Heavy Track and Cold Wind Proves Too Much for the California Sidewheeler-Outcome of the Day's Ruces-Base Ball Results.

St. Joseph, Mo., Sept. 22. - [Special Telegram to THE BEE |-Today's races were attended by 15,000 people. The racing was good, but a heavy wind and chilly atmosphere made the time slow. Moonstone won the unfinished 3:00 pace by a mistake of May Marshall who went to a bad break while passing the neld at the half.

Hal Braden won an easy victory in the 2:10 pace, outclassing his field .

Bismuth was much faster than his field in the 2:37 trot and won easily. The free-for-all trot went to Walter E. after dropping the third heat to Phoeb Wilkes. It was a sharp contest, but lacked excitement after the first heat, in which there was a neck and neck finish between Walter E, Nightingale and Phoeb Wilkes. The 2:23 trot was a hot contest. Black Ide won the first two heats in the home stretch but had to succumb to the Iowa mare, Bethel, driven by "Bob" Kneebs, in the third. The race was then carried over Flying Jib and Robert J went against the 2:04 pacing mark, but the former was pumped out in going to the half in a minute and three-quarters, and could only finish in Populists Decide on an Early Convention-Independents Preparing-Large Rally of Republicans in the First Ward -Other Political News.

The Seventh Ward Republican club met ast evening and declared for Clinton N. Powell for supreme judge, allowing him to name the ward delegation to the county convention that will select 108 delegates to the state convention at Lincoln.

B. H. Robison talked in favor of a thorough organization of the National League of Republican Clubs, and a resolution was adopted providing for the Seventh ward to join the

A resolution denouncing W. F. Gurley, Ed Simeral, W. S. Shoemaker and divers other epublicans and democrats as "ward heelers and disappointed office seekers" provoked a lively discussion. A motion to lay the resolution on the table was defeated by a vote of 30 to 21.

The resolution-was written on paper from the county judge's office, and that fact seemed to cause Judge Eller to take a lively interest in it.

He was much disappointed because it was not adopted, and moved that it go over for a veek. Once more he was destined to swallow a dose of grief, however, as the club by this time concluded to table the resolution, ofusing to censure those connected with ne citizens' movement in the terms desired by Eller and his friends.

C. N. Poweli was called for, and the an-ouncement of his candidacy pleased the club so much that he was instructed to pre-sent such names of delegates to the county convention as he might desire.

This was later changed by instructing Messrs, Breckenridge, Day and Taylor to as-

POPULISTS' MERRY WAR.

Lively Debate Over a Motion for an Early County Convention. The meeting of the people's party central committee last night was an exceedingly stormy one. The cyclone started as soon as the session convened at 8 o'clock, when Mr. Moriarity was declared entitled to repre sent his ward in the absence of the regularly constituted committeeman. A motion sub-sequently made by the gentleman in ques-tion increased the raging tempest. The motion was to the effect that the primaries should be held next Thursday and the convention the day following. In the heated discussion which followed Mr. Ever-ingham took an active part. Another comnitteeman jumped into the breach in the interest of many populists who are working on public works for the city and whose posi-tions might be jeopardized by an early con-Mr. Miller echoed these sentiments in n cep-voiced rear.

Then like Hascall arose, with proverbial egotism, and said that if the committee wanted to give him a chance to run for mayor it should hold the convention as soon as possible, as this would give him a better make a strong campaign. He enumerated all the things which he had accomplished during his councilmanic term in the interest of the laboring classes. in the interest of the laboring classes.

He announced that he was willing to donate a bakery to the populist who should happen to lose his job by showing his hand in an early convention. At the conclusion of his lengthy speech, in which he lauded himself to the skies, Hascall culogized Jim Kyner. Just before sitting down he presented an ultimatum. He would refuse to run for mayor in case the committee postponed the convention to a late day.

This thoroughly aroused Mr. Stastney's

This thoroughly aroused Mr. Stastney's ire, and he proceeded to roast lke Hascall to a barbecue finish. Moriarity pleaded for Hascall, and Chairian Ihm rushed to the rescue of the ambi-

Voriarity's motion for an early convention was finally carried by the narrow margin of five votes, and Hascall drew a long sigh of relief at his narrow escape from repudiation. First Ward Republicans.

The republicans of the First ward held one of the largest meetings of the campaign last night. By a unanimous vote C. S. Eigutter was Ernest Stuht roared loudly about caucuses, and was followed by Councilman Peter M. Back, who also filed a protest against the caucus plan, saying that if the people of the First ward wanted caucuses they should have them, but that he didn't believe that they wanted them. Bandhauser stated that the signing of his name to the call of the city commit-tee, in which he was made to appear as being opposed to the caucus plan, was en-tirely without his knowledge, and that his ideas were quite the opposite of what they had been represented to be.

Dr. Hanchett wanted to see plenty of candidates from the First, not merely for the council, but for the higher city and county offices. He suggested that nine delegates be selected by the caucus, to be approved by the primary meeting, to represent the ward at the convention.

E. J. Cornish thought that more attention should be given to the mayoralty contest, and that the very best man should be selected; in fact, that the contest in question should be made the issue of the campaign.

He made the suggestion that the delegates

Yesterday a gentlemanly looking fellow appeared at the residence of Mr. F. L. Haller, Eighteenth and Davenport streets, with a nicely tied package in his hand and an express book under his arm. Ringing the bell, he inquired for Mr. Haller and was told that he was not at home. He stated to the norson answering the bell that he had a C. O. D. package for Mr. Haller from New York, and wanted to know what to do with it. The package bore the wax stame of the United States Express company, and the book was the property of the same company, so that everything was clear on its face. The lady said she would call up Mr. Hailer and ascertain if he expected a package from New York, but as luck would have it Mr Haller was absent from the Lininger & Met-calf effice. Believing everything was straight the lady paid the express charges on the package of books as she supposed, amounting to $1.65, and receipted for the same in the United States Express company's book

Search lights have become indispensable to steamers of all classes and in military and naval operations. By their use objects miles away can be revealed and illumined in the darkest night, and their powerful beams of light can be thrown in any direction. One of the earliest applications of the search light in marine work was to vessels passing through Suez canal. Formerly the passage could only be made in daylight, and was very tedious and costly; now the lectric light is at the service of every ship as it enters the canal, and the journey is, in nearly every case, pursued uninterruptedly. A most excellent innovation has been made by the Suez canal authorities, who have pronounced that it shall be obligatory after October 1 next on all vessels passing through the canal by light to employ an apparatus for dividing the light of the projector into two divergent rays. Approaching ressels may, by this means, travel right up to each other without their respective elmsmen being blinded. The diverging apparatus which is to be used has been devised by one of the agents of the company,

Cows Drunk on Green Corn. When Farmer Jacob Christman of Pottstown, Pa., went to a pasture the ther day he was astonished at the antics of his large drove of cows. They were all staggering about like so many drunken men. They bellowed, three their heads and tails in the air and acted like circus horses prancing to the time of a brass band. It was the worst lot of jigsters the farmer had ever seen The cows were intexicated, but how they came to be so was a mystery until A. K. Evans, a veterinary surgeon, was called. He found that the cattle had broken into a cornfield and the green corn they had caten fermented in their stomachs, causing intoxication.
