

BOUNDLESS WON IN A CANTER. Cushing's Eight to One Shot Leads the Tenth American Derby.

BROUGHT SORROW TO THE BETTERS. Eight Hundred Thousand Dollars Changed Hands on the Result and It Was Witnessed by the Greatest Crowd of the Season.

CHICAGO, June 24.—Boundless won in a canter. The tenth American derby is over and gone, and like the majority of races this year, brought sorrow to the bettors. It was witnessed by the largest crowd that ever gathered on a race track in this country; it was run for one of the heaviest purses ever hung up and it crowned the American derby record.

It was an ideal day and the track; the wind blew hard from the south directly up the stretch, but when the derby was started it died away.

Boundless, though not a favorite, was backed with his stable companion, Lookout, well backed, and his victory was by no means unpopular.

Boundless, though not a favorite, was backed with his stable companion, Lookout, well backed, and his victory was by no means unpopular.

Lookout was stubborn. Boundless was tugging terribly for his head, but Garrison held him in. Johnson, wearing a hood and ridden by a boy, was flying.

When the flag dropped. Then followed a succession of false starts, and it was nearly 6 o'clock when the flag went up. The race was a terrible one that created the final start.

At least ten lengths separated the leader from the last horse. Young Ray, on Plus, and Miller, on King, were sent to the front once and sent their mounts to the front.

How They Lined Up. At the three-fourth pole Plus had his head in front, Aldebaran moving easily by his side, a length ahead of St. Croix and Ingomar.

In the run from the grand stand to the quarter pole a chestnut colt with a jockey in white astride of him, could be seen moving forward in the bunch.

But the crowd failed to notice a splendid brown colt that was swinging along two lengths distant from St. Leonards, gaining when he passed the quarter pole.

At the end of the first mile. The grand stand was packed in the press box, the order as they swung into the stretch being St. Leonards, Clifford, Aldebaran, Boundless, Ingomar, Chorister and St. Croix.

At the quarter pole Plus had his head in front, Aldebaran moving easily by his side, a length ahead of St. Croix and Ingomar.

At the three-fourth pole Plus had his head in front, Aldebaran moving easily by his side, a length ahead of St. Croix and Ingomar.

At the end of the first mile. The grand stand was packed in the press box, the order as they swung into the stretch being St. Leonards, Clifford, Aldebaran, Boundless, Ingomar, Chorister and St. Croix.

At the quarter pole Plus had his head in front, Aldebaran moving easily by his side, a length ahead of St. Croix and Ingomar.

At the three-fourth pole Plus had his head in front, Aldebaran moving easily by his side, a length ahead of St. Croix and Ingomar.

At the end of the first mile. The grand stand was packed in the press box, the order as they swung into the stretch being St. Leonards, Clifford, Aldebaran, Boundless, Ingomar, Chorister and St. Croix.

At the quarter pole Plus had his head in front, Aldebaran moving easily by his side, a length ahead of St. Croix and Ingomar.

prize for a brief moment, then the cheers for Boundless broke out into a pandemonium. Boundless went under the wire at least six lengths ahead with plenty of margin.

There was nothing stingy in the applause which greeted Boundless. The vast concourse stood around for an hour. Men who had lost hundreds took part in the event.

There was one man who was almost beside himself. That was Jim Cushing of St. Paul, the big, lank owner of Boundless.

It was an ideal day and the track; the wind blew hard from the south directly up the stretch, but when the derby was started it died away.

Boundless, though not a favorite, was backed with his stable companion, Lookout, well backed, and his victory was by no means unpopular.

Lookout was stubborn. Boundless was tugging terribly for his head, but Garrison held him in.

When the flag dropped. Then followed a succession of false starts, and it was nearly 6 o'clock when the flag went up.

At least ten lengths separated the leader from the last horse. Young Ray, on Plus, and Miller, on King, were sent to the front once and sent their mounts to the front.

How They Lined Up. At the three-fourth pole Plus had his head in front, Aldebaran moving easily by his side, a length ahead of St. Croix and Ingomar.

In the run from the grand stand to the quarter pole a chestnut colt with a jockey in white astride of him, could be seen moving forward in the bunch.

But the crowd failed to notice a splendid brown colt that was swinging along two lengths distant from St. Leonards, gaining when he passed the quarter pole.

At the end of the first mile. The grand stand was packed in the press box, the order as they swung into the stretch being St. Leonards, Clifford, Aldebaran, Boundless, Ingomar, Chorister and St. Croix.

At the quarter pole Plus had his head in front, Aldebaran moving easily by his side, a length ahead of St. Croix and Ingomar.

At the three-fourth pole Plus had his head in front, Aldebaran moving easily by his side, a length ahead of St. Croix and Ingomar.

At the end of the first mile. The grand stand was packed in the press box, the order as they swung into the stretch being St. Leonards, Clifford, Aldebaran, Boundless, Ingomar, Chorister and St. Croix.

At the quarter pole Plus had his head in front, Aldebaran moving easily by his side, a length ahead of St. Croix and Ingomar.

At the three-fourth pole Plus had his head in front, Aldebaran moving easily by his side, a length ahead of St. Croix and Ingomar.

At the end of the first mile. The grand stand was packed in the press box, the order as they swung into the stretch being St. Leonards, Clifford, Aldebaran, Boundless, Ingomar, Chorister and St. Croix.

At the quarter pole Plus had his head in front, Aldebaran moving easily by his side, a length ahead of St. Croix and Ingomar.

At the three-fourth pole Plus had his head in front, Aldebaran moving easily by his side, a length ahead of St. Croix and Ingomar.

At the end of the first mile. The grand stand was packed in the press box, the order as they swung into the stretch being St. Leonards, Clifford, Aldebaran, Boundless, Ingomar, Chorister and St. Croix.

bound his ribs and played a perfect game in the field today. Attendance, 2,000. Score: Cincinnati..... 0 0 2 1 0 0 1 4 3 Chicago..... 0 0 1 1 0 0 1 0 1 3

St. Louis, June 24.—The Browns' errors were costly and lost them the game. Score: St. Louis..... 0 0 0 1 0 0 0 1—2 Louisville..... 0 0 0 0 0 0 0 2—5

Standing of the Team. Philadelphia..... 39 W. L. P. C. Boston..... 30 17 63.8 New York..... 33 25 46.8

HARVARD WON IT. Yale's Blue Dashed by the Crimson in a Ten-tuning Game.

Boston, June 24.—Holmes' field, Cambridge, never contained a larger and more enthusiastic crowd than the one which assembled to witness the ball game between Harvard and Yale this afternoon.

Harvard and Yale this afternoon. It required ten innings to settle the contest. Harvard finally won by a score of 3 to 2.

Government Said to Be in the Hands of a Dictator. PANAMA, Colombia, (via Galveston, Tex.), June 24.—(By Mexican Cable to the New York Herald—Special to THE BEE.)—According to the report received by the Star and Herald, via Guayaquil, General Caceres, president of the republic, had been declared dictator.

VALPARAISO, Chile, (via Galveston, Tex.), June 24.—(By Mexican Cable to the New York Herald—Special to THE BEE.)—Dictator Pierra of Peru reached this city today on the German steamer Setos.

General Saravia, according to news just received from Rio Grande do Sul, Brazil, had the town of Cascapava and with it captured 2,000 stands of arms.

General Telles has abandoned the siege of Borge and also released many prisoners. Private letters from the city of Rio Grande do Sul contain the information that the national government would not probably be favorably received by the insurgents.

Consul McKenzie has arrived here. He was received by the Mayor and the Council. McKenzie is on his way to Peru, where he will be in charge of the American consulate.

LIMA, Peru, (via Galveston, Tex.), June 24.—(By Mexican Cable to the New York Herald—Special to THE BEE.)—James A. McKenzie, the new United States minister to Peru, was formally received by President Bermudez this afternoon at 2 o'clock.

Minister McKenzie said he esteemed it a personal privilege to reside in the beautiful city of Lima. He had been invited to accept the appointment to reside near the government.

The bill introduced by the liberals so far fell short of national requirements that it has been an effort of constant vigilance to amend its provisions and extend its scope.

Now the climax comes. The prime minister has announced to the House of Commons that he intends to withhold from Ireland the right of the passport. This bill will give the power of imposing or interfering with the town taxes.

These facts make clear that if the home rule bill be carried it must be considered worthy of acceptance by the Irish and that the fight for nationality, both of Ireland and for Parliament, must be maintained with vigor.

These facts make clear that if the home rule bill be carried it must be considered worthy of acceptance by the Irish and that the fight for nationality, both of Ireland and for Parliament, must be maintained with vigor.

These facts make clear that if the home rule bill be carried it must be considered worthy of acceptance by the Irish and that the fight for nationality, both of Ireland and for Parliament, must be maintained with vigor.

These facts make clear that if the home rule bill be carried it must be considered worthy of acceptance by the Irish and that the fight for nationality, both of Ireland and for Parliament, must be maintained with vigor.

These facts make clear that if the home rule bill be carried it must be considered worthy of acceptance by the Irish and that the fight for nationality, both of Ireland and for Parliament, must be maintained with vigor.

These facts make clear that if the home rule bill be carried it must be considered worthy of acceptance by the Irish and that the fight for nationality, both of Ireland and for Parliament, must be maintained with vigor.

speech the radicals shook him down. Eventually he turned, shook his fist at the radicals and shouted above the uproar. "You scoffers, you are ignorant of the significance of the word gentleman."

A dozen radicals were on their feet at once calling Signor Giolitti "Coward," "Liar," and "Slanderer." For several minutes all business was suspended.

The vote on the motion resulted in a decision for the government. The debate was then resumed on the bank law.

APPEAL TO IRISH-AMERICANS. Parnellite Leaders Make a Strong Plea for Assistance.

LONDON, June 24.—The following appeal has been issued by the leaders of the Parnellite section of the Irish party: To our fellow people of America: Relying on your fraternal sympathy and aid, we beg to appeal to you for your aid in building up and maintaining the struggle for nationality under the leadership of the late Charles Stewart Parnell.

The surrender of Mr. Parnell, in obedience to the English government, by the man who only a few days before had proclaimed himself as a sacred principle of parliamentary agitation which was making the Irish cause to be respected throughout the world.

The surrender of Mr. Parnell, in obedience to the English government, by the man who only a few days before had proclaimed himself as a sacred principle of parliamentary agitation which was making the Irish cause to be respected throughout the world.

General Telles has abandoned the siege of Borge and also released many prisoners. Private letters from the city of Rio Grande do Sul contain the information that the national government would not probably be favorably received by the insurgents.

Consul McKenzie has arrived here. He was received by the Mayor and the Council. McKenzie is on his way to Peru, where he will be in charge of the American consulate.

LIMA, Peru, (via Galveston, Tex.), June 24.—(By Mexican Cable to the New York Herald—Special to THE BEE.)—James A. McKenzie, the new United States minister to Peru, was formally received by President Bermudez this afternoon at 2 o'clock.

Minister McKenzie said he esteemed it a personal privilege to reside in the beautiful city of Lima. He had been invited to accept the appointment to reside near the government.

The bill introduced by the liberals so far fell short of national requirements that it has been an effort of constant vigilance to amend its provisions and extend its scope.

Now the climax comes. The prime minister has announced to the House of Commons that he intends to withhold from Ireland the right of the passport. This bill will give the power of imposing or interfering with the town taxes.

These facts make clear that if the home rule bill be carried it must be considered worthy of acceptance by the Irish and that the fight for nationality, both of Ireland and for Parliament, must be maintained with vigor.

These facts make clear that if the home rule bill be carried it must be considered worthy of acceptance by the Irish and that the fight for nationality, both of Ireland and for Parliament, must be maintained with vigor.

These facts make clear that if the home rule bill be carried it must be considered worthy of acceptance by the Irish and that the fight for nationality, both of Ireland and for Parliament, must be maintained with vigor.

These facts make clear that if the home rule bill be carried it must be considered worthy of acceptance by the Irish and that the fight for nationality, both of Ireland and for Parliament, must be maintained with vigor.

These facts make clear that if the home rule bill be carried it must be considered worthy of acceptance by the Irish and that the fight for nationality, both of Ireland and for Parliament, must be maintained with vigor.

These facts make clear that if the home rule bill be carried it must be considered worthy of acceptance by the Irish and that the fight for nationality, both of Ireland and for Parliament, must be maintained with vigor.

These facts make clear that if the home rule bill be carried it must be considered worthy of acceptance by the Irish and that the fight for nationality, both of Ireland and for Parliament, must be maintained with vigor.

These facts make clear that if the home rule bill be carried it must be considered worthy of acceptance by the Irish and that the fight for nationality, both of Ireland and for Parliament, must be maintained with vigor.

growth of this city with interest, and says it is a repetition of Chicago's development. While loyal to the city by the lake, he declares that it does not seem prophetic to see here the foundation of the future great city of the country.

Before leaving the princess sent the following letter to a member of the consul of Colon Ecuador:

Your inquiries about the impressions produced in my mind have met my expectations. The present, while lasting as many pleasant memories will be attached to them, it would be well to remember that the affectionate remembrance of the people and society at large have been most sincerely and earnestly yours.

Amick's Cure and the Koch Theory. NEW YORK, June 24.—Of sixty physicians representing all schools and using the Amick cure for consumption, interviewed today, thirty-two agreed with Amick that the bacillus microbe is produced by the disease, and that the Koch theory is incorrect.

LOCAL BREVITIES. The Farnum Street theater closes tomorrow July 30.

The arrival of a son and her last Friday morning caused Mr. Charles Karbach, Jr., to make an excursion to New York and to visit his parents.

Edward Rings, a well dressed vagrant, who has been in jail twice this week for having no visible means of support, was given a public hearing yesterday morning.

John Hochstetler, residing at 936 Hickory street, has been missing ever since Thursday afternoon. The family is very much grieved over the disappearance.

The Board of Public Work, yesterday awarded the contracts for constructing sewers as follows: J. A. Fitzpatrick was given the contract for the sewer on Broadway street between 12th and 13th streets.

The department of mental and moral culture will give a course of lectures on Young Men's Christian association at 4 p. m., Tuesday, June 27, to consider a course of reading for the summer and a plan of work for the coming year.

The Young Women's Christian association will hold a social this afternoon at 2 o'clock at the corner of Fifteenth and Dodge streets.

The retail coal dealers of Omaha have decided to close their offices at 2 p. m. on Saturday during the month of July and August.

The Second Battalion of the Second regiment, United States Infantry, returned last evening from a month's practice at the fort.

Major Bomis has signed warrants of the court amounting to round figures to about $90,000. The warrants were returned to court Thursday evening and were included in the appropriation sheet that had just been passed.

The Barber claim, however, was being ordered the warrants signed, and as the comptroller did not make it out, it is safe to say that the warrants will not be approved of them, if he does not veto it.

S. E. Bardenos, the peddler who was arrested by Captain Mostyn Friday evening for cruelty to animals, was fined $5 and costs and sentenced to prison for ten days.

Dan Baldwin of the local police force is a pretty handy man with his fists or in a wrestling match and many a prize has Dan won by lifting dumb bells as big as a barrel, but yesterday Dan met his fate and the laugh is on him—so will the cigars be when he gets home again.

Encampment No. 121, Union Veteran Legion at its meeting last evening elected Commodore D. M. Woodman chaplain, and served out the uncensored terms of Commodore F. M. Smith, who resigned on account of leaving the city for a period of several months.

Dr. J. C. Hoffman of Chicago is in the city, the guest of M. J. Roeder. Dr. Hoffman is the son of the lieutenant governor of Illinois, and first visited Omaha with his father thirty-four years ago.

ROME, June 24.—The Chamber of Deputies was set in an uproar today by a long statement from Premier Giolitti concerning the necessity of reforming the bank laws.

ROME, June 24.—The Chamber of Deputies was set in an uproar today by a long statement from Premier Giolitti concerning the necessity of reforming the bank laws.

growth of this city with interest, and says it is a repetition of Chicago's development. While loyal to the city by the lake, he declares that it does not seem prophetic to see here the foundation of the future great city of the country.

Before leaving the princess sent the following letter to a member of the consul of Colon Ecuador:

Your inquiries about the impressions produced in my mind have met my expectations. The present, while lasting as many pleasant memories will be attached to them, it would be well to remember that the affectionate remembrance of the people and society at large have been most sincerely and earnestly yours.

Amick's Cure and the Koch Theory. NEW YORK, June 24.—Of sixty physicians representing all schools and using the Amick cure for consumption, interviewed today, thirty-two agreed with Amick that the bacillus microbe is produced by the disease, and that the Koch theory is incorrect.

LOCAL BREVITIES. The Farnum Street theater closes tomorrow July 30.

The arrival of a son and her last Friday morning caused Mr. Charles Karbach, Jr., to make an excursion to New York and to visit his parents.

Edward Rings, a well dressed vagrant, who has been in jail twice this week for having no visible means of support, was given a public hearing yesterday morning.

John Hochstetler, residing at 936 Hickory street, has been missing ever since Thursday afternoon. The family is very much grieved over the disappearance.

The Board of Public Work, yesterday awarded the contracts for constructing sewers as follows: J. A. Fitzpatrick was given the contract for the sewer on Broadway street between 12th and 13th streets.

The department of mental and moral culture will give a course of lectures on Young Men's Christian association at 4 p. m., Tuesday, June 27, to consider a course of reading for the summer and a plan of work for the coming year.

The Young Women's Christian association will hold a social this afternoon at 2 o'clock at the corner of Fifteenth and Dodge streets.

The retail coal dealers of Omaha have decided to close their offices at 2 p. m. on Saturday during the month of July and August.

The Second Battalion of the Second regiment, United States Infantry, returned last evening from a month's practice at the fort.

Major Bomis has signed warrants of the court amounting to round figures to about $90,000. The warrants were returned to court Thursday evening and were included in the appropriation sheet that had just been passed.

The Barber claim, however, was being ordered the warrants signed, and as the comptroller did not make it out, it is safe to say that the warrants will not be approved of them, if he does not veto it.

S. E. Bardenos, the peddler who was arrested by Captain Mostyn Friday evening for cruelty to animals, was fined $5 and costs and sentenced to prison for ten days.

Dan Baldwin of the local police force is a pretty handy man with his fists or in a wrestling match and many a prize has Dan won by lifting dumb bells as big as a barrel, but yesterday Dan met his fate and the laugh is on him—so will the cigars be when he gets home again.

Encampment No. 121, Union Veteran Legion at its meeting last evening elected Commodore D. M. Woodman chaplain, and served out the uncensored terms of Commodore F. M. Smith, who resigned on account of leaving the city for a period of several months.

Dr. J. C. Hoffman of Chicago is in the city, the guest of M. J. Roeder. Dr. Hoffman is the son of the lieutenant governor of Illinois, and first visited Omaha with his father thirty-four years ago.

ROME, June 24.—The Chamber of Deputies was set in an uproar today by a long statement from Premier Giolitti concerning the necessity of reforming the bank laws.

ROME, June 24.—The Chamber of Deputies was set in an uproar today by a long statement from Premier Giolitti concerning the necessity of reforming the bank laws.

growth of this city with interest, and says it is a repetition of Chicago's development. While loyal to the city by the lake, he declares that it does not seem prophetic to see here the foundation of the future great city of the country.

Before leaving the princess sent the following letter to a member of the consul of Colon Ecuador:

Your inquiries about the impressions produced in my mind have met my expectations. The present, while lasting as many pleasant memories will be attached to them, it would be well to remember that the affectionate remembrance of the people and society at large have been most sincerely and earnestly yours.

Amick's Cure and the Koch Theory. NEW YORK, June 24.—Of sixty physicians representing all schools and using the Amick cure for consumption, interviewed today, thirty-two agreed with Amick that the bacillus microbe is produced by the disease, and that the Koch theory is incorrect.

LOCAL BREVITIES. The Farnum Street theater closes tomorrow July 30.

The arrival of a son and her last Friday morning caused Mr. Charles Karbach, Jr., to make an excursion to New York and to visit his parents.

Edward Rings, a well dressed vagrant, who has been in jail twice this week for having no visible means of support, was given a public hearing yesterday morning.

John Hochstetler, residing at 936 Hickory street, has been missing ever since Thursday afternoon. The family is very much grieved over the disappearance.

The Board of Public Work, yesterday awarded the contracts for constructing sewers as follows: J. A. Fitzpatrick was given the contract for the sewer on Broadway street between 12th and 13th streets.

The department of mental and moral culture will give a course of lectures on Young Men's Christian association at 4 p. m., Tuesday, June 27, to consider a course of reading for the summer and a plan of work for the coming year.

The Young Women's Christian association will hold a social this afternoon at 2 o'clock at the corner of Fifteenth and Dodge streets.

The retail coal dealers of Omaha have decided to close their offices at 2 p. m. on Saturday during the month of July and August.

The Second Battalion of the Second regiment, United States Infantry, returned last evening from a month's practice at the fort.

Major Bomis has signed warrants of the court amounting to round figures to about $90,000. The warrants were returned to court Thursday evening and were included in the appropriation sheet that had just been passed.

The Barber claim, however, was being ordered the warrants signed, and as the comptroller did not make it out, it is safe to say that the warrants will not be approved of them, if he does not veto it.

S. E. Bardenos, the peddler who was arrested by Captain Mostyn Friday evening for cruelty to animals, was fined $5 and costs and sentenced to prison for ten days.

Dan Baldwin of the local police force is a pretty handy man with his fists or in a wrestling match and many a prize has Dan won by lifting dumb bells as big as a barrel, but yesterday Dan met his fate and the laugh is on him—so will the cigars be when he gets home again.

Encampment No. 121, Union Veteran Legion at its meeting last evening elected Commodore D. M. Woodman chaplain, and served out the uncensored terms of Commodore F. M. Smith, who resigned on account of leaving the city for a period of several months.

Dr. J. C. Hoffman of Chicago is in the city, the guest of M. J. Roeder. Dr. Hoffman is the son of the lieutenant governor of Illinois, and first visited Omaha with his father thirty-four years ago.

ROME, June 24.—The Chamber of Deputies was set in an uproar today by a long statement from Premier Giolitti concerning the necessity of reforming the bank laws.

ROME, June 24.—The Chamber of Deputies was set in an uproar today by a long statement from Premier Giolitti concerning the necessity of reforming the bank laws.

PARFUMS. DELICIOUS Flavouring Extracts. NATURAL FRUIT FLAVORS. Vanilla. Orange. Lemon. Of perfect purity—Economy in their use. Flavour as delicately and deliciously as the 'fresh fruit'.