Creditors of L. Meyer & Co., Become Aggressive at Lincoln.

DOORS SMASHED AND LOCKS BROKEN

H. B. Claffin & Co. of New York Declare that the Defunct Firm's Books Will Indicate Unusual Business Methods.

Lincoln, Sept. 2.—[Special to The Bee.]—H. B. Claffin & Co. is a big New York firm worth millions of dollars, and it is probably the latter fact that accounts for the bold step they took last night in attaching the stock of goods of the defunct firm of L. Meyer & Co. Other creditors have secured attachments, but Claffin was the first to put up an indemnity bond and order the sheriff to go ahead. The sheriff went ahead. He opened the door by breaking open a part of it in order to allow ingress for his hand to throw back the bolts, and with a safe expert speedily secured possession of the books and placed five men armed with guns to hold the stock.

The men held the fort until noon today, and were only once molested. That was when some representing the First National bank, which has held possession on a bill of sale executed to it by Meyer on the eve of his failure, appeared on the scene and evinced a desire to enter the Capital building to look over the books and satisfy their suspicions. They also filed a petition asking $20,000 damages from Claffin & Co. and the sheriff.

It is stated by the lawyers of Claffin & Co. that they propose uncovering some interesting facts in connection with this failure, and are not half through yet. In June last G. W. Shelly of Kansas City, representing the Claffins, called on Meyer for a settlement but they could give him naught but notes for the later. Claffin, however, to look over the books and satisfy himself as to their solvency. He did so, and thought himself secure. The books at that time did not show the extent of the outside indebtedness that has bobbed up since the failure, and Shelly charges that they used fraud in incuring the debt.

Major Weir is somewhat handy with his veto hatchet himself, and this morning deposited the city clerk's veto on a recent tax levy. He runs his pen through a number of items, and disapproves of the recent increase in the sewer and water levies, which were made 6 and 4 mills respectively by the council. He also thinks that the city clerk can get along without the services of a stenographer, and that the city clerk can do his duty as a clerk, for whose maintenance and support the sum of $15 a month had been appropriated. He also thinks that the city attorney is asking a little too much. He and his partner, the latter being also his deputy, receive $2,400 a year for their services. They ask for $200 for office rent, and the city clerk is placing their feet too far around the municipal neck. A special meeting of the council will be called this evening to take action upon the message.

A spirited meeting of the council was held this evening, and the city's financial condition thoroughly aired. The veto was attacked on the ground that the mayor could not veto a portion of an item without vetoing the whole. The levy ordinance was finally passed over the veto by a vote of 12 to 2.

City in Brief.

Sheriff Wilkinson of Topeka came up today, and with the assistance of local officers, arrested a negro, William Bennett, who is wanted for the crime of criminally assaulting a colored girl at Salina, Kan., some eight months ago. Bennett was at work at his trade as hodcarrier when he was traced by the unfortunate habit he contracted of writing letters.

Major Bohanan was robbed last night of a $400 assortment of bedding. Two of his children have had typhoid fever, and, having recovered, the doctor instructed the family to air and fumigate the bedding used. The stuff was left out over night, and this morning the police are now searching for some fellow with a choice assortment of typhoid fever germs in his possession, but have so far been unable to strike the trail of any bacilli so adorned.

Edward Perrion, who stole some red liquor from the city, was taken to the federal court by Commissioner Hillingsley today for fracturing the governmental law, which provides that a merchant selling liquor of that or any other color must have a license therefor passed up somewhere about his person.

ROYALTY RECEIVED AT HOME.

MINEOS, Neb., Sept. 2.—[Special to The Bee.]—The Mendenbald returned from the reunion last evening, winners of the first prize in the band contest. The information that they were victors had been telegraphed earlier in the day, and arrangements were made to give the boys a welcome in keeping with the honors they had won. The ladies gathered flowers and made them into handsome bouquets and were on hand when the train arrived to present them; in fact, it seemed as if half the town was on hand. After the train had started on its way again, Attorney Hague, in a few happy remarks welcomed the band home and expressed for the citizens the pleasure all felt over their success. The boys then lined up four abreast, and marched up the street to the Jensen hotel, where a splendid supper had been prepared.

The Band is Proud of its Accomplishments.

The band is composed of some of the leading business men, all of them young men, who have perfected and kept up the organization more on account of their love for music and the pleasure they derive from it than anything else, and every citizen of Mineos is proud of their accomplishments.

WINDSBE, Neb., Sept. 2.—[Special Telegram to The Bee.]—This afternoon two brothers, John and Eugene Miller, living nine miles northwest of here, became involved in a quarrel over a horse. John assaulted Eugene with a knife, cutting an ugly gash in the back of his head about six inches long and another in his left side about four inches in length. John is a bad man. The horse was not hurt, the buggy was badly damaged and Mr. Cannon lies at home, suffering from several broken ribs and severe bruises.

Died from Loss of Blood.

HASTINGS, Neb., Sept. 2.—[Special Telegram to The Bee.]—Fred Einspahr, a young farmer living near Kearsaw, drove to his home last night and before dismounting from his wagon threw out an old-fashioned musk and the trigger must have caught in the wagon as the gun fell, for the load was discharged and took effect in his arm. Before medical attendance could be procured Einspahr died from loss of blood.

Expected outbreak at Redlands, Cal., Did Not Occur—Prepared for Trouble.

REDLANDS, Cal., Sept. 2.—This town is under arms and 150 police are on duty. The local national guard company is now at the armory under orders. The forty-eight hours given the Chinese to leave town expired last night. A law and order meeting condemned the action of the agitators and the town is so thoroughly guarded that no trouble is anticipated. Laborers are holding meetings and it is reported that 150 Mexicans will arrive today from the surrounding country and San Bernardino to help drive out the Chinese. There is much excitement.

United States Marshals and the Outlaws Meet in Oklahoma.

SHORT BUT DESPERATE ENCOUNTER

Two of the Others and a Bystander Killed—Five Others Wounded—One of the Bandits Captured but the Others Escape.

ARKANSAS CITY, Sept. 2.—A posse of United States marshals and the Dalton gang of bandits and robbers met in Payne county, Oklahoma, yesterday morning, and two of the deputy marshals—Speed and Shadley—were killed, and a third—Huston—fatally wounded. N. A. Walker, N. D. Murray, G. W. Ransom and a boy named Briggs were wounded, and a young man named Simmons instantly killed. The last two were bystanders.

The officers had been informed the gang was in town and drove out to arrest them and were fired on by the outlaws when they dismounted. The fire was returned and the outlaws started for their horses, and all but one, who was shot through the chest, escaped. Bill Dalton's horse was killed by Shadley and, as the horse fell, Dalton got on his foot and pumped four shots in rapid succession into the body of Shadley with his Winchester.

Arkansas Tom, one of the outlaws, was held at bay in a frame hotel, where he took refuge. Messengers were sent to Stillwater for assistance and the sheriff left on foot with a posse for the scene. The outlaw finally surrendered. It is thought he is the man who killed Deputy Harry Speed and the Simmons boy and wounded Marshal Huston. He is now in the Stillwater jail guarded by a posse.

There were six men in the gang, five of whom escaped, but they are being followed by a large posse.
