

ASSAULTED LINCOLN WOMEN

Dennis Sullivan Under Arrest on a Serious Charge.

ON THE ROAD TO THE REFORMATORY

Willie Peebles Booked for the State Industrial School Because He Insisted on Destroying Property as a Matter of Fan.

Ipswich, Aug. 23.—[Special to The Bee.]—Dennis Sullivan will probably imagine that his front name was not given to him in vain before he gets away from the toils of the law which are now tightening around him. Yesterday he assaulted a colored woman named Mrs. Anna Hargreaves and some time later he attempted to commit the same crime upon another colored woman. Both women complained against him and he was soon arrested. He was to have been given a preliminary hearing before Judge Waters this forenoon, but Mrs. Hargreaves could not be found. She sent word to the station that she did not like to gain any publicity by appearing in court as the principal witness. She has been cited to appear tomorrow, however, and the trial will proceed. Sullivan is a runner for the Tiernan hotel. Dr. Crim has made an examination of the woman assaulted by the lusty hotel runner and he will testify that she has been badly used.

Put His Horse in a Hole.

J. H. Edwell of Havelock is seriously contemplating a damage suit against the city. While driving with his horse and buggy on West O street he approached that part of the street which is more or less obstructed by the holes excavated for the foundation of the viaduct piers. His horse shied at one of the holes, which was surrounded by a light board fence, and in doing so tumbled headlong into another hole, directly opposite. Mr. Edwell sprang from the carriage, but his wife and children were thrown into the pit with the struggling horse. The frightened animal plunged fearfully, breaking the buggy into splinters. Almost by a miracle Mrs. Edwell and the children were uninjured. There were several feet of water in the pit, and it was a wonder that the children were not drowned. After considerable difficulty they were taken from the hole and the horse removed comparatively unharmed. The wreck was total.

Fell from a Three-Story Window.

A 13-year-old colored girl working for the family of C. M. Jacques, living at the corner of Fourteenth and H streets, is thanking her lucky stars that she is not dead, even if she is considerably disfigured. She is a domestic in the employ of Mr. Jacques and at night sleeps in the third story of the house. She went to bed last night as usual, but about about 3 o'clock this morning she started on a somnambulist tour of the upper story and before she woke up she walked out of the third story window. She struck the stone walk squarely on her head and it is to this fact that she doubtless owes her life. Her front teeth were knocked out and her face badly cut. The bruises on her head and shoulders were too numerous to count, but otherwise she was uninjured.

Lincoln in Brief.

Harry Davis, a 19-year-old boy living on a farm near this city, went fishing in Salt creek yesterday afternoon and did not return last night. It is feared that he has been drowned in the creek and a large party of men are searching for him. August Johnson drove his horse and two-wheeled cart into the cellar of an unfinished building at the corner of Fourteenth and P streets this morning. He was badly shaken up, but not seriously hurt. C. L. Wells, living at the corner of Twenty-seventh and Hitchcock streets, started a fire in his gasoline stove this morning. He then went to the barn to feed his horse. In the meantime the flames got away and began to feed on his furniture. The damage amounted to $100. Peter Hansen reported to the police this morning that he had been robbed of his clothes and $150 in cash by a bad man with a gun and a dark lantern. He stated that he had been sleeping in a granary on a farm near the city and was robbed Monday night. The police look upon his story with considerable doubt. W. Terwilliger was somewhat badly injured in a runaway this morning. His horse became frightened and ran so hard that he was thrown from the wagon and jarred real hard.

CAMP LOGAN'S CONDITION.

Everything in Readiness to Receive Nebraska Veterans Next Week. GRAND ISLAND, Aug. 23.—[Special to The Bee.]—All the tents for Camp Logan have arrived and are now on the camp ground and being placed in readiness to receive the thousands who will soon congregate here for a pleasant week here, listening to speeches from noted men and pleasant camp stories. The street car company has completed a large depot with seats for the accommodation of its guests, and also has secured several extra cars for the occasion, so that no delay can possibly occur on account of transportation. The telephone company has put in several telephones, which now connect with the eastern part of the state and Iowa. The city and county have been located in all the principal streets, and the camp will be as light as day. The Woman's Relief corps, Daughters and Sons of Veterans and state organizations have their quarters assigned and their proper officers have been notified, so that no trouble or delay will be occasioned on arrival. Quarters will be indicated by patrolmen hired for that special purpose. The committee has secured thirteen full uniformed drum bands and the committee days their transportation both ways and these bands will be under the control of the department commander during the entire week. These bands are from the following towns: Minden, twenty members; Hastings, twenty; Sterling, twenty-two; Red Cloud, fourteen; Loup City, thirteen; West-ern, twenty; Ashland, twenty; Kearney, Miller's Symphony band, thirty; Kearney, Juvenile, twenty-five; Edgar, twenty; Scottsbluff, twenty; York, eight; Hetroon, Second National Guard band, twenty. These bands have been provided with tents. A company of men are now employed by the committee putting all in readiness, and some comrades will arrive Saturday evening and Sunday the committee is bound to have everything complete and waiting for the crowds.

Frank of a Demented Man.

HASTINGS, Aug. 23.—[Special to The Bee.]—A man named George Hubbell of Hillsdale, Cook county, Ill., was before the insanity commission this morning. Hubbell made the most of the real estate dealers of the city and wanted to buy some farm property. He was so extravagant in his desires that they became suspicious and thought that he was drunk. Yesterday he went to Trumbull and purchased two quarter sections of land with all the machinery and stock. Then he was taken suddenly ill and developed symptoms of insanity which threatened to become violent. The commission sent him to Lincoln for treatment.

Greenwood's Reunion.

GREENWOOD, Neb., Aug. 23.—[Special to The Bee.]—The reunion is in all of its glory. Yesterday was a very discouraging day. It threatened rain most all day but cleared up about 4 p. m., and this morning dawned clear and bright and the people are now here in the hundreds. The prospects are that this is to be one of the grandest district reunions this locality has ever had here. These services opened with one of those old-fashioned Methodist hymns with

MAY MEAN A BIG RATE WAR

Union Pacific Prepared to Quit the Western Passenger Association.

CLAIMS THE RULES HAVE BEEN VIOLATED

Efforts of the Officials to Secure Redress Not Given Sufficient Attention to Frontier and Overland Route's Business.

CHICAGO, Aug. 23.—[Special Telegram to The Bee.]—A dark cloud has made an appearance on the horizon of the Western Passenger association which threatens a storm of unusual severity. The Union Pacific threatens to demolish the association if the latter does not consent to treat it in a more fraternal spirit than has been the case lately. For some time past a row has been in progress between the transcontinental lines and to meet the action of the Great Northern and Northern Pacific roads the Union Pacific found it necessary for the protection of its interests to reduce the rate on passenger business from the Missouri river to the Pacific coast to $35 first class and $18 second class. It offered those rates as basing rates to the lines in the association east of the Missouri river; or in other words, it wanted those lines to use those reduced rates in connection with the rates east of the Missouri and pro rata the same on the regular basis. Refused the Request. The lines east of the Missouri, however, felt disinclined to comply with the Union Pacific's request and refused to use the reduced rates as basing rates. By this action they really compel the public to pay a higher rate through than the Union Pacific wants and places the Union Pacific in a position of disadvantage although it is a member of the Western Passenger association. When the Union Pacific joined the Western Passenger association it did so with the express understanding that it would receive the protection of the association lines should it get into trouble with its northern competitors which are not members of the association. To do so now by the association lines of the Missouri river has put the Union Pacific in a towering passion and as soon as they learned that their request for using the reduced rates west of the river as basing rates had been refused they sent the following telegram to the chairman of the association: Explanations Demanded. "Under article VIII of the agreement, what explanation have association lines to make to this company for refusing to use $35 first class and $18 second class rates on the Missouri river? As we understand this article, the refusal of the association lines to agree to use the reduced rates west of the river as basing rates is a violation of the agreement. We demand that you explain to us the reasons for this refusal without disruption of the whole agreement."

Heavy Nebraska Showers.

STOCKVILLE, Neb., Aug. 23.—[Special to The Bee.]—This section received a splendid rain last night. About two inches of water fell during the evening. COLUMBIUS, Neb., Aug. 23.—[Special to The Bee.]—Since the 1st of August this section has been visited by several heavy rainfalls, amounting in all to more than six inches. Cornfields which were thought to be dried up three weeks ago are looking green and flourishing today, and many fields will yet make half a crop. There is some corn under the partly completed Culbertson irrigation ditch that will go 100 outside to the acre. It is the ditch company's intention to cover 20,000 acres with water by next spring. The possibilities of this soil when irrigated are marvelous.

Stamford, Neb., Aug. 23.—[Special to The Bee.]

The recent rains have assured Harlan county fully as large a corn crop as the immediate one of 1892.

Fremont Notes and Personal.

FREMONT, Aug. 23.—[Special to The Bee.]—The Normal World's fair excursionists have returned to Fremont. J. E. Frick, one of the speakers at Arlington today, was accompanied by about 150 of his patriotic fellow citizens. Twenty-three citizens left for Louisville, Neb., yesterday to attend camp meeting. Mr. and Mrs. C. A. Beveridge, so well known in central Nebraska as realtors, left yesterday for Massachusetts, where they have engagements with the state prohibition committee. The county democratic central committee has been issued for a convention August 30.

Old Settlers' Reunion.

STAMFORD, Neb., Aug. 23.—[Special to The Bee.]—The fifth annual reunion and basket picnic of the old residents of Pennsylvania will be held at Stamford, on the Orleans & St. Francis branch of the B. & M. Thursday, September 7. These reunions have been well attended in former years, and some 225 are enrolled in the association, living in Harlan, Furnas and Phelps counties. Trains will stop at the picnic grounds.

Married at Grand Island.

GRAND ISLAND, Aug. 23.—[Special to The Bee.]—Walter Appledorn and Miss Emma Budwig were married this evening at 8 o'clock. Rev. Mr. Mutschmann of the English Lutheran church officiating. The bride is a member of one of West Point's best families while Mr. Appledorn is one of the popular young business men of Grand Island.

Surprised the Highwaymen.

PLATTSBURGH, Aug. 23.—[Special to The Bee.]—Last evening Mr. F. Gray was held up by footpads, but being of a pugnacious disposition he proceeded to give the thugs a lesson in the fist science that must have surprised them as they were glad to get away. Gray lives in Iowa. He left for home today.

Charged with Murder.

BEATRICE, Aug. 23.—[Special to The Bee.]—Complaint was filed today by County Attorney Sabia against Willard Wood, charging murder in the first degree for the killing of Simon Seffel near Ellis, Neb., last Sunday night.

Cramp Colic Cured by Two Doses.

VENABLE, Sully Co., N. C.—My wife had a spell of cramp colic. Two doses of Chamberlain's Colic, Cholera and Diarrhoea Remedy cured her and I believe saved her life. D. A. DORRIS.

LOCAL BRIEFS.

The windows in the east front of the government building are to be graced with awnings of the very latest pattern. Little Edulu Husman was arrested again yesterday morning for being incorrigible. He will be sent to the reform school. The lecture of Dr. Bernard Bisby, which was announced for Friday evening through mistake, will be delivered at the First Methodist Episcopal church Thursday evening. The county clerk has put an extra force at work upon the 1898 tax lists in order that the books may be turned over to the treasurer on October 1, the date upon which the taxes for the year become due and payable. Chairman Jacobson of the committee on public property and buildings of the council says that the opening of the county hall will take place in a very short time now. The committee has not fixed a date, but will do so shortly. While he has not yet completed the docket, Clerk of Courts Moores gives it as his opinion that the calendar for the September term of the district court will show the greatest number of cases that have ever been on for one term of court since the organization of the county. With reference to the bogus bond companies which have been operating in this city for some time and which have been exposed by The Bee a few days ago, County Attorney Kaley yesterday stated that whenever the subject matter was called to his attention he would institute criminal prosecutions against the officers and manipulators. Next Saturday afternoon the members of the republican county central committee will open the political ball by holding a meeting in the league parlors in the basement of the New York life building, at which time and place they will fix the dates for holding the republican primaries and conventions. At this meeting the members of the committee will recommend the organization of ward and marching clubs in all of the wards of the city and also in the country precincts of the county. The property owners on North Twenty-second street are agitating the question of extending the boulevard from Florence south to Lard street. The payment has been laid on Twenty-second as far as Lard and by extending the boulevard down to the latter street the property owners claim that there would be one continuous drive that could be surpassed by any boulevard in any city in the west. The property owners along the boulevard in earnest and are talking of holding meetings and taking steps to bring the subject before the public. Ex-Superintendent P. B. Russell of Denver passed through the city yesterday on his way to the World's fair. Mr. Russell says that Denver is recovering from the financial depression and that the people of Colorado were hoping that congress would soon give them relief. In speaking about the police affairs of Denver, Mr. Russell stated that when the populists got control of the police commission they retired Chief John F. Farley, one of the best officers they ever had. Since then they had to make several changes, not being able to find a man who could fill the place of a satisfactory man. The committee will be reinstated after the next election, although he is at present in a very responsible position of commissioner of inspection at Denver.

Quartetting, Courtland Beach tonight.

MAY MEAN A BIG RATE WAR

Union Pacific Prepared to Quit the Western Passenger Association.

CLAIMS THE RULES HAVE BEEN VIOLATED

Efforts of the Officials to Secure Redress Not Given Sufficient Attention to Frontier and Overland Route's Business.

CHICAGO, Aug. 23.—[Special Telegram to The Bee.]—A dark cloud has made an appearance on the horizon of the Western Passenger association which threatens a storm of unusual severity. The Union Pacific threatens to demolish the association if the latter does not consent to treat it in a more fraternal spirit than has been the case lately. For some time past a row has been in progress between the transcontinental lines and to meet the action of the Great Northern and Northern Pacific roads the Union Pacific found it necessary for the protection of its interests to reduce the rate on passenger business from the Missouri river to the Pacific coast to $35 first class and $18 second class. It offered those rates as basing rates to the lines in the association east of the Missouri river; or in other words, it wanted those lines to use those reduced rates in connection with the rates east of the Missouri and pro rata the same on the regular basis. Refused the Request. The lines east of the Missouri, however, felt disinclined to comply with the Union Pacific's request and refused to use the reduced rates as basing rates. By this action they really compel the public to pay a higher rate through than the Union Pacific wants and places the Union Pacific in a position of disadvantage although it is a member of the Western Passenger association. When the Union Pacific joined the Western Passenger association it did so with the express understanding that it would receive the protection of the association lines should it get into trouble with its northern competitors which are not members of the association. To do so now by the association lines of the Missouri river has put the Union Pacific in a towering passion and as soon as they learned that their request for using the reduced rates west of the river as basing rates had been refused they sent the following telegram to the chairman of the association: Explanations Demanded. "Under article VIII of the agreement, what explanation have association lines to make to this company for refusing to use $35 first class and $18 second class rates on the Missouri river? As we understand this article, the refusal of the association lines to agree to use the reduced rates west of the river as basing rates is a violation of the agreement. We demand that you explain to us the reasons for this refusal without disruption of the whole agreement."

Heavy Nebraska Showers.

STOCKVILLE, Neb., Aug. 23.—[Special to The Bee.]—This section received a splendid rain last night. About two inches of water fell during the evening. COLUMBIUS, Neb., Aug. 23.—[Special to The Bee.]—Since the 1st of August this section has been visited by several heavy rainfalls, amounting in all to more than six inches. Cornfields which were thought to be dried up three weeks ago are looking green and flourishing today, and many fields will yet make half a crop. There is some corn under the partly completed Culbertson irrigation ditch that will go 100 outside to the acre. It is the ditch company's intention to cover 20,000 acres with water by next spring. The possibilities of this soil when irrigated are marvelous.

Stamford, Neb., Aug. 23.—[Special to The Bee.]

The recent rains have assured Harlan county fully as large a corn crop as the immediate one of 1892.

Fremont Notes and Personal.

FREMONT, Aug. 23.—[Special to The Bee.]—The Normal World's fair excursionists have returned to Fremont. J. E. Frick, one of the speakers at Arlington today, was accompanied by about 150 of his patriotic fellow citizens. Twenty-three citizens left for Louisville, Neb., yesterday to attend camp meeting. Mr. and Mrs. C. A. Beveridge, so well known in central Nebraska as realtors, left yesterday for Massachusetts, where they have engagements with the state prohibition committee. The county democratic central committee has been issued for a convention August 30.

Old Settlers' Reunion.

STAMFORD, Neb., Aug. 23.—[Special to The Bee.]—The fifth annual reunion and basket picnic of the old residents of Pennsylvania will be held at Stamford, on the Orleans & St. Francis branch of the B. & M. Thursday, September 7. These reunions have been well attended in former years, and some 225 are enrolled in the association, living in Harlan, Furnas and Phelps counties. Trains will stop at the picnic grounds.

Married at Grand Island.

GRAND ISLAND, Aug. 23.—[Special to The Bee.]—Walter Appledorn and Miss Emma Budwig were married this evening at 8 o'clock. Rev. Mr. Mutschmann of the English Lutheran church officiating. The bride is a member of one of West Point's best families while Mr. Appledorn is one of the popular young business men of Grand Island.

Surprised the Highwaymen.

PLATTSBURGH, Aug. 23.—[Special to The Bee.]—Last evening Mr. F. Gray was held up by footpads, but being of a pugnacious disposition he proceeded to give the thugs a lesson in the fist science that must have surprised them as they were glad to get away. Gray lives in Iowa. He left for home today.

Charged with Murder.

BEATRICE, Aug. 23.—[Special to The Bee.]—Complaint was filed today by County Attorney Sabia against Willard Wood, charging murder in the first degree for the killing of Simon Seffel near Ellis, Neb., last Sunday night.

Cramp Colic Cured by Two Doses.

VENABLE, Sully Co., N. C.—My wife had a spell of cramp colic. Two doses of Chamberlain's Colic, Cholera and Diarrhoea Remedy cured her and I believe saved her life. D. A. DORRIS.

LOCAL BRIEFS.

The windows in the east front of the government building are to be graced with awnings of the very latest pattern. Little Edulu Husman was arrested again yesterday morning for being incorrigible. He will be sent to the reform school. The lecture of Dr. Bernard Bisby, which was announced for Friday evening through mistake, will be delivered at the First Methodist Episcopal church Thursday evening. The county clerk has put an extra force at work upon the 1898 tax lists in order that the books may be turned over to the treasurer on October 1, the date upon which the taxes for the year become due and payable. Chairman Jacobson of the committee on public property and buildings of the council says that the opening of the county hall will take place in a very short time now. The committee has not fixed a date, but will do so shortly. While he has not yet completed the docket, Clerk of Courts Moores gives it as his opinion that the calendar for the September term of the district court will show the greatest number of cases that have ever been on for one term of court since the organization of the county. With reference to the bogus bond companies which have been operating in this city for some time and which have been exposed by The Bee a few days ago, County Attorney Kaley yesterday stated that whenever the subject matter was called to his attention he would institute criminal prosecutions against the officers and manipulators. Next Saturday afternoon the members of the republican county central committee will open the political ball by holding a meeting in the league parlors in the basement of the New York life building, at which time and place they will fix the dates for holding the republican primaries and conventions. At this meeting the members of the committee will recommend the organization of ward and marching clubs in all of the wards of the city and also in the country precincts of the county. The property owners on North Twenty-second street are agitating the question of extending the boulevard from Florence south to Lard street. The payment has been laid on Twenty-second as far as Lard and by extending the boulevard down to the latter street the property owners claim that there would be one continuous drive that could be surpassed by any boulevard in any city in the west. The property owners along the boulevard in earnest and are talking of holding meetings and taking steps to bring the subject before the public. Ex-Superintendent P. B. Russell of Denver passed through the city yesterday on his way to the World's fair. Mr. Russell says that Denver is recovering from the financial depression and that the people of Colorado were hoping that congress would soon give them relief. In speaking about the police affairs of Denver, Mr. Russell stated that when the populists got control of the police commission they retired Chief John F. Farley, one of the best officers they ever had. Since then they had to make several changes, not being able to find a man who could fill the place of a satisfactory man. The committee will be reinstated after the next election, although he is at present in a very responsible position of commissioner of inspection at Denver.

Quartetting, Courtland Beach tonight.

MAY MEAN A BIG RATE WAR

Union Pacific Prepared to Quit the Western Passenger Association.

CLAIMS THE RULES HAVE BEEN VIOLATED

Efforts of the Officials to Secure Redress Not Given Sufficient Attention to Frontier and Overland Route's Business.

CHICAGO, Aug. 23.—[Special Telegram to The Bee.]—A dark cloud has made an appearance on the horizon of the Western Passenger association which threatens a storm of unusual severity. The Union Pacific threatens to demolish the association if the latter does not consent to treat it in a more fraternal spirit than has been the case lately. For some time past a row has been in progress between the transcontinental lines and to meet the action of the Great Northern and Northern Pacific roads the Union Pacific found it necessary for the protection of its interests to reduce the rate on passenger business from the Missouri river to the Pacific coast to $35 first class and $18 second class. It offered those rates as basing rates to the lines in the association east of the Missouri river; or in other words, it wanted those lines to use those reduced rates in connection with the rates east of the Missouri and pro rata the same on the regular basis. Refused the Request. The lines east of the Missouri, however, felt disinclined to comply with the Union Pacific's request and refused to use the reduced rates as basing rates. By this action they really compel the public to pay a higher rate through than the Union Pacific wants and places the Union Pacific in a position of disadvantage although it is a member of the Western Passenger association. When the Union Pacific joined the Western Passenger association it did so with the express understanding that it would receive the protection of the association lines should it get into trouble with its northern competitors which are not members of the association. To do so now by the association lines of the Missouri river has put the Union Pacific in a towering passion and as soon as they learned that their request for using the reduced rates west of the river as basing rates had been refused they sent the following telegram to the chairman of the association: Explanations Demanded. "Under article VIII of the agreement, what explanation have association lines to make to this company for refusing to use $35 first class and $18 second class rates on the Missouri river? As we understand this article, the refusal of the association lines to agree to use the reduced rates west of the river as basing rates is a violation of the agreement. We demand that you explain to us the reasons for this refusal without disruption of the whole agreement."

Heavy Nebraska Showers.

STOCKVILLE, Neb., Aug. 23.—[Special to The Bee.]—This section received a splendid rain last night. About two inches of water fell during the evening. COLUMBIUS, Neb., Aug. 23.—[Special to The Bee.]—Since the 1st of August this section has been visited by several heavy rainfalls, amounting in all to more than six inches. Cornfields which were thought to be dried up three weeks ago are looking green and flourishing today, and many fields will yet make half a crop. There is some corn under the partly completed Culbertson irrigation ditch that will go 100 outside to the acre. It is the ditch company's intention to cover 20,000 acres with water by next spring. The possibilities of this soil when irrigated are marvelous.

Stamford, Neb., Aug. 23.—[Special to The Bee.]

The recent rains have assured Harlan county fully as large a corn crop as the immediate one of 1892.

Fremont Notes and Personal.

FREMONT, Aug. 23.—[Special to The Bee.]—The Normal World's fair excursionists have returned to Fremont. J. E. Frick, one of the speakers at Arlington today, was accompanied by about 150 of his patriotic fellow citizens. Twenty-three citizens left for Louisville, Neb., yesterday to attend camp meeting. Mr. and Mrs. C. A. Beveridge, so well known in central Nebraska as realtors, left yesterday for Massachusetts, where they have engagements with the state prohibition committee. The county democratic central committee has been issued for a convention August 30.

Old Settlers' Reunion.

STAMFORD, Neb., Aug. 23.—[Special to The Bee.]—The fifth annual reunion and basket picnic of the old residents of Pennsylvania will be held at Stamford, on the Orleans & St. Francis branch of the B. & M. Thursday, September 7. These reunions have been well attended in former years, and some 225 are enrolled in the association, living in Harlan, Furnas and Phelps counties. Trains will stop at the picnic grounds.

Married at Grand Island.

GRAND ISLAND, Aug. 23.—[Special to The Bee.]—Walter Appledorn and Miss Emma Budwig were married this evening at 8 o'clock. Rev. Mr. Mutschmann of the English Lutheran church officiating. The bride is a member of one of West Point's best families while Mr. Appledorn is one of the popular young business men of Grand Island.

Surprised the Highwaymen.

PLATTSBURGH, Aug. 23.—[Special to The Bee.]—Last evening Mr. F. Gray was held up by footpads, but being of a pugnacious disposition he proceeded to give the thugs a lesson in the fist science that must have surprised them as they were glad to get away. Gray lives in Iowa. He left for home today.

Charged with Murder.

BEATRICE, Aug. 23.—[Special to The Bee.]—Complaint was filed today by County Attorney Sabia against Willard Wood, charging murder in the first degree for the killing of Simon Seffel near Ellis, Neb., last Sunday night.

Cramp Colic Cured by Two Doses.

VENABLE, Sully Co., N. C.—My wife had a spell of cramp colic. Two doses of Chamberlain's Colic, Cholera and Diarrhoea Remedy cured her and I believe saved her life. D. A. DORRIS.

LOCAL BRIEFS.

The windows in the east front of the government building are to be graced with awnings of the very latest pattern. Little Edulu Husman was arrested again yesterday morning for being incorrigible. He will be sent to the reform school. The lecture of Dr. Bernard Bisby, which was announced for Friday evening through mistake, will be delivered at the First Methodist Episcopal church Thursday evening. The county clerk has put an extra force at work upon the 1898 tax lists in order that the books may be turned over to the treasurer on October 1, the date upon which the taxes for the year become due and payable. Chairman Jacobson of the committee on public property and buildings of the council says that the opening of the county hall will take place in a very short time now. The committee has not fixed a date, but will do so shortly. While he has not yet completed the docket, Clerk of Courts Moores gives it as his opinion that the calendar for the September term of the district court will show the greatest number of cases that have ever been on for one term of court since the organization of the county. With reference to the bogus bond companies which have been operating in this city for some time and which have been exposed by The Bee a few days ago, County Attorney Kaley yesterday stated that whenever the subject matter was called to his attention he would institute criminal prosecutions against the officers and manipulators. Next Saturday afternoon the members of the republican county central committee will open the political ball by holding a meeting in the league parlors in the basement of the New York life building, at which time and place they will fix the dates for holding the republican primaries and conventions. At this meeting the members of the committee will recommend the organization of ward and marching clubs in all of the wards of the city and also in the country precincts of the county. The property owners on North Twenty-second street are agitating the question of extending the boulevard from Florence south to Lard street. The payment has been laid on Twenty-second as far as Lard and by extending the boulevard down to the latter street the property owners claim that there would be one continuous drive that could be surpassed by any boulevard in any city in the west. The property owners along the boulevard in earnest and are talking of holding meetings and taking steps to bring the subject before the public. Ex-Superintendent P. B. Russell of Denver passed through the city yesterday on his way to the World's fair. Mr. Russell says that Denver is recovering from the financial depression and that the people of Colorado were hoping that congress would soon give them relief. In speaking about the police affairs of Denver, Mr. Russell stated that when the populists got control of the police commission they retired Chief John F. Farley, one of the best officers they ever had. Since then they had to make several changes, not being able to find a man who could fill the place of a satisfactory man. The committee will be reinstated after the next election, although he is at present in a very responsible position of commissioner of inspection at Denver.

Quartetting, Courtland Beach tonight.

MAY MEAN A BIG RATE WAR

Union Pacific Prepared to Quit the Western Passenger Association.

CLAIMS THE RULES HAVE BEEN VIOLATED

Efforts of the Officials to Secure Redress Not Given Sufficient Attention to Frontier and Overland Route's Business.

CHICAGO, Aug. 23.—[Special Telegram to The Bee.]—A dark cloud has made an appearance on the horizon of the Western Passenger association which threatens a storm of unusual severity. The Union Pacific threatens to demolish the association if the latter does not consent to treat it in a more fraternal spirit than has been the case lately. For some time past a row has been in progress between the transcontinental lines and to meet the action of the Great Northern and Northern Pacific roads the Union Pacific found it necessary for the protection of its interests to reduce the rate on passenger business from the Missouri river to the Pacific coast to $35 first class and $18 second class. It offered those rates as basing rates to the lines in the association east of the Missouri river; or in other words, it wanted those lines to use those reduced rates in connection with the rates east of the Missouri and pro rata the same on the regular basis. Refused the Request. The lines east of the Missouri, however, felt disinclined to comply with the Union Pacific's request and refused to use the reduced rates as basing rates. By this action they really compel the public to pay a higher rate through than the Union Pacific wants and places the Union Pacific in a position of disadvantage although it is a member of the Western Passenger association. When the Union Pacific joined the Western Passenger association it did so with the express understanding that it would receive the protection of the association lines should it get into trouble with its northern competitors which are not members of the association. To do so now by the association lines of the Missouri river has put the Union Pacific in a towering passion and as soon as they learned that their request for using the reduced rates west of the river as basing rates had been refused they sent the following telegram to the chairman of the association: Explanations Demanded. "Under article VIII of the agreement, what explanation have association lines to make to this company for refusing to use $35 first class and $18 second class rates on the Missouri river? As we understand this article, the refusal of the association lines to agree to use the reduced rates west of the river as basing rates is a violation of the agreement. We demand that you explain to us the reasons for this refusal without disruption of the whole agreement."

Heavy Nebraska Showers.

STOCKVILLE, Neb., Aug. 23.—[Special to The Bee.]—This section received a splendid rain last night. About two inches of water fell during the evening. COLUMBIUS, Neb., Aug. 23.—[Special to The Bee.]—Since the 1st of August this section has been visited by several heavy rainfalls, amounting in all to more than six inches. Cornfields which were thought to be dried up three weeks ago are looking green and flourishing today, and many fields will yet make half a crop. There is some corn under the partly completed Culbertson irrigation ditch that will go 100 outside to the acre. It is the ditch company's intention to cover 20,000 acres with water by next spring. The possibilities of this soil when irrigated are marvelous.

Stamford, Neb., Aug. 23.—[Special to The Bee.]

The recent rains have assured Harlan county fully as large a corn crop as the immediate one of 1892.

Fremont Notes and Personal.

FREMONT, Aug. 23.—[Special to The Bee.]—The Normal World's fair excursionists have returned to Fremont. J. E. Frick, one of the speakers at Arlington today, was accompanied by about 150 of his patriotic fellow citizens. Twenty-three citizens left for Louisville, Neb., yesterday to attend camp meeting. Mr. and Mrs. C. A. Beveridge, so well known in central Nebraska as realtors, left yesterday for Massachusetts, where they have engagements with the state prohibition committee. The county democratic central committee has been issued for a convention August 30.

Old Settlers' Reunion.

STAMFORD, Neb., Aug. 23.—[Special to The Bee.]—The fifth annual reunion and basket picnic of the old residents of Pennsylvania will be held at Stamford, on the Orleans & St. Francis branch of the B. & M. Thursday, September 7. These reunions have been well attended in former years, and some 225 are enrolled in the association, living in Harlan, Furnas and Phelps counties. Trains will stop at the picnic grounds.

Married at Grand Island.

GRAND ISLAND, Aug. 23.—[Special to The Bee.]—Walter Appledorn and Miss Emma Budwig were married this evening at 8 o'clock. Rev. Mr. Mutschmann of the English Lutheran church officiating. The bride is a member of one of West Point's best families while Mr. Appledorn is one of the popular young business men of Grand Island.

Surprised the Highwaymen.

PLATTSBURGH, Aug. 23.—[Special to The Bee.]—Last evening Mr. F. Gray was held up by footpads, but being of a pugnacious disposition he proceeded to give the thugs a lesson in the fist science that must have surprised them as they were glad to get away. Gray lives in Iowa. He left for home today.

Charged with Murder.

BEATRICE, Aug. 23.—[Special to The Bee.]—Complaint was filed today by County Attorney Sabia against Willard Wood, charging murder in the first degree for the killing of Simon Seffel near Ellis, Neb., last Sunday night.

Cramp Colic Cured by Two Doses.

VENABLE, Sully Co., N. C.—My wife had a spell of cramp colic. Two doses of Chamberlain's Colic, Cholera and Diarrhoea Remedy cured