

CONDITION OF OMAHA TRADE

Representative Business Men Express Opinions as to the Revival of Trade.

COLLECTIONS DO NOT SHOW MUCH CHANGE

Local Jobbers Appear to Feel that the Turning Point Has Been Reached and that an Upward Movement Must Follow.

The situation as regards business and financial matters is certainly improved at Omaha. This is not saying that there has been any great change or that business is active or money easy...

It is the boast of Omaha that there is no city in the country that can show so large a percentage of its liabilities in actual cash as was shown by the recent report...

A good many business men feel that it is time for the banks to relax their rigid policy in the matter of loans and thus help along the revival of trade.

The primary influence on trade is the crop outlook which is very encouraging in Nebraska at the present time, and as the season is so far advanced there is very little danger of another crop failure...

The bankers of the city very generally agree that the bottom has been reached with the retail trade...

It may be of interest to know the individual views of representative business men in the different lines of business in the city.

W. A. Gibson, President of the Commercial Club, says that the outlook for crops are very favorable, but no means have yet been devised to move them, and trade must remain in a more or less paralyzed condition until such a plan is adopted...

Ed. Allen of Allen Bros., Grocery Jobbers—The wholesale grocery business so far has been larger than any previous year...

W. V. Morse of the Morse-Coe Shoe Company—The territory tributary to this city is fortunately an agricultural country and the crops are fair...

W. E. Deane, Commissioner Merchants—August is usually a dull month in this line, but the present conditions are such that collections have not suffered as much as many other lines of business from the dullness...

Shorts Were Alarmed at the Showing and There Was More Doing Than of Late—Stocks and Bonds.

Chicago, Aug. 19.—Enormous export clearances of wheat and an improved New York market statement caused an advance of 1 1/2c in September wheat today, 3/4c of which gain was still adhering to the market at the close. Corn, oats and provisions were dull, the latter extremely so, and price changes were insignificant.

OTHERWISE REFLECTED BY THE WEEK'S SHRINKAGE of the government's reserves. Nevertheless, however obtained the gold and silver holdings are in the banks and it is not unreasonable to suppose, since the gold imports and the gold reserves in the banks have been larger during the last few days, that today's gold reserves in the banks are greater than the statement shows.
