PERTAINING TO THE POLICE

Plattsmouth Officer in the City Looking for a Nervy Desperado.

COMMISSIONERS FINALLY DRAW THE LINE

Merchants Duped by a Credit Worker -Sergeant Ormsby's Friends Express Their Feetings - Circus Crooks Comparatively Scarce.

Marshal Grace of Plattamouth was in the city yesterday looking for a highway robber who perpetrated a very bold crime in that city on Sunday forenoon.

The deed was committed by one of the thieves that was following Sells Bros, 'cir. cus, which spread its tents in Plattsmouth recently. When the circus arrived in that place the marshal arrested all suspicious characters that he could find, among whom was a young man named Frank Innes, and the man who committed the assault and robbery. The latter gave the police no name, robbery. The latter gave the police no name, but it was found that he had the initials "H. W." tattooed on his left arm and that he went by the name of Harry.

The men were released from custody after the circus had left the city. They started to walk out of town. Innes had a revolver and his companion insisted that he be allowed to take it up town and sell it to get money to ride on. It is thought that they later got into a box car. Innes then told his alleged friend that he had $52 sewed inhis alleged friend that he had $52 sewed in-side of his shirt. He exhibited the money and, on pretext of wanting to examine the gun he secured the weapon, and pointing it at lines made him give up his money. He then beat the young man into insensibility and left him for dead. Innes was found in a box car Monday evening in an unconscious condition. He was taken to a hospital and did not recover his senses until yesterday about noon. He then related the circumstances of the assault and robbery. Officers at once began searching for his assailant. The marshal came to Omaha in hopes of finding the fellow following Forepaugh's circus, but after searching for him all after-noon he had to return home disap-pointed. The Council Bluffs officers were also notified to look out for the man.
When Innes and his assailant were in jail

the fellow told him that he had a "cane-and knife-rack fake" with which he had beer following the circus, and that he had shipped the outfit to Council Bluffs. Innes has been working all summer on a farm near Peoria, Ill., and the money he had was the result of saving his wages. He is a "green" fellow, and would prove an easy victim for any shark like his assailant. Innes is badly injured, but the physicians believe that he will recover.

PLAIN TALK.

Police Commissioners Deliver a Lecture to

There was a special executive session of the Board of Fire and Police Commissioners Tuesday afternoon, at which the present demoralized condition of the force was talked over. The four sergeants now on duty were then called into the executive chamber and given a lecture. They were given to understand that hereafter better service would be expected, not only from the sergeants, but from the men who walk the beats. It was also impressed upon the minds of the men who stood and listened to the lecture that in the future they would have to pay more attention to their men, see that they at-attended strictly to business, did not drink on duty and did not frequent places that they had no business to.

In conclusion the sergeants were told that there was to be no more factional strife in the ranks and that religion and politics would not be allowed to enter into the official life of a policeman. The board is determined to put a stop to the discord now so manifest in the ranks, and gave it out cold that if the officers did not raise the standard of efficiency a lot of them would have to walk the plank. Now the commissioners will watch the effect of yesterday's lecture for a while before taking radical steps to riu the department of the drones and those who are continually creating discord.

After the meeting was over Commissioners Coburn, Hartman and Strickler had their attention salled to an editorial in THE BEE relative to a thorough investigation of the methods of the detective force in going after prisoners and a thorough disciplining of the whole police department. The commissioners said that this was their exact intention. Chief Seavey expressed himself as being deeply grateful for the splendid testimonial given him by nearly all the leading business men of the city in their petition and series of resolutions to the commissioners at their meeting on Monday night. Officer Cook was given a leave of absence for five days with pay by the commissioners.

Result of Goldsmith's Gun Play. The shooting of Alfred C. Patterson by Louis Goldsmith, which occurred several weeks ago, has resulted in a damage suit which has been brought in the district court, in which Patterson asks that I. A. Goldsmith and his bonosmen, Isaac Brown and Augustus Rothholtz, contribute the sum of $10,000 as damages.

In the petition filed the plaintiff alleges that during the day of July 14 he went into the Goldsmith saloon on lower Capitol avenue for the purpose of having a bank-note changed; that while there Louis Gold-smith, the son of the saloon man, was drunk and holding a conversation with a couple of the women of the town; that as soon as he (Patterson) had asked for the change the younger Goldsmith assaulted him with a billiard cue, after which he drew a pistol and fired into his (Patterson's) body a leaden bullet, inflicting a wound which will result in crippling him for life. On account of all of this and on account of the great amount of pain and anguish which he has suffered, the plaintiff alleges that he is entitled to recover the amount for which he sued.

Duped by a Salamander, Manager Wilcox of Browning King & Co.

accompanied by a representative of Cook's shoe store, complained to the police yesterday afternoon that they had been victimized by a woman who gave her name as Mrs. Franklyne.

The gentlemen said that this party called at their stores and said that she wanted to purchase wearing apparel for her sick brother on the installment plan. She told them such plausible stories that they trusted her for what she wanted and she secured the goods by making a small payment there-

They stated that they had not seen her They stated that they had not seen her since and have learned that she bought the goods for a "sweetheart." It is claimed by the police that the woman at one time did the "fire eating act" in museums and second-class theaters. The gentlemen will probably file information against the woman charging her with obtaining money under false pre-Sergeant Ormsby Surprised.

When a number of Sergeaut Ormsby's friends heard that he had been fined ten days' pay by the fire and police commissioners, they immediately made up a purse more than covering the loss and presented it to him. The sergeant was considerably sur-prised and was inclined not to accept the gift, but they insisted that they made the gift, but they insisted that they made the present to show their belief that he had been presecuted maliciously. They been prosecuted maliciously. They expressed the further belief that he was one of the best officers on the force. The screent was charged with using "forcible and expressive" language to a subordinate, and to a stubbern thief who was in custody.

Circus Crooks Were Scarce.

Although it was circus day only one arrest was made yesterday from 2:45 a.m. until 7 p. m. The one name which appeared on the police blotter was that of an unon the police blotter was that of an un-fortunate individual who walked into the station saying he had been drunk for four days and requested to be locked up until he became sober. His request was granted, Chief Seavey and his officers gave the large crowds which attended the circus good police protection yesterday and at 7 o'clock last evening no robberies or other mixtemeanors had been reported. It was an unusually quiet day for the police.

FOUR BURGLARIES.

Suburbs Suffered from Housebreakers and Sneak Thieves-Postoffice Robbed.

Omaha did not suffer from any raids by circus thieves yesterday, but the suburbs did. Four robberies were reported at the police station about midnight from Artington, South Omaha and Council Bluffs.

The first one reported was from Arlington.

Some sneak thief robbed the postoffice at that place of $250. Of this amount $100 was cash and $150 in stamps. The postmaster was absent from his office for a short time and on his return he found that a window had been pried open and the cash and stamp drawers robbed. There is no clew to the thief, but several hard looking strangers were seen in the town early in the evening.

At South Omaha the residence of S. K.
Purdy was burglarized just after dark. Mrs. Purdy's line gold hunting case watch with Elgin works, some jewelry and a small amount of cash were stolen. The thieves pried open a window.

The residence of Charles Weir, 2116 Avenue B Council Bluffs was burglarized of a hand-some Knights Templar charm, arevolver and about $50 worth of clothing and jewelry. Judge Smith's house in the Birffs was also burglarized of a fine gold watch and chain and Mrs. Smith's wedding ring, which she has worn for twenty years. She would rather recover the ring than the watch. Mrs. Smith is sister of Edward Rothery of Court Officer Walker has returned from his annual vacation and went on duty today. H. George Weeks was fined $25 and costs police court yesterday afternoon for steal-

A petition was being circulated among Sixteenth street business men yesterday forenoon requesting the removal of Chief of Police Seavey. Very few people signed t, however.

Tom O'Brien was the tough who resisted Officer Foley last Saturday and came very nearly getting away with the blue coat. He is sorry he did it now, for after hearing both sides of the story yesterday morning Judge Berka fined him $100 and costs.

Jerry Kernan had a great time down in the burnt district Tuesday night and spent part of his time and energies throwing beer bottles through windows. But Jerry won't do it for a long time to come, for he got a $90 fine in police court yesterday morning.

AFFAIRS AT SOUTH OMAHA. Quiet Day in the Magic City-Postmaster

Glasgow's Vigilance, Postmaster Glasgow is confident that certain parties have been sending first and second class matter through the mail of late representing it to be fourth class matter. Yesterday morning a well known citizen handed in a packnge which he claimed was merchandise and said that it did not contain any liquids or written matter. After he had gone out the package was opened by Clerk Rosenerans, who found that the package contained both liquids and written matter. The gentleman who mailed it was sent for and it is quite likely the matter will be com-promised. Postmaster Glasgow states, however, that he does not propose to be imposed upon any further and in the future will prosecute every person caught defrauding the government in this manner.

Magie City Gossip. A. W. Saxe was in the city last evening. The Epworth league will give a 'rainbow' social at the Methodist church next Friday

A new pair of pantaloons were stolen from Robert Walker's room in the Delmonico hotel yesterday. Old man Bridgefarmer was fined $5 and costs in the police court for allowing his cattle to run at large in the city. The United Presbyterian church Sunday school picnic, which was to have occurred yesterday, will take place this afternoon at Hanscom park.

George Osborne, a packing house em-ploye, got hold of some poison in an un-known manner yesterday and was taken very sick on his way home from work. Medical aid was summoned and the man is all right yesterday. J. S. Clark, the stockman who has been rolling high in South Omaba for the last week, was sentenced to fifteen days in the county jail in order to be given a chance to sober up. "I could buy the bloomin' town if they'd give me a chance," said Clark, but the jail sentence broke his heart.

Frank Pivonka has sued the city for $500 damages on account of inferior curbing around his building at Twenty-sixth and N streets. A recent heavy rain washed away his area wall and the council refused to grant his oill. Mayor Walker was served with a notice of the action by Constable Dorsey Hauck yesterday morning.

Rioting to Vienna.

VIENNA, Aug. 23,—Thousands of roughs gathered this evening near Wagemann's factory in the Favoriten quarter and jeered and stoned the police who have guarded the building since the recent strike began. The tried to drive the roughs away without drawing their swords, but were repulsed, several policemen being injured with stones. Eventually the police charged with drawn swords. The roughs held their ground until many had been out and several arrested. They then re-treated slowly, still fighting. Later the rioting was renewed.

ANNOUNCEMENTS.

Reeves & Palmer's Cosmopolitan company appears at the Farnam Street theater next week, commencing Sunday. This company is headed by Press Eldridge, whose name is as widely known as any comedian before the public. His comedy is quaint and original, but at the same time natural. He attains his effects by legitimate means, and his popularity is of no mushroom growth, for he began his theatrical career when a mere boy and has done comedy work for years, being leading comedian with Carn-cross' minstrels, Philadelphia, for five years, where he became a great favorite and gained the title of "commander-in-chief of the army of fun."

The balance of the company is composed of extremely clever specialty people who stand at the top of the ladder in their re-spective lines. High class novelties and a judicious selection of attractive features go far to make this one of the most popular shows on the road.

The records of the Drury Lane theater in London have noted no prouder achievement during all the years of its enviable career than the production on the stage of that historic playhouse of Messrs. Henry Pettit and Sir Augustus Harris' famous melodrama, "The Soulen." Managers C. B. Jefferson, Klaw & Erlanger, wishing to perpetuate and multiply the glories that fell to the lot of this vividly interesting play in the English ish metropolis, have this season given it a scenie and detailed ornamentation that in their belief has never been excelled in American amusement annals. Complete in every manner and gorgeous in its entirety, "The Soudan" will be given at a special engagement at Boyd's for two nights and Saturday matines, beginning tomorrow. Saturday matinee, beginning tomorrow night. Those who have read in the leading newspapers of the principal American cities of the stupendousness and superiority of the present season's production of this play are given the assurance that its presentation here will be marked in every manner by the same degree of claborate scenic garb, costly trappings, the utilizing of 300 people on the stage, the introduction of proud Arabian horses and everything else, even to the minutest detail that has done so much to call forth the unstinted admiration of the leading critics of this country. The sale of seats will open this morning

VOT FALL and 1004 WINTER 1004 HEADGEAR FOR MAN AND BOY

Die you ever notice how monotonous the old straw hat becomes about this time of the year? No matter how careless a man might be about his appearance he'll shoot the old hat in disgust and make a bee-line for a hat store. That's why we aim to stock up and open the season on hats. Need a new ore now? Take the elevator to the second floor. We display every new shape and block known in the market-with a little cash rebate on every one.

1893. DERBYS

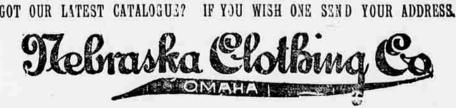

Are lower in crown and considerable wider in brim. All prominent makers' $5.00 shapes are here at $3.00. $4.00 blocks are $2.50. A pure fur hat $1.90. But the hat we are proud of is the celebrated Nebraska special $1,50 hat; backed by the reputation of The Nebraska, conceded by all to be the equal in every detail to any $3.00 hat in America; pure fur, silk trimmed, and blocked according to the monthly fashion plates. But if you are wanting an every-day hat, we have 'em at $1.00 and as low

FEDORAS.

A slight change in style and a trifle lower in price. We quote 750 and $1.00 for $1.25 and $1.75 goods. Like our special, the $1.50 Fedora is unapproachable. $2.50 at least elsewhere for one like it. Alpines and Tourists we display in vast quantities; a dozen or so of different shapes and shades, and nothing but what's new and becoming. Price range, $1.75, $2.00, $2.50, and $3.00 buys the best—unless you wish to pay $2.00 more for any one's autograph in the so-called branded hats.

Printer's ink could do but little justice describing the line. The contents of a car comprise this line alone. You'll find everything you are looking for right here, and save from 50c to a couple of dollars on each hat. Prices are from 50c up to your extravagance.

Well, sir! The same old crusher. Not made for style; therefore, it matters not—A few more new shades, that's all—Prices are a notch lower -50c, 65c, 85c, $1.25 and $1.75.
