While Mr. French was hundreds of dollars. While Mr. French was in the office of General Agent N. W. Sample of the Denver & Rio Grande three gentle-men presented themselves to the general man-ager, one giving his name as F. M. Hood, and requested a pass from Chicago to Denver. Mr. French noticed the typowritten request was a forgery and at once placed under ar-rest the three men, who gave their names as W. H. Sailes, Phil Detwiler and W. H. Park-inson. All three of the men were at one time employes of the Denver & Rio Grande. Sailes and Detwiler were conductors and Parkinson an engineer. The men made no resistance and were locked up in the holdresistance and were locked up in the holdover, pending a further investigation.

pietely out of danger." W. C. Rinearson of Columbus, reneral passenger agent of the Cleveland Akron & Columbus road, has been appointed general passenger agent of the Queen & Creasent road, with headquarters at Cin-cinnali. He succeeds David G. Edwards, who becomes general passenger agent of the Cincinnati, Hamilton & Dayton road on Sep-tember 1. Mr Rinearson was formerly gon-eral passenger agent of the Eric, and at one time was stationed in Chicago as traveling passenger agent of the Chicago, Milwaukee & St. Paul road. Mrs. James Redman, who lives on North Fifteenth street, near Ohio, was cleaning house with gasoline, about 12 o'clock yesterday, when the gasoline ignited, setting fire to her clothes and also to a bed in the room." Several men happened to be near and heard her acreams. They rushed to her assistance and threw water on her. Others put out
