NECESSITY FOR A NONPARTISAN JUDICIARY.

It is now proposed that the members of the bar of this district who have been called together for the purpose of instituting a movement for a nonpartisan judiciary should resolve themselves into a new unauthorized suggestion committee for all the great political parties.

Suppose one or more of the party conventions refuse to act upon the recommendation of the bar meeting. There would then be a straight party contest in which partisanship would be the sole test applied by the voter.
