

THE DAILY BEE

COUNCIL BLUFFS.

NO. 12 PEARL STREET

Delivered by carrier to any part of the city.

H. W. TILTON - Manager.

TELEPHONES: Business Office..... No. 43 Night Editor..... No. 23

MINOR MENTION.

N. Y. Plumbing Co.

Boston Store, dry goods.

The Mayne Real Estate Co., 621 Broadway Lewis Williams and Kittie M. Burns, both of Omaha, were married by Justice Fox yesterday.Miss Marie Grenelle entertained a number of her friends Monday evening at her home on Park avenue.Bertha Marguerite, infant daughter of Mr. and Mrs. P. J. Hansen, died Monday night, aged 1 year and 8 months.The $15,000 damage suit of Bertha Dunmer against N. M. was dismissed at the plaintiff's cost in the district court yesterday.A boy named Holder was knocked down by a motor yesterday morning at the corner of Broadway and Sixth street, but was not severely injured.The four Omaha young men who created a disturbance on the streets Sunday night while driving in a single-seated phaeton were fined $5 and costs each in police court yesterday morning.W. E. Kynett was tried by Justice Field yesterday on the charge of assault and battling and fined $5 and costs. He took a change of venue and was fined $5 and costs of fifty bushels of potatoes, which resulted from the same deal. The latter case will be tried by Justice Fox next Friday.Moses Gommel got into a difficulty at Jeanette's, a saloon on the corner of First and Locust Streets, and his claim that Eugene and Randolph Aldinger, who keep the saloon, gave him several hard smashes in the face, using a knife as well as their fists. He swore out an information in Justice Field's court, and the two men gave statements yesterday for their appearances next Friday for a trial.Charles Metz, a teamster, came near losing a large portion of his nose yesterday.
He was unloading some heavy boxes at the Burlington depot when one of them struck him in the most prominent part of his face.One of the boxes had been cut open and brought into use as the nearest approach to a piece of court plaster and with its aid the blood was kept from flowing until a surgeon could be found to place together the parts of his fractured physiognomy.A man named Smith, by name as W. F.
Smith found himself in a mood for practical joking yesterday, and sought to give vent to his hilarity by going about throwing cow-dung on the women he ran across. Three four females who were looking around for a current or something or equally sacrificial, and down to the city building this morning for the purpose of adding their identification if the charge on the books at the city jail is assault with intent to do great bodily injury.James C. Hansen's residence at the corner of Nineteenth street and Avenue B was entered yesterday afternoon by the members of the family exercising Mr.
Hansen were at the circus and he was at work. When he reached home he found the house had been thoroughly ransacked, but when anything had been stolen could not be ascertained until a closer search had been made. There was quite an amount of money in the house, which is supposed to have been taken.

The New Twin City Dry Works.

Although engaged in erecting a new building, getting new machinery, etc., customers will find no delay in getting their work promptly done and in the most satisfactory manner. All kinds of dyeing and cleaning. Omaha office 1521 Farnam street, Office and works 20th and Avenue A, Council Bluffs, on electric motor line. G. A. Schoolsack

Domestic soap is the best.

Greenshields, Nicholson & Co., real estate and rentals, 600 Broadway, Tel. 151.

PERSONAL PARAGRAPHS.

Fred DeGroat has gone to the World's fair.Mr. and Mrs. W. A. Russell have moved to Chicago.V. Jennings and wife are home from a week's trip to the West.J. W. Bell of the Northwestern and wife left last evening for a visit to Chicago.Miss Neole M. Ogden is home from a week's visit with relatives in Woodbine.Mrs. F. E. Shepherd leaves today for a two weeks' visit in New York, Holt County.A. W. Balkman, R. J. Clancy and J. J.
Shaw attending the state democratic convention at Des Moines.Miss May Bryant, formerly of this city, now of Chicago, is the guest of her aunt, Mrs. Watson, on Washington avenue.I. N. Flckinger left last evening for a business trip to Indianapolis. He will stop at Chicago for a week or so on his return.J. M. Nairn and H. H. Clark of Aspen, Colo., were on the circus circuit, guests of the Ganymede Wheel Club. They are on their way to Chicago, Detroit and other eastern cities. They have made the entire distance from Denver to Council Bluffs during the last two weeks, and expect to return to the West this coming evening.John Ables, the eccentric Spanish philosopher, started yesterday for Chicago to attend the world's physical congress, to which he was chosen as state delegate on the recommendation of Congressman Bowman. Some of his rationalistic theories may get a hearing, but it will be hard to card With all his oddities he is a pretty hard hitter in debate.

Notice to Picnic Parties.

Change in time, commencing Monday, Aug. 7. Trains for Manawa leave at the following hours: Morning trains leave Broadway at 10 a.m.; Evening trains at 1, 2, 3, 4 and 5 and every 30 minutes thereafter until 12 p.m.Cinders for Sale—200 loads nice, clean cinders for walks and driveways. Apply to E. D. Burke, Taylors' grocery.

Coal cheap for cash.

Carbon Coal Co., 34 Pearl street, Grand hotel bldg.

Ask your grocer for Domestic soap.

The Circus.

Of course it drew a crowd. Forepaugh always does; but those who thought that hard times would be noticeable yesterday found themselves sadly in error. They paid their money and went in.The new delivery team belonging to H. Walton became frightened yesterday forenoon while crossing one of the railroad tracks on South Seventh street, and ran wildly up town. Two boys were driving, but they were unable to get the horses under control.Cook your meals this summer on a gas range. At cost at the Gas company.Williamson & Co., 106 Main street, largest and best bicycle stock in city.

Domestic soap is the best.

NEWS OF COUNCIL BLUFFS

Circus Shark Falls Into the Hands of the Guardians of the Peace.

"SHORT CHANGE" WAS HIS SPECIALTY

A Minister Who Laid Up Treasures on Earth and Bid Them in His Cellar Finds Out that Thieves Break In and Steal.Sam Hutchinson occupied a position as "advance ticket seller" for Forepaugh's circus until yesterday, but the circus has gone off and left him to occupy a cold cell in the Council Bluffs city jail while another man, less full of guile will be put in to take his place. He was busily engaged yesterday in selling tickets outside of the grounds, and Officer Murphy was tracking him for the purpose of seeing whether the rumors that were floating about were correct. Upon selling a ticket to a country man he received a $10 bill and gave the farmer his change in silver.
The farmer called him down when he had time to count the money, telling him the change was short. Hutchinson admitted the shortage and passing on $10 started to pass on. Again the farmer kicked, and at this Murphy nabbed the fellow.
He was still short $4.50, according to the farmer's statement. When searched at the jail he had $42 in his pocket.The four Omaha young men who created a disturbance on the streets Sunday night
while driving in a single-seated phaeton
were fined $5 and costs each in police court
yesterday morning.W. E. Kynett was tried by Justice Field
yesterday on the charge of assault and battling and fined $5 and costs. He took a
change of venue and was fined $5 and costs
of fifty bushels of potatoes, which resulted
from the same deal. The latter case will be tried by Justice Fox next Friday.Charles Metz, a teamster, came near losing a large portion of his nose yesterday.
He was unloading some heavy boxes at the
Burlington depot when one of them struck
him in the most prominent part of his face.One of the boxes had been cut open and
brought into use as the nearest approach to a
piece of court plaster and with its aid the
blood was kept from flowing until a surgeon
could be found to place together the parts of his fractured physiognomy.Moses Gommel got into a difficulty at Jeanette's, a saloon on the corner of First
and Locust Streets, and his claim
that Eugene and Randolph Aldinger, who
keep the saloon, gave him several hard
smashes in the face, using a knife as well as their fists. He swore out an information in Justice Field's court, and his statement will be tried by Justice Fox next Friday.A man named Holder was knocked down
by a motor yesterday morning at the corner
of Broadway and Sixth street, but was not
severely injured.The four Omaha young men who created
a disturbance on the streets Sunday night
while driving in a single-seated phaeton
were fined $5 and costs each in police court
yesterday morning.W. E. Kynett was tried by Justice Field
yesterday on the charge of assault and battling and fined $5 and costs. He took a
change of venue and was fined $5 and costs
of fifty bushels of potatoes, which resulted
from the same deal. The latter case will be
tried by Justice Fox next Friday.Charles Metz, a teamster, came near losing a large portion of his nose yesterday.
He was unloading some heavy boxes at the
Burlington depot when one of them struck
him in the most prominent part of his face.One of the boxes had been cut open and
brought into use as the nearest approach to a
piece of court plaster and with its aid the
blood was kept from flowing until a surgeon
could be found to place together the parts of
his fractured physiognomy.Moses Gommel got into a difficulty at Jeanette's, a saloon on the corner of First
and Locust Streets, and his claim
that Eugene and Randolph Aldinger, who
keep the saloon, gave him several hard
smashes in the face, using a knife as well as their fists. He swore out an information in
Justice Field's court, and his statement will be
tried by Justice Fox next Friday.A man named Holder was knocked down
by a motor yesterday morning at the corner
of Broadway and Sixth street, but was not
severely injured.The four Omaha young men who created
a disturbance on the streets Sunday night
while driving in a single-seated phaeton
were fined $5 and costs each in police court
yesterday morning.W. E. Kynett was tried by Justice Field
yesterday on the charge of assault and battling and fined $5 and costs. He took a
change of venue and was fined $5 and costs
of fifty bushels of potatoes, which resulted
from the same deal. The latter case will be
tried by Justice Fox next Friday.Charles Metz, a teamster, came near losing a large portion of his nose yesterday.
He was unloading some heavy boxes at the
Burlington depot when one of them struck
him in the most prominent part of his face.One of the boxes had been cut open and
brought into use as the nearest approach to a piece of court plaster and with its aid the
blood was kept from flowing until a surgeon
could be found to place together the parts of
his fractured physiognomy.Moses Gommel got into a difficulty at Jeanette's, a saloon on the corner of First
and Locust Streets, and his claim
that Eugene and Randolph Aldinger, who
keep the saloon, gave him several hard
smashes in the face, using a knife as well as their fists. He swore out an information in
Justice Field's court, and his statement will be
tried by Justice Fox next Friday.A man named Holder was knocked down
by a motor yesterday morning at the corner
of Broadway and Sixth street, but was not
severely injured.The four Omaha young men who created
a disturbance on the streets Sunday night
while driving in a single-seated phaeton
were fined $5 and costs each in police court
yesterday morning.W. E. Kynett was tried by Justice Field
yesterday on the charge of assault and battling and fined $5 and costs. He took a
change of venue and was fined $5 and costs
of fifty bushels of potatoes, which resulted
from the same deal. The latter case will be
tried by Justice Fox next Friday.Charles Metz, a teamster, came near losing a large portion of his nose yesterday.
He was unloading some heavy boxes at the
Burlington depot when one of them struck
him in the most prominent part of his face.One of the boxes had been cut open and
brought into use as the nearest approach to a
piece of court plaster and with its aid the
blood was kept from flowing until a surgeon
could be found to place together the parts of
his fractured physiognomy.Moses Gommel got into a difficulty at Jeanette's, a saloon on the corner of First
and Locust Streets, and his claim
that Eugene and Randolph Aldinger, who
keep the saloon, gave him several hard
smashes in the face, using a knife as well as their fists. He swore out an information in
Justice Field's court, and his statement will be
tried by Justice Fox next Friday.A man named Holder was knocked down
by a motor yesterday morning at the corner
of Broadway and Sixth street, but was not
severely injured.The four Omaha young men who created
a disturbance on the streets Sunday night
while driving in a single-seated phaeton
were fined $5 and costs each in police court
yesterday morning.W. E. Kynett was tried by Justice Field
yesterday on the charge of assault and battling and fined $5 and costs. He took a
change of venue and was fined $5 and costs
of fifty bushels of potatoes, which resulted
from the same deal. The latter case will be
tried by Justice Fox next Friday.Charles Metz, a teamster, came near losing a large portion of his nose yesterday.
He was unloading some heavy boxes at the
Burlington depot when one of them struck
him in the most prominent part of his face.One of the boxes had been cut open and
brought into use as the nearest approach to a
piece of court plaster and with its aid the
blood was kept from flowing until a surgeon
could be found to place together the parts of
his fractured physiognomy.Moses Gommel got into a difficulty at Jeanette's, a saloon on the corner of First
and Locust Streets, and his claim
that Eugene and Randolph Aldinger, who
keep the saloon, gave him several hard
smashes in the face, using a knife as well as their fists. He swore out an information in
Justice Field's court, and his statement will be
tried by Justice Fox next Friday.A man named Holder was knocked down
by a motor yesterday morning at the corner
of Broadway and Sixth street, but was not
severely injured.The four Omaha young men who created
a disturbance on the streets Sunday night
while driving in a single-seated phaeton
were fined $5 and costs each in police court
yesterday morning.W. E. Kynett was tried by Justice Field
yesterday on the charge of assault and battling and fined $5 and costs. He took a
change of venue and was fined $5 and costs
of fifty bushels of potatoes, which resulted
from the same deal. The latter case will be
tried by Justice Fox next Friday.Charles Metz, a teamster, came near losing a large portion of his nose yesterday.
He was unloading some heavy boxes at the
Burlington depot when one of them struck
him in the most prominent part of his face.One of the boxes had been cut open and
brought into use as the nearest approach to a
piece of court plaster and with its aid the
blood was kept from flowing until a surgeon
could be found to place together the parts of
his fractured physiognomy.Moses Gommel got into a difficulty at Jeanette's, a saloon on the corner of First
and Locust Streets, and his claim
that Eugene and Randolph Aldinger, who
keep the saloon, gave him several hard
smashes in the face, using a knife as well as their fists. He swore out an information in
Justice Field's court, and his statement will be
tried by Justice Fox next Friday.A man named Holder was knocked down
by a motor yesterday morning at the corner
of Broadway and Sixth street, but was not
severely injured.The four Omaha young men who created
a disturbance on the streets Sunday night
while driving in a single-seated phaeton
were fined $5 and costs each in police court
yesterday morning.W. E. Kynett was tried by Justice Field
yesterday on the charge of assault and battling and fined $5 and costs. He took a
change of venue and was fined $5 and costs
of fifty bushels of potatoes, which resulted
from the same deal. The latter case will be
tried by Justice Fox next Friday.Charles Metz, a teamster, came near losing a large portion of his nose yesterday.
He was unloading some heavy boxes at the
Burlington depot when one of them struck
him in the most prominent part of his face.One of the boxes had been cut open and
brought into use as the nearest approach to a
piece of court plaster and with its aid the
blood was kept from flowing until a surgeon
could be found to place together the parts of
his fractured physiognomy.Moses Gommel got into a difficulty at Jeanette's, a saloon on the corner of First
and Locust Streets, and his claim
that Eugene and Randolph Aldinger, who
keep the saloon, gave him several hard
smashes in the face, using a knife as well as their fists. He swore out an information in
Justice Field's court, and his statement will be
tried by Justice Fox next Friday.A man named Holder was knocked down
by a motor yesterday morning at the corner
of Broadway and Sixth street, but was not
severely injured.The four Omaha young men who created
a disturbance on the streets Sunday night
while driving in a single-seated phaeton
were fined $5 and costs each in police court
yesterday morning.W. E. Kynett was tried by Justice Field
yesterday on the charge of assault and battling and fined $5 and costs. He took a
change of venue and was fined $5 and costs
of fifty bushels of potatoes, which resulted
from the same deal. The latter case will be
tried by Justice Fox next Friday.Charles Metz, a teamster, came near losing a large portion of his nose yesterday.
He was unloading some heavy boxes at the
Burlington depot when one of them struck him in the most prominent part of his face.

One