OUR BELOVED LITTLE ONES.

BLESS 'EM.

The average American youngster acquires more practical knowledge in one year than his foreign cousin does in three thanks to our most perfect and world-renowned school system.

Of course, to please a boy in his apparel is no easy task, we admit. The best you can do in order to avoid a good deal of inconvenience, bring him to us, introduce him to one of our polite salesmen.

We still charge for a good knock-about suit, $1. Our $1.60 and $2 suits are finer than last year—make splendid school suits.

Next, of course, you want a hat to match. Show you a few hundred dozen of beauties. A good cloth hat for 25c, and a fine one for 35c; then as fine as you like to have.

Next "Shoes." We carry the kind that are rough on the boys and you don't pay shoe store prices either—90c for a splendid school shoe, finer in proportion 'till you reach $2.00.

Our latest catalogue contains samples of boys' wear; it will pay you to go through it. If you have not one send your address.
