WORCESTER, Mass., Sept. 7.-Massa-chusetts prohibitionists nominated the following state ticket; For governor, Rev. A. L. Banker; lieutenant governor, R. T. Smith; secretary of state, Samuel T. Shapleigh; treasurer, W. H. Farnum, jr.; auditor, A. H. Evans, and attorney general, R. F. Raymond. The platform declares that local option has proved a failure, and demands full prohibition of the liquor traffic. It pronounces in favor of woman suffrage and demands that the legislature modify the Australian ballot in the interest of the minority parties.

Populists Denied Lake Front Privileges. CHICAGO, Sept. 7.-The populist party has taken a step which may result in bringing Mayor Harrison and Governor Altgeld into a direct clash of authority and widen the political breach which exists already between the followings of these two political aspirants. The populists want to hold meetings on the lake front. The mayor refuses to permit them to do so, and they have appealed to Governor Altgeld to intervene in their behalf.

Test of American Yachts.

NEW YORK, Sept. 7 .- Four as sturdy yachts as ever breasted the waves are off today in the first race to determine which shall have the honor of defending the American cup against visitors from over the sea. The Vigilant was officially measured yesterday and her racing length will be 96.35, and the Pilgrim's 93.31. The Jubilce and Colony were also measured this morning.

Asked for a Beceiver.

PORTLAND, Ind., Sept. 7.-Emil Bauer and William Jones, stockholders in the Gem Window Glass works at Dunkirk, this county, have filed a suit asking for a receiver for the company. There is no financial trouble, as the company is in a prosperous condition, but there is a disagreement among the stockholders and a conspiracy is charged against the men in control.

German Army Maneuvers.

METZ, Sept. 7.—The army maneuvers yesterday took place near Teterichen. The Eighteenth and Sixteenth army corps were opposed to each other. The former made a long but vain endeavor to capture the Sixteenth's position. The emperor returned to Urville in the afternoon, his guests again coming here for the night.
