Sponcer, Creston, Ia.; Knoxle Walker, r. f., Eagle Bird, W. H. McKinney, Sedalia, Mo. C Swigert sent the horses away abreast on the first trial. The first thing Knoxi-Walker, the favorite, did was to make a bal loon ascension and parachate jump, which knocked her hopes for glory and simoleons into a cocked hat. Marguerite then went off in the lead by at least a half dozen lengths, which she maintained to the wire. Time: 2:33.

Marguerite took her old position, that of drum major, in the second. Knoxie Walker gave her a nice chase around to three quarters, where for some unaccountable cause ters, where for some unaccountable cluse the Sedalla roan was pulled almost to a standstill, but went right away again, and on the head of the stretch collared Kinney's game little filly, and but for a rank swerve nearly into the fence would have beaten her out. Time: 2:33%. Again Marguerite went away nicely and was quickly in possession of a comfortable lead. Packet and Knoxie pulled up on her inst before reaching the half when Packet just before reaching the half, when Packet made a jump up and fell back to last place. Marguerite increased her lead from this on to the three quarters, coming to a standstill break here and allowing Knoxie to pass her. The roan speedily placed ten lengths to her credit, and would have shut out both Packet and Electricity had she not had come to a full stop a nose from the wire. Time: 2:35. Knoxie took the fourth heat just like eat-

The second event was the 2:35 trot, purs $500, with the following starters:

Blackball, b. g., Johnson & Perry, Wahoo; Trenten, b. h., Stranger, Billy Huston, Omaha; Star Medium, b. m., Union Medium, Bert Har-mon, Creston, Ia.; Dinab, b. m., Float, O. J. Picard, Omaha; Precepter, Nutwood, S. Schur-man, Carthage, Mo.

Mr. Picard's mare went right in front of the band wagon from the get-away and re-mained there until the straight-away for home was reached. Here Blackball came up fast and strong, and at the distance post was on even terms with Dinah. The latter, however, kept her stride nicely and came under the wire a noss in front. In the mile however, keet her stride incely and came under the wire a nose in front. In the mile she made three breaks and still was awarded the heat, baving gained nothing by reason of her breaks. Time: 2:31. Dinab was not pushed in the second until the stretch was entered, when Trenton threw in a few barrels of tar and came up like a whiriwind. He was not equal to the task however, and the mare came in a couple of heads the best of it. Time: 2:36.

The third heat and race was taken by Dinah. Trenton and Preceptor both hustled the girl along, bus neither was able to annoy easu able extent. Time: 2:3214.

After Days of Pleasure Many of the Veterans Desert Indianapolis. ADDRESS OF THE COMMANDER-IN-CHIEF It is Endorsed by All the Old Soldiers Present at the Reunion-Proceedings of the Various G. A. R. Organizations Yesterday.

INDIANAPOLIS, Sept. 7 .- Many veterans have already gone, and all the outgoing trains were loaded. Many, however, remained to witness the grand pageant of tonight, representing the military history of the United States, tableaux and fireworks. The national bodies of the Grand Army of the Republic resumed their session this morning and continued them throughout the day. The committee on the address of the com mander-in-chief presented a report endorsing it in every particular and added: "The Grand Army of the Republic has no objection to the search light of investigation being turned on the pension list-the nation's roll of honor-but it does demand that it be the searchlight of love for and not hatred toward the brave men who bore the battle or their widows or orphans." The committee to devise ways and means to erect a monument to the rank and file of the union army, to be located at Washing ton, approved the organization known as the "National Reunion Monumental Association of Washington City." It has secured the dedication of a plat of ground for the monu-ment, hereafter to be known as Grand Army Place, which will be the site of future reunions in that city and on which it is pro-posed to erect a testimonial to the rank and file, to include soldiers on land as well as sailors and marines. Rev. A. B. Hendrick of West Liberty, O., was unanimously elected chaplain in-chief.

Committee on Pensions Reports. The committee on pensions presented a very lengthy report. Regarding the disability act of June, 1890, the report says: "This "This act was accepted by the surviving soldiers and by the people as a settlement of the question. Under the administration of that law the poorhouse gave up its veterans. The men who had borne the battle were cared for and the sacred trust accented and left as a legacy to the nation was faithfully administered. "Within a few months we hear with profound sorrow and regret that all this must be changed; that the construction of the law has been changed and the regulations and rules in reference to proof and ratings, under which more than 300,000 claims hav been allowed and paid, have been revoked and another construction of the law has been established and new regulations for proof and ratings, less favorable to claimants. have been adopted; that a board of revision has been organized in the pension office, charged with the duty of revising all these adjudicated claims in accordance with this new construction and such changed regulations as to proof and ratings. Under the changes thousands of pensions have been suspended without notice and thousands of pensioners have been dropped from the rolls. "To emphasize the viciousness of the situation and accusation, we learn that it is said, as though by authority, that it is expected that any of the pensioners so summarily suspended or dropped will be able to prove that they are still entitled to the pen-sions of which they have been deprived,'

thus saying in no uncertain voice that the burden is not upon the party alleging fraud. but that the government which they had preserved shall first, and with infamy by the charge, then sentence, and after the stigma had been effective, then concede to them, whose barriers and support of character have been thus undermined, the piti ful privilege of moving for a new trial upon the ground of newly discovered evidence.

There is considerable talk in Grand Army of the Republic circles today about the selection of Commander-m-Chief Adams. It selection of Commander-in-Chief Adams. It is claimed that Governor McKinley was on his way to this city for the purpose of placing General Hurst of Ohio in nomination for that office: that Adams' adherents learned of this and rushed through the election of Adams Governor McKinley, Hurst's friends say, was taken to a "free show" at Arm-strong park while this was going on. The resolutions were adopted in the other wards without much discussion, but the mayor seemed to think that they ought to be worded as to give Candidate tainments in honor of the Grand Army, that of this evening was probably the most imposing and beautiful. It consisted of a pageattry of lifteen floats, representing famous events in the nation's history elaborately built and accompanied by bril-liant pyrotechnic displays. Western Horses Capture the Coin at the Washington Park Meeting.

CHICAGO, Sept. 7.- [Special Telegram THE BEE.]-Today's events at Washington park were witnessed by a much larger growd than those of any previous day of the meeting. The races, with one or two exceptions, were uneventful. Axenite, the great 2-year-old, by Axtell, won his race quite handily, after dropping the third heat without any apparent cause. Georgia Lee, a rank outsider, won the Syear-old race. Margrave, the great 3-year-old, winner of the year, and The Conqueror, the Nebraska champion, were favorites. The Conqueror looked like a winner in both heats, but bad breaks lost him the race. The 2:12 class trot went to the favorite in very fast time. In the last heat Phoebe Wilkes reduced her mark 11 seconds, and went the fastest mile since the meeting opened. Charlie C won the 2:34 trot in hollow style. Western horses won every race with onception today. Summaries

The 2:35 trot was a good entertainer for the great crowd in the big grand stand on account of its close finish. The favorite, Betty King, gave it up to the heretofore unknown, Dan Velox. The 3-minuto pace went quite easily to the great Colorado filly, Bculah C. She is only 8 years old. Newsboy forced her out the second heat in 2:14%, which was the best he could do with his big knee, but she showed for her age. Dr. Mac cut no figure in the for her age.
