

HEARTS WERE MADE TO BREAK

Mary Stengga Grieves Over a Domestic Quarrel and then Takes Morphine.

SAD SUICIDE OF A SENSITIVE WIFE

Ghostly Greeting of a Husband Who Returns from Work—A Married Woman Becomes Filled with Her Feelings and then with Morphine.

Another suicide of a married woman who brooded over domestic troubles occurred yesterday.

Mrs. Mary Stengga, residing at the corner of West street and Sherman avenue, died at 8 o'clock yesterday morning from the effects of a dose of morphine administered by her own hand with suicidal intent.

The alleged reason that prompted Mrs. Stengga to take the deadly dose was due to the fact that she saw her husband at a quarter of eight on Saturday morning. The deceased was said to be a high-strung, quick-tempered woman. She took the quarrel much to heart, saying to her daughter-in-law a little later that she was "going to take something and end it all."

There was a bottle of morphine in the house and she took a large quantity during the evening but it did not take immediate effect. The family concluded that the remark was only made in trifling anger. They sat up with her until nearly midnight and then went to bed. She was found in a comatose condition about 6:30 o'clock in the morning. Dr. Henry was summoned, but in spite of medical efforts the woman died about 8 o'clock.

Before she died she rallied to her senses and called Mrs. Martin Howard, her step-daughter-in-law, to her side and said: "I am sorry to leave you and Martin, but this will end my troubles." Her son, Martin Howard, is in Denver, and had been notified.

The woman has four children and has been married about fifteen years to her present husband.

Greeted with a Dying Wife.

Derrick Stengga, husband of the deceased, works at night in the Omaha round house and he arrived at home just before the death of his wife. He feels very badly about the affair and said that the quarrel was over a trivial family affair and did not amount to much. He was shocked to think his wife took such a serious view of the matter. The coroner viewed the remains in the afternoon and decided that an inquest would be unnecessary.

Mrs. Howard, who resides with the Stengga family, said: "Along in the evening I noticed that mother acted strangely and watched her. I was in the front room with her, when she went out into the kitchen. I was afraid that something was going wrong and went back where she was. She had a glass and spoon and had taken a drink of water. I could find nothing to indicate that she had taken poison and she asked me to bring her a glass of ice water."

"Later on she seemed to get drowsy and I woke her up several times. She scolded me, saying that I was doing nothing wrong and after while she went to bed. We found her this morning in an unconscious condition and the bottle of morphine near her. I think she took the poison early in the evening."

The funeral will occur Tuesday and will be held at the residence of the deceased.

HE TALKED SMOOTH.

B. D. Davis Ensnares a Susceptible Female with Honeyed Words.

B. D. Davis is in jail on complaint of Annie Kurtena, who charges him with securing $86 of her good money under false pretenses.

The woman alleges that Davis came to her and said he had fallen heir to $6,000 in the old country and that he owned a farm near Fremont.

He wished to borrow money to aid him in establishing his right to the legacy. She now says he has no farm or legacy and was giving her the razzle-dazzle to get the money.

Patterson Will Recover. The condition of Alfred Patterson, the colored man who was shot by Lou Goldsmith Friday night, greatly improved yesterday. The hospital authorities are confident that he will recover. Everything is in his favor at present. The ball entered the left side just under the ribs and lodged in the back near the kidneys.

The bullet has been extracted and Patterson partakes of substantial nourishment. The excitement of the incident, the colored people over Goldsmith's release has subsided and no more trouble is looked for. The preliminary hearing is set for Wednesday morning.

Results of a Supper. Nels Matteson was arrested early yesterday morning for going home drunk and playfully striking and beating his wife in such a manner that neighbors had to interfere.

He will hold a short session with Judge Hensha this morning and try to explain his pugilistic practices.

SHERIDAN TROUT STREAMS.

Omaha People Who Have Visited the New Northward.

SHERIDAN, Wyo., July 16.—[Special to THE BEE.]—Sheridan has for the past two weeks been turned into a summer resort, and the canons in the Big Horn mountains have been dotted with fishing parties, which have all been loud in their praise of this beautiful country. Among the prominent persons who have had the pleasure of visiting the capped peaks and casting a line in some of the many trout streams that abound were: Senator Allison of Iowa, General Brooks and party of Omaha and C. E. Perkins, president of the Chicago, Burlington and Quincy.

Last week the railroad contractor, Harry State Auditor C. W. Burdick, accompanied by Mrs. Barber, Mrs. Burdick and Miss Kent of Cheyenne, and a party from Denver; George Pollard, A. J. Reuck and M. A. Upton of Omaha, visited the ranch of Hon. George C. Heck and Big Goose canon. The party succeeded in taking 100 members of the fluky tribe. Mr. Pollard secured one which weighed three pounds. W. H. Kilpatrick, the railroad contractor, Ralph Weston of Newcastle, Miss Katie Weston and Mr. Bert Weston of Beatrice, A. J. Reuck and J. L. Larimer made up a party and in one day caught forty-two and a half pounds.

This week General Manager G. W. Holdrege came up with a party including: Hon. Charles F. Manderson and wife, Mr. and Mrs. J. N. H. Patrick, W. E. Annin and J. E. Patrick of Omaha; Miss Fries of Philadelphia; Miss Black of Chicago and Lieutenant Hutchison of Fort Robinson. The party went to George T. Beck's ranch at Beckton and enjoyed a day's sport, returning with a fine lot of the spotted beauties.

Colonel Matt Patrick and family are at the P-K ranch of Patrick Bros. on Soldier creek.

Union Switchmen Enter Vigorous Protest Against the Employment of Tungate.

PLAIN TALK FROM ORGANIZED LABOR

Trouble Threatened at the Union Stock Yards—May Possibly Be Averted—If Tungate is Employed, Union Men Will Walk Out.

Trouble between the Union Stock Yards company and the Switchmen's Mutual Aid Benefit association is threatened. The difficulty arises over the contemplated employment of Charles B. Tungate as night yardmaster of the Union Stock Yards railway company.

Mr. Tungate is obnoxious to the union switchmen because of his nonunion tendencies and the part he played in the memorable strike for supremacy between the Burlington and the Brotherhood of Engineers and firemen in 1887. The union switchmen are protesting most strenuously against the installation of Tungate as night yardmaster, and a walk out is threatened in case he is placed over them.

James B. Bond, past master of the switchmen's union, explains the difficulty from the switchmen's standpoint, as follows: "The union switchmen will not submit to being ruled over by a man of Tungate's stripe. He has made himself obnoxious to union men everywhere, and is known as a rank 'scab' engineer and switchman and is forever making war on unionism. When placed in a position of power he is not slow in discriminating and it would take him but a short time to succeed in displacing the old men and installing in their places his pet scabs. It is unfair to ask us to work under him and it is hoped that the management of the stock yards will realize the fact. His stepping into authority will affect the night crews, numbering a dozen union men, many of whom have been with the company four or five years, and are making good money endeavoring to pay for their little homes."

"There are any number of competent men to be had, whose hearts are in the right place and are not forever aiming at organized labor. We have no particular person we desire to see secure the place, excepting that we will always be found protesting against the employment of such a man as Tungate in so responsible a position. He was to have gone to work last Friday, but our protest delayed it, and we understand that he will assume the position of the scab yardmaster of the same road in Omaha."

Threatened to Walk Out.

"We will simply walk out if he goes to work tonight, as is understood he will and we will have the support of the railway labor organizations. The union crews on all the roads excepting the Burlington will refuse to handle cars from the stock yards and tie up things so that the company will realize that we are not taking such a man as Tungate in so responsible a position. He was to have gone to work last Friday, but our protest delayed it, and we understand that he will assume the position of the scab yardmaster of the same road in Omaha."

South Omaha "Sand."

In a private letter to a friend in this city Don Rowland of Billings, Mont., tells how his stage was held up and robbed a short time ago in the desert in South Omaha for a number of years, and from the report it is shown that Don has not lost any of his old time grit. After the robbers had secured the booty Don gave them a chase, and after a hot fight succeeded in capturing one of the highwaymen.

CRIME IN HIGH PLACES!

It is not strange that some people do wrong through ignorance, others from a failure to investigate as to the right or wrong of a matter. But it is strange, that individuals and firms, who are fully aware of the rights of others, will persist in perpetrating frauds upon them.

High-toned, wealthy manufacturing firms will offer and sell to retail merchants, articles which they know to be infringements on the rights of proprietors, and imitations of well known goods. We want to sound a note of warning to the retailers to beware of such imitations and simulations of "CARTER'S LITTLE LIVER PILLS." When they are offered to you, refuse them; you do not want to do wrong, and you don't want to lay yourself liable to a lawsuit. Ben Franklin said "Honesty is the best policy"; it is just as true that "Honesty is the best principle."
