Letter of the Head of the Catholic Church in Nebraska to a St. Louis Organ Creates Considerable Amusement and Discussion.

LINCOLN, June 30 .- [Special to THE BEE.]-Pathers Corbett, English, Crowley and others of the priests with whom Bishop Bonacum has been at war held a meeting at the Hotel Lincoln this morning, but declined to state its object, although it is thought to be simply in preparation of the ecclesiastical battle to be fought out in the near future before Bishop Hennessey of Dubuque. Considerable indignation, which soon gave way to amusement, was caused by the presentation to them of the following letter written by Bishop Bonacum to the German Cahensley organ of St. Louis, America:

by Bishop Bonacum to the German Cahensiey brgan of St. Louis, America:

Lincoln, June 29.—Be pleased to inform my friends in St. Louis that there is not a word of truth in those dispatches from Omaha.

The charges published in those dispatches are a base calunny from beginning to end.

To give some conceptions of the whole affair, I will state that of the nine names affixed to the petition to Mgr. Satolil five are forged, as is proven by the affidavits of the clergymen pow on file in the apostolic delegation at Washington. I need scarcely remind you that no respectable clergyman of this diocese would ever dream of bringing charges against me. It is false to say a truce has been agreed upon and that the case is to be adjudicated later on by Bishop Hennessey of Dubuque, nor is it true that I have signed any demands of the clergy, as those who know me know that I would not do anything to stultify myself. The case has been finally settled by the apostolic delegate himself, who demanded of the three or four petitioners that they make ample apology to me.

Bishop of Lincoln.

Fatner Crowley pronounced it a damnable lie, while Father Corbett directed attention to the fact that, despite the bishop's statement, all of the clergymen whose names ment, all of the clergymen whose names were attached to the charges against the bishop, excepting one, who was called away on an important mission, were present at the Satolii meeting in Omaha, and acknowledged their signatures to the charges. A copy of the truce signed by the bishop is in Father Corbett's possession, and the clergymen were vastly amused at the bishop's statement that any of them had been or-tered to apologize by the apostolic delegate. Several articles of incorporation were filed with Secretary Alien today. Among them were articles for the Royal Dairy asso-plation of Antelope, Savage county, with a papital stock of $5,000, and the National Health company, Omaha, with a capital stock of $200,000. This company desires to make and sell all kinds of tonics and medipines whatsoever. The directors are M. L. Roeder, G. T. Pumpelly and D. J. Collins. The Security bank desires to do a general banking business at Sumner, Dawson county, with a capital stock of $50,000, and the Equitable investment company of Council Biuffs desires to do business with a capital to the amount of $3,000.

The school board has filed with the county commissioners an estimate of $90,000 for next year, which will necessitate a 15 mill levy. As this is about 250 per cent larger than last year, the citizens are already up in arms and a lively fight is promised.

Ganford Lundquist, a Swedish farmer living near Agnew, this county, awoke last night and found a man in his room. He grappled with him and after a struggle they both rolled down the stairs together. Lundquist's wife and the hired man came to his rescue, but the intruder jerked away from them and fled. A posse was organized and a search instituted. The fugitive was found this morning five miles away from the scene of his exploit, wearing a pair of false whis-kers, the removal of which revealed his identity. He was found to be a man named Ward, living at or near Raymond. He was brought to the city this evening and lodged in the county fail.

Given Fifteen Hundred Dollars-Charges of Crooked Riding to Be Investigated-Records of the Horses. CHICAGO, June 30 .- John Berry, the cowboy

who was the first to arrive at the Wild West show in the great race from Chadron, Neb.,

was awarded the first prize of $1,000 by the committee last night. Stephens, better known as "Rattlesnake Pete," arrived at Buffalo Bill's Wild West show yesterday morning at 6 o'clock. This was the rider whose horse was so badly used up at DeKalb that it looked as though he would never finish the race. It seems by some magic known only to the cowboy fraternity the animal limbered up and arrived at the end of his journey in such condition as to obtain a clean bill of health from son; Kansas City, St. Joe & Council Bluffs, Superintendent G. M. Hoel. John S. Clayton, former manager of the association for three years past, having ten-dered his resignation, E. Van Tuyl was the officers of the humane society. It was not the first time Pete was in Chicago, and after registering at the cowboy rendezvous, he proceeded down town to take ization did not stop here, new rules being adopted, the St. Louis plan of conducting the association substituted for the original in the sights of Clark street. He said to all in the sights of Clark street. He said to all his inquiring friends that his trip was a good one and that his horse, General Grant, was in good condition. His temperature was 100 and his pulse forty-two when he arrived. The horse is 11 years old, and considering the fact that he was ridden all the way, he has pulled out much better than was expected of him. He was ridden from Ness City, Kan., to Chadron, a distance of 500 miles, before starting in the race. He is a full blooded broncho, being a captured Kansas wild horse. Pete is very proud of him, and keeping in mind the celerity with which he recovered from his sickness, he has great faith in his recuperative powers. plan of the association and a limitation of territory decided upon. Heretofore a complete check of the yards has been made every day by personal in-spection, but under the new plan it is thought all this information is readily obtainable from the train registers, and the placing of cars for unloading will be taken from the switch lists.

The territory covered by the old association included Omaha, Sioux City, Lincoln and points within a radius of twenty-five miles of these points. Under the new rules the association will include Omaha, South Omaha, Council Bluffs and points within a radius of ten miles, the intention of the association being to examine independent. faith in his recuperative powers.

Boom-de-Aye Brought Up the Rear. The last horse to arrive-Boom-de-Aye, a bay gelding broncho of the Spanish-American type—reached the Wild West at 10:55 a.m. It was ridden by Joe Campbell the entire distance of 1,042 miles and arrived in splendid condition, considering the magnifispiendid condition, considering the magnifi-cent effort made in covering so great a dis-tance in so short a time. This horse has more fully proved the true value of the western horse for endurance and staying qualities than is apparent in any of the other horses in this great race. On arrival his temperature was 103 and pulse 48.

The ground of protest taken against Berry was that he had been over the road before and had drawn a map. Further, that the route was given to two newspapers two days before the race, and that Berry did not know he was barred until he had arrived at Long Pine, Neb., 194 miles from Chadron. No evidence was presented to show that Berry did not come in according to the rules K. C. Moorehouse of the Elkhorn went to

of the race.

The trouble now is the decision regarding the other riders, which will be rendered by the race committee at Chadron. Some of the boys say the race was not ridden "square." Colonel Cody was determined to investigate the matter and see that the prizes were awarded to the proper persons. It is believed that there were all sorts of schemes among the boys to win the race. "Doe" Middleton is the one that all would have liked to have had win, but when his horse failed there was a scramble among the rest. There is some talk of making a pool and dividing the noney.

The modest John Berry has a pocket full of letters from young women in Chicago who are anxious to make his acquaintance. But John is already a benedict, and so there is small chance for the fair suitors. Humane Societies Satisfied.

Paul Fontaine, secretary of the Illinois Humane society, and W. G. Tatro, secretary of the Society for the Prevention of Cruelty to Animals, followed the race all the way through and report it was conducted in every way satisfactory to the societies. The report concludes:

"A strict supervision has been carried on over the condition of the animals from start to finish, and the wonderful task accomplished by them is, if anything, a tribute to the beneficial results of such attention by the association as well as a testimonial to the discretion of the riders and the suggestions of Messrs. Cody and Salisbury to the contestants.

Fred Chaffee, D. V. S., and Fred Asle. D. V. S., examined the horses on their arrival and reported them in fine condition. How They Got In.

Lawn Sociable. The lawn sociable given last night at the residence of C. A. Claffin, corner of Thirty first and Poppleton avenue, was a decided success, both from a social and financial point of view. The object of the sociable was to raise money for the Danish Home for Girls, located at Twenty-seventh and Franklin streets. Mrs. Claffin has taken a great deal of interest in this worthy enterprise, undertaken and carried forward mainly through the efforts of Miss Marie Neilson, and at her suggestion half a score of the young misses of the neighborhood undertook the sociable and made a great success of it. People from all over that part of the city wended their way to the scene of the festiv ities and exchanged their cash for ice cream and other cooling refreshments.

The young misses who had charge of the enterprise were: Irna Drishause, Anna Covell, Alma Claffin, Katie Peters, Allie Peters, Ethel Wilkins, Bertha Case, Gouldie Frank, Edan Howeil, Blanch Craig, Ethel
