

HELP FOR BOYS AND GIRLS

"Hear the Children Crying, O, My Brothers, Ere the Sorrow Comes with Years."

STATE MEETING OF INTERESTED WORKERS

Plans Discussed for Saving the Youth from Vicious Associations and Providing Them with Means for Leading Honest Lives—Papers Discussed.

The third annual convention of the Nebraska division of the Boys and Girls National Home and Employment association is in session at the Young Men's Christian association hall yesterday.

Mr. Cadet Taylor conducted the exercises in the absence of the president of the association, A. Sawyer, Lincoln.

Colonel Hogeland said that the evil effects of placing young people in the company of criminals could not be overestimated.

The discussion was participated in by Miss Libbie Howell, superintendent of the Home for the Friendless at Lincoln, Mrs. G. W. Clark, Mayor Bemis and others.

Prof. J. T. Mallett, secretary of the association and superintendent of the state industrial school at Kearney, read a very interesting paper on the problem of youth saving.

The speaker believed that lack of parental control was responsible for the greater part of youthful vice.

THE REALTY MARKET.

INSTRUMENTS placed on record June 2, 1893. WARRANTY DEEDS.

He advocated the passage of an ordinance in every city and town in the state, making it a criminal offense for any boy or girl under the age of 16 to loiter on the streets.

Prof. Mallett's paper was ordered published in the Omaha Daily Bee.

IN THE FEDERAL COURT.

On Trial for the Murder of a Soldier—Some Minor Litigations.

The trial of Private Burrell Baxter of Fort Niobrara, charged with manslaughter, is now on trial before Judge Dundy and a jury.

The guaranteed cure for all headaches is Bromo-Seltzer. Trial bottle 10c.

IS IT JOE WILLIAMS?

Police Think They Have Located the Long-Sought Poisoner.

The police have discovered what is claimed to be a clue to the whereabouts of Joe Williams, the negro who is charged with having attempted to poison an entire family some months ago.

A negro named Alexander has informed Sergeant Hazo that he saw Williams at Beatrice Wednesday.

DISTRICT AND CRIMINAL COURTS

Harry Davis Asks Fifteen Thousand of Omaha's Money—Other Cases.

When the section of the district court presided over by Judge C. R. Smith was called to order yesterday morning the case of Harry B. Davis against the city of Omaha was placed on trial with the plaintiff seeking to recover $15,000 damages.

In the case of Walter I. Martin against the Omaha Street Railway company, which was called over by Judge C. R. Smith yesterday, the jury returned a verdict finding for the plaintiff and assessing his damages.

In the criminal court the jury returned a verdict of not guilty in the case of the state against Charles Schortort, a saloon man charged with having violated the Sunday law.
