation is unchanged, and Mr. Lomax announced yes-terday unless the Rio Grande Western showed some disposition to cut rates, he had no idea of continuing the war beyond its present limit.

Speaking generally of the outlook in the east, Mr. Lomax said: "The situation grows more precarious as we near May 20. While the newspapers say that there is an agreement between Presidents Rinehart and Jeffrey, they remain silent as to the withdrawel of the Santa Fe from the West-ern Passenger association, and this naturally breeds forebodings as to the future. Presi-dent Rinehart's position that unless all the railroads come into the fold within the time specified naturally complicates matters, and I am looking for very lively times about next Monday. Still there is a hope that the war will, not be insugurated, and that for the rest of the summer we will have smooth sailing. General J. R. Buchanan, when asked as to the future, said that "things look very squally," the general having been a yachts-man long before he went into the railroad service. Mr. Francis, who is sometimes classed as being "very funny" by Mr. Kennedy of the Rock Island, remarked that "the situation remains in statu quo."

cause of the delay may be in the failure of the asphalt companies to submit prices that are within reason. Many citizens are partial to that material, and desire utfor pavement, but object to paying the prices asked. tI certainly looks as if there was a combina-tion of asphalt interests, and the only thing for the people to do is to go ahead and select other materials until better prices upon that material are made." At the present time there are sixty-one districts that have been ordered paved or repayed. The contract has been awarded upon all for brick and stone, and on only one for asphalt. That one is Thirty-eighth street from Farnam to Leavenworth, the price being $2.47 upon class B, five year guaranty and $2.84 ten years guaranty, the Standard paving company securing it. The petitions of the property owners will be acted upon in the council this evening.

Grading Bonds Sold Well.

City Treasurer Bolln sold district grading bonds amounting to $77,700 yesterday. They are of the short time issue, each bond being in the amount of $500 and bearing 6 per cent interest. The successful bidder was Hayes & Son of Cleveland, O., they offering to take the bonds at a premium of $1,731. The sale is considered a very good one in view of the uncertainty now existing in financial circles.
