

SUMMER DANCES IN SWELLDOM

Events of the Past Week Which Find a Place on the Social Page.

GATHERINGS WHERE GAY BIRDS WERE FOUND

Miss Webster's Novel Luncheon—Progressive Tea Followed Dancing—Marriages of the Past Few Days—Movements and Whereabouts.

So far this summer the Omaha girl has faithfully followed the fashion of her brother. She wears the "hat and four-in-hand with eye grass, and it should be reported to her everlasting credit that she is learning to tie the latter with some skill.

Her brother has even matters by wearing her broad-brimmed sailor hat, appearing in the most brilliantly-colored silks. The gentleman girl will be glad to know that the craze for masculine attire will continue into the fall.

To be in the swim in New York requires from $25,000 to $100,000 a year. Among the "400" and people adjacent to that charmed circle the struggles to maintain a position against the inroads of the "copper-bottom" are extremely acute. If they were but known, the maw of the problem which supplies the necessities is always open and it sometimes swallows reputations as well as fortunes.

A Union League club man, who is a bachelor with a large income, a free liver and a wide circulator, recently unbuttoned himself with a few remarks.

"New York society in these days sadly needs ready money. When the tradesman begins to shut down, the party who remember a year or so ago a friend of mine called upon a family acquaintance on Fifth avenue. He was invited informally to dine. He accepted, and the party was most unfortunate. He could have done. The family were compelled to send out for dinner, and I believe it took all the ready money in the house. Their butcher and grocer had simply shut down on them, and they have since gone into involuntary reformation, and her journey subsequently discovered that the gems had been replaced by paste stones. A detective was placed on the case, but the pawnbroker learned who his customers were, and threatened exposure if arrested. The family did not prosecute."

Novel and Interesting.

A very novel luncheon was given Friday afternoon by Miss Flora Webster in honor of her guest, Miss Laughton of Washington, which also was unique in its setting. It has been pleasantly talked about ever since. A pretty souvenir folder was handed to the guests, to which was attached by the hostess a number of questions. The folder was for use in answering the questions which were to be found printed inside, with the assurance that the answers were "to be found on a penny." The questions were as follows: Fruits, an animal, part of a bill, a place of worship, a scholar, flowers, a president, a name, a piece of armor, an aid to investigation, an odor, part of a bird, ten places using grain, characteristic, representing something not worn, in America, something used by both priest and pugilist, something one likes to receive from friends, a weapon, a country, an exclamation, decoration.

Participating in this decidedly new diversion to Omaha swelldom, in addition to parading a number of dainties, were: Miss Laughton, Miss Adams, Miss Palmer, Miss Raymond, Miss Barker, Miss Helen Millard, Miss Dandy, Miss Squires, Miss May Morse, Miss W. C. Johnson, Miss Genevieve Yates, Miss Taylor, Miss Allen.

Charming Even Party.

A farewell lawn party was given to Mr. Bert Wilcox at his home, 2104 Cass, Thursday night.

The lawn was lighted by Chinese lanterns and presented a picture pretty, indeed. Mr. Wilcox is departing on his high compliment from his young friends, and as he soon leaves for new fields, he will, no doubt, pleasantly remember his last evening with the boys and girls of the city. The arrangements were indulged and dancing participated in till a late hour.

About fifty couples were present, including: Miss Ruth Lehmer, Marie Lehmer, Minnie Curry, Grace Martz, Edna Brown, Madeline Chapman, Margaret Lehmer, Gertrude Smith, Messrs. Clark, Arthur Spuler, Brower McCune, Dwight Reed, Herb Robinson, Tom Barstow, Frank Adams, Albert Benson, Archie Tompkins, Charles W. Hill, Mr. Marty.

Dance After Tea.

Miss May Sargent and Mr. Winthrop Sargent gave a pretty tea Thursday evening at 6 at their home, Twenty-third and Webster streets. There were six tables, the gentlemen having the pleasure of progressing with their courtesies. The tables were exquisitely decorated and the younger society had a delightful opportunity to meet one another "After the Ball."

For Visiting Friends.

Friday evening Miss Lydia Rheom and Miss Pratt gave a very dainty 6 o'clock dinner at the home of Mr. and Mrs. L. M. Rheom, 2510 Poppleton avenue, in honor of Miss Rachael Hall of Kansas City and Miss Margaret Stevens of Des Moines.

The table was decorated with ferns and flowers in great abundance. After dinner music and dancing were indulged in, also charades and ghost stories. The honored guests were each presented with a delicate card and sinner and a box of choice candies.

The next evening Miss Margaret Cook, Birdie Van Kuren, Amy Barker, Annie Hall, Aida Mills, Margaret McKell, Grace Allen, Billy Beck, Gertrude Smith, Messrs. Clark, Coit, Wilber Christian, Tom Barstow, Fred Schneider, Will Whitehorn, Arthur Cooley, Roland Smith.

After tea the guests danced for several hours, the house and lawn being exquisitely decorated.

Pleasant Surprise Party.

Mrs. Jacob Schamel, residing at Twenty-fifth and Pierce street, was invited to a surprise party last Monday evening by her numerous friends.

Being a member of several organizations many of her acquaintances in the ranks of organized wage-workers united on a surprise party for their esteemed fellow worker.

The evening was spent in listening to music, singing and playing of refreshments. Those present were: Mesdames Musser, Anspacher, Fitch, Scholtz, Hart, Manning, Fred, Schamel, Wilber, Griffey, McGuire, House, Yorton, Sutter, Gaston, Miss Stella Yorton, Dana Lovel, Sutter, Carver, Fleming, Leonard, St. Clair, Griffith, Bennett, Cole and Fitch.

Mr. and Mrs. Isenhardt Entertained.

A company of young people enjoyed a most delightful evening at the home of Mr. and Mrs. Isenhardt, 912 South Thirty-first street, last Friday.

Among those present were: Misses May Wilson, Anna Walker, Jennie White, Sabra Wilson, Edna Moore, Messrs. M. A. Pillsbury, C. Zander, F. Whitson, D. C. Doots, A. Rawson, S. P. Linton.

Rarely it happens that young people just married and located in their new home entertain a party of friends. It was a happy occasion, with those who brought with them baskets laden with the delicacies of the season.

ECHOES OF THE AXE FROM

Odd Fellows Day at the World's Fair is Attracting Local Attention.

ANTICIPATION OF AN IMMENSE CROWD

Plenies Still in Popular Favor with Omaha Fraternities—Details of the Week Among the Secular and Fraternal Organizations.

Odd Fellows Day at the World's fair is Monday, September 25, and a grand demonstration on that day is to be made. The members of the order in all parts of the country are making preparations to be there, and one of the largest gatherings of a fraternal order ever held in the world is being arranged. A grand parade and demonstration will be given that will be magnificent. The members of the uniform rank will be there in force, and in their handsome uniforms and showy helmets with waving plumes, their swords glinting in the bright sun, they will march in thousands and the appearance as the line of thousands moves by.

Nebraska Odd Fellows expect to send a big delegation, and it is hoped to fill several special trains. A committee has been named by the head officers in this state, and is making efforts to ascertain the probable number who will appear from the various towns. The most encouraging reports are being made for special cars by several lodges. Omaha is to be the starting point, and the date set is Wednesday, September 20. The delegations from the different points in the state will assemble in this city and join in one grand body and proceed to Omaha. The only preliminary will be completed in a short time and the program announced.

Monday of next week a grand reunion and banquet will be given at the World's fair. The South Sioux City lodge is making the arrangements and is the promoter of the enterprise. Its officers have invited a number of the leading fraternal organizations to be in the nature of a neighborhood reunion of Odd Fellows. Grand Master A. H. Weir of the local lodge (Grand Lodge No. 1) of this state will be present and deliver addresses, as will Grand Master Beulan of Iowa.
