COMMERCIAL AND FINANCIAL There Was a Sharp Break in Wheat Yesterday. CLOSED ONE CENT BELOW SATURDAY

Decline Due to the Fact that Hulls Had Loaded Up with Wheat in Expectation that the Crop Report Would Bulge the Market.

CHICAGO, June 12 .-- There was a sharp break in wheat today. The market closed exactly ic lower than Saturday evening. The chief reason for the break was the fact that the bulls had loaded up with wheat in the expectation that the crop report would buige the market. As it falled to do so they nearly all attempted to sell out at once. Saturday, after hours, there was a jump of ic in July, and it was estimated that the opening price this morn-ing would go up isc and a bull market thus assured.

There was much surprise, therefore, when the public cable quoted Liverpool steady to 1d lower. This was a knock down the trade did not expect from the outside. It had a weakening effect upon the start. Although prices opened from He to He advance, they soon began to weaken. The absence of any particular export demand, the clothing house failure here late Saturday and the fact of a real estate house being in trouble, were made much of.

At 12 o'clock the visible supply report was all complete except Chicago figures. The de-all complete except Chicago figures. The de-crease without Chicago was 1,755,000 bu, and boat stocks were expected to decrease 700,000 bu at least. Just when the figures were due, secretary Stone announced that the inspection bureau could not samply Chicago today and hereafter would not publish figures were due, secretary Stone announced that the inspection bureau could not samply Chicago today and hereafter would not publish figures were due, secretary Stone announced that the inspection bureau could not samply Chicago today and hereafter would not publish figures the sum of the state of the exact information not pergo that able before Tuesday. Last week here was a discreptincy of $00,000 bu, be-build decline to run the chances of making an outer blunder. The market became more demoralized dur-ing the last hour. Financial troubles were aver bure to figures at the opening prices de-

New York and closing choics were not im-proved. From top figures at the opening prices de-clined with only slight fluctuations from 1% to 1%c, and the closing was about 1c lower for July and 1%c lower for September than the closing figures of Saturday. While the crop is estimated to be much smaller than last year, the large surplus in sight, it was thought, would make up for a large shortage in the Field, and the effect of the former was offset by the latter. Corn was comparatively steady, a fact due, it is said to talk of a falling off in the move-ment, the fairly good cash demand and higher cables. Opening transactions were a fraction under the final figures of Saturday, and after selling up %c, worked back from %c to %c.

ruled easier, and at the close bad lost from 4C To $cc. Fluctuations in onts quotations were con-fined to a moderate range. The close was with a net loss of 4c. Government report showed a smaller increase in the area than expected, but cut little figure. The provision trade was stagnant, the pit being deserted most of the time. The decline recorded was attributed to the break in wheat. Compared with Saturday night pork is $1 lower, ribs 50c and lard unchanged. Estimated receipts for tomorrow: Wheat, 54 cars; corn, 640 cars; oats, 350 cars; hogs, 54 cars; corn, 640 cars; oats, 380 cars; hogs, 14,000 head. The leading futures ranged as follows:

CHADRON, Neb., June 11 .- Special correspondence.]-Dawess county, situate in the northwestern part of the state, though not the largest, is one of the best counties in the great commonwealth. It is 36x39 miles and thus contains $98,560 acres, of which at least three-fourths can be cultivated, and the rest is taken up with water-courses and bluffs, which make the finest of pasture and grazing ground. It has a large belt of as fine wheat land as can be found anywhere, and oats are almost a sure and large crop The representatives of the humane so-cleave will try to stop the race. They will first talk to the boys, asking them to abandon the idea, which will be usefrequently weighing out as high as forty pounds or better to the bushel, as measured. Corn is grown to a limited extent where the ground is sufficiently old, the farmers of this ounty having early learned that it requires id ground to produce a large crop of corn. old ground to produce a large crop of corn. A few farmers are growing alfalfa and are meeting with wonderful success. Cattle, sheep and horses are the principle lines of stock raised here. The County Agricultural society owns eighty acres of land a short distance from Chadron and has grounds nicely fitted up with fences, buildings, sheets and a first-class half mile race track, where every full the people of the county gather to exhibit the products of which they are justly proud, and to witness the sport of a few races as produced by some choice steppers to abandon the idea, which will be use-less. The boys are determined to ride, and say nothing less than a company of United States soldiers will stop them. The route formerly given out is, only a blind. They will not cross the Mississippi river at Dubuque, there-fore the cold reception proposed to be given them there will not take place. The route will not be published, although it is likely they will take a straight line near the northern Ne-braska line, crossing the Missouri river by farry or swimming the river, in owned in this part of Nebraska and south-west South Dakota. Week Opened with Comparatively Quiet Markets on the Exchange.

NEW YORK, June 12 .- The week opens with comparatively quiet markets at the Stock exchange. The market opened tolerably firm, and Sugar, Chicago Gas and General Electric advanced 14 and 116 per cent as compared with final quotations of Saturday, but the buying which carried up prices on that day was ab-sent and the bears almost immediately began a systematic raid on the whole list.

The promptness with which stocks yielded caused many of the small traders who bought on the closing days of last week to sell out. There was little in the way of news to effect the speculation adversey, but on the contrary the railway traffic returns were, as a rule, favorable to further rise. The dealings were almost catirely

Trade opened quiet and did not develope much activity at any time during the day. Prices were very well sus-tained, though holders of natives had hard work to make a clearing without shading last week's closing quotations. Texas cattle were firm at the recent decline. For in-stance, if a car is used on a run 1,000 miles stance, if a car is used on a run 1,000 miles long, of which 500 miles is in the state, half the $3,000 valuation of the car was taxed up to the company. Blown Up by Dynamite, NEW YORK, June 12 .- What appears to have been a deliberate attempt at destruction of life was made last night on the top of the Fort Lee bluff, at the east edge of that village. A dynamit cartridge placed in the road was exploded by the wheel of a Fort Lee stage. The stage was blown to pieces and the driver, Thomas O'Rourke, so badly hurt that he will probably die. ful attention. This race is advertised to begin on the 13th of June at 5 o'clock p. m., starting from the Blaine hotel. It is thought there will be about twenty starters; the first two register in western history as "a dead bad man." This city of late has received considerable free advertising over the pony race to the World's fair, and some of the goody goody beople who would work a house servant or a field hand sixteen hours per day pretend to be fearful that great cruelty will be neces-sary to make this race sufficiently successful that any of the competitors may get into Chicago some time during the World's fair. The facts are that any rider injuring or abusing his animals is barred from the race or any part in the reward; that no man who is seeking to win $1,000, and has to ride 1,000 miles within thirty days and has only two horses to do it with, and they his own, will take any chance on hurting his animals or allowing them to suffer for want of care
