NEWS FROM COUNCIL BLUFFS

Prisoners Turn the Tables on Some Over-Confident Prosecuting Witnesses.

Mesers. Davis and McGinuis Prove They Were in Nebraska Catabooses at the Time They Were Charged With Burgiary in Iowa.

WHEN JAIL SENTENCES CAME HANDY

Three of the men who have been confined in the county jail for a week or more on the charge of breaking into a number of postoffices in Iowa were brought before the United States commissioner yesterday morning for a hearing.

George McGinnis, Charles Case and James Davis were given a preliminary hearing, Baxter of the many aliases having insisted on a separate hearing, which will be given July 3. Postmaster Hoepflinger of Denison was the first witness to testify. His safe was blown open on the night of May 9 and $10 in money and $250 worth of postage stamps were stolen. Ninety dollars worth of the stamps were afterwards found hidden in the tool-house of the Northwestern railway company a short distance west of Denison. By the testimony of Pullman, the section boss, J. C. Sparks, an engineer, and Ogden, a brakeman, it was learned that the toolhouse had been broken open during the night and a hand car was stolen which carried some one to Arion, eleven miles east. There three men boarded a freight to go to Jefferson. Officers Stevens, Watt and Anderson of the Boone police force recognized two of the men who were on trial as having been in town that day, and they were also identified by the trainmen.

Was Cock Sure of His Man.

The most interesting feature of the hearing was the testimony of a man named Efcamp, who keeps a second-hand store at Boone. He stated that a man, he was sure it was McGinnis, approached him and wanted to sell him a rubber coat for $2. After considerable talk back and forth Efcamp offered him $1 for the coat, but McGinnis said he needed $2. He finally pulled out a bundle of 2-cent postage stamps from an inside pocket, and counting out sixty of them, offered them to him for 50 cents. At this Efcamp became suspicious and refused to buy anything of him.

R. T. Spaiks, the postmaster at Jefferson, testified that his safe had also been blown open on the night of April 26. Shoriff J. E. Dodge of Jefferson identified Davis as having been in Jefferson on the day in question. Several times during the course of the hearing evidence was introduced to show that Baxter was also mixed up in the tran-saction, but Baxter objected vigorously and as gracefully as many lawyers would have done it, to the introduction of such testi-mony, in view of the fact that his hearing would not come off for two weeks. His ob-jections were sustained by the commissioner Inspector Mercer testified that he had tried drills which were found in the possession of members of the gang when arrested at Lincoln, and that they corresponded exactly with the holes made in more than a dozen safes which had been blown open during the last six months.

Knocked the Case Endways.

After all the evidence was in on-the side of the government Davis asked to be put on the stand, and his evidence was something of an eye-opener to the witnesses who had seen him so many times on the day of the robbery. He said that he was taken into custody by the sheriff of Gage county, Nebraska, March 18, on the charge of petit larceny, and served a sixty day sentence in jail there, being released May 18. His statement was corroborated by Sheriff Keenan of Gage county. McGin-nis also testified that he was arrested in Omaha May 4, and served out a thirty-day sentence there. His statement was borne out by Deputy Sheriff Bennett of Douglas

At the close of the hearing Commissioner Steadman discharged Davis and McGinnis, whose real name is Monroe, but held Case to the federal grand jury in bonds in the sum of $1,500. The instant the word 'dis-charged' was pronounced Davis jumped up and slid for the door. He had a good reason for haste, as subsequent developments showed. An information was fited in Justice Vien's court several days ago charging him with complicity in the burglary of Mrs. Met-caif's house with Baxter and the theft of her diamonds. Through an all around mis understanding the warrant was not served, and Davis is now far enough away to render it very unlikely that he will be re-captured.

Two Small Boys Ape the Manners of Jesse

J. H. Evans, who lives in the northwestern part of the city, reported a peculiar case to the police yesterday. He stated that last Friday evening his son, aged 6 years, was walking along Scott street near the Indian creek bridge when he was suddenly accosted by a couple of boys a dozen years old or so and compelled to give up a purse he was carrying. The purse contained about a dollar in change. This money the youthful desperadoes took to a second hand store and bought an old pistol. It is re store and bought an old pistol. It is reported that the next evening they tried to hold a man up, but the man refused to hold up his hands at their order, but informed them that they needed a spanking more than almost anything else, whereupon they fied in haste. Mr. Evans filed an information charging Joe Limerick and Andrew James with being the guilty ones. They will be brought up in police court this morning to answer to the charge. The reading of dime novels is thought to have started them out in their career of crime. in their career of crime.

Delayed the Mail.

THE BEE contained an account some time ags of an attempt to hold up the express train on the Burlington road near the town of Nodaway by three masked men. Yesterday morning Deputy United States Marshal

Richards arrived in the city with three men who are charged with having perpetrated the deed. The hold-up occurred early in the morning of June 8. The three men secreted themselves on the tender, and suddenly ap-pearing, ordered the engineer at the point of pearing, ordered the engineer at the point of two shotgens and a pistol to stop the train, and the fireman to cel loose the express cag. They were informed that they were on the wrong train, as that train carried no express car. The train they had been looking for had been delayed several hours by the burning of a bridge. The United States authorities claim to have a strong case against the men, and will prosecute them to the limit. The specific charge is delaying the mails, which the law has made a very scrious offense, and one punishable by a penitentiary sentence. The three men gave their names as Frank Robinson, J. N. Shielas and Newton Shields. All live not far from the seene of the attempted robbery. Their case was continued until Saturbery. Their case was continued until Saturday, July 8, and each one's bond was fixed at $2,500. They could not give the required bond, and they were taken to the county jail for safe keeping.

lies of the United States. BALTIMORE, June 19.—The pope's let-ter on the American school question, now in the hands of Cardinal Gibbons, endorses and upholds the position taken by Mgr. Satolli, Cardinal Gibbons and Archbishop Ireland. The pope instructs the American hierarchy that the de-crees of the third plenary council held in Baltimore in 1884 shall be enforced in a general way. These decrees com-mand Catholic parents to procure a truly Christian and Catholic education for their children and to shield and secure them throughout childhood and youth from the dangers of a merely worldly from the dangers of a merely worldly education by sending them to parochial or other truly Catholic schools. Wyman introduced a resolution transferring $600 from the occupation fund to the Q street viaduct fund, and the same was ordered paid to Parks & Bros., the contractors doing that work.

Wyman moved that $75 be transferred from the occupation fund to pay D. A. Pierce and Henry Ditzen for extra work performed in making out the assessment rolls. Carried. Councilman Wyman introduced a resolution to the effect that the city attorney be instructed to draw up an ordinance ordering water mains laid from Twenty-second and Q streets south to Twenty-second and S. thence east to Twentieth, thence to Belivue avenue, south to Madison and east one block, fourteen plugs in all. The cost, he said, would be in the neighborhood of $800 a year. This he considered a small item in comparison to the demand of water in case of fire. The people over in Brown park and Albright needed fire protection badly. That section had been damaged heavily in the past by fire, all because there was no water. Bulla and Conley said the proposi-tion should go over for one week, as there were other sections needed fire plugs, and they could all be ordered at once. The resolution was adopted.

The Postal Telegraph company came in for an all around roast by several members for not filling up large and dangerous holes where they have removed the poles and failed to plank them over.

Wyman had his improvement clothes on the triangle of the second of the second last night and introduced a resolution that the city attorney be instructed to draft an ordinance requiring the laying of a sidewalk of stone or some other good material on both sides of U street from Twenty-fourth to Twenty-seventh. He said that the pres-ent walks would be a disgrace to a small village and that in passing over them in places one would imagine they were passing over a pontoon bridge. The resolution was adopted.

Bruce moved that the council sit as a board of equalization on June 29, July 2 and 3 for the purpose of discussing the special tax on sloping banks, sidewalks and grading. He did not get a second and the matter will go over for one week.

Baker's Lamb.

"That man Frickie," said an old resident to a BEE reporter yesterday, "is a thrifty old farmer and I am surprised that he would be foolish enough to let any one fleece him out of his money. He is rich today and has made it all farming in this neighborhood made it all farming in this neighborhood. I remember the day he bought the first 160 acres of land he ever owned. After the price was agreed upon in Omana Frickie said he would have to go out to the farm to get his money. He started and in a few hours he came back with the full amount, something like $2,500, all in shin plaster, not a piece of which was greater. Han 50 cents. a piece of which was greater than 50 cents It made a wad as big as a bale of hay. The old fellow and his wife had saved this out of money received for butter, eggs, chickens and garden truck raised on rented ground. They had the money planted somewhere on the place, not a cent of it being in the bank." Thrown From a Buggy. City Clerk Ditzen and Charley Splitt were thrown from a buggy at 30th and Q streets last evening and both were painfully injured. Mr. Ditzen was unable to attend the council meeting last night, but escaped without any bones being broken. Mr. Splitt sus-tained several broken ribs. He is a large, heavy man and is suffering much pain. At the time of the accident the men were en-deavoring to evade a runaway horse, when their buggy was upset and both men were Lost in the Fire. Mrs. Pierce, a lady who has furnished rooms on the third floor of the Lister block, sustained more damage by the recent fire than was at first reported, and as the lady had no insurance the loss will fall heavily upon her. She had just fitted up the rooms upon her. She had just fitted up the rooms on that floor and the carpets and furniture in all of them were more or less damaged by water and falling plaster. The fire originated on this floor, and had it not been for the prompt and thoughtful action of this lady the whole building would have burned. The work she did with a few buckets of water before the firemen arrived prevented a serious conflagration. Her loss is about a serious conflagration. Her loss is about $250, and as the woman works hard for her living she feels the effects very much.

Jack's Hard Luck. Jack Leonard, better known as "Wienerwurst Jack," is in hard luck. Two weeks ago, on the night of the heavy rain storm, Jack climbed onto the roof of his shack at the foot of N street to stop a leak, when he fell to the ground in such a manner as to break his jaw. He had not recovered from the effects of this injury when he was arrested on complaint of John Snively for not purchasing tags for his dogs.

Saturday he was placed in the station house, but was so sick over Sunday that he was yesterday taken to St. Joseph's hospital. His condition is very critical and it is doubt-ful if old Jack's familiar voice will ever be heard again on the corners he has haunted with his weinerwurst basket for years. Magie City Gossip.
