Pleasant Reception by the Alumni of the High School.

INTERESTING PROGRAM CARRIED OUT

Music, Vocal and Instrumental, of a High Order-People Who Took's Part in the Evening's Entertainment - An Enjoyable Affair.

A reception was given last evening at the Masonic temple under the auspices of the Alumni association of the Council Bluffs High school. These receptions are regular features of the commencement season, but never before has an entertainment been given by the association that has been carried out to such perfection in all its details as that of last evening.

After a plane duet by Miss Gertrude Gleason and Mr. J. H. Simms, Emmet Tinley made an address of welcome to the classes. This was followed by a beautiful solo, entitled, "The Angel at the Window," sung by Mrs. W. H. Wakefield, Mrs. M. Wollman appeared in a recitation, "An Ad Answered," after which there was a Delsarte drill by a number of young lady students of the High school. Mrs. J. G. Wadsworth sang a solo in her own artistic manner, which was followed by an address by Superintendent H. W. Sawyer. A string quintet was rendered by the Messrs. Luring, Davis, Atkins, McNitt and Brock. Twelve young ladies gave a "foll drill," after which Miss Neole Odgen sang "The Journey is Long," which called for an encore. Judge Smith delivered cated for an encore. Judge Smith delivered one of his characteristic addresses, which was full of wit and sound sense, after which Mrs. Wakefield and Miss Ogden sang a duct, "Springtime." Miss Sophia Gerner gave a recitation entitled "Garnaut Hall," and the program closed with a piano duet by Mrs. L. G. Knotts and Miss Zella Niles. This part of the entertainment was followed by refreshments, served on small tables by refreshments, served on small tables scattered about the room. Fully 150 guests

Adhered to Prohibition. Representative Stearns from the committee on prohibition submitted its report de-claring the unabated adherence of the order to the principle of prohibition. Among other things the report says: "We desire to enter our emphatic protest against the proposal in some parts of our jurisdiction to place the sale in the hands of the state for the revenue it may produce. Composed as we are of members of all political parties and religious creeds, we do not attempt to dictate to our members as to what political party they shall support, yet we do demand that the votes of the members of our order shall be planted where they shall unite the friends of prohibition and of prohibition enforcement wherever and whenever they are found." The report concludes with a protest against the violation of the law which pro-hibits the sale of intoxicants within the limits of the park, wherein the World's fair is being held. The report was unanimously adopted Three Boys Drowned.
