GREAT PARADE THROUGH THE GROUND.

Gov. Boies Leads the Column—His Tribute to the State and Invitation to the World—The General Exercises.

CHICAGO, Sept. 21.—[Special Telegram to The Bee.]—The procession swarmed throughout Jackson park all day. Of the two days celebration this was the biggest, the weather conditions as well as the program drawing an immense crowd.

Waiting for a Verdict.

CHICAGO, Ill., Sept. 21.—[Special to The Bee.]—Argument was resumed by the attorneys in the Ferris trial this morning. The instructions to the jury were quite lengthy and were mainly in favor of Ferris. The case was given to the jury late in the afternoon and they did not get up to the adjournment of court returned a verdict.

THE MEDICAL SOCIETY OF THE MISSOURI VALLEY

The medical session of the sixth year of the Medical Society of the Missouri Valley was held in Council Bluffs yesterday. Owing to hard rains, the World's fair and other demonstrations, the attendance was hardly up to its usual standard.

OFFICERS ELECTED.

During the afternoon session the following officers were chosen for the ensuing year: President, F. S. Thomas of Omaha; first vice president, A. F. Wright of Carroll; second vice president, Daniel Morton of St. Joseph; treasurer, T. B. Lacey of Council Bluffs; assistant secretary, V. L. Trenchard of Council Bluffs.

DEATH OF A QUAKER CHARACTER.

PORT DUBOIS, Pa., Sept. 21.—[Special Telegram to The Bee.]—Mrs. Mary Peterson died today at her home in Dayton. She was 58 years old and had never ridden on a railway train nor been inside of a railway car.

His Charm was a Hoax.

George Dolan, a swarman, was arrested last night on a warrant issued July 12 charging him with larceny. Dolan had managed to escape the officers until last night, when he was called home by the confinement of his wife. He had a lucky escape, for his wife's head, but the charm did not seem to be in working order.

Triumphant Democracy as Practiced by the Millionaire in London.

A few minutes before 10 o'clock this morning, says the Pall Mall Gazette, one of the most perfectly appointed and splendidly horsed coaches that has been seen in London for a year drove up to the door of the Metropolitan. The horses were four beautifully matched bright bays, with two grand creatures at the pole.

Army Competitors at Fort Sheridan Hampered by Heat.

CHICAGO, Sept. 21.—[Special Telegram to The Bee.]—The rifle and carbine contest of the United States army completed their known distance firing today. It was the most unfavorable day the competition has experienced. The light was ordinarily good, but there was an almost impenetrable mirage, and the wind blew a strong gale.
