

LYNCHERS AFTER DEBANY

Another Party of Indignant Citizens Anxious to Hang the Wife Murderer.

SHERIFF KAVANAGH'S PROMPT ACTIONS

He Guards the Jail with a Poise and Prevents the Proposed Hanging—Sons of the Murdered Woman Arrested—Write Reconciliation.

COLEMAN, Neb., July 16.—[Special to THE BEER.]—Sheriff Kavanagh has shown his ability to act promptly and effectively. His cool head and vigorous measures saved Columbus considerable trouble Saturday night. Word was received here that a lynching party was coming from Genoa, Pa., led by Harry DeBany, and that it intended to hang DeBany, who had been arrested here on Sunday morning.

Sheriff Kavanagh quietly deputized a posse consisting of R. L. Rossiter, Charles Taylor, Maurice Mayer, Joe Wells, Bert and Arthur Arnold, Andrew Campbell, George Taylor, Steve Ryan, Frank Leslie, Leo Borowick, J. Albert, J. G. Reeder and one or two others, who, with himself and Deputy Sheriff Thomas Grentman, went to the jail and awaited developments. Events showed the precaution wisely taken.

About 120 young men were seen prowling around the street in the vicinity of the jail. They were promptly overhauled and placed under arrest by Charles Taylor, Grentman and Rossiter. When searched a heavy load of arms was taken from one. At first they claimed they had come from Omaha, and hearing that something was going on they had come out to see the fun. Later they owned up they were sons of the murdered woman, John and Andrew Nicholson, by name, and had been sent out by the lynching party to reconnoiter the jail and ascertain how much of a posse the sheriff had gathered. He captured the party, and the disconcerted remainder of the party, for no further demonstration was made. It is probably as well that no assault was made on the jail, for behind the doors was a miscellaneous assortment of arms sufficient to equip a Central American revolutionary army and a lot of men who are not in the best of military fashion. The law-abiding citizens of Columbus do not believe in lynching; they feel that DeBany is liable to hang, but they insist that he be allowed to take his course, and will resist any lawless attack on the jail or any of the prisoners.

DeBany passed a horrible night. He knew what the sheriff had done to the jail, and he expected in terror in one corner of his cell. His load of misery was greatly increased when he was taken to the jail, and placed in the cage where they could get at him. In hours of utter darkness he indulged in the most terrible thoughts, telling the thoroughly frightened men who were passing by to do him wrong. They both vowed the most doing vengeance in case DeBany escaped hanging by the law.

Two other men were arrested about daybreak, but as they were known to the sheriff they were released. An extra force of police was put out on the streets, and the hanging is quiet. DeBany is said to have $15,000 in cash, beside his farms, and will make a desperate effort to escape himself.

TOUCHED BY A CYCLONE

McCool Junction's Narrow Escape from a Fatal Disaster.

McCool Junction, Neb., July 16.—[Special Telegram to THE BEER.]—The second cyclone of the season struck here last evening, this time doing over $1,000 worth of damage, completely destroying the large Butler store and many dwellings, unroofing the large Robbins store, destroying W. Vandevor's store, Chesapeake large grocery and other buildings. Considerable damage was done to the depot and Hemmings & Lincoln's store buildings.

It was a genuine twister from the southwest, dipping to the ground on the main street and then rising and passing over. F. Tolles, a young man, was carried fifty feet. A Dickson's family, who were in the cellar and are uninjured, while one-half of the building was destroyed and carried sixty feet across the street. Their property and tables are all in place. Although one-half of the dwellings of the town are useless, fortunately no one has been seriously hurt.

IT RAINED

Downpours of Water Follow Experiments of Rainmakers.

LEXINGTON, Neb., July 16.—[Special Telegram to THE BEER.]—Dynamite firing was commenced at 6 o'clock last night at four different points and continued until this morning. At noon clouds appeared and at 3 a heavy rain set in, extending in showers all over the county and lasting from one to two hours. While some crops were injured to the benefit of the exposures none would hesitate to add another experiment of the kind, and the majority are firm believers in the direct benefit.

The tower of the Presbyterian church was blown down during a west storm today.

A runaway team collided with a cart containing two ladies, and the cart overturned over the cart, ladies and horse driven to it, with no damage except to the vehicles.

WEST TO SLEEP ON THE TRACK

John White Selects a Dangerous Resting Place at Fremont and is Hurt.

FREMONT, July 16.—[Special to THE BEER.]—A tramp, calling himself John White and claiming to hail from Pueblo, Colo., while quietly sleeping on the Union Pacific track was knocked into the gutter by the 7:30 P. M. train, and injured quite severely. His head was well nigh scalped and bruises on his side suggested internal injuries. He was picked up by the police and brought to the Fremont hospital where he is receiving careful attention. He is a cripple, having lost a part of one of his feet several years ago by Michigan frost. The surgeon says that he will probably be out in a few days, and will be taken through the unfriendly and lonesome world. He is being cared for at the expense of Dodge county, as the railroad people refuse to help him.

The remains of Herbert S. Sively, who was drowned yesterday at Ames, were brought to the city about 5 o'clock last evening and, although witnesses were summoned, it was concluded to hold no inquest. The funeral occurred at 5 p. M. today and was attended by a large and sympathetic gathering. Rev. Brown of the Methodist Episcopal church officiated at the funeral services.

The rain storm of last night was inaugurated by high winds which, however, did no damage to the city, but breaking limbs from the more fragile trees.

Never did corn and all late vegetation enjoy a more rapid or luxuriant growth. One can almost see the green corn and potatoes promise to crowd the present high and exorbitant prices to the dust.

The city lawns were never more beautiful and verdant than at this season, and the trees are just at this season, it eclipses all former records.

The foundation for the new standpipe of the water works is completed and Contractor Davenport has the iron nearly ready to push it skyward. It occupies the center of the city, and is a beautiful sight. Many people have enjoyed delightful picnics.

James Lovett, who, for many years, was conspicuous in Fremont's political and business circles, died here on the past year or two, and his family, who live in the mountains, is home visiting his family. He is now connected with the business interests of Los Angeles, Cal.

The Baptist jail preacher called out a nice audience at the Chautauqua grounds this evening, and his sermon was well received.

Fish Commissioner May and wife are visiting friends in this city.

STRUCK A FLOWING WELL

Gering People Jubilant Over a Successful Artesian Experiment.

GERING, Neb., July 16.—[Special to THE BEER.]—The people of this vicinity are aflame with excitement over the striking of artesian water in a well put down in Gering. At 3 o'clock this morning the water was struck at a depth of 321 feet and it runs in a steady stream out of the inch and one-half pipe into a tank, about 100 feet below the surface. It is a strong flow and there is no doubt that when the pipe is pumped out and the well drilled a few feet further down it will have a good flow. The water is clear and is artesian and as the depth is unusually shallow for artesian water, farmers are already talking of putting down a main well of artesian water for irrigation purposes.

STRUCK BY LIGHTNING.

FAIRMONT, July 16.—[Special to THE BEER.]—During the thunder storm last night the steeple of the Episcopal church, formerly of this place, was struck by lightning and the northeast corner bulged toward it. Charley Ames and his brother Thomas were in the house at the time dressing a beef. They were both knocked down and lay unconscious. The steeple fell, and the roof of the house and back of this morning, but think he will be all right in a day or two.

Fairmont and vicinity was visited last night by a violent and much needed rain.

RECORDED BY TRAIN.

NEMAHA CITY, Neb., July 16.—[Special to THE BEER.]—This section of the country was visited by a fine rain last night, which will save the corn crop. The wheat crop is now being harvested, but will not be over half a crop. Fruit of all kinds will be very scarce, except the peach crop, which looks very promising at present.

HELPED THE CROPS.

TECHUMSEH, Neb., July 16.—[Special to THE BEER.]—Johnson county was visited by a rain last night refreshing vegetation wonderfully. The continued dry weather has done slight damage to corn and potatoes. Farmers have their wheat all harvested, and oats now claim their attention.

NOW ON HIS WAY TO BE SHOT

Admiral Wandeloik Captured by the Brazil Government Yesterday Morning.

SURRENDERED MOST INCONTINENTLY

His Effort at Escape Proved Futile and He Gave Up Without a Fight—His Fate is Not in Doubt—South American Notes.

[Copyrighted 1893 by James Gordon Bennett.] VALPARAISO, Chile (via Galveston, Tex.), July 16.—[By Mexican Cable to the New York Herald.—Special to THE BEER.]—Admiral Wandeloik is a prisoner, and is now on his way to Rio de Janeiro, the Brazilian capital, under heavy guard. What his fate will be when he reaches that city can easily be guessed.

He was only recently formally declared to be a traitor and now that he has fallen into the clutches of the government he will doubt be executed without much ceremony.

News of the capture of Admiral Wandeloik reached us this afternoon in a telegram from Yaguaret. It was surprising, because news was received last night by the Brazilian legation in Montevideo and from the Herald correspondent at Artigas that the admiral, with the steamer Jupiter, had eluded the Brazilian war ship Republica outside of the bar at the mouth of Lake Dos Patos, below Rio Grande do Sul. It was believed that he had cleverly avoided capture.

CAUGHT HIM EARLY THIS MORNING.

The telegram from Yaguaret, however, says that the cruiser Republica gave chase to the Jupiter outside the bar and came up with her at 6 o'clock this morning at the bar north of Santa Catharina. Admiral Wandeloik tried to disembark, but was prevented by the fog. Shots were fired on the Jupiter from which a white flag was soon hoisted. The captain of the Republica demanded the unconditional surrender of the Jupiter, her officers and crew. Admiral Wandeloik was forced to submit, and the officers and crew of the ship, the revolutionary troops on board and the twenty-five men and women of the gunboat Camocan were all made prisoners. The captain of the Republica started them for Rio de Janeiro under a heavy guard. A Uruguayan gunboat has gone to look for the Italia, which is believed to have been captured, but really escaped. She is believed to be near Waldonado on the Uruguayan coast. If she is captured her crew will be disbanded.

NIERAGUAN LIBERALS REVERT.

MANAGUA, Nicaragua (via Galveston, Tex.), July 16.—[By Mexican Cable to the New York Herald.—Special to THE BEER.]—Leaders of the liberal party decided yesterday in a secret meeting to join the revolutionists in Leon and today Sanzela, with forty followers, went to Leon to join the revolutionary headquarters. This caused the citizens of Granada to come out more strongly in favor of the government.

General Arizle, who escaped from the revolutionists who made him and President Machado prisoners in Leon when the revolution broke out, reached Tipitapa this morning and came to Managua this afternoon. He was warmly received by the people. His presence has aided materially in restoring public confidence. A large number of the leading citizens and capitalists of Granada, Rivas, Masoaya and Leon are here to meet with the citizens of Managua and decide upon some united plan of action in this emergency.

In an editorial, Diario Nicaraguense, the conservative party, organ, advises that all the powers of the government be conferred upon one person. With President Machado a prisoner in the hands of the rebels, it is necessary to organize a government, and El Diario Nicaraguense advises the selection of one man to control rather than a divided responsibility. This advice will probably be followed. General Arizle or ex-President Zelaya will probably be named dictator. Funds in the Leon branch of the Nicaraguan National bank were seized by the revolutionists. Each side is recruiting an army, but no fighting has occurred.

THAT SIAMSE INCIDENT.

Both Parties to the Affair Blame Each Other for Precipitating Hostilities.

PARIS, July 16.—Admiral Hamelin, who was in command of the French fleet in the Indian Ocean, and who was captured by the Siam and Comptre crossed the bar of the Menam river and proceeded to Bangkok, has made a brief report of the incident to the government. The gunboats did not fire on the Siamese forts until the forts, without any previous warning or demand, had fired on the gunboats.

M. Pavie, French minister resident in Bangkok, has been instructed to protest against the firing as an indefensible act and to demand that the Siamese government, inasmuch as the friendly relations established between France and Siam by the treaty of 1816 had remained unimpaired up to that time. The secretary of Siam denies that Siam was the aggressor in the affair. The conflict was due, he says, to the fact that the French commissioners misunderstood the orders of their government not to cross the bar.

LONDON, July 16.—The Times correspondent in Bangkok has to-day have reported the French and Siamese ships. The only real damage done was to one of the Siamese ships, in which a shell was exploded, killing a man and wounding three. Outside the bar I found the Forfar (French gunboat), whose captain had threatened to kill all foreigners in the Siamese service. Captain Forfar, who was the master, at once replied to this threat by presenting himself with the avowal that he was a German subject. The French captain complied and sent an officer to return Vill's visit. Entire ignorance prevails here as to the attitude of England.

WORK OF A COURAGEOUS MOB.

ST. PETERSBURG, July 16.—The Jews of Yalta, in the Crimea, refused to obey the decree to retire within the pale. For several days the citizens of the town, who are of the population to rise and expel them. Last week an anti-Jew mob took possession of the streets, broke into houses occupied by Jews and tried to drive the occupants from the town. The Jews fought back. Dozens were dragged into the streets and were beaten. Many were killed. The town of Yalta, where Jews were plundered and wrecked. Troops were called to the town to restore order. None of the rioters were killed and but few were injured.

CHANGED THE POSITION OF THE FLAGS.

HALIFAX, July 16.—The French warship Magon has arrived here. Hon. Ishore La Blanche's flagstaff flew the tricolor over the British ensign, but as soon as this came to the notice of the Dominion man-of-war Admiral Knowlton, K. C. B., promptly rowed ashore and ordered the enthusiastic Acadicians to reverse the position of the flags, and the British ensign was put on top.

CROPS IN NEB.—WILLOW COUNTY.

INDIANOLA, Neb., July 16.—[Special Telegram to THE BEER.]—A fine rain fell at this point tonight, which will be of great benefit to the corn crop, the extreme heat having dried the soil, causing some fields to curl. Fields that were well cultivated and not too thickly planted were not suffering and have made a wonderful growth. Spring wheat and oats are very light, and few fields are worth cutting. Eye and winter wheat will make a good crop, but the grain has, however, are about ready for the second cutting.

FOREIGN FINANCIAL REVIEW.

Every Department of the London Exchange Daily—Money Abundant.

LONDON, July 16.—Discount during the past week was quoted at 1 1/4 for three months and 1/2 for six months. Money was abundant. On the Stock exchange there was a tendency in every department. Realizing that the failures of the settlement just closed have thrown on the market an amount of stocks, which, while the general weakness lasts, it cannot absorb, dealers will not increase their commitments, preferring to seize every chance to unload. The most experienced members of the Stock exchange believe that the next settlement will see firms hampered that got over the last settlement by the skin of their teeth.

English railway securities closed with the week's fall ranging from 1/2 to 1 1/2 points. Brighton A declined 3/4 points. American railroad securities closed firm yesterday, but better New York quotations. The variations of the week include the following decreases: Louisville & Nashville, 4 points; Denver & Rio Grande, 1/2 point; Chicago & North Western, 3/4 points; Lake Shore and Union Pacific, 3 points each; Central Pacific, Mexican National, 1/2 point; Great Northern, 1/2 point; Washabach, 2 points; Missouri, Kansas & Texas and Norfolk & Western preferred, 1/2 points each; Ohio & Mississippi, 1/4 points each. Grand Trunk securities were heavily sold, first preference falling 1/2 points; second preference, 1/4 point; and ordinary, 1 point.

ARRESTED THE CASHIER.

Part Played by J. J. Bush in the Failure of the Empire, N. Y., Bank.

EMPIRE, N. Y., July 16.—Cashier J. J. Bush, of the Empire National bank, was arrested at his home here early this morning on a warrant issued by United States Commissioner John T. Davidson, upon complaint of ex-Congressman H. H. Rockwell, representing Jackson Richardson, president of the bank, and a number of other creditors. In his affidavit, upon which the warrant was issued, Mr. Rockwell alleges that when the last quarterly report of the bank was made, the cashier had pocketed $100,000, which Mr. Bush directed him to credit to the cashier's account. It is charged that these notes were made out by the cashier, and were signed by parties whose identity has never yet been established; that these notes were worthless and were thus credited to the cashier's account for the purpose of deceiving the stockholders.

Mr. Bush was arraigned before United States Commissioner Davidson, pledged $10,000 for the charges and bail for $10,000 was furnished.

AS AN EXPLANATION.

Why the Indian Mints Were Closed to the Coinage of Silver.

DENVER, July 16.—The Rocky Mountain News will publish tomorrow a long letter from Sir Moreton Frowen of London, one of the editors of the News and the other to Lord Lansdowne, viceroy of India, in which it appears, according to the statements of Lansdowne, that India suspended free coinage of silver at the time it did because the regular supply of the metal was so small that he had no doubt upon his mind that the United States congress would, as soon as it assembled, repeal the American prohibitory act. He found it necessary to be beforehand with the closing of its mints. This is an important history of the general financial controversy now convulsing the world.

HE WAS TIRED OF LIFE.

PHILADELPHIA, July 16.—John A. Lombard, 50 years old, manager of the Hero Fruit Jar company, which was involved in the failure of the Spring Garden National bank, and who was the defendant in a suit brought by the receiver of the wrecked institution, was found dead, with his throat cut, at his home last night, having evidently committed suicide. He was last seen alive in his room by a servant about 9 o'clock Saturday morning. He did not appear for dinner, but his absence attracted no attention until Mr. Lombard failed to take his morning place at the breakfast table. It was about 10 o'clock, a nephew, went to Mr. Lombard's room and found him dead in bed with his throat cut and a razor by his side.

CONFESSION OF A COWARD

George Williams, Alias Dodrill, Spends a Repentant Sabbath in Jail.

ANDY RYAN WAS KNIFED IN COLD BLOOD

There Was a Woman in the Case—The Assassin Laid in Wait for His Victim—Sequel of Jealousy and Drunken Frenzy.

George Williams, alias Dodrill, alias "Bones," the assassin of Andrew Ryan, has confessed his cowardly crime in the agony of remorse. Williams has almost as many names as he has wicked thoughts. It is the consensus of local opinion, however, that his name will be Dennis when his crime is recited before a jury of "twelve good men and true."

The murderer spent a day of bitter repentance in the city jail yesterday.

When he sobered up and thoroughly realized the enormity of the crime and the position in which he had placed himself by a few moments' work while in a drunken frenzy, he broke down and cried like a baby all day.

The body of his victim lay on a cooling board in Healey's undertaking establishment and was viewed by many friends and curious people. Many ugly looking words show the viciousness of Williams' attack and one slash shows that the blade of the knife passed through the lower portion of the heart. There are four gaping wounds in the left breast, two in the arm, one in the side of the neck and one under the shoulder blade. All were deep and reveal the fact that the murderer put an awful force in his blows as he repeatedly drew the sharp blade into the body of his defenseless victim.

WOMAN IN THE CASE.

The origin of the crime, as previously intimated, was a rivalry for the smiles of May Davis, a resident of the "district." Mike Ford, George Wyver and the woman were locked up on bonds of $1,000 each, but the woman is still in jail.

Yesterday about noon Williams sent Captain Cormack, Sergeant Ormsby and Chief Detective Haze and told them he wished to confess the crime. Captain Cormack told the prisoner not to say anything that would be used against him on trial, but the fellow said that there was no use denying the fact that he killed Ryan.

His feelings so overcame him that he could not proceed for several minutes and convulsive sobs shook his frame. By an effort he regained his composure and said that he and Ryan had had it in for each other on account of the Davis woman, whom both were "stuck on." They had been drinking and went into the Belle Brandon place at Eighth and Dodge streets. Beer was ordered and Williams presented a $5 bill in payment therefor. The change was furnished by
