

TWENTY-SECOND YEAR.

OMAHA, SUNDAY MORNING, MAY 28, 1893—TWENTY PAGES.

NUMBER 242.

JUST HAVE THE MEN

Many's Government Insists that More Soldiers Are Absolutely Needed.

ACE CANNOT BE KEPT WITHOUT THEM

Strength in the Army is the Bulwark of Order and Quiet.

GRESS OF THE REICHSTAG CAMPAIGN

Conflicting Statements Are Made by the Various Parties Engaged.

EAT SUFFERING FROM THE DROUGHT

Stock Being Sacrificed Because There is No Grass—Water in the Rhine Lower than Ever Before Known—The Situation.

Copyrighted 1893 by James Gordon Bennett.

Special to THE BEE.—[New York Herald Cable.]—The Reichstag campaign is now in its most critical stage. The various parties are making conflicting statements as to their chances. The government insists that more soldiers are absolutely needed. The situation is becoming increasingly serious.

Copyrighted 1893 by James Gordon Bennett.

Special to THE BEE.—[New York Herald Cable.]—The Reichstag campaign is now in its most critical stage. The various parties are making conflicting statements as to their chances. The government insists that more soldiers are absolutely needed. The situation is becoming increasingly serious.

Copyrighted 1893 by James Gordon Bennett.

Special to THE BEE.—[New York Herald Cable.]—The Reichstag campaign is now in its most critical stage. The various parties are making conflicting statements as to their chances. The government insists that more soldiers are absolutely needed. The situation is becoming increasingly serious.

Copyrighted 1893 by James Gordon Bennett.

Special to THE BEE.—[New York Herald Cable.]—The Reichstag campaign is now in its most critical stage. The various parties are making conflicting statements as to their chances. The government insists that more soldiers are absolutely needed. The situation is becoming increasingly serious.

Copyrighted 1893 by James Gordon Bennett.

Special to THE BEE.—[New York Herald Cable.]—The Reichstag campaign is now in its most critical stage. The various parties are making conflicting statements as to their chances. The government insists that more soldiers are absolutely needed. The situation is becoming increasingly serious.

Copyrighted 1893 by James Gordon Bennett.

Special to THE BEE.—[New York Herald Cable.]—The Reichstag campaign is now in its most critical stage. The various parties are making conflicting statements as to their chances. The government insists that more soldiers are absolutely needed. The situation is becoming increasingly serious.

Copyrighted 1893 by James Gordon Bennett.

Special to THE BEE.—[New York Herald Cable.]—The Reichstag campaign is now in its most critical stage. The various parties are making conflicting statements as to their chances. The government insists that more soldiers are absolutely needed. The situation is becoming increasingly serious.

Copyrighted 1893 by James Gordon Bennett.

Special to THE BEE.—[New York Herald Cable.]—The Reichstag campaign is now in its most critical stage. The various parties are making conflicting statements as to their chances. The government insists that more soldiers are absolutely needed. The situation is becoming increasingly serious.

Copyrighted 1893 by James Gordon Bennett.

Special to THE BEE.—[New York Herald Cable.]—The Reichstag campaign is now in its most critical stage. The various parties are making conflicting statements as to their chances. The government insists that more soldiers are absolutely needed. The situation is becoming increasingly serious.

Copyrighted 1893 by James Gordon Bennett.

Special to THE BEE.—[New York Herald Cable.]—The Reichstag campaign is now in its most critical stage. The various parties are making conflicting statements as to their chances. The government insists that more soldiers are absolutely needed. The situation is becoming increasingly serious.

Copyrighted 1893 by James Gordon Bennett.

Special to THE BEE.—[New York Herald Cable.]—The Reichstag campaign is now in its most critical stage. The various parties are making conflicting statements as to their chances. The government insists that more soldiers are absolutely needed. The situation is becoming increasingly serious.

Copyrighted 1893 by James Gordon Bennett.

Special to THE BEE.—[New York Herald Cable.]—The Reichstag campaign is now in its most critical stage. The various parties are making conflicting statements as to their chances. The government insists that more soldiers are absolutely needed. The situation is becoming increasingly serious.

Copyrighted 1893 by James Gordon Bennett.

Special to THE BEE.—[New York Herald Cable.]—The Reichstag campaign is now in its most critical stage. The various parties are making conflicting statements as to their chances. The government insists that more soldiers are absolutely needed. The situation is becoming increasingly serious.

Copyrighted 1893 by James Gordon Bennett.

Special to THE BEE.—[New York Herald Cable.]—The Reichstag campaign is now in its most critical stage. The various parties are making conflicting statements as to their chances. The government insists that more soldiers are absolutely needed. The situation is becoming increasingly serious.

Copyrighted 1893 by James Gordon Bennett.

Special to THE BEE.—[New York Herald Cable.]—The Reichstag campaign is now in its most critical stage. The various parties are making conflicting statements as to their chances. The government insists that more soldiers are absolutely needed. The situation is becoming increasingly serious.

Copyrighted 1893 by James Gordon Bennett.

Special to THE BEE.—[New York Herald Cable.]—The Reichstag campaign is now in its most critical stage. The various parties are making conflicting statements as to their chances. The government insists that more soldiers are absolutely needed. The situation is becoming increasingly serious.

Copyrighted 1893 by James Gordon Bennett.

Special to THE BEE.—[New York Herald Cable.]—The Reichstag campaign is now in its most critical stage. The various parties are making conflicting statements as to their chances. The government insists that more soldiers are absolutely needed. The situation is becoming increasingly serious.

Copyrighted 1893 by James Gordon Bennett.

Special to THE BEE.—[New York Herald Cable.]—The Reichstag campaign is now in its most critical stage. The various parties are making conflicting statements as to their chances. The government insists that more soldiers are absolutely needed. The situation is becoming increasingly serious.

Copyrighted 1893 by James Gordon Bennett.

Special to THE BEE.—[New York Herald Cable.]—The Reichstag campaign is now in its most critical stage. The various parties are making conflicting statements as to their chances. The government insists that more soldiers are absolutely needed. The situation is becoming increasingly serious.

Copyrighted 1893 by James Gordon Bennett.

Special to THE BEE.—[New York Herald Cable.]—The Reichstag campaign is now in its most critical stage. The various parties are making conflicting statements as to their chances. The government insists that more soldiers are absolutely needed. The situation is becoming increasingly serious.

Copyrighted 1893 by James Gordon Bennett.

Special to THE BEE.—[New York Herald Cable.]—The Reichstag campaign is now in its most critical stage. The various parties are making conflicting statements as to their chances. The government insists that more soldiers are absolutely needed. The situation is becoming increasingly serious.

Copyrighted 1893 by James Gordon Bennett.

Special to THE BEE.—[New York Herald Cable.]—The Reichstag campaign is now in its most critical stage. The various parties are making conflicting statements as to their chances. The government insists that more soldiers are absolutely needed. The situation is becoming increasingly serious.

Copyrighted 1893 by James Gordon Bennett.

Special to THE BEE.—[New York Herald Cable.]—The Reichstag campaign is now in its most critical stage. The various parties are making conflicting statements as to their chances. The government insists that more soldiers are absolutely needed. The situation is becoming increasingly serious.

Copyrighted 1893 by James Gordon Bennett.

Special to THE BEE.—[New York Herald Cable.]—The Reichstag campaign is now in its most critical stage. The various parties are making conflicting statements as to their chances. The government insists that more soldiers are absolutely needed. The situation is becoming increasingly serious.

Copyrighted 1893 by James Gordon Bennett.

Special to THE BEE.—[New York Herald Cable.]—The Reichstag campaign is now in its most critical stage. The various parties are making conflicting statements as to their chances. The government insists that more soldiers are absolutely needed. The situation is becoming increasingly serious.

Copyrighted 1893 by James Gordon Bennett.

Special to THE BEE.—[New York Herald Cable.]—The Reichstag campaign is now in its most critical stage. The various parties are making conflicting statements as to their chances. The government insists that more soldiers are absolutely needed. The situation is becoming increasingly serious.

Copyrighted 1893 by James Gordon Bennett.

Special to THE BEE.—[New York Herald Cable.]—The Reichstag campaign is now in its most critical stage. The various parties are making conflicting statements as to their chances. The government insists that more soldiers are absolutely needed. The situation is becoming increasingly serious.

Copyrighted 1893 by James Gordon Bennett.

Special to THE BEE.—[New York Herald Cable.]—The Reichstag campaign is now in its most critical stage. The various parties are making conflicting statements as to their chances. The government insists that more soldiers are absolutely needed. The situation is becoming increasingly serious.

Copyrighted 1893 by James Gordon Bennett.

Special to THE BEE.—[New York Herald Cable.]—The Reichstag campaign is now in its most critical stage. The various parties are making conflicting statements as to their chances. The government insists that more soldiers are absolutely needed. The situation is becoming increasingly serious.

Copyrighted 1893 by James Gordon Bennett.

Special to THE BEE.—[New York Herald Cable.]—The Reichstag campaign is now in its most critical stage. The various parties are making conflicting statements as to their chances. The government insists that more soldiers are absolutely needed. The situation is becoming increasingly serious.

Copyrighted 1893 by James Gordon Bennett.

Special to THE BEE.—[New York Herald Cable.]—The Reichstag campaign is now in its most critical stage. The various parties are making conflicting statements as to their chances. The government insists that more soldiers are absolutely needed. The situation is becoming increasingly serious.

Copyrighted 1893 by James Gordon Bennett.

Special to THE BEE.—[New York Herald Cable.]—The Reichstag campaign is now in its most critical stage. The various parties are making conflicting statements as to their chances. The government insists that more soldiers are absolutely needed. The situation is becoming increasingly serious.

Copyrighted 1893 by James Gordon Bennett.

Special to THE BEE.—[New York Herald Cable.]—The Reichstag campaign is now in its most critical stage. The various parties are making conflicting statements as to their chances. The government insists that more soldiers are absolutely needed. The situation is becoming increasingly serious.

character of the empire as a federal state. The prerogatives of the people are based upon universal, equal, direct and secret suffrage.

Puppets in the Hands.

To some of the aristocrats signing the manifesto—men like Freyding, Hompsch, Buel, Hereman and Von Zundwylk—this language is foreign. Like puppets in Dr. Lieber's hands, they seem to have assented to the declaration without pondering upon what it involved. Therefore, since Baron von Scherier-Aist took the initiative in supplying a manifesto, several of them, including Herr Freyding, proposed to join the von Scherier-Aist center. This will cause a disruption of the center party in Bavaria, even worse than the break-up of the party in Prussia.

Another factor that is causing a panic among the Bavarian centerists is the independent action of the peasant societies which have hitherto always supported the centerists. The societies have now issued an electoral address, stating that their representatives have up to this time been co-operating in legislation ruinous to the peasant proprietors and paying altogether too much assiduous attention to religious questions. In the coming election, the manifesto adds, the peasant societies will support only candidates who are devoted to the agricultural interests of the country and who are reliable as citizens, without regard to their religious belief or social position.

The social democratic party will turn the disruption of the centerists to the best account. Herr Singer took the field today and he will stump Prussia and Westphalia. He announces that he will speak on the action of the Reichstag with special reference to the attitude of the centerists.

Throughout Saxony, always a socialist stronghold, the party seems to be all potent. At the last election, out of the twenty-three members Saxony sent to the Reichstag, seven were socialists. Under the present appearance, eight more seats will be captured at the coming election. This will not be because socialism has grown so much, but because of the absolute disorder that has resulted from the impotence of the old political parties.

Conservative candidates no longer appear as conservatives, but as Christian-socialists, meaning the conservative anti-Semite, or German social blending conservatives, anti-Semites and agrarians. Then there is the German reform party, led by Herr Zimmermann, an ex-member of the Reichstag, with a democratic anti-Semite program. According to Herr Zimmermann, the increase in the army asked for by the government ought to be granted, but the Jews and capitalists should be made to pay the extra expense, as a corollary. Herr Zimmermann holds that a government that is leagued with Jews and capitalists must be overthrown. At mass meetings held at Dresden and other centers Herr Zimmermann was wildly cheered.

Probable Winners.

Amid this electoral medley, the conservative, liberal and freeholding parties are not much heard of. The struggle lies between the socialists, who form a compact, well directed party, and the new political bodies, composed of old elements, yet hardly in condition to know themselves. Obviously trustworthy data on which to base a prediction of the final result of elections, continues to be wanting.

REMAINS OF JEFF DAVIS.

Preparations for Their Removal to Richmond, Va.

NEW ORLEANS, La., May 27.—With the dignified simplicity which was inseparable from his life, with none of the fuss and ostentation of military or civic display, the remains of the late president of the Confederate States, Jefferson Davis, were removed this evening from the vault where they had been lying for three years and a half, to the hall where they are to lie in state until their transfer to the funeral train that is to bear them to the beautiful and quiet precincts of Hollywood cemetery in the city wherein so many of the stirring incidents of Mr. Davis' eventful life had their being. The removal of the imposing procession and moving multitude was the mute respect of patriotic people, restrained from outward show by the simple request of the old soldiers who had the arrangements in charge. For tomorrow is reserved the civil and military honors that are to be paid to the memory of the dead. They will be more imposing than the ceremonies of today, as far as numbers are concerned.

Early this morning the body, in its copper receptacle, was transferred to a magnificent oak casket with heavy brass trimmings. The cedar coffin which the remains originally rested, was returned to the vault, upon which was the face simile of the signature of Jefferson Davis, and it will remain in that condition as long as the tomb of the Army of Northern Virginia stands.

The transfer was made early and privately at the family's request. The body was naturally decomposed, but was in fair preservation and the face recognizable. A guard of the Army of Northern Virginia veterans remained at the tomb all day.

WAR BOUND TO COME

Emperor William Accused of Saying that a Struggle is Inevitable.

FRANCE IS A MENACE TO MONARCHIES

Republican Institutions Blight the Happiness of Neighboring Empires.

DOES NOT ACCEPT THE RESULT OF 1870

Germany Insists the Lesson of Bismarck to Napoleon Has Failed.

ENGLAND COMES IN FOR HER FULL SHARE

Her Policy of Meddling in the Colonial Affairs of Other Governments and of Giving Native Aid Has Caused Much Bitter Feeling.

Copyrighted 1893 by James Gordon Bennett.

PARIS, May 27.—[New York Herald Cable.]—Special to THE BEE.—The European situation continues to be dominated by German politics, and the efforts made by the emperor and the empire show how grave the conditions are. Many other indications increase this impression, especially in Catholic diplomacy. The different nuncios of the pope are all restless as if some hint of restlessness came from Rome. The nuncios relate that Emperor William told the pope that he was determined upon war, as France was a danger to European monarchies. It does not accept the situation brought about by the events of 1870. Therefore war is inevitable. Consequently it would be better to make war now in order to diminish as rapidly as possible the burdens weighing upon the people. The pope in relating the interview is said to have remarked: "I pleaded with him, I wept with him, I have not convinced him."

Many Strong Proofs.

One proof of the truth of these reports is that since the interview with the emperor, the pope has a mass said daily to turn away threatening evils. With such symptoms it can easily be understood that the future of international politics is not rose-colored. Another political factor is the ever increasing friction between France and England. Every question between the two countries takes on a bitter aspect, especially in colonial affairs. Madagascar and Siam, where France has a great deal to bother her just now, since it has been proven that the natives receive ammunition and arms through the intermediary of England. It will be readily understood that the French government is not very well satisfied with such proceedings, which are habitual in English politics.

Preparing for the Elections.

As to internal affairs, France is making ready for the elections. All the reports coming from the provinces show that the Panama scandals have produced no effect on the public mind. The elections will go republican, and the composition of the next Chamber of Deputies will be very much like the present one. Perhaps the conservative party will lose fifty seats to their allies, the "regained," as they are called, that is, the monarchists who have become republicans. There is reason to believe that the socialist party will gain twenty seats, especially in the south.

After the elections it is probable that President Carnot will call upon M. Constans to form a ministry, which may have a chance of lasting two years, and may give to France a much needed stability of government.

JACQUES ST. CERE.

TWO CHILDREN POISONED.

PITTSBURGH, Pa., May 27.—News has just reached here of the fatal consequences of a parent's negligence at Janesville. John Simpkins lives with his family in a house on the outskirts of town. A short time ago his two children fell ill of a fever that has been prevalent in the neighborhood, and only a few days ago Mrs. Simpkins was stricken. A local physician was called in and left a medicine containing morphine as one of the ingredients, giving particular orders that it should be kept from the children's reach. Wednesday the father went out and did not return until the day, leaving his wife lying on the parlor carpet and unable to move. The children became thirsty, and after crying in vain for drink, espied the medicine bottle and climbing upon a chair secured and drank every drop. When the father returned he found the children lying on the floor, one unconscious and the other struggling for breath. Both died in terrible agony.

OFF FOR EUROPE.

Nine Kansas City Firemen Will Attend the London Firemen's Congress.

NEW YORK, May 27.—Among the passengers on the City of Rome, which sailed for Europe today, were nine sturdy firemen from Kansas City. The men were picked from the Kansas City department to attend the International Firemen's congress, which is to be held in Agricultural Hall, London, from May 12 to 19, inclusive. They will be the only American representatives to the congress. They constitute what is known as the Pomper corps, from the fact that they manipulate the Pomper scaling ladders, with which they climb the sides of buildings from window to window. They have to do with them one of the latest types of water tower and the Kansas City crack team of horses, Joe and Dan, which have a record of one and two-fifths seconds. The men will stop at the larger cities of this country on their return from abroad and give exhibitions. They will visit the World's fair.

His CHANCES OF RECOVERY GOOD.

General Van Wyck Improving Rapidly and Prospects Are Most Encouraging.

NEBRASKA CITY, Neb., May 27.—[Special Telegram to THE BEE.]—The latest reports from General Van Wyck brought by his brother-in-law, Hon. Mark D. Headhead, are most encouraging. The patient is daily gaining strength and his chances of ultimate recovery are thought to be good.

GATES NOT BARRED

Ingress to the Fair Grounds Will Be Given to the Public Today.

OFFICIALS PREPARING FOR A GREAT JAM

It is Estimated that from 200,000 to 500,000 People Will Be in Attendance.

PROGRAM DECIDED UPON FOR TODAY

There Will Be Music on the Grounds, but the Buildings Will Be Closed.

ACTION TAKEN BY THE DIFFERENT STATES

Attractions on Midway Plaisance Will Run Wide Open—Portugal's Commissioner Found on the Streets In-ane—Notes of the Fair.

Copyrighted 1893 by James Gordon Bennett.

CHICAGO, Ill., May 27.—The sun went down in a beautiful red sky this evening, and according to the old Hebrew rule, tomorrow, the first open Sunday at the fair, will be bright and clear. Every body in connection with the fair has been busy all day today perfecting arrangements for handling the largest crowd that has yet attended. This morning the bureau of admissions ordered 300,000 tickets to be distributed among the officers for use tomorrow, but late this afternoon, when the prospects for a clear, warm day tomorrow, became bright, the number was doubled. The railroads, surface and elevated, cable, steam and electric roads are preparing to put on their entire service of engines and cars. Word has been received from the surrounding towns that large numbers will attend from each of them. Director General Davis believes 250,000 people will attend, while others of the World's fair officials estimate that the crowd will number from 200,000 to 500,000. Every one of the fifty entrances to Jackson park will be open from 8 o'clock in the morning until 10 o'clock in the evening. There will be no symphony or orchestral concerts tomorrow, but the music on the grounds will be the same as on week days.

Enlarging Their Strong Boxes.

Midway plaisance is also making arrangements to entertain the people who are expected to flow in on them. Every village and restaurant and private commission is getting in readiness and making additions to the treasury boxes in anticipation of a great day's business.

Alfred de Chapard, the Swiss minister to the United States, arrived in the city from Washington today. He had been wired for by Consul Holinger, on account of the recent arrest of a Swiss exhibitor by the United States authorities for disposing of exhibits at the fair. Mr. Chapard called on District Attorney McIlchrist today about the affair and after an explanation of the action of the government he expressed his entire satisfaction with the course pursued.

School children in force came to see the fair today. The action of the officials in reducing the price for admission for the young folks to 25 cents has been productive of a big increase and Saturday is put down as a weekly children's day. Notwithstanding the heavy clouds which hung over the White City thousands of young students came out early and their number, with the prospect of an open evening, will run the total attendance for the day up to about 75,000. The clouds passed away towards noon and the afternoon the weather was warm and bright.

Handled by Bad Weather.

The fourth week has been handicapped by bad weather and while not reducing the average attendance for the month, it will not tend to make the increase a material one. The railroads continue to stand out for high fares and this, no doubt, is keeping people away from the fair. Strong pressure is being brought to bear upon the roads by fair officials. The action of the state commissioners in declaring the fair now fully open will, no doubt, have a good effect and a big increase in attendance may be reasonably expected to begin June 1.

Father Walsh Incident.

Father Walsh's career in Lincoln was of brief duration. It was cut short by an incident as thrilling as it was somewhat tragic. Immediately after the murder of Sheriff, the gambler, in Lincoln, and the arrest and imprisonment of Mrs. Sheedy on the charge of being an accessory, Father Walsh gave testimony before the coroner's jury which greatly offended the prisoner. Some time before the crime she professed a desire for conversion, had sent for Father Walsh and received instructions from him. To counteract the testimony he had given Mrs. Sheedy charged him with various offenses. Bishop Bonum determined to investigate the charges, and brought the accused and the accused face to face in the county jail. Mrs. Sheedy repeated the charges and succeeded in convincing the bishop of their truth. Turning to the accused father the bishop indignantly exclaimed, "My house, like Caesar's wife, must be above suspicion." Suspension was immediately ordered.

It is claimed by friends of Father Walsh that the punishment meted out to him was unjust and excessive—unjust, because he was given no opportunity to refute the charges made against him by one accused, at the time, of conspiring to take human life, and excessive, in that Father Walsh belonged to the St. Louis diocese and the bishop could not do more than withdraw his faculties for the diocese in which he was temporarily stationed.

Father Walsh appealed the case to Mgr. Sattoli.

His counsel is the famous Dr. Burtell of Roodtown, N. Y., who championed the cause of Dr. McGlynn, and was removed by Archbishop Corrigan.

Close of Iowa Schools.

CARSON, Ia., May 27.—[Special to THE BEE.]—The public schools of Carson, under the superintendence of Prof. A. J. Burton, closed a very successful school year yesterday with a graduating class of four young men. An interesting program was carried out at the opera house last night. The entire corps of teachers is retained for another year at advanced salaries.

GLENWOOD, Ia., May 27.—[Special to THE BEE.]—Our high school commencement took place at Byers' opera house last evening. A class of eleven girls and four boys received diplomas. An immense audience listened to the exercises which were unusually interesting. The Glenwood Mandolin club furnished delightful music.

GATES NOT BARRED

Ingress to the Fair Grounds Will Be Given to the Public Today.

OFFICIALS PREPARING FOR A GREAT JAM

It is Estimated that from 200,000 to 500,000 People Will Be in Attendance.

PROGRAM DECIDED UPON FOR TODAY

There Will Be Music on the Grounds, but the Buildings Will Be Closed.

ACTION TAKEN BY THE DIFFERENT STATES

Attractions on Midway Plaisance Will Run Wide Open—Portugal's Commissioner Found on the Streets In-ane—Notes of the Fair.

Copyrighted 1893 by James Gordon Bennett.

CHICAGO, Ill., May 27.—The sun went down in a beautiful red sky this evening, and according to the old Hebrew rule, tomorrow, the first open Sunday at the fair, will be bright and clear. Every body in connection with the fair has been busy all day today perfecting arrangements for handling the largest crowd that has yet attended. This morning the bureau of admissions ordered 300,000 tickets to be distributed among the officers for use tomorrow, but late this afternoon, when the prospects for a clear, warm day tomorrow, became bright, the number was doubled. The railroads, surface and elevated, cable, steam and electric roads are preparing to put on their entire service of engines and cars. Word has been received from the surrounding towns that large numbers will attend from each of them. Director General Davis believes 250,000 people will attend, while others of the World's fair officials estimate that the crowd will number from 200,000 to 500,000. Every one of the fifty entrances to Jackson park will be open from 8 o'clock in the morning until 10 o'clock in the evening. There will be no symphony or orchestral concerts tomorrow, but the music on the grounds will be the same as on week days.

Enlarging Their Strong Boxes.

Midway plaisance is also making arrangements to entertain the people who are expected to flow in on them. Every village and restaurant and private commission is getting in readiness and making additions to the treasury boxes in anticipation of a great day's business.

Alfred de Chapard, the Swiss minister to the United States, arrived in the city from Washington today. He had been wired for by Consul Holinger, on account of the recent arrest of a Swiss exhibitor by the United States authorities for disposing of exhibits at the fair. Mr. Chapard called on District Attorney McIlchrist today about the affair and after an explanation of the action of the government he expressed his entire satisfaction with the course pursued.

School children in force came to see the fair today. The action of the officials in reducing the price for admission for the young folks to 25 cents has been productive of a big increase and Saturday is put down as a weekly children's day. Notwithstanding the heavy clouds which hung over the White City thousands of young students came out early and their number, with the prospect of an open evening, will run the total attendance for the day up to about 75,000. The clouds passed away towards noon and the afternoon the weather was warm and bright.

Handled by Bad Weather.

The fourth week has been handicapped by bad weather and while not reducing the average attendance for the month, it will not tend to make the increase a material one. The railroads continue to stand out for high fares and this, no doubt, is keeping people away from the fair. Strong pressure is being brought to bear upon the roads by fair officials. The action of the state commissioners in declaring the fair now fully open will, no doubt, have a good effect and a big increase in attendance may be reasonably expected to begin June 1.

Father Walsh Incident.

Father Walsh's career in Lincoln was of brief duration. It was cut short by an incident as thrilling as it was somewhat tragic. Immediately after the murder of Sheriff, the gambler, in Lincoln, and the arrest and imprisonment of Mrs. Sheedy on the charge of being an accessory, Father Walsh gave testimony before the coroner's jury which greatly offended the prisoner. Some time before the crime she professed a desire for conversion, had sent for Father Walsh and received instructions from him. To counteract the testimony he had given Mrs. Sheedy charged him with various offenses. Bishop Bonum determined to investigate the charges, and brought the accused and the accused face to face in the county jail. Mrs. Sheedy repeated the charges and succeeded in convincing the bishop of their truth. Turning to the accused father the bishop indignantly exclaimed, "My house, like Caesar's wife, must be above suspicion." Suspension was immediately ordered.

It is claimed by friends of Father Walsh that the punishment meted out to him was unjust and excessive—unjust, because he was given no opportunity to refute the charges made against him by one accused, at the time, of conspiring to take human life, and excessive, in that Father Walsh belonged to the St. Louis diocese and the bishop could not do more than withdraw his faculties for the diocese in which he was temporarily stationed.

Father Walsh appealed the case to Mgr. Sattoli.

His counsel is the famous Dr. Burtell of Roodtown, N. Y., who championed the cause of Dr. McGlynn, and was removed by Archbishop Corrigan.

Close of Iowa Schools.

CARSON, Ia., May 27.—[Special to THE BEE.]—The public schools of Carson, under the superintendence of Prof. A. J. Burton, closed a very successful school year yesterday with a graduating class of four young men. An interesting program was carried out at the opera house last night. The entire corps of teachers is retained for another year at advanced salaries.

GLENWOOD, Ia., May 27.—[Special to THE BEE.]—Our high school commencement took place at Byers' opera house last evening. A class of eleven girls and four boys received diplomas. An immense audience listened to the exercises which were unusually interesting. The Glenwood Mandolin club furnished delightful music.

THE BEE BULLETIN.

Weather for Omaha and Vicinity—Fair; Slightly Warmer; South Winds.

PAGES.

1. William Bound to Have His Army.

2. Y. M. C. A. Athletic Park Opened.

3. Presbyterians General Assembly.

4. Last Week in Social Circles.

5. Valley Bank Cashier Missing.

6. Council House, Local News.

7. German Editor Comes to Omaha.

8. Story of the Five-Dollar Hog.

9. When Wild Cat Banks Flourished.

10. Omaha's Local Trade Conditions.

11. Editorial and Comment.

12. Ingall's Essay on the Negro.

13. Grand Army Matter.

14. Wyoming's Lusty Growth.

15. Carpenter on the Highbinders.

16. Dewey's Tribute to the Soldier Dead.

17. Griswold's Weekly Sporting Gist.