The receips from the supper for the benefit of the DeLong mission amounted to about $40. This This would indicate that there must be a big in 15 cent meals, were it not for the fact that many previsons were donated, and many bought tickets who did not present them at the door. The mission ought to have several such benefits as it is doing a grand work.

Mr. Birdsall, whose gifts of song have done so much to add interest to the Chris-tian church meetings for the last year, will terminate his connection with the church and Mr. Allen next month. Arrangements have been made for a farewell concert to be given at Masonic temple on Thursday evening. A brilliant program has been provided, comprising the best local talent of Omaha and Council Bluffs.

Real estate men are complaining of the scarcity of desirable tenant houses and say they are unable to meet the demands made upon them by house hunters. They say there never were fewer desirable vacant residences in the city and the demand is greater than ever before. This encourages them in the belief that there is going to be good healthy growth in the real estate business this fall and winter. Ten members of the Ganymede Wheel club started out on the Sioux City run at 5 6'clock yesterday morning. They comprised the bardest riders in the club, and among them were Spooner, Barrett, Bixby, Dale, Williamson, Duquette, Carruthers, Pullman and Drew. It was the longest run the club has eyer taken, and with the greenten. has ever taken, and with the exception of Very dusty roads the conditions were favora-ble for the accomplishment of their arquous enterprise. The horse stolen from the stable at St. Bernard's hospital was recovered last night by Officer L. B. Cousins. It was found in the western part of the city, minus halter and bridle and was taken to Terwilliger's livery stable. Officer Cousins found another horse Saturday night that may also have been taken from its owner's stable without authority. It was a large bay and was also taken to Terwilliger's stable, where the owner can recover it.

Ganymede's Big Run.

All of the bicyclists who started on the great run from Council Bluffs to Sioux City yesterday morning returned on the 10 o'clock train last night with the exception of Captain Williamson and Dale. These two are the only members of the club who reached their destination. Barrett and Diquette kept with; them until they reached Sargent's Bluffs, seven miles from Sloux City, and being fearful that they could not reach the city in time to take the could not reach the city in time to take the b o'clock train for home, they concluded to go no further. Williamson and Dale missed the train and remained all night in Sioux City. The other members of the party were scattered along between River Sioux and Onawa, where they all, with the exception of Barrett and Daquette, congregated to wait for the train.

The run was the most remarkable in all respects that the club has ever undertaken. The distance by wagon road from the Biuffs to Sioux City is 115 miles, and 107 miles to Sargent's Bluffs. None of the boys dropped out until after they cleared sixty five miles. The roads in many places were covered with several inches of dust, especially between here and Missouri Valley. They were in splendid condition between the Valley and Onawa, but for twenty-five miles beyond there they were freshly plowed, and made the riders awfully weary. All the boys are proud of their magnificent run.

Frisky O.d Horse. Yesterday Peter Pearman, proprietor of the St. Joe house, suffered painful injuries, the result of a sudden decision on the part of his stand old family horse to demonstrate the fact that, although 25 years old, he could still make a lively rimaway if he had a decent sort of excuse for doing so. The excuse came in the breaking of the harness, whereupon the old horse improved the opportunity of snaking along at a lively speed the little two-wheeled market cart, in which Pearman was sented, together with a couple of kegs of beer. Beer kegs, man and all were summarily dumped near the Broadway Methodist church, a little too late for the morning service, however. Pearman was picked up in a badly battered condition, there being a scalb wound and a sprained ankle, besides several scratches and bruises. Fortunately none of them will prove very serious, and no bones were broken. his staid old family horse to demonstrate serious, and no bones were broken.

A Chronic Grain Thief. Last spring the Shugart Seed company of this city purchased a job lot of excellent timothy seed from a farmer, who claimed to live near Harlan and to own a few choice sections of farm lands in that vieinity. After the purchase of the seeds some one saw the fellow and recognized him as an ex-convict and an all-around crook. This information sub-sequently led to the arrest of the fellow, who sequently led to the arrest of the fellow, who was known in Harlan as J. C. Filmore. The seed had been stolen from Axline & Smith. Filmore had broken into their warehouse and had hauled the staff away by the wagon load. In the distrigt court Saturday at Harlan Filmore was found guilty of grand larceny, and Judge Thornell will give him his third term in the penitentary on Wednesday. Filmore's bete noir seems to be grain, he having been convicted three times of stealing enough of it from farmers times of stealing enough of it from farmers and dealers to give him three terms in the

Juniata Jottings. JUNIATA, Neb., Sept. 10.—[Special Telegram o The Bee. |-The dry weather stul coninues, but the farmers keep right on plowng and seeding. A large acreage of winter wheat will be sown here. Everybody is cut ting upall the corn they can, thus making good the shortage in the hay crop.

Juniata people have plenty of money, though times may be dull, as is evidenced by the way new improvements are going on all over this district, and by the rush to the World's fair and other places of interest.

There is some talk of locating the Adams county fair at Juniata again and people would be surprised at the success this city would make of it. Adams county needs as good a fair as any county in the state. It is in the lead in agricultural resources and the advantages and advertisement a good fair would give to the county would be of ines imable value.
