St. Louis Globe-Democrat. The Spartans had an iron coinage, no other being allowed. The United States silver &c piece was first coined in 1851. From 1828 to 1845 platinum coins were ninted in Russia. The first coining machine was invented by Bruchner in 1553.

Julius Casar was the first man to put his own image on a coin. The first colonial coinage was minted in Massachusetts in 1652. The American cents of 1787 bore the notto, "Mind Your Business." The Lydians were the first to coin money, about B. C. 1600.

Homer mentions brass money as in use B. C. 1184, among the Greeks. Brass money was coined in Rome by Servius Tullius as early as 573 B. C. The most ancient coins are of electrum, four parts of gold to one of silver. The coinage of 20-cent pieces began in 1875 and was discontinued in 1878.

The coinage of trade dollars began in 1874 and was discontinued in 1878. Before the days of coined money the Greeks uesd copper nails as currency. Herodotus says that Crossus was the first sovereign to make coins of gold.

The United States mint was established in 1792 and at once began operations.

Silver was first coined in Rome in B. C. 269, when Fabius Pictor set up a mint. In the fifth century before Christ refined copper was deemed as precious as gold. The first American coins were made in England in 1612 for the Virginia com-

The first English gold coins were minted in 1257, in the forty-second year of Henry III. In 1631 the invention of milling the edges of coins, to prevent clipping, was introduced. At the beginning of the Christian era the relative values of gold and silver were as 1

The purchasing power of money in the days of the Roman emperors was about ten times what it is at present. When Leyden was besieged by the Spanish army in 1574 the city government issued credit notes on leather.

The first mention of money in the 'scrip-tures was Abraham's purchase of a sepulcher, for 400 shekels of silver, B. C. Cakes of tea in India, pieces of silk in China, salt in Abyssinia and codfish in Ice land have all been used as money.

The Homan æs, or libra, was a pound weight of copper or brass stamoed by the state. It was oblong, like a brick, and was not struck, but cast. From 1638 to 1652 musket balls were used as currency in New England at a valuation of a farthing spiece, and were a legal tender up to 1 shilling.

Numismatists say that no human head was impressed on coins until after the death of Alexander the Great. All images before that were of deities. During the hundred years war between France and England every baron in both countries claimed and exercised/the right to coin what money he pleased. Judas sold his master for thirty pieces o silver; that is, thirty Roman pennies; about $4.12½. One Roman penny was a good day's wages for an agricultural laborer.

Madden says that in the British West In-dies, two centuries ago, pins, slices of bread, pinches of snuff, drams of whisky, seap, cocoanuts, eggs and other common articles were all used as money.

FACTORY FACTS. Notes Concerning the Men Who Make the Wheels Go Round.

The tendency to reduce the volume of business by limiting orders for goods to the immediate necessities of trade has been felt by the manufacturers as well as by other business men. Some Nepraska manufacturers have reduced the number of their omployes, but upon the whole the manufactur-ing luterests of the state are in very fair ployes, but upon the whole the manufacturing interests of the state are in very fair condition.

The Manufacturers association is working hard to keep Nebraska goods before the people and is meeting with a degree of success that is entirely satisfactory to the members of the association. The secretary of the association spent the past week in Lincoln working up the home patronage sentiment in that city. He called the attention of the State Board of Purchase and Supplies to the fact that they have been in the habit of specifying certain brands of eastern goods in advertising for bids for supplies for the state institutions. The members of the board promised to change over to Nebraska goods when the price and the quality were the same.

The secretary spent several days in calling upon the retail merchants of Lincoln in the interest of home patronage. Many of the retailers of that city are buying their supplies largely from Nebraska manufacturers and others who were not promised to do so in the future. One of the largest grocers reported that he was selling ten sacks of Nebraska flour to one from other states. Still there are some who persist in purchasing goods from the outside, unmindful of the fact that they are sending thousands of dollars away from home when it would be very convenient to have that money in the state.

it would be very convenient to have that money in the state. The Manufacturers association is steadily growing in membership. During the past week the following have applied for admittance into the association: Western Carriage Top company of Lincoln, Superior Starch company of Superior; Mayer Bros., suspender manufacturers, Lincoln; Wallace & Co., manufacturers of office, store and salcon fixtures, Omaha.

Mr. Chapman, representing the Carriage Top company, was in Omaha the past week and the secretary of the association introduced him to the trade. He secured some good orders before leaving and a promise of future business.

C. Cochran, the manager of the Superior Starch company, started the Beatrice starch factory, and was formerly with the Kingfords of New York. He says that the great difficulty in manufacturing starch in Nebraska is in securing clear water. He believes that they have an abundance of the growing in membership. During the past week the following have applied for admit-lieves that they have an abundance of the right kind of moisture in Superior.

RELIGIOUS.

During his long pastorate, Rev. Mr. Blodgett, of Greenwich, Mass., has buried more people than the town contains.

Ten years ago the membership of the Christian Endeavor societies of the United States was 2 870, four years ago it was 310,000, on the first day of the present year trans 1 500,000. it was 1,500,000. According to Canon Furrar, about 4,000 elergymen of the Church of England are out of employment. Another writer declares that about an equal number are miserably underpaid. Three panels of stained glass, representing the command, "Feed my sheep," will be placed in St. Margaret's church, near Westminster Abbey, as a memorial to Phillips Brooks. The church will also send a sub-scription of $1,000 to the Harvard Memorial. The annual report of the Reformed Church of America shows the additions on profession of faith to have been 5,435 during the year. This is an increase of 846 over last year. Infants baptized 5,593, Sunday school scholars enrolled 2,220.

The official statistics of the Wesleyan Methodists of England show a total mem-bership of 427,700 as against 424,952 last year. The new members received number 44,188, while there are 32,338 on trial. There are 68,125 junior members and 151 candidates.

Rev. Thomas Craven, who for twenty years has had charge of the Methodist Episcopal publishing house in Lucknow, India, is in Chicago. The Lucknow house is one of the largest mission publishing houses in the world, employing 156 hands and running six printing presses by steam. At St. Thomas' church, Taunton, Mass. they will soon have in place an organ which when the clergyman presses a button, will play a succession of gospel tunes. Why should not the electrical experts go a step further! It should be possible to arrange a machine which would, at will, furnish the waiting congregation with a sermon by some celebrated divine. This would solve the problem of cterical vacations. Bishop von Scheele of Sweden, who came to America a month or two ago to participate in the celebration by Swedish Lutherans of the tercentenary of the decree of Upsala, has reached San Francisco. He recently presided there at a celebration of that occur-rence, and scored the churches for building in the modern American style. Augustus Ihms, a German who owns a farm across the river from Dubuque, Ia., has announced his purpose to found a new religion. He is getting ready a new book of revelations, and will shortly open head-quarters in Dubuque. He calls it a natural religion; does not believe in any hereafter, but will strive to provide a heaven on earth, as there is no room for any other. He alas there is no room for any other. He al-ready has several proselytes who will join him in preaching the new faith. At a cost of $300,000 the wealthy congregation of Grace Episcopal church is about to erect on Fourteenth street, near First ave-nue, a site now held by tenement houses, a group of four dwellings designed in the form of a Roman cross. The buildings will be known as Grace chapel, Grace hospital, Grace parish house and Grace clergy house, and in these much of the mission and charitable work of Grace church will be done. The money has been subscribed and the new buildings will be a notable addition to the Boy choirs, trained as such singers are trained in Great Britain and in Germany, were almost unknown in this country ten years ago, and are not common now, though there are several admirably trained boy choirs in New York. When the time comes for the choir boy's voice to change, the con-scientious choir master bids him rest in order that his natural male voice may not be spoiled for singing. The task of teach-ing the lads to sing in the artificial manner required is most laborious, and the earnings of learners are trifling. Later a welltrained chorister may earn from $300 to $500 per year by his Sunday work. The choir boy of the rural parish is usually an un-schooled imp, chosen for his golden hair and cherubic face.
