OMAHA'S INAUGURAL RUNNING MEETING

Neway Cycle Gossip-The Ball Players Melange-Shooting and Fishing-A Conning Thumper-Tit-Tattle of the Turf and General Sports.

It begins to look indeed as if Tommy Ryan was the champion hard luck pugilist of modern times. The Nemesis that started for his curls at New Orleans nearly two years ago...

a bit of the subtle Madden's fine Italian engineering. The finish left all arranged for, Madden enters into an agreement with the Ryan people...

Like unto Ryan, the immortal John C. Heenan was a hard luck fighter of his day and age. He was a man of magnificent physique and tremendous power...

The new Columbian club, Chicago, will endeavor to pull off its second card tomorrow night. If successful, Peter Maher, the erstwhile Irish giant, and one Valentine Flood will meet the curtain with a ten round go...

and reputed to be as foxy as any fighter in the ring.

That the conqueror of Cal McCarthy, Bobby Burns and Hughie Napier, the long Australian, is a man of his own kind, goes without the necessity of an affidavit.

Anybody who has ever met J. J. Quinn will be able to tell you that he means what he says. He is one of those square-jawed, brusque, husky Irishmen who generally open their mouths when they have anything to say.

team has been practicing industriously for ten days past and are counting on a big victory next Tuesday.

All Ready for the Gallopers.

T NOW looks as if Omaha's inaugural running meet, July 4, 5 and 6, gives every promise of proving a hummer.

The fair ground track is the acknowledged banner horse track of the country and for this reason alone will receive the countenance of horsemen who under differing conditions would not think of entering here.

not be slow in catching on in this section of the country. The local organization would be pleased to hear from Lincoln on the subject with a view of having her in the circuit.

Wants to Go on the Stage. OMAHA, June 22.—To the Sporting Editor of THE BEE: I herewith lay before you notice a description of the coming pugilist (I don't think). His name is George Wright.

An Inebriety Convention. Jeff Hedden, Doc Haycock, Chat Fulleit, Jack Morrison and Sam Mack, M. C. Nichols, Dr. Gluck, Charlie Kosters and the sporting editor spent last Sunday on Lake McKira-
