

BETTER FINANCIAL OUTLOOK

Easier Conditions Prevail in the Money Market than for Some Time Past.

WEDNESDAY'S EXCITEMENT HAS ABATED

Stocks Generally Have Recovered from Their Depression and a More Confident Feeling Prevails in Business.

New York, July 13.—[Special Telegram to THE BEE.]—The same easy condition was reported by bank officers this morning as was found yesterday. Money was fairly abundant and call loans were renewed at 8.

Helped the Market. Stocks opened strong, and yesterday's gains were not lost. After the market sold down a little, there was some talk about gold imports and that helped the market.

Foreign bankers said this morning that no importations of gold had been ordered; that figures offered in London are well enough, but holders have no encouragement to withhold buyers.

More Hopeful Feelings. This afternoon the hopeful feeling among the bankers has been increased by the report of Frederick D. Tappan, president of the Gallatin National bank, said that one of the most necessary things was the resumption of the former relations between the banks and the clearing house.

General Weaver's Sentiments. Mrs. Weaver, July 13.—[Special Telegram to THE BEE.]—At a mass meeting held at the residence of Mrs. Weaver, July 13, a resolution was adopted, endorsing a tax of 10 per cent on all interest-bearing gold notes.

Another Western Utterance that caused some amusement among bank officers here was the reference in the Denver resolutions to New York banks.

Nebraska Savings Bank of Lincoln in the Hands of the State Board. LINCOLN, July 13.—[Special Telegram to THE BEE.]—This evening at about 7 o'clock Lieutenant P. H. Towley, clerk of the State Banking Board, posted a notice on the sixty days banking law and notified the directors that the bank had been taken charge of by the board and would close its doors.

Its Collapse Was Unexpected. CHICAGO, July 13.—On the application of creditors a receiver was appointed for the Chicago National Bank, which had failed on Monday last.

Bought a Little More Silver. WASHINGTON, July 13.—The treasury has received notices of the acceptance of its counter offer of 7 1/2 cents for silver to the amount of 30,000 ounces.

Gold from Havana. NEW YORK, July 13.—Half a million dollars in gold have arrived from Havana.

Wyoming Miners Rushing to a New Colorado. RAWLINS, Wyo., July 13.—[Special Telegram to THE BEE.]—There has been great excitement on Fortification creek, about twenty-five miles south of the Wyoming line in Colorado, during the past week.

Will Continue to Produce Silver. CITY OF MEXICO, July 13.—The mine owners of Pachuca, one of the most extensive mining districts in Mexico, have held a meeting to decide what they should do in view of the depression in the price of silver.

Asked for a Receiver. MINNEAPOLIS, July 13.—The New England association has petitioned for a receiver in order, as it claims, to protect every one of the company's valuable business properties in this city.

Five Small Failures in London. LONDON, July 13.—Stocks were quiet, though somewhat improved. Americans were weak, though there were some advances.

First Clause of the Army Bill Adopted by a Vote So Close as to Be Almost a Defeat—Bismarck Caused a Sensation.

[Copyrighted 1893 by James Gordon Bennett.] BERLIN, July 13.—[New York Herald Cable.—Special to THE BEE.]—At five minutes to 3 this afternoon the electric bells ringing all over the house announced to the members of the Reichstag the time had come when the first vote would be taken since the dissolution of the military bill.

The following clauses were then rushed through by majority vote: clause 1, concerning appeals from Irish courts; clause 2, concerning appeals from Irish courts; clause 3, concerning appeals from Irish courts.

Count von Caprivi, minister of the interior, said that he had no objection to the bill, but that he had no objection to the bill, but that he had no objection to the bill.

DEATH RODE ON THE TRAIN

Frightful Accident on the West Shore Road Near Newburgh, N. Y.

FIVE PEOPLE KILLED AND MANY INJURED

While Running at a High Rate of Speed an Express Train Jumps the Track and Crashes Into a Freight—Awful Results Follow.

Newburgh, N. Y., July 13.—The West Shore day express No. 1, due here at 12:04 p. m., was wrecked in the West Shore freight yards today. The train consisted of a locomotive, a baggage car, a smoker, two day coaches and a parlor car.

The train was a few minutes late at Cornwall, four miles south of here, and was running very fast. When it reached the switch which connects the main road with the West Shore freight yard a mile south of the station, the engineer checked up. It is supposed there was a loose object on the rails which caused it to jump upon a frog and leave the track.

The crash was terrific. The engine jumped up to the top of the freight car and started south and was waiting for the freight to pass. The freight engine was in charge of Fred Holland. The express engine was evidently farther off the track than the remainder of the train and when it struck the freight engine it was thrown to one side and the tender tumbled over.

The engineer upon seeing the engine leave the track shut off steam, whistled for brakes and he and the fireman jumped. The latter, Charles Willis, ruptured a blood vessel and was badly bruised. The engineer escaped with very slight injuries. Fred Holland, engineer of the freight, had his skull fractured, but it is thought he will recover. No one else on the freight was hurt.

Where the Fatalities Occurred. The first coach was filled with passengers, every seat being occupied. Nearly all the casualties occurred in this car. It careened to one track and struck the projecting end of a box car standing on a side track. The engine of the freight was smashed and the end nearest to the smoker was smashed. All the killed were on that side of the car.

Miss Eliza Klemm, wife of Antonio Klemm, of Highland Falls, N. J. A two-year child of Burnham Elverson, of Newburgh, about 34 years old, of Hellevest cast of countenance. UNKNOWN WOMAN, with gray hair, stout, about 5 feet tall, broad face. She had an arm torn off.

UNKNOWN WOMAN, about 80 years old, of medium height and build. In the confusion articles that might have been taken from the train were separated from the bodies and not until the names of the bodies and not until the names of the unknown dead were positively known.

Those Injured. CHARLES WILLIS of New Durham, fireman on passenger engine, ruptured blood vessel in right breast and legs severely injured. He is expected to recover. FRED HOLLAND of New Durham, engineer of freight train, skull fractured at base and severe cuts over eye and other injuries. Will probably recover.

Miss Jane J. Cooke of Catskill, head cut and injured internally. Wounds probably fatal. JOHN ROBINSON, Jersey City, skull fractured and ear badly cut. G. G. STANLEY, internal injuries. Recovery doubtful. He is thought to be a commercial traveler.

MICHAEL FAMILY of Brooklyn, mother and four daughters, all more or less injured. Mrs. Michael was severely cut on the head, Pauline was bruised on the hip, Julia, arm and leg fractured; Lillian, arms fractured and bruised. J. F. RICHIE of Union Hill, N. J., scalp wound and leg broken.

Mrs. N. H. HARVEY, New York, leg broken and head cut. MINNIE EVERETT, colored, of Charleston, S. C., head cut and bruised. BURMAN ELVYERSON and wife of Seneca, I. L., parents of the child killed; Mr. Elverson, broken arm and severe bruises; Mrs. Elverson, left knee fractured and head cut.

ANDREW ANDERSON, Cornwall, head cut. MATTHEW TALBOT and his boy, of Newburgh, bruised and cut. Caring for the Injured. There were others less seriously injured. Twenty-one of the wounded were taken to St. Luke's hospital, this city, where the surgical staff, headed by Dr. Jones, is affording all possible relief. The nurses are assisted by a number of ladies and gentlemen of Newburgh. Several who were slightly injured walked, and their names were not obtained.

The coroner was notified and proceeded to hold an inquest. Division Superintendent Atkinson of the West Shore road took charge of the work of clearing the right of way of the wreck. He visited the hospital afterwards and gave orders to provide whatever was needed for the treatment of the injured. The dead bodies were received at the undertakers' establishments, and held to be claimed by their friends. The three dead women were unidentified this evening.

EZETAS ACTING AS CENSOR

News Sent from Salvador is Subjected to Rigid Inspection.

FEW PARTICULARS OF THE UPRISING

Only One Regiment Revolted and it Was Quickly Subdued—Patrick Egan Starts for America—Brazil's Troubles Are Thickening Rapidly.

[Copyrighted 1893 by James Gordon Bennett.] PARRAMA, Colombia (via London, Tex.), July 13.—[By Mexican Cable to the New York Herald.—Special to THE BEE.]—Advices have been received here of a revolutionary uprising in the capital of the neighboring republic of San Salvador. A battalion of the government forces, commanded by Colonel Flores, maintained an unclaimed revolution. It avowed its purpose was to avenge Mendez and drive his assassins from power.

The revolutionists endeavored to overthrow the government. With the artillery under General Ezeta a battle was fought in which the revolutionists were defeated after a short struggle. Then the rebels capitulated. In the engagement Colonel Flores was killed, his principal lieutenants were captured and thrown into prison, where they still remain, awaiting court martial. Senor Potosi was arrested later, and he is also imprisoned. Many civilians have also been implicated in the conspiracy.

Official reports will be sent to the government, denying that any revolution is now in progress or that there was any outbreak, and further declaring that everything is now quiet. Ezeta has established a censorship on all news relating to the outbreak, and no direct advices are obtainable.

To Check the Invaders. El Fortin of Carthagena publishes a dispatch announcing that the chief of the Colombian frontier forces is in Barranquilla. He is in receipt of advices from San Juan de Caca of a telegraphic request from the Venezuelan government to cooperate in preventing the enemies of President Crespo from landing. It has been learned that the revolutionary party has purchased a steamer which cleared for Barranquilla. The chief of the Colombian forces is asked to prevent a landing being made on the Colombian coast near the Venezuelan frontier. Advices have also been received that Rojas Paul left Carthagena July 9 for Curacao.

Egan Leaves for Home. VALPARAISO, Chile (via Galveston, Tex.), July 13.—[By Mexican Cable to the New York Herald.—Special to THE BEE.]—Patrick Egan, ex-minister to Chile, sailed for home last evening. He was escorted to the steamer by a detachment of police. There was no demonstration at his departure by the local Chilian. A few American and many adherents of Balmaceda were on the wharf to say farewell.

Brazil's Troubles Multiply. The Herald's correspondent in Montevideo telegraphs that all Brazilian telegraph offices are closed. Rigid censorship is maintained and no messages are allowed to be received or sent from the River Plate country. This morning was taken because the Brazilians believe Uruguay and Argentina intend to help Wandellkolk. The government vessel Republica is now en route to Rio Grande to fight Wandellkolk on the Jupiter. They also hope to meet and capture his convoy, the Comocan. All buoys have been removed from the bar of the river, and the steamer has been ordered to block. It is reported that the officers and crew of the Republica will desert and join Wandellkolk as soon as the steamer arrives at Rio Grande. The situation in Rio de Janeiro is critical.

DARING BANK ROBBERS. Young Men Hold Up the Cashier of the Mount Vatter, Kan., Bank and Escape. COFFEYVILLE, Kan., July 13.—The bank of Mount Valley, owned by C. M. Jenning of Oswego, was robbed at 10:30 today by three men who rode into town and entering the bank held up the cashier, J. O. Wilson, and secured the money in sight, which amounted to $600.

Before Mr. Wilson could give the alarm the robbers had made their escape and were on their way to the territory, twenty miles south. As soon as the news was received here several persons started out to intercept them and as they passed two miles east of Angola at 1:30 it is possible that they will succeed.

Mound Valley is a little town ten miles northeast of here. This was the only bank in town, but on account of its proximity to Oswego but little money is kept in the bank. The robbers were white men and young.

KANSAS CITY, July 13.—A special to the Herald says that William Wilson says he has no doubt out that the robbers were a portion of Henry Starr's gang. He says that while the bandits were going through the bank the leader said to him: 'guess you've heard of Henry Starr. Well, Starr once said he would do a bit of work up in the Grand Canyon, but he's confined in prison just now. In fact, they've got his name and have him nailed at Fort Smith. We need the money to get him out and more too. We'll get him all right enough, too.'

Among the posse that went from Coffeyville to run down the bandits is John Coker, who killed the late rate of the gang during the memorable Dalton raid upon the banks of Coffeyville.

Banker Condon, the proprietor of the bank robbed today, has offered a $1,000 reward for the capture of the robbers.

DEVOURING VEGETATION. Army of Crickets Devastating Wyoming and Moving Toward Nebraska. CANNON, Wyo., July 13.—[Special Telegram to THE BEE.]—An army of crickets of the genus Gryllus have invaded the vicinity of Lost Cabin, Wyo., and are devastating the country of all vegetation. The crickets cover a strip of country about twelve to fifteen miles wide, and are traveling in a southerly direction at the rate of three miles a day. The army struck the ranch of Enoch Cornell about 10 o'clock in the forenoon of July 10 and in less than four hours had eaten up his potato crop and before night his alfalfa and oats had the appearance of being ripe and ready for harvest. The crickets are jet black and about one inch long and are remarkable for the fact that they are about of one size. It is supposed that they hatched in the Big Horn mountains, and taking advantage of the strong northwest winds that have prevailed in that section of the country of late, are traveling southeast. As the rate they are now traveling they will pass Casper about August 1 and be in western Nebraska about August 15. The army is about three-fourths of a mile wide. The chirping of the immense horde can be heard for miles.
