BRADSTREET'S REVIEW OF TRADE.

Increased Currency and Gold Imports Give a More Hopeful Aspect to the Situation. New York, Aug. 4.—Bradstreet's weekly review of the state of trade will tomorrow say: While special telegrams from many points south and west report a more hopeful feeling in financial and commercial circles, due to the increased issue of currency...

currency from this center tomorrow. Bills still command a slight premium. The market for sterling exchange was barely steady on restricted business.

CLEARING HOUSE STATEMENTS.

But Few Cities Show a Gain Over Their Clearings of Last Year. New York, Aug. 4.—The following table, compiled by Bradstreet's, gives the clearing house returns for the week ending August 3, 1893, and the percentage of increase or decrease as compared with the corresponding week last year:

Table with columns: CITIES, CLEARINGS, PERCENTAGE. Lists cities like New York, Boston, Philadelphia, etc., with their respective clearing amounts and percentage changes.

SENATOR ALLISON'S VIEWS.

He Favors the Repeal of a Portion of the Sherman Law. Des Moines, Aug. 4.—[Special Telegram to The Bear.]—Senator Allison, who will leave for Washington tomorrow, was interviewed tonight. He expressed the hope that congress would repeal so much of the Sherman act as requires the monthly purchase of silver bullion and adjourn. He would not, however, undertake to predict what would be the result of the repeal of the act...

FINANCIAL MARKETS.

Money market steady. The stock market opened lower. The market was affected by easier cables. Stocks soon became dull, owing to a lack of offerings, and the market began to improve steadily.

TALKING IT OVER.

Blair and Other Congressmen Give Their Views on the Silver Question. WASHINGTON, Aug. 4.—As soon after congress meets as it becomes practicable, Mr. Blair, the father of the silver forces in the house, will introduce a bill embodying the views of the silver men. It will provide for the repeal of the Sherman purchasing act and substitute therefor the free coinage of silver at the present ratio of 16 to 1.

ARBITRARY AND UNLAWFUL.

The attitude of the treasury department in refusing to buy silver was arbitrary and unlawful, Blair said. He said that there was no ground for the talk that the secretary could be impeached. The law gave him the discretion and he was exercising it, and Blair said that the mistake had been made as he looked it, which was full of mistakes. He warned friends of silver on this very point when it came up for consideration in the house.

REPRESENTATIVE HENDERSON OF NORTH CAROLINA HAS A PLAN FOR THE REJUGENDMENT OF THE SILVER QUESTION.

He thinks that the Sherman act will be repealed. He has a plan for the rejuggendment of the silver question that he holds out to be satisfactory to the persons who wish to see the democratic platform of 1892 carried into effect without creating divisions in the party.

HE THINKS THAT THE SHERMAN ACT WILL BE REPEALED.

BLOOMINGTON, Ill., Aug. 4.—Vice President Stevenson left this morning for Washington, to be present at the special session of congress on Monday. To an Associated press correspondent tonight he said: "From a study of the Sherman law, I am inclined to believe that the Sherman act of 1890 will be repealed, but as to any substitute I am not prepared to say."

LETTER FROM AMBASSADOR BAYARD.

He Hopes Congress Will Act Decisively on the Silver Question. WASHINGTON, Del., Aug. 4.—The following is printed here in a private letter just received. Ambassador Bayard says: "I am looking somewhat anxiously to the meeting of congress, and hope to have the silver question solved to solve to maintain the present value. So far from depreciating the intrinsic value of silver, it will have the effect of increasing and accumulating of it, and will help the market price for this commodity as it would help any other commodity."

CLAIMS OF THE POPULISTS.

Address Issued by Their National Executive Committee. CHICAGO, Aug. 4.—The executive committee of the populist party, which has been in session here since the adjournment of the silver convention, tonight issued an address to the people of the United States. It says in part: "The overwhelming spirit of this convention indicates that the whole nation is alive to the dangers which threaten us. The silver convention has shown that only a gold standard and a gold basis, but unanimously committed itself to a platform that would give the people the silver standard and a gold basis."

ROBBERS WITH REVOLVERS.

Daring Attempt to Rob and Murder A. W. Bowman Under an Electric Light. SHOT AT BY TWO DESPERATE THUGS. In the Presence of Fifty People on Neighboring Porches and Lanes—After a Hot Chase One of the Toughs is Captured.

One of the boldest attempts at highway robbery and murder that ever took place in this city occurred at Eighteenth and Dodge streets about 9:30 o'clock last night under an electric light and in the presence of fifty people. A. W. Bowman, the inventor of the electric light, was shot at by two desperadoes who were pursuing him from a nearby street. Bowman was captured by a crowd of onlookers and taken to the police station.

man and his pluck and quick action probably saved him from death and landed one of the robbers in jail.

NOT THEIR FIRST ATTEMPT.

Captain Corrick thinks these are the same men who attempted to rob John Thorne about midnight on Thursday and shot at him. Their operations were about the same, and they answer the description of the desperadoes described by Thorne. They are evidently desperate characters and their attempt to rob Mr. Bowman was the first of a series of similar attempts in the vicinity of Eighteenth and Dodge streets.

HELMAN COHEN ARRESTED.

Attempt to Sell a Disreputable Sheet on the Streets Suppressed. Helman Cohen was arrested last night by Officer Dunahoe on the charge of selling a disreputable sheet, known as the Sunday Sun, on the streets. This is the first appearance of this so-called newspaper on the streets of Omaha since it was most effectively suppressed by the passage of an ordinance several months ago prohibiting its sale.

KNOCKED SPEECHLESS.

Mystery of an Unknown Man Found on a Depot Platform. An unknown man was found lying on the platform of the North-western depot last night in a helpless and speechless condition. The police ambulance conveyed him to the Presbyterian hospital and Dr. Somers was summoned.

CHASED THE HIGHWAYMAN.

By the time Mr. Bowman had recovered from his surprise and the chase after the fleeing hold-ups and called for others to help him capture them. In a short time 150 men were following the thugs. Several of the ladies screamed and the desperadoes started down Dodge street at a rapid speed.

CAUGHT ONE OF THEM.

Knowing the men were armed and desperate the citizens had some hesitancy in rushing in on them. Sergeant Whalen, who happened to be in that vicinity, was soon on the scene and captured one of the robbers. The man was taken to the police station and the other robbers were still at large.

ROBBERS IN A RIT.

It was rumored late last night that a large number of tramps who had congregated in the neighborhood of the depot had engaged in a riot and a number of the tolligators had been severely injured.

CUT WITH A RAZOR.

Will Hicks Has a Row With Jim Welch and Carves Him. Will Hicks got into an argument with Jim Welch in a saloon at the corner of Ninth and Dodge streets last night. The argument punctuated their sentences with numerous blows. Hicks was getting the worst of the fight when he drew a razor and cut Jim in the neck.

Dudley Wiginton was arrested by Officer Vaughn yesterday afternoon on a warrant charging him with the larceny of some jewelry.

ENDED IN A MURDER.

Tragic Conclusion of a Negro Celebration in Indian Territory. COFFEYVILLE, Kan., Aug. 4.—The celebration by negroes of Independence day, which took place at Goose Neck Bend, I. T., today, resulted in starting a race between the whites and blacks. Great crowds of negroes were present at the celebration and many white people attended as spectators. Among the latter was James Singleton, with whom John Brown had a long-standing quarrel. When the two men today met the quarrel was renewed and was struck by a bullet from the hand of Singleton. Singleton's son, a young man 24 years of age, went to his father's rescue and shot and killed him. The negroes at once declared a state of insurrection against the whites and were about to begin hostilities when Deputy Sheriff James M. Brown stepped in to keep the peace. The posse, in the meantime, kept the factions apart and hostilities were frustrated.
