DANNY DALY WINS AGAIN.

Hot Springs Visitors Entertained by the Sportsmen of the State.

Hot Springs, N. D., July 3.—[Special Telegram to The Bee.]—There was trouble in Hot Springs tonight. In fact a whole cargo of trouble for several parties interested. For days there have been rumors current on the streets and in places where the fancy most do congregate that a prize fight between Danny Daly and an unknown had been arranged, growing out of a bar room difference, as prize fights usually have their genesis. But the appearance of tickets in the saloons reading "Fifteen-Round Set to Between Danny Daly and the Colorado Kid, Monday, July 3," settled all speculation in regard to the matter and the saloon crowd set to work to crowd the streets with the sporty element of Hot Springs tonight.

CRISP ONLY THE EXTRA SESSION

He Thinks the Democrats Will Stand by the Chicago Platform.

HEPEAL OF THE SILVER PURCHASE ACT

He is Nomenclature on the Subject, Though He Thinks the Object Will Be Attained, a Rather Unsatisfactory Task.

WASHINGTON, July 3.—Speaker Crisp arrived this morning on an early train and went to his old quarters at the Metropolitan Hotel. His arrival was not generally known among the politicians and he was permitted to have a quiet rest after the fatigue of the journey from the south.

CONFERRED WITH THE SECRETARY.

Mr. Crisp had not been here long, however, before he went to the treasury, where, by previous appointment, he had a conference with the secretary that lasted upwards of an hour.

ON THE SHERMAN ACT.

"Whether the Sherman purchasing act will be repealed is a question I am unable to answer. My own position upon the question needs no discussion now, for I believe it is understood. I have not talked with members of the committee, but I am sure they go to any extent, certainly not enough to enable me to form an intelligent opinion.
